EXECUTIVE ORDER

Proclamation
Declaration of Vote on Certain Measures

Pursuant to the authority vested in the Office of the Governor of the State of Colorado, and in particular pursuant to article V, section 1 of the Colorado Constitution, I, Bill Ritter, Jr., Governor of the State of Colorado, hereby issue this Executive Order declaring the vote on certain measures initiated by or referred to the people of the State of Colorado.

I. Background and Need

Certain measures were initiated by or referred to the people of the State of Colorado at the biennial regular election held on November 4, 2008. Secretary of State Mike Coffman certified on December 17, 2008, that he had canvassed the abstract of votes, and that certain measures were approved by a majority of the votes cast.

Pursuant to article V, section 1 of the Colorado Constitution, measures initiated by or referred to the people shall become the law or a part of the Constitution when approved by a majority of the votes cast, and shall take effect from and after the date of the official declaration of the vote by proclamation of the Governor, but not later than thirty days after the vote has been canvassed.

II. Declaration

Accordingly, I hereby issue this Executive Order declaring the vote on the following measures initiated by or referred to the people on November 4, 2008.

- A. Initiated Constitutional Amendment (Amendment 46): Shall there be an amendment to the Colorado constitution concerning a prohibition against discrimination by the state, and, in connection therewith, prohibiting the state from discriminating against or granting preferential treatment to any individual or group on the basis of race, sex, color, ethnicity, or national origin in the operation of public employment, public education, or public contracting; allowing exceptions to the prohibition when bona fide qualifications based on sex are reasonably necessary or when action is necessary to establish or maintain eligibility for federal funds; preserving the validity of court orders or consent decrees in effect at the time the measure becomes effective; defining "state" to include the state of Colorado, agencies or departments of the state, public institutions of higher education, political subdivisions, or governmental instrumentalities of or within the state; and making portions of the measure found invalid severable from the remainder of the measure?
