RAISING THE BAR

Colorado's beer, wine and spirit makers are always breaking new ground and tempting our palates. These innovators are setting themselves apart with great-tasting beverages that celebrate the state in their own unique way. We've highlighted must-try drinks that aren't just made in Colorado — they are infused with Colorado.

BREWERIES

TOMMYKNOCKER BREWERY

IDAHO SPRINGS

One of Colorado's oldest breweries thrives in an old mining town, using local hops and malts.

The Maker: Head brewer Jim McCann is a big experimenter with small-batch beer.

Must Try: Pine Bow winter seasonal infused with pine needles from the nearby slopes of Loveland Ski Area

Tastings & Tours: Daily tastings at their brewpub; call for tours 303-567-4419

ELEVATION BEER COMPANY

PONCHA SPRINGS

Focused on drinkability, Elevation Beer's tasting room and labels use ski-trail signs, green to double black, to indicate ease of drinking.

The Maker: Christian Koch brewed for Tommyknocker before co-founding Elevation.

Must Try: Apis IV, a Belgian quadrupel infused with Salida-harvested honey

Tastings & Tours: Open daily noon-8pm; call for tours 719-539-5258

HORSE & DRAGON BREWING COMPANY

FORT COLLINS

The taproom offers a large variety of beers that strike a balance between the bitter hops and sweet malt.

The Maker: Linsey Cornish is one of the few female head brewmasters in the country.

Must Try: Morgan's Savvy Golden Peach Ale made with Palisade peaches

Tastings & Tours: Open daily noon-6pm; call for tours 970-631-8038

TWO RASCALS BREWERY

MONTROSE

The taproom and brewery are in an old 1940s railroad packing station.

The Makers: Founders and brewers Daniel Leonardi and Brandon Frey are also wildland firefighters.

Must Try: Cranberry Spruce Ale infused with spruce tips from Pagosa Springs

Tastings & Tours: Tap room and tours available Tuesday-Sunday; call 970-249-8689

WINERIES

STONE COTTAGE CELLARS

PAONIA

Built stone by stone, the buildings and grounds have an old-country ambiance.

The Maker: Founder Brent Helleckson is a former rocket scientist.	Must Try: Chardonnay, high-altitude acidity infused with locally grown apples, aged in French oak barrels	Tasting Room: Open daily 11am-6pm, May 22-Nov. 1; 970-527-3444

LE FUSELIER WINERY AT SPRING CREEK VINEYARDS

CAÑON CITY

Le Fuselier winery is 100 percent solar powered, uses no fertilizers and irrigates with mountain water from Grape Creek.

The Maker: David Fuselier's family has made wine in France for hundreds of years. He's been at it in Cañon City since 2006.	Must Try: Apple Crisp, a sweet, white wine made with fresh apples from local orchards	Tasting Room: Saturdays, noon-5pm; 719-315-2075

DISTILLERIES

PEACH STREET DISTILLERS

PALISADE

Using the fruit from their own Palisade farm and neighboring farms, these distillers are making some pretty sweet spirits.

The Maker:
Head distiller Davy Lindig is also known as one of the best home brewers of beer in the state.

Must Try:
Goat Vodka distilled from sweet corn from neighboring Olathe

Tasting & Tours: Daily noon-10pm; schedule tours at peachstreetdistillers.com

DEERHAMMER DISTILLING COMPANY

BUENA VISTA

Grain-to-glass spirits, crafted by hand from silo to bottling, served in an intimate tasting room.

The Maker:
Owner Lenny Eckstein regularly heads out to kayak the Arkansas River while he waits for his latest batch to distill.

Must Try:
Buena Vista Brandy created from Colorado wine

Tasting & Tours:
Wednesday-Sunday; 719-395-9464

CIDER HOUSES

BIG B'S HARD CIDER

HOTCHKISS

This family-run orchard allows you to taste the cider, pick your own fruit and even camp among the apple trees.

The Makers:
Jeff and Tracey Schwartz are apple farmers — driving forklifts and pressing delicious hard cider.

Must Try:
Lazy Daze Cherry Daze, a crisp, semi-sweet, hard apple cider infused with local Montmorency cherries

Tastings:
Seasonal; call 970-872-3065

THE OLD MINE CIDERY AND BREWPUB

ERIE

These cider experimenters are breaking new ground in the world of fermented fruit in a renovated mercantile building.

The Maker:
Founder Mike Yeager opened the cidery after demand for his homemade cider reached a fever pitch.

Must Try:
Death by Bourbon, hard cider aged for 16 months in bourbon barrels from Breckenridge Distillery

Tastings:
Daily at their brewpub; 303-905-0620

CRAFTY Coloradans

More than 130 years after the Pikes Peak Gold Rush, Coloradans are still striking gold from the state's abundant natural resources. This time around, the prospectors aren't pickax-swinging miners, they are creative brewers, winemakers, distillers, chefs and even high-tech tailors.

DAN
English

THE PRODUCT:

Fall Line Jacket

THE CRAFTER: Dan English is a maker of fine outdoor clothing and the founder of Voormi in Pagosa Springs. The sheep that scurry throughout the Rocky Mountains, like the ones kept by Rita Kourlis Samuelson at Kourlis Ranch near Craig, provide the high-altitude wool for his gear. He blends it with synthetics to create items like the Fall Line Jacket, winner of the Men's Journal 2015 Gear of the Year award for its fleece-like feel, yet water-repelling qualities.

