Search for School Library Media Consultant

The Library Development Unit of the Colorado State Library announces that the School Library Media Senior Consultant opening has been posted through the Colorado Department of Education. Applications are due by April 25, 2001. This position provides technical assistance and leadership for school media services. The person works closely with Regional Library Service Systems to meet networking, training, and informational needs of the Systems, BOCES, school districts, and Regional Education Assistance Centers; develops continuing education programming statewide; and assists in implementing the Strategic Plan for Libraries. If interested, see <http://www.cde.state.co.us/cdemgmt/HR/jobs.htm>.

Public Library Annual Reports Now Due

The deadline for submitting public library annual reports was March 15, 2001. Libraries that have not completed their reports should go to the online survey at <http://www.thelibraryplace.com/eserv.cfm> and log on to Bibliostat Collect. All public library entities in Colorado received a letter at the beginning of February with instructions and login information. Contact Rochelle Logan at rochellelogan@earthlink.net or 303-866-6927 if you have questions.

Libnet Listserv Provides Ready Communication

A new brochure is available with instructions about signing up for Libnet, the Colorado library community's easiest avenue for communication. Libnet is a discussion form for E-mail users and has more than 800 members. You can easily scroll through subject lines of the messages to get to the ones most pertinent to you. Visit <http://www.cemacolorado.org> to get the new brochure and instructions to sign up.

LSTA Local Needs Grants Announced

The Colorado State Library has awarded nearly $175,000 in grants to schools and libraries throughout the state. The funds are part of the federal Library Services and Technology Act for local needs projects. This funding supports improvements in libraries that serve schools or the public. Projects receiving grant awards for 2001-2002 are available at <http://www.cde.state.co.us/cdelib/LSTA/index.htm>.
