BIENNIAL REPORT

OF THE

Commissioners and Warden

OF THE

COLORADO STATE REFORMATORY.

COMMISSIONER'S REPORT.

Buena Vista, Colo., November 30, 1900.

TO HIS EXCELLENCY,

CHARLES S. THOMAS,

GOVERNOR OF COLORADO:

Sir—We hereby beg leave to submit our report of the management of the Colorado State Reformatory for the two years ending November 30, 1900.

The reports of the warden, physician and chaplain we attach and make part of our report. They give full details of the work done in their respective departments, and to said reports we invite your special attention.

IMPROVEMENTS.

The Twelfth General Assembly appropriated the sum of eight thousand five hundred dollars for the State Reformatory, for the purpose of erecting steam heating plant, and making repairs and improvements. This appropriation was not available, and the much-needed improvements could not be made, but as an act of humanity we built a neat frame house and provided same with cots, for use as a hospital, and we made repairs on many of the buildings.

DISCIPLINE.

The discipline of the institution has been, in our opinion, the best the institution has enjoyed since its existence, and the good effect will be seen in the large per cent. of the inmates that have lived up to their parole contract. We attribute this most satisfactory state of affairs to the efficient and prudent efforts of Warden Dutcher and his officers. Very few changes have been made in the officers of the institution during the past two years. So perfect has been the discipline, that by reference to warden's reports you will see that very few punishments have been imposed.

THE PAROLE SYSTEM.

Your commissioners have been compelled to be more liberal along this line at times than our better judgment would dictate, but the crowded condition of the institution has left us but little or no choice in the matter. We only have room for 107 inmates, and when we exceed that number we are compelled to pick out the most promising and well behaved inmates, and place them upon parole, as the object of the institution would be destroyed if more than one was placed in a cell.

SCHOOL.

Our system of school work, as fully set forth in the chaplain's report, has been very satisfactory.

IMPROVEMENTS REQUIRED.

The commissioners have heretofore recommended improvements that were absolutely necessary in order to carry out the object of said institution, but on account of the financial condition of our state, the legislature failed to make appropriations for the erection of said improvements.

We again call attention to the urgent need of the following improvements:

First—We call special attention to the extension of our cell house. The necessity of this building can be better understood by reference to the warden's report, which shows that on November 30, 1900, we had 113 inmates, and only cell room for 107, and the commissioners will be compelled to parole the inmates that have only been in the institution a short time, and in our opinion, not fit to be turned out, in order to keep the number within the capacity of the institution. We trust the importance of building the second half of the west wing of the cell house, now in use, will be apparent, and we recommend the appropriation of fifty thousand dollars for that purpose. It will be understood that the construction of this west wing of the cell house in accordance with the original plans and specifications, and as approved by the general assembly, at the founding of this institution, would include dining room and kitchen, school room and chapel, wash house and bakery.

Our present dining room, chapel, wash house and bakery are wholly inadequate, and mere sheds.

We have a good steam plant, and for economy and better fire protection, we recommend an appropriation of three thousand dollars for the introduction of steam heat into all the buildings.

We hereby submit our estimates of the appropriations needed for the ensuing term:

Maintenance$80,000.00
To build the second half of the west wing of the cell house, which will include dining room, kitchen, chapel, wash house and bakery
Steam heating
Total	$133,000.00

In conclusion, the commissioners desire to attest their appreciation of the services of Warden A. C. Dutcher and his efficient officers.

We desire to thank your Excellency for the interest taken in the welfare of the institution, and for the advice and support rendered in conducting its affairs.

W. G. HINES, H. L. WHITE, LOUIS KING, Commissioners.

WARDEN'S REPORT.

Buena Vista, Colo., November 30, 1900.

TO THE HONORABLE BOARD OF COMMISSIONERS:

Gentlemen—I have the honor to submit my report of the management of the Colorado State Reformatory for the biennial period ending November 30, 1900, together with the reports of the various officers, which I append hereto and make part of this report.

FINANCIAL.

For a detailed statement of the finances, I refer you to the several statements as shown in the clerk's report.