GLENN
Foster

THE PRODUCT:

Lavender Wine

THE CRAFTER: Glenn Foster infuses his wine with lavender grown by Paola Legarre from Sage Creations Organic Farms in Palisade. The result is a medium-sweet wine awash in lavender aroma. Pick up a bottle at Glenn's place, St. Kathryn Cellars, also in Palisade — the heart of Colorado wine country.

GREG

THE PRODUCT:

Begorado Belgian Style IPA

THE CRAFTER: Greg Moore is the head brewer at Wynkoop Brewing in downtown Denver. He sources Colorado-grown and a little-extra-bitter hops from Ron Munger of Misty Mountain Hop Farm in Olathe, hop grower of the year, when brewing Begorado, an award-winning Belgian-style IPA.

LANCE
Hanson

THE PRODUCT:

CapRock Gin

THE CRAFTER: Lance Hanson makes CapRock Gin in Hotchkiss. The Peak Spirits Farm Distillery gin uses soft water from the CapRock formation on the Grand Mesa and a blend of 12 different fruits, flowers, seeds and spices and certified-organic apples grown 5 miles down the road by Bill and Shirley Ela on Ela Family Farms. Sip on some CapRock Gin in a Seventh Street Pavilion cocktail at The Pullman in Glenwood Springs, where chef Mark Fischer takes local sourcing not as a challenge, but as a conquest, using Colorado's finest ingredients in his creative cuisine and cocktails.

BEN
Parsons

THE PRODUCT:

Cabernet Franc

THE CRAFTER: Ben Parsons is a winemaker and owner of Infinite Monkey Theorem in Denver. While there are plenty of wine lovers, there are no vineyards in Denver. So Parson sources these Cabernet Franc grapes with the help of Kaibab Sauvage of Colorado Vineyard Specialists. The grapes are grown at the mouth of DeBeque Canyon on a cobblestone ridge overlooking the Colorado River. As a result, Infinite Monkey Theorem's Cabernet Franc is robust with fruit and spice and carries an elegant finish.

JOSH
Niernberg

THE PRODUCT:

The Local Omelet

THE CRAFTER: Josh Niernberg is the executive chef at BIN 707 Foodbar in Grand Junction. He sources locally and domestically and offers a seasonal menu at this American-cuisine restaurant. That means fresh, local and delicious. One brunch favorite, the Local Omelet, is made with onion, marmalade, Hazel Dell cinnamon cap mushrooms, applewood-smoked bacon and MouCo Ashley ripened goat cheese made by Birgit Halbreiter and Robert Poland in Fort Collins.

TERRI
Maize

THE PRODUCT:

Jalapeño Jammin' Jelly

THE CRAFTER: Terri Maize makes unusual jellies for her company Hacienda Maize in Denver. Jalapeño Jammin' Jelly, named World Champion Jalapeño Jelly by the World Hot Sauce Awards 2015, is described as unapologetically hot, for the jalapeño lover looking to transform foods. The jalapeño chili peppers are proudly grown to be extra hot by Shane Milberger, farmer and founder of Milberger Farms in Pueblo.

WINTER DUDE RANCHES

➔ FUN IN THE SNOW ON COLORADO DUDE RANCHES

You don't have to be a ski bunny to enjoy a Colorado winter and the white stuff that goes along with it.

1 SUNDANCE TRAIL GUEST RANCH, Red Feather Lakes

BYOH: As a family- and pet-friendly spot (one of the only Colorado ranches to allow dogs), Sundance Trail even welcomes guests' horses, which come in handy for trail rides through the nearby Roosevelt National Forest — a truly surreal experience when everything is blanketed in snow. Later, appreciate the quiet while relaxing and stargazing in the outdoor hot tub.

2 DEER VALLEY RANCH, Nathrop

When you're not cozying up in your cabin, revel in the ranch's down-the-road proximity to Mount Princeton Hot Springs and discounted pool passes to boot. If you can't fight the urge to hit the slopes, downhill skiing is available nearby at Monarch Mountain, in addition to cross-country skiing, snowshoeing, dogsledding and snowmobiling.

3 SYLVAN DALE GUEST RANCH, Loveland

For those who want to jump in the saddle, this working horse-and-cattle ranch is the place to be. Choose to pitch in with chores, hone your horsemanship skills and maybe do some hiking if the weather is mild. When night falls, warm up around a fire and treat yourself to s'mores.

4 WAUNITA HOT SPRINGS RANCH, Gunnison

What could be more delightful than soaking in a steamy, natural pool while snowflakes gently fall around you? Here you'll make this swimsuit-clad version of a winter wonderland a reality without ever having to leave the property. But if you do venture out, both Monarch Mountain and Crested Butte are easily accessible for more-traditional snowy endeavors.

WAKE UP TO FARM-FRESH EGGS AND ABSOLUTE SILENCE MADE POSSIBLE BY NEWLY FALLEN SNOW. SEVERAL DUDE RANCHES AND FARMS STAY OPEN YEAR-ROUND TO OFFER PEACEFUL, BEAUTIFUL WINTER EXPERIENCES IN THE ROCKY MOUNTAINS, AWAY FROM THE HUSTLE AND BUSTLE OF CHAIRLIFTS AND SHUTTLE BUSES.

WINTER FARM STAYS

Sure there are farm-to-table restaurants, but stick with just the farm and you'll get the freshest dining, quality time with adorably named animals and even a little pampering.

