OF THE

STATE OF COLORADO

ŝ

To His Excellency

GEORGE A. CARLSON, Governor of Colorado.

Sir: In compliance with the requirements of the statutes, I have the honor to submit herewith the Thirty-Third Annual Report of the Insurance Department of Colorado, containing a synopsis of the financial statements of all insurance companies and fraternal benefit societies authorized to transact business in this State during the year 1914, together with a detailed statement of the income and disbursements of the Insurance Department for the fiscal year ended November 30, 1914, and such comments and recommendations as the public interests seem to demand.

> D. M. ROLPH, Commissioner of Insurance.

Report of the Commissioner of Insurance

April 15, 1915.

To His Excellency GEORGE A. CARLSON. Governor of Colorado.

During the year 1914 there were 332 insurance organi-Sir: zations operating in Colorado under the surpervision of the Insurance Department. The total insurance premiums collected. from the citizens of our Sfate during that period were $12,455,882.40, an increase of approximately $400,000 over the vear 1913.

Notwithstanding that insurance protection in general has increased in quality and volume, fire insurance protection in this State decreased slightly in volume, and a survey of the financial condition of fire insurance companies shows that they are operating on a lower rate of premium and at a higher expense ratio with consequent decreasing profits to stockholders.

Life insurance in Colorado increased from 1913 as follows: The number of policies from 248,214 to 257,100; insurance in force from $333,737,970 to $337,538,665.

The quality of protection offered by all companies is growing better owing to the improvement in financial and managerial methods and is materially assisted by the increased efficiency of the supervision exercised by the various insurance departments.

WORK OF THE DEPARTMENT

General Supervision.—The State Insurance Department was established and is maintained for the purpose of protecting the public against insolvent insurance companies, and those engaged in dishonest and unlawful practices. In order to properly discharge this duty, the Commissioner must keep informed, not only as to the financial condition of over three hundred companies and fraternal societies doing business in Colorado, but must watch closely the methods of these companies in dealing with the public. While it is impossible for an Insurance Department to supervise in detail the operations of so many companies without a very large force of examiners, the annual financial statements of all insurance companies are closely inspected and the Department is worked to the full limit of its capacity in guarding the public against companies which are impaired or insolvent, those whose investments are unsound, and those which are using dishonest, unlawful or technical methods to evade payment of just claims. Inquiries, Examinations, Etc.—The laws of this State make it the duty of the Commissioner to investigate violations of the insurance laws, and to examine the financial condition of companies when, from information or evidence, such action appears necessary. It is the policy of the Department to examine all Colorado companies at least once in three years, and foreign companies only when a special reason develops for so doing. Examinations requiring more than ordinary time and expense are only undertaken after a preliminary survey has developed the necessity for making them. All examinations are made with the approval of the Governor. During 1914 the following examinations were made:

Guardian Casualty and Guaranty Company, of Salt Lake City, Utah, by the Insurance Departments of Utah, Colorado, Idaho, and Wyoming. Favorable report.

The Merchants Fire Insurance Company, of Denver, Colorado, by the Colorado Insurance Department. Favorable report.

American Woodmen, of Denver, Colorado, by the Colorado Insurance Department. Favorable report.

Arizona Fire Insurance Company, of Phoenix, Arizona, by the Colorado Insurance Department. Favorable report.

United Artisans, of Portland, Oregon, by the Insurance Departments of Oregon, Idaho, California, Washington, and Colorado. Favorable report.

Aegis Life Insurance Company, of Denver, Colorado, by the Insurance Departments of Utah, Wyoming, Idaho, and Colorado. The Aegis Life Insurance Company later merged with the Central States Life Insurance Company, of St. Louis, Missouri.

Northwestern Fire and Marine Insurance Company, of Minneapolis, Minnesota, by the Colorado Insurance Department. Report favorable.

New Amsterdam Casualty Company, of New York, by the Colorado Insurance Department. Report favorable.

Central States Life Insurance Company, of St. Louis, Missouri, by the Insurance Departments of Montana, Missouri, and Colorado. Report favorable.

Complaints.—The efficiency and usefulness of the Depart ment are demonstrated by its service to the public in the matter of settling complaints. The public has been frequently notified that all complaints will be given prompt attention, and that those having grievances against agents or companies may have the provisions of their contracts analyzed and explained to them by the Department. The object is to make the person complaining understand both the benefits and the restrictions of his contract, and by making these matters clear, expensive lawsuits are often prevented, and a valuable service is rendered to the policyholder. The Commissioner does not undertake to perform the functions of an attorney, nor to determine questions that belong to the courts, but simply endeavors to give the complainant a correct understanding of the contract in order that he may know his rights and decide what course to pursue. While this has materially increased the work of the Department, the results are very satisfactory.

Bulletins.—The practice of issuing monthly bulletins to the public was discontinued under the former administration, although the public demand for these bulletins demonstrated that the publicity policy of the Department met with the general approval of the insuring public. The people of Colorado are entitled to know the condition of weak companies, the names of companies that have violated the laws, and of those practicing unfair methods. This information is of no value if buried in the Department files, and I respectfully suggest that the Commissioner be given anthority to resume the practice of issuing bulletins from time to time.

