EXECUTIVE ORDER

ESTABLISHING THE COLORADO INTERGOVERNMENTAL REVIEW SYSTEM

WHEREAS, the President has issued Executive Order 12372 concerning the "Intergovernmental Review of Federal Programs;" and

WHEREAS, Executive Order 12372 allows states to develop consultation and review processes to replace Federal Circular A-95; and

WHEREAS, local, regional and state officials have determined that continued intergovernmental consultation on proposed federal financial assistance and development actions is necessary;

NOW THEREFORE, I, Richard D. Lamm, Governor of the State of Colorado, by virtue of the authority vested in me under the laws and Constitution of the State of Colorado, do hereby establish the Colorado Intergovernmental Review System to be administered by the Division of Local Government in the Department of Local Affairs and to accomplish the following:

1. Notify local, regional and state officials of applications for federal financial assistance and proposed federal development actions.
2. Receive and transmit comments and recommendations on these actions to applicants and federal agencies.
3. Assist applicants and public agencies to resolve issues that arise during the review of these actions.
4. Develop agreements with federal agencies to insure effective implementation of this system.
5. Make information on federal decisions concerning financial assistance awards and development activities available to public agencies.
