RICHARD D. LAMM
Governor

EXECUTIVE ORDER PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, as a result of a change of venue, the trial of The People of the State of Colorado vs. Haro et al. is due to commence in Akron, Colorado on or about January 12, 1977; and

WHEREAS, W. L. McDonald, Sheriff of Washington County, in which County Akron, Colorado is located, has requested the assistance of the State Patrol for traffic control, crowd control and security with regard to the aforementioned trial; and

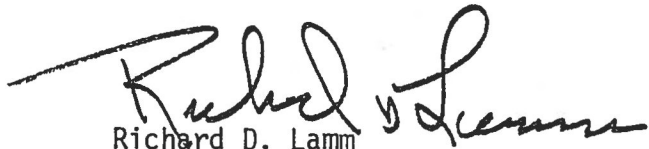

WHEREAS, Denver District Attorney, Dale Tooley, as well as the Police Department of the City and County of Denver, have endorsed this request; and

WHEREAS, it is apparent from all information available to me that the Sheriff of Washington County cannot protect the peace and dignity of the People of said County without the assistance of the Colorado State Patrol; and

WHEREAS, the Colorado State Patrol, pursuant to Sections 43-5-113 (1) (f) and 43-5-113 (3), Colorado Revised Statutes 1973, is empowered to direct, control, and regulate traffic and, in an emergency and with my approval, to assist or aid any sheriff in the performance of his duties upon his request.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Richard D. Lamm, Governor of the State of Colorado, find that an emergency exists in Akron, Washington County, Colorado due to the trial which is to commence there on or about January 12, 1977; and accordingly, pursuant to the request for assistance from Sheriff W. L. McDonald, I do hereby approve the use of up to eight State Patrol officers and one supervisor to direct, control, and regulate traffic in and about Akron, Colorado and to assist and aid the Sheriff of Washington County in the performance of his duties, said State Patrolmen to coordinate their activities with the Denver District Attorney and the Sheriff.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Executive Seal of the State of Colorado to be hereunto affixed at Denver, Colorado, this seventh Day of January, A.D., 1977.

Richard D. Lamm
Governor, State of Colorado
