From the Director

Change — it is something no one really likes but happens all the time. The old adage that “the more things change, the more they stay the same” we hope is true at CTBL. As you read along in this newsletter, you will read about staff changes. We know it is hard to have our reader advisors change but we hope that each new RA still provides you with the same great customer service. We hope that does not change.

We are aware that with USPS postal changes that took effect in January, it has compromised the transit time of your books. It is just taking longer. So we have raised the number of books we send to patrons so you will always have books to read.

Check out the Friends of CTBL page or follow me on Twitter.

SAVE THE DATE! Wine, Friends & Jazz

The Friends of CTBL will be hosting a fundraiser on Saturday September 24th from 6:30 to 9 p.m.

Stacey Donaldson of Denver 7 News will be our emcee and Master of Ceremonies. Erik Weihenmayer, of Boulder, Colorado the only blind mountain climber to climb Everest is donating a private hike for 15.

We can use your help by spreading the word. One objective in fundraising is to broaden our community.

CTBL Reads — Reading Around the World

For this upcoming year we will be reading books that are translated from another language. There is a great Ted Talk about this topic.

http://www.ted.com/talks/ann\_morgan\_my\_year\_reading\_a\_book\_from\_every\_country\_in\_the\_world

The next CTBL Reads begins September 12th and we will be reading:

My Grandmother Asked Me to Tell You She's Sorry by Fredrik Backman DB083204 translated from Swedish.

Seven-year-old Elsa is acknowledged as weird. The grandmother she lives with is flat-out crazy, but she shares tales of the fairyland of Miamas. When her grandmother dies, Elsa is entrusted with delivering letters of apology and learns about her place in the world. 2013/14.

Call the library to sign up, have a copy of the book sent to you and get on the list for the book talk, phone number and passcode.

Staff Updates

We have had many changes in the last two months. We said goodbye to Mike Toth, our mail operations manager as he moved to WY and Jim Sullivan who took a job 10 minutes from his home. They both left CTBL in July.

Tod Zeigler is our new manager who comes to us with over 20 years experience in operations. Most recently he was Operations Supervisor at Tricor America. Lily Li replaces Jim and comes to us from China and most recently worked as a sales manager.

Staff Updates continued from page 3

In August we also bid a fond farewell to Katherine Ingraham, a reader advisor, who left for Cincinnati in a family move. We are sorry to see her leave so soon. Replacing her is K Ann Alderete who came to us from Talking Book Publisher, and NLS contract studio.

Tech Talk — Online Catalog Passwords

Many of our patrons have asked about being able to change their password for our online catalog. While there is not a direct way to change your password when you are logged into the system, you can change your password using the "Click here to recover access to your account" link on the sign-in page:

<https://ctbl.cde.state.co.us/co1aopac/login.jsf>

This link will take you to a page that asks for your patron ID number and an email address. Once you enter that information, select the "send recovery email" button. The system will send you an email with a link to reset your password. Your new password will need to have at least 6 characters.

For patrons who do not currently use the online catalog, you would be able to set-up your password using the process above. You would just need to know your patron ID number. If you need that information, contact the library by email: ctbl.info@cde.state.co.us or by calling 303-727-9277 or 1-800-685-2136 and asking for a Reader Advisor.

Magazines: A complete listing is available on request.

Online Databases now available @ www.myCTBL.org

We have databased that patrons can access from your computer. You will need your patron number to access them. A highlight of the individual databases available is: Consumer Health Complete — provides convenient access to easily understandable health and medical information. Consumers can search and browse within medical encyclopedias, popular reference books, and magazine articles.

For more information and to explore these databases and how to access them in detail, please go to:

<http://www2.cde.state.co.us/ctbl/collection/tbdatabases.html>

Volunteers — Rare Gems

A volunteer is like a rare gem. When placed in the right setting and cared for, they will shine and give pleasure to all who see them. — Unknown

CTBL has many volunteers who are real gems! They light up the library with their joyful spirit and endless energy, making our work lighter and our days fly by just trying to keep up with them.

Ellen C. has been the driving force behind a team of volunteers finding and reaching out to community partners who can help us reach more book-lovers and future patrons in every small community in Colorado. She is using skills she developed in her professional career in sales and marketing.

April P. has joined us just for the summer months and has successfully solicited donations for the Friends of CTBL's first fundraiser. Then she turns her creativity and enthusiasm to finding and making the decorations, too. She has made our event sparkle through her talent as a middle school music teacher.

Tisha D., Andrea L., Serena M., Mary L., Al B., are each librarians who use their professional training and experience to help in cataloging, reviewing, circulation, and throughout CTBL. It is hard to imagine getting by without them!

We have so many more gems in our library; people who bring their talents, expertise, and skills to make our services shine.

Post Office Problems? Here's What to Do!

