John Hickenlooper
Governor

Dear fellow Coloradans:

In the 2012 State of the State address, we described a vision for Colorado where "everyone has the opportunity to pursue their passions, secure personal prosperity and contribute to their community." As a Colorado resident, you can help achieve this vision by serving on a state board or commission.

The Governor's Office of Boards and Commissions is continually looking for qualified candidates. The process to be considered to serve on a board or commission is simple. An application can be found at the end of this book and online at www.colorado.gov/governor/boards-commissions.html.

Our website and this book have descriptions of the many boards and commissions that are seeking candidates in 2012. These boards and commissions oversee a large variety of subjects and make wide-ranging decisions that affect your day-to-day lives as Coloradans. They provide the opportunity to promote education, to put more Coloradans to work and to develop and protect the resources of our beautiful state.

Thank you for your interest and willingness to serve.

Sincerely,

John Hickenlooper
Governor
