

RESOLUTION OF
THE BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS
EAGLE COUNTY, COLORADO

Establishment of Basalt Regional Library District

WHEREAS, the residents of the greater Basalt area have inadequate library facilities and wish to improve them; and

WHEREAS, the Basalt area cannot most efficiently or fully be served by either the Pitkin or Eagle County library districts; and

WHEREAS, Colorado law provides for the establishment of a regional library district by the legislative bodies of two or more governmental units; and

WHEREAS, Eagle County desires to join with Pitkin County in forming a Basalt Regional Library District,

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED:

1. That, pursuant to 24-90-110, Colorado Revised Statutes, 1973, the Eagle County Board of Commissioners authorize establishment of the Basalt Regional Library District.

2. That a member of the Eagle County Board of Commissioners, Dale F. Grant, is appointed to a committee as provided by 24-90-111, Colorado Revised Statutes, 1973, which committee shall appoint the Board of Trustees of the Basalt Regional Library District, which district shall be coterminous with the Roaring Fork District #1 Re School District.

3. That the residents of said district shall not be taxed more than the legal mill levy limit set by statute.

4. That the Board of Trustees of the Basalt Regional Library District shall submit a budget to the Eagle and Pitkin

County Commissioners each year for approval.

5. That Eagle County shall donate to the Basalt Regional Library District the books owned by it which are presently in the existing Basalt library.

Dated this 28 day of December, 1976.