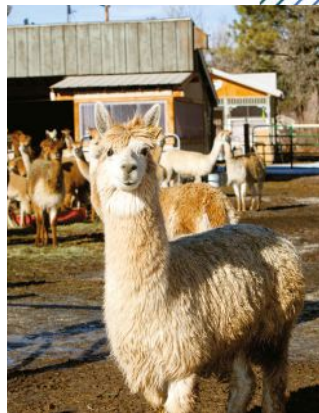

6 HORSE & HEN FARMHOUSE INN, Hayden

You can't show up at a farm and expect to not help out. So roll up your sleeves at Horse & Hen for egg collecting, milking cows and goats, irrigating the hay meadow and other tasks. It's not all work, of course, and your stay in the guest house will be balanced out with bountiful breakfasts and recreational activities like bird watching and snowshoeing.

7 JEFFERSON FARMS NATURAL FIBERS, Salida

Make new furry friends with the farm's paco-vicuñas and alpacas, which are raised for their fiber to produce yarn, fleece and other products. A luxury apartment is where you'll stay, complete with a deck area to watch the herds, and your own kitchen to make use of the complimentary fresh eggs and coffee that are an added bonus.

8 THE SHANGRI-LA INN AT GAIA'S FARM AND GARDENS, Laporte

Get in touch with your bohemian side during a visit to a permaculture farm that happens to boast a B&B and holistic healing center. For maximum tranquility, don't miss the stress-reducing reiki treatments paired with a soothing massage. The peaceful vibe carries over to the guest cottage, organic gardens, koi pond and other features, as well.

5 AVALANCHE CHEESE COMPANY, Paonia
 In the North Fork Valley you can rent a charming cabin situated on a working goat dairy farm. The rustic digs are a perfect way to experience all the action, from pitching in with the milking to taking a farm tour. Gather up a large group and you can arrange to have a farm-fresh breakfast, lunch or dinner prepared on site.

BYWAYS OF COLORADO

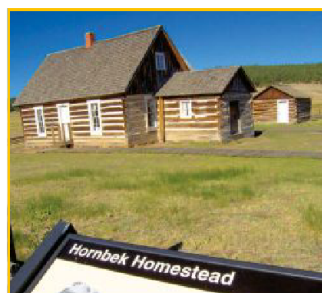

Colorado's 26 byways wind through grassy plains and the Rocky Mountains past small towns and natural beauty you cannot enjoy if you're speeding along at 70 mph. Explore Colorado's roots by getting off the beaten path.

BYWAYS FOR WILD WEST WONDERS

NEAR TRINIDAD

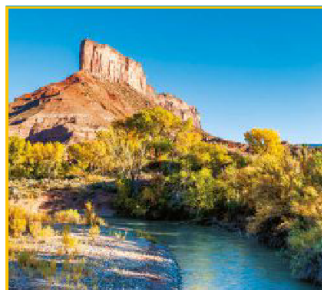

Strike out like frontiersman and fortune-seekers by hitting the Santa Fe Trail and tracing the footsteps of folk heroes like "Wild Bill" Hickok. Make a stop outside La Junta to visit Bent's Old Fort National Historic Site, a reconstructed fur-trading post.

NEAR FLORISSANT

Take the Gold Belt Tour to see not only the petrified remains of Florissant Fossil Beds National Monument, but also the Gold Rush town of Cripple Creek. These days you can tour the old mines, or try to hit your own jackpot at the town's casinos and gaming halls.

BYWAYS WAY OFF THE BEATEN PATH

NEAR GATEWAY

The Unaweep-Tabeguache Scenic and Historic Byway cuts through wild canyon country, including the Dolores River Canyon. WWII buffs may be surprised to learn this area was mined for uranium, used in the nation's atomic bombs.

NEAR MEEKER

Traverse 82 scenic miles via the Flat Tops Trail and you'll journey over two of the least-traveled mountain passes in Colorado. Pull over at Ripple Creek Pass for a 10,343-foot view of the stunning White River Valley. We dare you to look down.

BYWAYS FOR BIRDERS

NEAR CRAIG

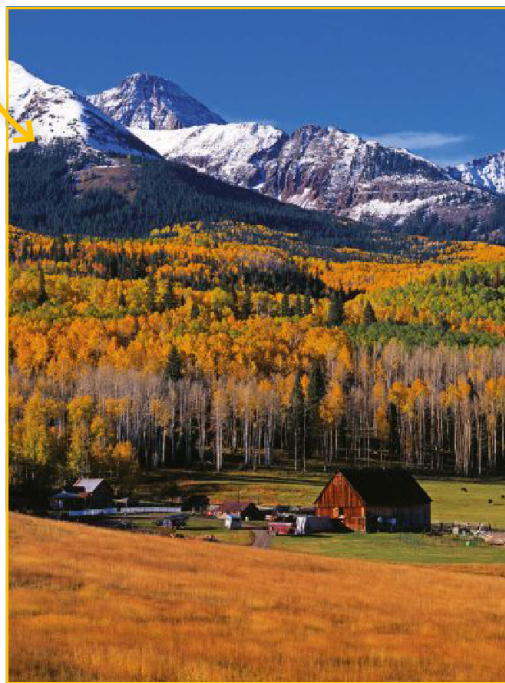

Spring brings three species of lekking grouse on the Elkhead Trail, and summer is ideal for viewing nesting sandhill cranes and a robust population of deer and elk.

NEAR SOUTH FORK

Highlights of the Silver Thread Scenic Byway include the Slumgullion Earthflow — a massive slow-motion rockslide — and, of course, earfuls of woodpeckers drumming and the choral sounds from thrushes.

