Last Notice: Follow the Digital Road

Register now for the Resource Sharing Board Annual Meeting, "Follow the Digital Road." This two day-event, October 4 and 5, includes speakers on e-books, online databases being trial-tested this fall, and information on digital government in Colorado, virtual universities and online K12 schools. Agenda and registration info are available online at Follow the Digital Road web site.

Regional Systems & EBSCO Discounts Available for Smaller Libraries

Each year Regional System directors set aside money to assist with statewide projects. This year the money will go to help small libraries pay for the first year of EBSCO costs. For details, visit the EBSCO web site.

Free Online Database Trials Run October through November

The Acquisition of Information Resources Statewide Committee, the Colorado State Library and BCR are sponsoring trials of eight databases this fall. Access to all of these resources will be FREE to Colorado libraries during October and November.

Vendors will give presentations on their databases at the "Follow the Digital Road" meeting October 4 and 5. Visit the web site for details on the Free Online Database Trials.

Free Microfiche Machine Offered

The Orthopedic Physicians of Colorado office has a Bruning 969 microfiche machine to donate to any library or agency that can use it. You will have to make arrangements to pick the machine up. The office is at 799 E. Hampden in Denver. For information, contact Linda Morris or MJ at the office, 303-788-6716.
