

Welcome! Colorado is well-known for its tender beef, luscious lamb and fresh produce. Combine these quality products with Colorado's finest chefs, and you have the perfect meal.

The restaurants in this guide are committed to supporting Colorado agriculture and using the best products Colorado offers. When you see the Colorado Cuisine logo at a restaurant, you know you are getting the freshest, highest-quality products available. Be sure to visit the Statewide, Caterer and Other Dining Services sections starting on page 20.

Visit these fine restaurants and... Taste Colorado!

Mountains

Whether you are skiing in the winter or hiking in the summer, Colorado's mountain restaurants offer some of the finest dining in the state. Feast on hearty fare including lamb, game meats and fish.

Front Range

From Fort Collins to Pueblo, the Front Range offers a variety of culinary options. Enjoy beef and pork accompanied by potatoes, carrots, onions and broccoli, all produced in Colorado.

Western Slope

Colorado's Western Slope is home to high altitude orchards and vineyards. Juicy peaches and sweet apples add a special flavor to many dishes. Be sure to have a glass of one of the state's award-winning wines with your meal.

San Luis Valley

The San Luis Valley is nationally known for its potatoes. Whether you prefer baked, fried or scalloped, potatoes complement any meal.

Eastern Plains

Beans, corn, sunflowers and wheat blanket the Eastern Plains. Some of these raw ingredients help chefs make delicious dishes like chili and homemade bread.

Best Use of Colorado Food and Wine

Restaurant Six89
Carbondale

Each winning restaurant received $1000 and a trophy recognizing their support of Colorado wines. All three of these restaurants have supported Colorado wines for many years and have also incorporated Colorado-grown ingredients on their menus. It is a great honor to have such fine restaurants supporting Colorado's agricultural producers. The Colorado Wine Industry Development Board, the Colorado Proud Program and the Colorado Department of Agriculture are happy to recognize these outstanding restaurants.

If you know of a restaurant that uses Colorado products in their menu and is not listed in this directory, please call the Colorado Department of Agriculture Markets Division at (303) 239-4119.

The Colorado Proud Restaurant Guide is provided as a service to members of the Colorado Proud program. A listing in this brochure does not constitute an endorsement by the Colorado Department of Agriculture.