NEAR TELLURIDE

Loop through the San Juan Mountains on the Lizard Head Trail, and stop to take in the view from Lizard Head Pass. You might witness black swifts hunting insects in the air or a bear ambling across a meadow.

NEAR LA JUNTA

The Plover Trail is exceptionally diverse with its huge marshes, countless reservoirs and high desert. The name comes from the multiple breeds of plovers — a type of wading bird — that reside in the area.

NEAR WRAY

The Greater Prairie Chicken Trail is a stronghold for its namesake birds. In the spring you might hear the males before you see them — their whooping and cackling sounds are all part of an ... amusing ... mating dance.

NEAR EADS

For sandpipers and cranes migrating through or snow geese setting up camp for the winter, make your way along the Snow Goose Trail to catch a glimpse of these water birds.

BIRDING FESTIVALS NOT TO BE MISSED

Turn to page 2 to read about can't-miss birding festivals, including one of our favorites, the Mountain Plover Festival in the tiny town of Karval. This April event is a weekend full of birding, entertainment, food and more.

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE High Plains

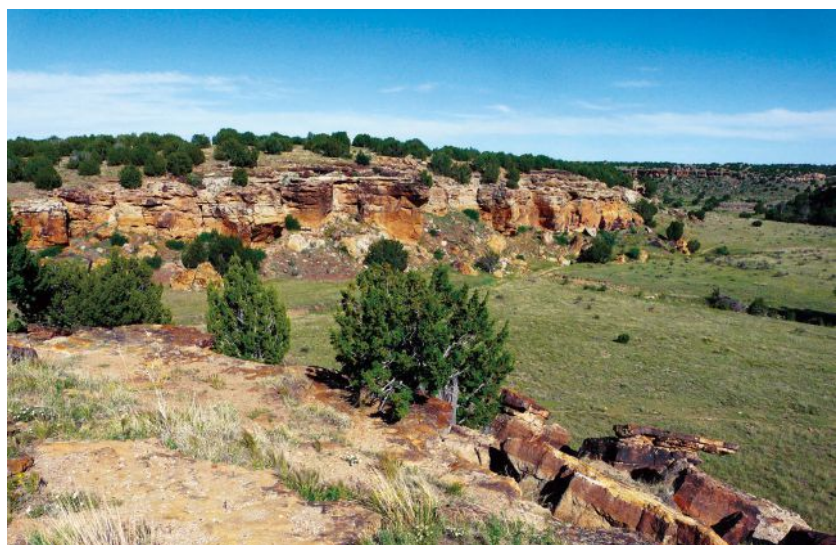

Only-in-Colorado wildlife, historic sites, cowboy heritage and Americana attractions — to say the least — are proof that our often-understated eastern quadrant is anything but plain. These highlights are just the beginning.

CREATURE ENCOUNTERS

Rare species like the lesser prairie chicken, golden eagle and swift fox are among the more than 300 species of critters roaming the 440,000-acre Comanche National Grassland, some of the last short-grass prairie left in the U.S.

Like a hall of fame for dinos, Purgatoire River Track Site (also known as Picketwire Canyonlands) in Comanche National Grassland boasts the footprints of the Jurassic period's biggest celebrities, including the long-necked Brontosaur and carnivorous Allosaurus.

Large populations of bass, walleye and catfish make Lake Pueblo a beloved southeast Colorado fishin' hole. The lake is also an excellent place to spot feathered beauties like red-tail hawks, egrets and great blue herons.

WINDOWS INTO THE PAST

Honor the 200 Cheyenne and Arapaho Indians who died when a band of U.S. soldiers attacked their camp in 1864 at the Sand Creek Massacre National Historic Site near Chivington and Eads. Attend a ranger-led talk (daily at 10am and 2pm) to learn how the tragic skirmish forever changed relations with American Indian tribes, who claimed the plains as hunting grounds and seasonal homes.

American Indian petroglyphs adorn the sandstone walls of Vogel Canyon near La Junta. Visit at sunrise or dusk to heighten your chance to encounter characters like great horned owls, coyotes and pronghorn.

Read Ancient Peoples of the Great Basin and Colorado Plateau by Steven R. Simms to learn about the American Indian settling of the plains.

Catch a can-can show in the bar at Burlington's Old Town Museum, home to 21 antique-filled buildings, including an old schoolhouse, beauty parlor and doctor's office. Then, mosey over to the 1905 Kit Carson County Carousel, one of only 150 wooden carousels still in existence. The 46 hand-carved animals march to the tunes of a 1909 Wurlitzer Monster Military Band Organ.

FROM TOP: VOGEL CANYON; FLICKR/JERRY; LESSER PRAIRIE CHICKEN; ISTOCKPHOTO.

COOL RIDES

The folks at Colorado Cattle Company & Guest Ranch's Cowboy School in New Raymer are determined to lure out your inner wrangler. Achieve cowboy status (or dazzle your greenhorn friends) by acquiring rodeo-worthy skills like barrel racing, bull riding and roping live steers.

Those who prefer the saddle of a two-wheeled steed should consider September's Pedal the Plains, when road bikers of all abilities pedal across the eastern plains, stopping in the cities like Julesburg and Sterling for beer gardens, local eats and farm tours.

If you dig long-distance rides, the 4,228-mile TransAmerica Bike Trail from Oregon to Virginia passes through Pueblo, Ordway and Eads — delightfully flat riding territory full of charming small towns.

Turn to page 2 to find events in the area, including the Kit Carson County Fair in Burlington (July/August) and Doc's Chuck Wagon Cookoff in La Junta (October).

