

COLORADO, Gateway to the Rocky Mountain West, was admitted to the Union in 1876 and is known as the Centennial State. Colorado is the eighth largest state in area and is the highest in average elevation except Alaska.

THE CONTINENTAL DIVIDE, running from north to south, separates the plains on the east from the mountains to the west.

INTERSTATE HIGHWAYS in Colorado total 947 miles. Interstate 25 runs from north to south, Interstate 70 from east to west and Interstate 80S diagonally from Denver to the northeast corner of the state. Completed portions are indicated by road symbols on the highway map.

SPEED LIMITS are posted for the benefit of the motorist on practically all State Highways. The lawful speeds are dis-surfaced highways. A speed limit of 70 miles per hour is permitted on surfaced, four-lane highways and certain other highways where so posted.

ACCIDENTS outside incorporated cities and towns are to be injured.

COLORADO has many miles of important connecting county roads that in numerous cases are the only access to communities, to scenic and recreational areas. Motorists plan-traveling in remote areas it is advisable to carry an emergency supply of food, water and blankets as well as tire