Operations of New Law.—The new Insurance Code which became effective July 15, 1913, on the whole, has operated in a satisfactory manner. We found the section relating to agents and solicitors inadequate and the Department introduced into the Twentieth General Assembly a bill to amend this section and enable the Commissioner to exercise much closer and more effective supervision over local representatives. This bill closely follows the Massachusetts code and incorporates the recommendations on this subject by the National Convention of Insurance Commissioners. Much of the evil now prevalent in the insurance world would disappear, or could be avoided, if none but competent, intelligent and trustworthy persons were licensed by the State. Since the license issued by the Commissioner is and properly can be taken by the public as a guarantee of the fitness and honesty of the agent receiving it, we suggest the advisability of licensing as agents and brokers only such persons as successfully pass an examination as to their ability and fitness.

The 1913 Insurance Code provided for the compulsory deposit of reserves by domestic life insurance companies. The opportunity to misrepresent the policy to the prospect, who invariably assumed that the face of the policy was deposited with the Insurance Department and that the funds of the State were behind the contract, has created an unsatisfactory condition, and the deposit of reserves has not been of sufficient benefit to the assured to offset the evil attendant upon the misrepresentation by the agent. The amendment repealing the compulsory deposit of reserves effective 1915 does not affect the statutory deposit of capital.

The 1913 Code was also amended to give the Insurance Commissioner greater supervision over insurance companies while in the promotion period; also to protect Colorado insurance agents from overhead writing by the large New York and Chicago brokerage firms. Altogether, the amendments enacted by the Twentieth General Assembly to the 1913 Insurance Code will broaden the work of the Department and very materially increase the protection to the public.

License Clerk.—The supervision over agents has been much improved and the revenue of the Department increased by the work of the License Clerk, who is charged with the duties of checking up all brokers and agents to see that they have licenses. Several hundreds of dollars in license fees have been received during the past year as a result of his investigation of various agencies.

RECOMMENDATIONS

Surety Companies.—One laws relating to bonding and surety companies should be revised. The solvency of these companies should be guarded with great care. Some surety companies have been cutting rates to such an extent as to reduce the reserve on such business to a wholly inadequate amount. This is a dangerous practice and eventually leads to insolvency. An extra precaution can be provided by requiring fidelity and surety companies to have a paid-np capital of not less than $1,000,000 before entering this State. These companies have the greatest calls upon their resources in times of financial depression, and their assets should be carefully supervised. A corporation, to be in position to guarantee the fidelity of a person, the performance of contracts or fiduciary trusts, or deposits in banks, should be required to maintain an absolutely sound and strong financial condition, and this means that it should have a safe working surplus over and above its capital. I would recommend that a company of this character maintain at all times a surplus of not less than $500,000 and report to this Department quarterly thereon. The standard of surety companies should be raised. A weak surety company should not be permitted to do business in Colorado.

Casualty Contracts.—There are some casualty policy forms in use in this State, arranged and worded so as to mislead the insured; this is especially true of limited health and accident policies. General provisions and prohibitions should be prescribed by law, and this State should adopt a standard form of casualty policy.

Publication of Annual Statements.—The laws of this State require every insurance company doing business herein to publish in a newspaper of general circulation annually a synopsis of its financial condition and a copy of its Certificate of Authority from the Commissioner of Insurance. The Commissioner is of the opinion that this publication is of little value to the citizens of this State; is an additional expense to the companies, and is ultimately paid by Colorado policy holders. This law should be repealed. This recommendation is in accordance with the uniform movement throughout the United States to repeal similar laws.

Taxation.—The fees and taxes collected by this Department are fifteen times more than the cost of its operation. Inasmuch as the 2% tax on premiums paid for insurance protection is a tax upon the insuring public, and is expended for purposes other than the supervision of insurance companies, it is an injustice to the citizens of Colorado and I recommend that it be reduced to 1%. This suggestion is in conformity with a uniform movement throughout the United States to equalize the taxes of insurance companies for the various states. One percent with the other fees would still leave an income that would provide for all operating expenses of the Department and for any unforeseen contingencies that might arise.

Fire Insurance Premiums.—During the recent session of the Legislature several bills were introduced regarding fire insurance premiums, one of which endeavored to give the Insurance Commissioner power to fix the price of fire insurance. The general feeling against stock fire insurance companies is undoubtedly due to a misunderstanding of the great necessity for such institutions, combined with a lack of knowledge of the effect of rating bureaus. The Commissioner does not believe that the State should have the power to fix rates, but it should be in a position to prevent discrimination. State rating is impracticable. If properly done it would entail an enormous expense to the Insurance Department, and so far as the Commissioner can learn, would give to the public very little, if any, lower rates of fire insurance. A reduction in fire rates is beginning at the wrong end—a reduction in the fire waste is the logical starting point; this would automatically reduce the rates. Rate-making organizations are an economical necessity necessary to the solvency of the insurance companies and are beneficial to the public. Since but two complaints in the past ten years have reached this Department regarding fire insurance rates, the Commissioner recommends that the situation be allowed to remain unchanged in this State until such time as the experiments in fire rating in other states have proved successful and beneficial.