COLORADO'S NATIONAL PARKS

A PLACE FOR EVERY PASSION

August 25, 2016, will mark the 100th anniversary of the creation of the National Park Service, which now includes more than 400 parks nationwide. Finding the right one for to suit your crew's interests can be as challenging as the terrain that lies within.

In celebration of the anniversary, we created a guide to some of the national parks, monuments, historic sites and recreation areas in Colorado. Find your passion and the parks to match.

I'M AN AWE SEEKER

Great Sand Dunes National Park

near Blanca – This may be the closest you'll ever come to feeling like you're walking on Mars. Nature has created an endless hourglass with competing winds and a recycling creek that has piled sand 750 feet high.

TIP: Don't forget your sand sled!

Rocky Mountain National Park

Estes Park & Grand Lake – Predating the National Park Service, this is one of the country's oldest and most loved national parks — with high peaks, beautiful lakes and a wide variety of wildlife.

TIP: Hike to Lulu City, now a ghost town, where miners lived from 1879–84.

Colorado National Monument

Fruita – Red-rock formations and expansive canyons pepper this often-missed treasure.

TIP: Experience Monument Canyon Trail's massive rock sculptures, including Independence Tower and Kissing Couple, or find natural arches on the Liberty Cap Trail.

Black Canyon of the Gunnison National Park near Montrose – Trace the rim along the North Vista Trail and be rewarded with views into the canyon and scenic vistas from appropriately named Exclamation Point.

TIP: Descending into the Black Canyon is not recommended for most (we can't say what exclamations might happen there).

I'M A WILD WEST EXPLORER

Sand Creek Massacre National Historic Site

near Eads & Chivington – Few know that during the American Civil War, a great offensive against the American Indians was waged. At Sand Creek, hundreds were slaughtered, including women and children.

TIP: Be prepared, this site refers to a dark period in American history.

Bent's Old Fort National Historic Site

La Junta – Interpreters in period dress offer intriguing details through guided tours and demonstrations of this trading post's importance in the 1840s.

TIP: Get your camera ready to capture the peacocks roaming the fort.

For an engaging tale of America's western expansion, read: Blood and Thunder: The Epic Story of Kit Carson and the Conquest of the American West by Hampton Sides.

I'M A DINOSAUR DIGGER

Florissant Fossil Beds National Monument

between Lake George & Divide – Prehistoric Colorado was home to a hard-to-imagine redwood forest. Believe your eyes when you spy 14-foot-across petrified sequoia stumps, which are among the biggest in the world and the centerpiece of a large and diverse fossil collection.

TIP: Stay for the Night Sky Program.

Dinosaur National Monument

Dinosaur – If you're a dino-geek, and we know you are, this is home. The famous Carnegie Quarry has 1,500 visible fossils on a single cliff face.

TIP: Plan an extra day to raft the wild Green and Yampa rivers through the deep canyons.

I'M A HISTORY BUFF

Hovenweep National Monument

west of Cortez – Perfect for both lovers of nature and history, Hovenweep will leave you amazed at the Ancestral Puebloans who erected the multi-story towers 700 years ago.

TIP: Rim Rock Trail will bring you up close to eight historic structures.

Mesa Verde National Park

near Cortez – For 700 years the Ancestral Puebloan people made these cliffs their homes. There are more than 600 dwellings, including Cliff Palace, the largest in North America, with guided tours available.

TIP: Drive Ruins Road to appreciate the mystifying cliff dwellings from afar.

Yucca House National Monument

south of Cortez – Unlike Mesa Verde, this is an unexcavated archaeological site of an Ancestral Puebloan community center. It has been largely untouched for the past 800 years.

TIP: Look for pottery fragments on the ground, but please leave them for others to enjoy.

COLORADO HISTORIC DISTRICTS

Colorado's historic districts are the windows into some of the state's most enchanting, legend-filled nooks and crannies. Uncover fantastic Colorado lore with these walkable historic districts, just a few of our heritage areas.

Leadville Historic District

The country's highest incorporated city, Leadville sits at 10,152 feet and boasts a 70-square-block National Historic Landmark District and a 20-square-mile preserved mining district (being celebrated above during the annual Boom Days event). Take the historic walking tour and see 50 buildings dating back to 1870, including the largest opera house west of the Mississippi and a saloon visited by Oscar Wilde. visitleadvilleco.com

South Park National Heritage Area

The town of Fairplay and its surrounding 1,000 square miles were designated by Congress for telling an important story through distinctive landscapes, historic structures and recreational resources. The valley that cradles South Park (no, not THAT South Park) is strewn with 19th-century ranches, twisty-turny bristlecone pines, Gold Rush-era mines and other historic sites. southparkheritage.org

Cripple Creek Historic District

The rural ranching community of Cripple Creek was transformed into a renowned gold camp after a cowboy discovered gold here in 1891. Many of the mining-era buildings remain today, including the Imperial Hotel and St. Paul's Catholic Church. Explore exhibits and a 1,000-foot-deep underground shaft on a Mollie Kathleen Gold Mine tour. visitcripplecreek.com

Sangre de Cristo National Heritage Area

Named by Spanish explorers in the 1800s for the brilliant red hue the drapes the peaks at sunset, this area spans three counties in south-central Colorado (county seats: Alamosa, San Luis and Conejos). An amble through its backroads and byways will swing you quietly alongside wildlife refuges, Great Sand Dunes National Park and Preserve, roadside farmstands, small-town museums, the Cumbres & Toltec and Rio Grande scenic railroads, historic missions and forts, and the Stations of the Cross Shrine. sdchna.org

