Bill Ritter, Jr.
Governor

Greetings:

As Governor of the great State of Colorado, it is my pleasure to introduce you to the 2010 Colorado Boards and Commissions book.

Within the following pages, you will find descriptions of the many state boards and commissions on which Colorado citizens have the opportunity to serve this year. These boards, of which there are almost 300, help determine the direction of our state's future. From healthcare to air quality, transportation to the arts, there are a wide variety of boards for those who wish to serve our state.

Our state is envied for its beauty, and our people are admired for the diligence and can-do attitude we inherited from our pioneer predecessors. The people who serve on Colorado's boards and commissions exemplify this frontier spirit, and they possess additional qualities of leadership and a desire to give back to this state. I hope you will continue this tradition of public service by rolling up your sleeves and applying to serve on one of the many boards or commissions inside this book. Through your dedication and hard work, we will ensure that Colorado remains the best state in the nation.

You will find an application to serve on any of our boards and commissions at the end of this book, or you can download a copy online at www.colorado.gov/governor/boards-commissions.html. On behalf of the State of Colorado, thank you for your willingness to lead our state into the 21st century.

Sincerely,

Bill Ritter, Jr.
Governor
