FUNDING FOR SEARCH AND RESCUE MISSIONS
ON DISASTER EMERGENCIES

WHEREAS, numerous search and rescue missions relating to disaster emergencies have occurred in Colorado during the past year;

WHEREAS, these missions have required resource coordination and support on the part of state government;

WHEREAS, this coordination and support was provided through a system of state search and rescue mission coordinators provided by the Colorado Search and Rescue Board;

WHEREAS, the Board, a private non-profit corporation representing the volunteer search and rescue community in Colorado, did incur mission related emergency expenses in providing this assistance;

WHEREAS, the state has formally recognized and legitimized the role of the Board within the state search and rescue structure;

WHEREAS, the Board receives no routine funding from the state for the services it provides;

WHEREAS, the reimbursement of these expenses would ensure the continued viability of the state search and rescue structure; and

WHEREAS, it would be in the public interest to provide reimbursement to the Board for the expenses they incurred in meeting state emergency disaster;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Roy Romer, Governor of the State of Colorado, under the authority vested in me under the Constitution and laws of the State of Colorado, including section 24-33.5-704, C.R.S., Colorado Disaster Emergency Act

Executive Order
July 15, 1991