Salida Historic District

The popular rafting community sits on the western bank of the Arkansas River and is home to Colorado's largest historic district; it also recently earned distinction as one of the state's 12 official Creative Districts. Take a walking tour of downtown Salida and visit detailed brick Victorian buildings that include the Sherman Hotel and Antiques on First. nowthisiscolorado.com

Lake City National Historic District

More than 200 Victorian-era historic houses and cabins, churches, shops and public buildings in Lake City give testament to the tiny town's role in settling the American West. Stop by the Lake City Museum to pick up a walking tour that will dive you deep into this mountain town's history. lakecity.com

TIPS FOR PICKING

PRODUCE	WHAT TO LOOK FOR	SEASON
APPLES	Choose apples that are firm to the touch, without bruises, with good color and a pleasant smell.	Aug.-Nov. Most are harvested in Sept.
CANTALOUPE	Ripe cantaloupe will have a distinctive aroma and the blossom end should yield to gentle pressure. Cantaloupes that were kept on the vine until fully ripe will have a clean depression where the stem was attached. Avoid cantaloupes that are shriveled, bruised or that have punctured or cracked rinds.	Aug.-mid-Oct.
CARROTS	Carrots should be vibrant orange and well shaped with firm, smooth exteriors. Avoid soft or wilted carrots or those with growth cracks or splits.	Aug.-Nov.
CHERRIES	Look for cherries that are plump, with firm, smooth and brightly colored skins. Good quality cherries should have green stems attached. Avoid cherries with blemishes, rotted or mushy skins, or those that are shriveled and dull.	Mid-June through mid-July.
LEAF LETTUCE	Leaf lettuce should be crisp and well colored. Avoid leaf lettuce with yellow leaves or with leaves showing cracked ribs.	June through Oct.
ONIONS	Good-quality dry onions should be firm and hard with short, tight necks and dry, papery skins. A slightly loose outer skin is common and should not affect quality. Avoid onions that show mold, decay or blemishes.	Aug.-March.
PEACHES	Peaches should be picked when the background color (not the red side toward the sun, but the backside of the fruit) has changed from green to white or yellow. If the peaches are to be eaten quickly, the best possible peach is one that has already started to soften on the tree, however, if they are to be stored then they should still be firm, but with the light background color.	Aug.-mid-Sept.
POTATOES	All potato varieties should be uniformly sized, fairly clean, firm and smooth. Avoid potatoes with wrinkled skins, soft dark spots, cut surfaces or green appearance. Look for a variety of Colorado potatoes, including Yukon gold, russet, fingerling and purple.	Year-round.
SWEET CORN	Sweet corn should have fresh, green husks with silk ends that are free of decay or worms. Ears should be evenly covered with plump, consistently sized kernels. Avoid corn with discolored or dry-looking husks, stem ends or kernels.	Mid-July through mid-Oct.
TOMATOES	Tomatoes should have bright, shiny skins and firm flesh. Avoid tomatoes that are soft or mushy, lacking in color, or have blemishes or growth cracks.	Mid-July-mid-Oct. (greenhouse tomatoes year-round).
WATERMELON	Choose a symmetrical melon that is heavy for its size.	Aug.-Sept.

GETTING TO KNOW COLORADO

Chef Eric Skokan's 130-acre farm allows him to source a limitless palette of Colorado flavors, colors and textures for Black Cat Bistro in Boulder. This pistachio financier with pear and chocolate is just one spectacular example.

NAVIGATE COLORADO

Colorado is the eighth-largest state in the U.S., measuring 380 miles east to west and 280 miles north to south. Yes, that's more than 100,000 total square miles to explore. Luckily, with so much to see and do, Colorado is very easy to navigate. On the opposite side of this page, we've divided the state into seven travel regions to help you plan your trip.

THANK YOU TO OUR PARTNERS

We couldn't put this book together without the hand-holding, idea-generating, down-home-love-inspiring provided by the organizations in the pages that follow.

COLORADO DUDE & GUEST RANCH ASSOCIATION

Saddle up the family for a Colorado dude ranch vacation.

From upscale properties with resort-like amenities to rustic working ranches where guests can take part in everyday chores, Colorado's more than 30 dude ranches all offer different experiences. But you can count on every ranch for down-home hospitality, an activity-rich schedule of family-friendly activities and plenty of opportunities to connect with the great outdoors.

Planning a family vacation can be difficult. Parents want to have a relaxing time and share wonderful experiences with their kids, but finding a destination that appeals to youngsters and adults alike is often harder than it seems. The best solution might be one you hadn't considered yet: a Colorado dude ranch.

Bringing your kids (or grandkids!) on a family trip to Colorado for a week can be just what you need to get a bit of relaxation, change your perspective and pull everyone closer. From horseback riding to hiking trails, roping lessons and even ziplining, there's never a shortage of fun, action-packed activities on a dude ranch. From the minute you arrive, every member of your family will have the chance to try the kinds of things they've only seen on TV.

For most kids, no matter how young or old, something magical happens when they get into the open air, surrounded by mountains and horses on all sides. Suddenly, the appeal of a small glowing screen isn't quite as strong as the exciting possibilities that are all around them.

And while kids might beg to stay up past bedtime at home, they probably won't at a Colorado dude ranch. A few hours in the saddle or a day of whitewater rafting is enough to have them resting peacefully through the night. In fact, your family might get the best sleep you've enjoyed in years.

