Colorado Proud Restaurant Guide

Welcome! Colorado is well-known for its tender beef, luscious lamb and fresh produce. Combine these quality products with Colorado's finest chefs, and you have the perfect meal.

The restaurants in this guide are committed to supporting Colorado agriculture and using the best products Colorado offers. When you see the Colorado Cuisine logo at a restaurant, you know you are getting the freshest, highest-quality products available. Be sure to visit the Statewide, Catering and Other Dining Services sections starting on page 27. Information is subject to change, so please call to confirm hours.

Visit these fine restaurants and... Taste Colorado!

Mountains-Page 18

Whether you are skiing in the winter or hiking in the summer, Colorado's mountain restaurants offer some of the finest dining in the state. Feast on hearty fare including lamb, game meats and fish.

Front Range-Page 3

From Fort Collins to Pueblo, the Front Range offers a variety of culinary options. Enjoy beef and pork accompanied by potatoes, carrots, onions and broccoli, all produced in Colorado.

Western Slope-Page 21

Colorado's Western Slope is home to high altitude orchards and vineyards. Juicy peaches and sweet apples add a special flavor to many dishes. Be sure to have a glass of one of the state's award-winning wines with your meal.

San Luis Valley-Page 21

The San Luis Valley is nationally known for its potatoes. Whether you prefer baked, fried or scalloped, potatoes complement any meal.

Eastern Plains-Page 3

Beans, corn, sunflowers and wheat blanket the Eastern Plains. Some of these raw ingredients help chefs make delicious dishes like chili and homemade bread.
