

Strategic Policy Initiatives

The Department of Education has identified several strategic policy initiatives for FY 2019-20 and beyond. For this performance evaluation, the Department has updated progress on the initiatives identified in the FY2020 Performance Plan that capture the Department's strategic and operational priorities, and reflect the overall direction as identified by Department leadership. The updates reflect data as of July 1, 2020. Additional detail for these, and other, strategic policy initiatives is available in the Department's Performance Plan, which may be accessed here.

Key Initiative 1: Strong Foundations. Support high quality early learning and literacy for all students.

Research shows that proficiency in reading by the end of third grade enables students to make the shift from learning how to read to using reading skills to master more complex subjects. In fact, students who cannot read by the end of third grade are four times more likely to drop out of high school. By focusing on support for our youngest students and their educators, the department can ensure more students are reading at grade level by the end of third grade and build a strong foundation for continued success in school. Due to the COVID-19 pandemic and suspension of in-person instruction, CDE does not have data does not have all 2020 data typically reported for this key initiative (see details on the subsequent page). However, CDE continues to implement the changes from S.B. 19-199 and the READ Act in support of this goal.

Key Initiative 2: All Means All. Expand access and opportunity for historically underserved students.

In Colorado, students from a number of historically underserved backgrounds – specifically those from economically challenged communities, highly mobile families, racial minority groups, English Learners and students with disabilities – continue to fall short of their academic potential and are missing the skills and knowledge they need to succeed in today's economy and thrive in our communities. By concentrating on equity as a foundational construct of our work at CDE, we will empower schools and districts in their efforts to increase access and opportunity and ultimately reduce the pervasive influence that systemic inequities have on student outcomes Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, data on the percent of state-reported suspensions and expulsions involving underserved students, based on an unduplicated count are delayed. CDE will continue to track these data and report on progress when these data are available.

Key Initiative 3: Quality Schools. Prioritize and maximize support for schools and districts identified for academic improvements.

Schools and districts that are identified for improvement through the state and federal systems all have different needs based on the context of their communities. By working with each district and school to understand their needs and invest in evidence-based strategies to be successful, we will help them progressively improve and maintain their academic performance. The percent of districts with eligible schools that applied for support and/or funding through the new single application (EASI) decreased from 58% in FY 2019 to 54% in FY 2020. In FY 2020, less overall funding was available through the EASI application, making the application more competitive. In addition, some districts with eligible schools are still implementing past awards and did not choose to apply for new funds. Due to the suspension of in-person instruction and pause in the accountability system for 2020, CDE will not have be able to report data from the frameworks in 2020.

Key Initiative 4: More Options. Expand high school options to ensure all students area ready for college and/or living-wage jobs.

Students who graduate and work in Colorado need in-demand skills that meet business, industry and higher education standards. Three out of four jobs in Colorado (three million jobs currently) require education or training beyond high school. By increasing options for high school students and fostering expansion of successful high school models, we can ensure that at least 66 percent of the class of 2022 will earn a postsecondary credential, certificate or degree within five years. When we achieve this goal, we will fuel Colorado's economy with educated students who are prepared for a college education, a good paying job or military service. In FY 2019, 88.3% (held constant from 88.25%) of students obtained a high school credential within six years, and 38% (up from 35%) of students earned college credit in high school (data are lagged one year). FY 2020 data on postsecondary credentials, degrees, and certificates will be available in February 2023.

Key Initiative 5: Educators Matter. Develop a strong pipeline of high-quality teachers and principals and provide deeper support for school and district leaders

Research shows that teachers have a bigger impact on student performance than any other school-based factor. And the number one reason teachers leave is lack of support by a high-quality principal. We can learn from the workforce development approaches of public and private industries that focus on growing talent in a strategic and intentional way by recruiting, developing and supporting their workforce. By developing, deploying and supporting talent management and human capital development strategies for districts and schools, we can ensure that every classroom has an effective educator and all students are prepared for college, career and life. In FY 2020, CDE issued 6,341 initial licenses, representing a 9% decrease over the prior year. On the other hand, the statewide teacher turnover rate decreased from 16.39% to 15.78%.

Operational Measures

Strong Foundations: Support high quality early learning and literacy for all students.

Strategic Activities: Promote and develop high-quality, evidence-based early learning and literacy strategies; strengthen partnerships with CDHS and other state and local agencies, communities and libraries to support early learning and literacy in preschool through third grade; support districts in implementing full-day kindergarten programs.

*These data represent the percentage of students no longer identified with an SRD in third grade when previously identified with an SRD at some time during their K-2 experience. For this analysis, students were required to have data at every time point for the specific cohort. Data are also reported annually on a lag, so FY 2021 data will be available in the fall of 2021. FY20 data are not available as the READ Act data collection was suspended in Spring 2020 due to the suspension of in-person instruction.

Due to the suspension of in-person instruction in Spring 2020, CMAS assessments were not administered in FY20.

All Means All: Expand access and opportunity for historically underserved students.

Strategic Activities: Develop the capacity to expand access, opportunities and a sense of belonging for students to close equity gaps; expand engagement with districts and other external partners to address issues of equity, access, and opportunity through our grant programs; support school and district efforts to develop school climates that create a sense of belonging; implement and evaluate the impact of department programs that deploy resources and supports aimed at increasing equity for different disaggregated groups of historically underserved students.