Explore our all-inclusive adventure getaways now to find the one that gives you the perfect mix of excitement, relaxation and a healthy change of pace. Visit coloradoranch.com and request a free brochure and DVD.

COLORADO NATIONAL HERITAGE AREAS

Colorado's natural splendor and Western history shine at three National Heritage Areas.

Colorado possesses three of the 49 National Heritage Areas established by the U.S. Congress — and is one of only 16 states to have more than one. Experience exquisite landscapes and learn about Colorado's contributions to the nation's diverse heritage at these must-see quadrants: South Park National Heritage Area, Sangre de Cristo National Heritage Area and Cache la Poudre River National Heritage Area.

Fondly preserved historic structures and seemingly untouched terrain characterized by towering 14,000-foot peaks and more than 100 rare or endangered plant and animal species make central Colorado's South Park NHA seem like a lost-in-time place. Learn how mining squabbles gave Fairplay its name, peruse art galleries and shops housed in 1800s storefronts or cast a line in more than 50 miles of Gold Medal trout streams.

The Sangre De Cristo NHA showcases the rich history of south-central Colorado's San Luis Valley, home to the state's earliest civilizations. The 3,000-square-mile corridor's bounty of assets include portions of the Sangre De Cristo Range, Great Sand Dunes National Park and Preserve, the Cumbres & Toltec Scenic Railroad and more than 20 cultural properties listed on the National Register of Historic Places.

