Notes to Financial Statement For the Year Ended December 31, 2010

1. Authorizing Legislation

The Colorado Agricultural Development Authority (the Authority) is an independent public body politic and corporate and political Subdivision, created June 19, 1981 by an Act of the General Assembly of the State of Colorado.

The purpose of the Authority is to provide low interest financing to Colorado farmers, ranchers and agricultural processors for capital expenditures necessary for agricultural production.

The Authority may issue tax-exempt bonds and notes or other obligations, which shall not constitute a debt of the State of Colorado, its legislature or any political subdivision other than the Authority. Obligations are issued by and are the limited obligations of the Authority, payable solely from collections from the borrowing entity.

2. Nature of Funds

The funds maintained by the Authority are described below:

Operating Fund – The operating fund was established by the Authority to account for expenses necessary for the operation of the Authority.

Bond Funds – Resolutions adopted by the Authority and bond documents intended to implement the resolutions establish the specific funds to account for the proceeds of the bond issues and debt service payments. (Also see Note 4)

3. Accounting Policies

The Authority's financial statements reflect the accrual basis of accounting.

4. Bond Revenues

The Authority may impose upon any borrower a service fee in amounts determined by the Authority. These fees may be used to pay various expenses of the Authority, including administrative and operating expenses, and to provide funds for anticipated future expenses. These fees are payable in part at the time of application and in part at the time of closing and thereafter annually on December 15th for the length of the loan period.

The Honorable John Hickenlooper
State Capitol Building
200 East Colfax Ave.
Denver, CO 80203

Dear Governor Hickenlooper:

This is the twenty-ninth annual report of the Colorado Agricultural Development Authority. In 2010, one bond for beginning farmers and ranchers was issued. The amount of bonds issued in 2010 through the Beginning Farmer program was $199,150.

Although the current economy has had a very negative impact on the Beginning Farmer Program, the Authority continues to look for new opportunities to assist the Colorado agricultural industry with its financing needs.

Sincerely,

Mel Rettig
Chairman

Jim Rubingh
Secretary

Xc: Representative Frank McNulty
Senator Brandon Shaffer