We hope that all of our patrons know that any of the library's books, machines, or equipment sent to the library via U.S. mail should ship postage free. Simply write "Free Matter for the Blind and Physically Handicapped" in the upper right-hand corner, where postage would normally go. Any book order forms or typed large-print correspondence (not handwritten) sent to the library through the U.S. mail also ships as "Free Matter for the Blind."

This service is available in every city, county, state, and territory in the U.S. There is no such thing as a city or U.S. Post Office that does not participate in the program. The U.S. Postal Service is paid annually by the U.S. government to support this program. And all of our patrons, because you were certified to enroll in our service, qualify to use the "Free Matter for the Blind" service.

Following are some things you can do to expedite your post office experience:

- Make sure materials are addressed to us at the "Colorado Talking Book Library". Your post office should be very familiar with handling our materials.
  - Remember to leave paper letters unsealed to comply with postal regulations.
  - Make sure you're at a U.S. Postal Service Office. FedEx and UPS do *not* participate in the "Free Matter for the Blind" program.

It seems that no matter how well we might know the rules, individual postal employees might not! Here are some things to do if you encounter any hardships when trying to return library materials to us:

- Keep cool and explain again that you are sending back library materials for the blind and print disabled and that you are a member of the National Library Service for the Blind and Physically Handicapped.
- Ask to speak to the Postmaster and have her/him explain specifically WHY they won't accept the material as free matter.

Remember with which post office you had the problem and the names of any employees with whom you spoke. Many cities have more than one post office, and we will want to know specifically where the trouble happened. Then, contact us! We have a USPS postal liaison in Denver, and we will bring the matter to the liaison on your behalf.

Save any receipts! If you were misled into paying postage, we may ask you to send us a copy of your receipt.

Resource of Interest — Are you a Veteran with a Visual Impairment?

Did you know that the Department of Veterans Affairs provides health and rehabilitative services to help you overcome the everyday challenges of vision loss?

All U.S. military veterans, whether they served during war or peace, whether service connected or non-service connected may be eligible.

VIST Coordinators are case managers who coordinate services for veterans with vision problems that impact their safety and independence. They can assist with:

- VA Eligibility and enrollment
- Review of veteran's benefits
- Referrals to VA inpatient, outpatient and in home programs for assessments and training.
- All adaptive aids recommended during training are provided to veterans as part of their rehabilitation program.

For more information contact the Visual Impairment Services Team (VIST) Coordinator nearest you:

Collection News — Featured New Titles

Descriptive Video Feature: For Kids

These DVDs and Blu-Rays have descriptive video embedded in each disc. You can turn-on this feature by following directions starting at the disc's main menu.

Children's picture books on DVD were purchased for children with visual and/or learning disabilities. The picture children's titles are similar to the classic public television show "Reading Rainbow" and feature a narrator reading the book accompanied by an animated version of the book's original illustrations. Each of these DVDs has both descriptive video and caption features that help children develop reading skills and build their vocabulary. The Magic School Bus DVD's are from the PBS series of the same name.

Picture Books

Friends of the CTBL Board

As most readers of this publication are aware, CTBL is blessed in having a strong and creative Friends of the CTBL Board whose mission is to assist the library by raising money to enhance library revenue beyond the budget provided by the State of Colorado. The Friends are crucial to this library and its ability to serve its patrons. The board is currently seeking interested candidates. They are particularly interested in those with management level experience or who will contribute to fundraising efforts. Meetings are held the third Tuesday night of January, April, July and October from 5:30 - 7:30 p.m. Attendance in person is required and transportation is not reimbursed.

Legacy Gifts

Legacy gifts to the Friends of CTBL are a vital way to ensure ongoing support for all the services the library provides to patrons. The Friends have established Eyes to the Future that honors and recognizes the generosity and vision of patrons, families and friends who have chosen to leave a legacy through their estates or other deferred gifts.

We invite you to become a member of Eyes to the Future. Enrollment in this honorary group is simply a matter of advising us about your plans to make a legacy gift, such as a bequest in a will or living trust, or designating The Friends of CTBL as beneficiary of an individual retirement plan, 401k or life insurance policy. The Friends of CTBL is a public 501 c 3 charity and the tax ID is 23-7243950.

Contributions to The Friends of the Colorado Talking Book Library and The Colorado Talking Book Library

An additional way to contribute to either the Friends or to CTBL is through a charitable bequest as part of a will or through life insurance. You do not have to rewrite your current document but can add a written amendment called a codicil. Such a bequest only becomes irrevocable at your death. Giving to the library helps support the programs and service we provide to our patrons and helps to secure the future.

AmazonSmile

The AmazonSmile Foundation donates 0.5% of the purchase price of eligible products to charitable organizations. If you make purchases through Amazon, try AmazonSmile and designate The Friends of CTBL as a recipient of charitable donations. Several patrons have already done this. Thanks!