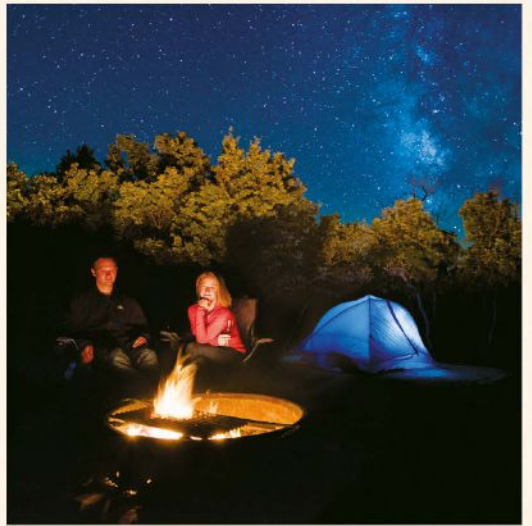

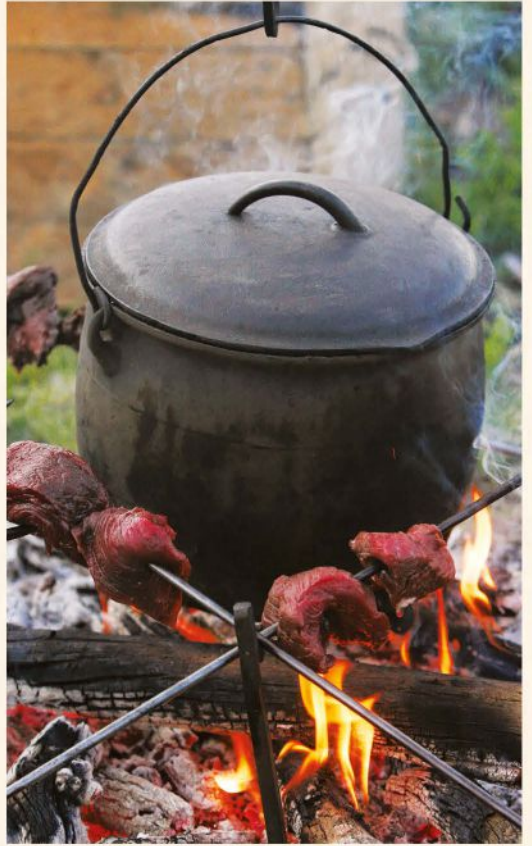

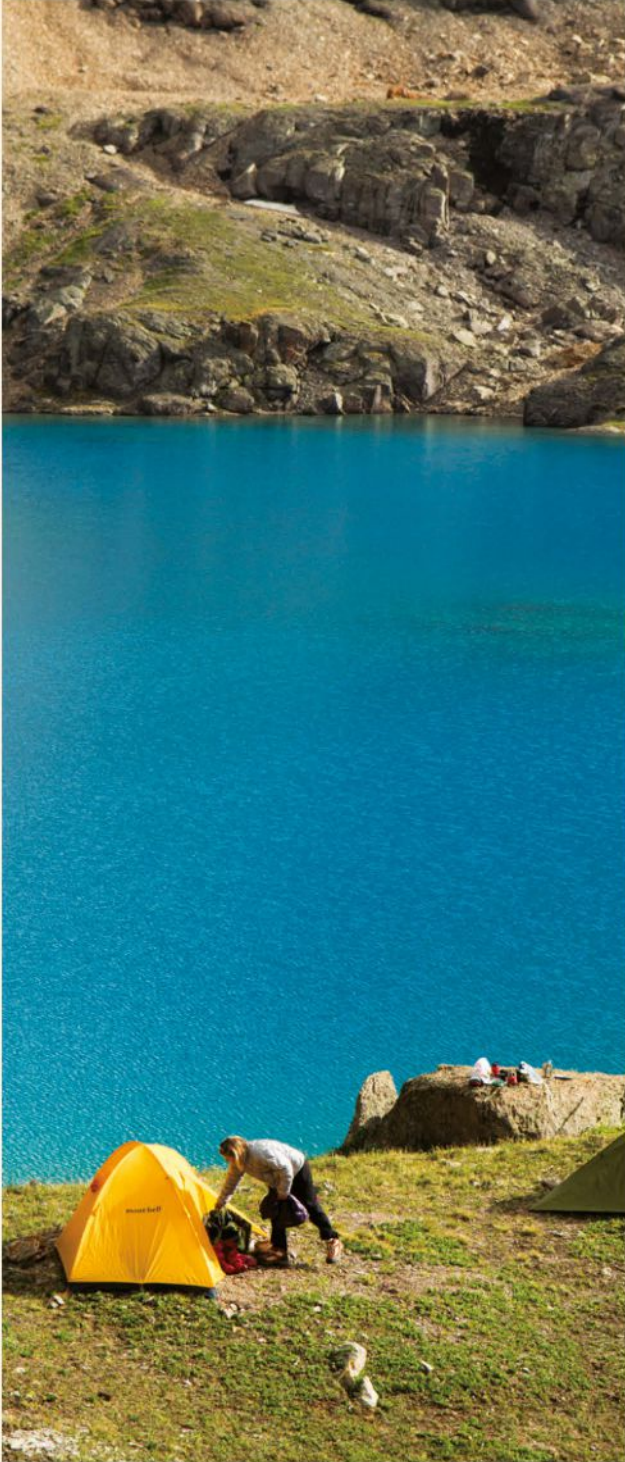

The Cache la Poudre River NHA celebrates milestones related to the Front Range's 120-mile Cache la Poudre River, which influenced the development of water law and delivery systems in the Western U.S. and helped shape northern Colorado's cultural heritage. Amble along the river on the Poudre River Trail, a 31-mile route that extends from Bellvue through Laporte, Fort Collins, Timnath, Windsor and Greeley. Or tour Fort Collins' 1883 Water Works, which housed the area's first water pump house.

Did You Know?

While South Park is known as the setting of the namesake animated series, show creators Trey Parker and Matt Stone actually drew inspiration for the fictional hamlet from Fairplay, including the town's main street and idyllic mountain backdrop. Find inspiration of your own in Fairplay and other cities and towns in Colorado National Heritage Areas.

EXPERIENCE CAMPING IN COLORADO

Stay at Colorado campgrounds, RV parks and cabins to immerse yourself in the great outdoors.

From snow-marbled peaks and alpine forests to sweeping golden plains and wildflower-peppered meadows, Colorado's landscape is unlike any other in the world. Home to an impressive roster of campgrounds, RV parks and cabins, it's easy to find a spot to answer the call of the wild.

The options are endless, whether you're seeking a remote place to pitch a tent, a comfy cabin equipped with modern conveniences or an RV park with access to kid-pleasing amenities like swimming pools and mini-golf courses. Slumber under a star-filled sky, listen to the crackle of a warm campfire and take advantage of everything Colorado's great outdoors has to offer.

One of the best perks of staying at Colorado campgrounds, RV parks and cabins is direct access to activities in the state's dazzling wilderness areas. Hike trails padded with wildflowers, bike through multicolored desert landscapes or soak in natural hot springs — the sky is truly the limit.

Visit CampColorado.com to find the perfect place to stay for your trip. Be sure to download the 2016 Camp Colorado Guide and browse deals and promotions on the website.

Fun Fact

Colorado's state animal is the Rocky Mountain bighorn sheep, the state bird is the lark bunting and the state flower is the columbine. Keep your eyes peeled for all of these Centennial State wonders while you explore the vast wilderness during your stay at Colorado campgrounds, RV parks and cabins.

SIP THE STATE

Local craft breweries, distilleries, wineries and cideries show off Colorado's best tastes.

Home to more than 300 breweries, 40 distilleries, 130 wineries and nearly 20 cideries, Colorado is a hub for locally produced libations. And the state's craft-beverage industry continues to evolve, thanks to passionate artisans who continue to produce super-tasty libations inspired by Colorado's fruitful harvests and one-of-a-kind way of life.

For decades, Colorado's craft-brewing community has produced seemingly endless varieties of celebrated beers, from golden pilsners and tangy sour ales to easy-to-sip sessions and soul-warming porters. Every region in Colorado is peppered with breweries, making sampling suds easier than ever. Since every brewery embodies its own character and approach to beer production, no two are alike — so you'll never run out of beers to taste.

Oodles of sunny days, cool nights and low humidity support a nourishing environment for growing Colorado grapes, which supply primo ingredients for local vintners. Colorado boasts two federally designated American Viticultural Areas: The Grand Valley, along the Colorado River, and the West Elks, along the North Fork of the Gunnison. Whether you prefer fruit wines flavored with picked-at-their-peak Western Slope peaches or vino made with traditional Bordeaux, Rhone and Germanic grape varieties, wineries and tasting rooms statewide are pouring a wide array of lauded wines.

Meanwhile, our talented distillers are dedicated to sourcing as many ingredients close to home as possible, fueling a farm-to-bar trend that's made Colorado a destination for fresh, innovative cocktails. Using elements like Rocky Mountain water and grain to produce super-smooth alcohol and implementing waste-not production practices have become staples of the state's dedicated craft-spirits industry.

The Centennial State also has a growing roster of hard cider producers. Fermented juice from apples, pears, cherries and other Colorado orchard fruits are melded with flavors like caramel, lemon grass and lavender to produce varieties of the delightfully fruity and fizzy concoctions, a refreshing alternative to beer or wine.
