Colorado Proud Restaurant Guide

Printed on recycled paper (made in the USA) with vegetable based inks which are ultra low VOC.

Welcome! Colorado is well-known for its tender beef, luscious lamb and fresh produce. Combine these quality products with Colorado's finest chefs, and you have the perfect meal.

The restaurants in this guide are committed to supporting Colorado agriculture and using the best products Colorado offers. When you see the Colorado Cuisine logo at a restaurant, you know you are getting the freshest, highest-quality products available. Be sure to visit the Statewide, Catering and Other Dining Services sections starting on page 23.

Visit these fine restaurants and... Taste Colorado!

Whether you are skiing in the winter or hiking in the summer, Colorado's mountain restaurants offer some of the finest dining in the state. Feast on hearty fare including lamb, game meats and fish.

From Fort Collins to Pueblo, the Front Range offers a variety of culinary options. Enjoy beef and pork accompanied by potatoes, carrots, onions and broccoli, all produced in Colorado.

Western Slope-Page 17

San Luis Valley-Page 16

Colorado's Western Slope is home to high altitude orchards and vineyards. Juicy peaches and sweet apples add a special flavor to many dishes. Be sure to have a glass of one of the state's award-winning wines with your meal.

The San Luis Valley is nationally known for its potatoes. Whether you prefer baked, fried or scalloped, potatoes complement any meal.

Beans, corn, sunflowers and wheat blanket the Eastern Plains. Some of these raw ingredients help chefs make delicious dishes like chili and homemade bread.
