EXECUTIVE ORDER

Repealing the Ban on Open Burning in Boulder County, Colorado

WHEREAS, on Friday, September 1, 1989, at the request of the Boulder County Sheriff's Office and in response to continued warm, dry conditions and extreme fire danger, I issued a verbal order banning open burning in Boulder County, Colorado; and

WHEREAS, recent cool temperatures and precipitation have significantly reduced the fire danger in Boulder County; and

WHEREAS, the Boulder County Sheriff's Office, the Colorado State Forest Service and affected federal agencies have recommended that the ban be lifted;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Roy Romer, Governor of Colorado, by virtue of the authority vested in me by the laws and Constitution of Colorado, including specifically C.R.S. 23-30-308, DO HEREBY ORDER THAT

The ban on open burning in Boulder County, Colorado, issued verbally on Friday, September 1, 1989, is repealed.

Given under my hand and the Great Seal of the State of Colorado this 11th day of September, 1989