Policy Loans.—The provision in life insurance contracts giving the insured the privilege of borrowing the reserve on his policy for purposes other than payments of premiums thereon is one of the great evils of life insurance. In response to a very general demand, there has been enacted in several States a policy loan law applying to all life insurance policies, providing that where provisions are inserted in the policy for loans, the company shall have at least sixty days in which to comply with this provision.

Insurance Commissioner Young, former President of the National Convention of Insurance Commissioners, in his report to the Governor of North Carolina, has the following to say regarding policy loan laws:

> "A bill of this character has been recommended by the National Convention of Insurance Commissioners because of the injustice, during 'panics' or financial depressions, done principally by large insurers in cities, in withdrawing the cash values of their policies and thus not only causing a great loss to the companies, but placing them in a position in which they cannot make investments. Thus one of the largest classes of investors in our State and municipal bonds and other securities is forced off the market when most needed."

l respectfully recommend that Colorado adopt the recommendations on this subject by the National Convention of Insurance Commissioners.

Child Insurance.—Section 40 of the Colorado Insurance Code makes it unlawful to insure a minor under the age of fifteen years. This is the only state in the Union which has such a drastic child insurance law. Agitation of Child Insurance in all states has, with a single exception—that of Colorado—met with favorable action. In 1913 and 1915 bills were introduced into the Legislature of Colorado to permit the adoption of the New York insurance law on this subject, but failed of passage. Most of the attacks against Child Insurance have been made through ignorance, coming from those who were under the impression that such insurance on the lives of children tends to crime or neglect; but investigation of this matter leads to the conclusion that such impressions are wholly erroneous and unfounded, and that there is no evidence to establish this fact that does not also apply with equal force to adult insurance. It has been shown conclusively that the maximum amount of insurance granted on a single life by all the companies combined, under the restrictions which prevail in their practice, is so small that there could be no possible incentive on the part of designing parents to neglect or infanticide.

Dr. James W. Walk, General Secretary of "The Associated Charities of America," in speaking most eloquently of Industrial Child Insurance, said:

> "I have never known of an instance in which there was any evidence that children had been neglected or murdered for the purpose of securing the insurance upon their lives. Indeed, my own observation is that among the poorer classes parents are very fond of their children and are much more with them than in other social grades."

The Armstrong Investigation of 1905 considered the subject and concluded the report as follows:

"The Committee is without facts which would warrant the prohibition of insurance of children. Among those who, from interest in charitable work or for other reasons, have given special study to the subject, there seems to be no consensus of opinion, while the companies assert with positiveness that the neglect and injury to children which might be supposed to follow from such insurance have no existence in fact. It is urged that the insurance of children is in very small amounts and is sought more frequently to obtain indemnity against a proper burial than to derive any personal advantage for the parents."

No one will dispute the fact that there is no insurable interest in the life of an infant, and yet no one will deny that it is perfectly proper and in the interest of public morals for the parent to make provision through insurance for the decent burial of a child.

Child insurance has long been recognized and the most modern and most progressive social legislation has taken cognizance of it. I respectfully recommend to the Legislature of Colorado the adoption of the New York Insurance Code providing that a person liable for the support of a child of the age of one year and upwards may take a yearly renewable term policy of insurance thereon, the minimum benefit thereunder being $30 between the ages of one and two years, and increasing with advanced age to a maximum of $500 at the age of 14 years.

Fraternal Insurance.—At the close of 1914 there were 6i fraternal insurance societies doing business in Colorado, with 102,525 death certificates and life insurance to the amount of 8151,405,749 outstanding in this State.

Experience has clearly demonstrated to the leaders of fraternal insurance orders, and to those who have studied the subject, that these orders cannot survive without charging rates that will enable reserves to be carried based upon actual mortality experience. In many fraternal societies the majority of the members have little or no knowledge of the scientific side of the question and oppose the increase of rates and thereby invite certain disaster. In 1911 the Legislature of Colorado enacted what is known as the "Mobile Bill," governing fraternal societies and providing rates and reserves based upon the National Fraternal Congress Table of Mortality. This law is operative now in twenty-five states in the Union and was designed to secure the future security of these organizations and will ultimately compel them to arrive at a condition of solvency or be dissolved.

Following the enactment of the Mobile Bill one of our domestic fraternal organizations adopted for its new members a certificate based on the American Experience Table of Mortality with interest at 4%, the reserve accumulation under which will carry the new certificates to maturity and gradually wipe out the reserve deficit on the certificates held by the older members, and put the society in the foremost rank as regards adequacy of rates and consequent solvency. This innovation is to be highly commended to other societies.