The last general assembly appropriated for maintenance the sum of $70,000.00, and of this amount we have expended $69,993.66, leaving the small balance of $6.34. In order to accomplish this result, we have been compelled to be economical to such an extent as to sometimes neglect some of the real needs of the institution.

The growing population will necessitate a larger appropriation for this purpose.

You will also observe that the clerk's report shows that the net daily per capita cost for maintenance for the two years was $0.7633, and the gross per capita cost was $1.034.

SUBSISTENCE AND CLOTHING.

The average daily per capita cost for subsistence was $0.105. This includes the produce raised on our farm, which we charged to this account.

The average daily per capita cost for clothing was $0.03. We make all our own clothing, shoes, etc., that is worn by the prisoners.

DISCIPLINE.

The discipline of the institution for the past two years has been of a high order. It is not to be expected that men who have transgressed the laws of the state should be kept here for different periods of time, without to some extent breaking the rules, although the number of reports and punishments have been comparatively few. There have been but two escapes in the last two years. We have been exceptionally fortunate in this respect, when it is considered the manner in which we have worked the prisoners, sometimes miles away from the prison, and with our limited number of guards.

We have a system of credit marks by which a prisoner with a good record can earn certain privileges, while those disobeying the rules lose them.

LABOR.

We aim to keep all of the prisoners employed all of the time. The labor is used on the farm and grounds, in the shops, school and different buildings about the institution.

I refer you to the clerk's labor report for this information in detail.

HEALTH.

A reference to the physician's report will show you that the health has been exceptionally good for this term. We have had two deaths during this time, and but very little sickness of a serious nature.

SCHOOL.

The chaplain's report deals with this subject in detail. We now have about twenty-five prisoners attending school.

The majority of the prisoners sentenced here have but limited education, and a good many are unable to read or write. We lay great stress on our school, as one of the means of reformation.

It will be our aim to enlarge the work of this department as far as our means will permit us.

BUILDINGS.

Our buildings are wholly inadequate for the needs of the institution. There is a growing necessity for an additional cell house, a kitchen, a dining room, a laundry, a chapel and school room, officers' quarters, and additional buildings for trade schools.

Attention has been heretofore called to these needs, but the time has now arrived when it is absolutely necessary that some action be taken.

IMPROVEMENTS AND REPAIRS.

On account of our limited financial resources we have only expended $1,718.53, chargeable to this account, and we have made only such repairs as demanded our immediate attention.

PAROLE.

You will observe from the clerk's report that in the last two years 206 have been paroled, 11 have been discharged, 2 have escaped, 1 has been transferred, 2 have died, and 1 has been pardoned, making a total of 223.

Of this latter number, 40 have been known to have served previous terms in penal institutions.

In dealing with the moral side of man, it is quite impossible to form any basis for computation, so it is equally difficult to compute the percentage of reformation, but I submit the following statistics which may be of some interest:

Of the 206 who have been paroled, 58 have received their final release; 69 are now reporting and doing well, so far as known; 1 has died while on parole; 16 have been either re-committed or returned, and 62 have failed to report and are at large.

Of this latter number, it is not reasonable to presume that they have all gone back to a life of crime, but more probably a good number are leading honest lives, but have simply neglected to make their monthly reports.

REFORMATORY PLAN.

The reformatory plan is no longer in the experimental stage, but is an assured success. The difference in the appearance, manner and work of these prisoners, as compared to prisoners serving time under other plans, is apparent to the observing. There is not that sullenness, lack of ambition and hope.

To say that our expectation has been realized would be to put our standard too low, but we have striven to accomplish the best results under the circumstances and with our limited appointments.

To realize success in its fullest sense it will be necessary to establish trade schools where you can teach trades to the inmates, so they will be in position to take their places in the world with their competitors.

Too much care can not be exercised by judges and district attorneys in sending prisoners here. This is not the proper place at the present time to sentence one who has shown by his former conduct that he has determined to lead a life of crime, but for the first offender, who has made a mistake, or has been led into error, the results of the reformatory principle are apparent.

I wish to express to you, gentlemen, my thanks for the many courtesies extended to me both personally and in my official capacity, and for your attentive regard for this institution.

I desire also to commend to your board the services of my officers, and I take this means to express to those officers individually my appreciation of their valuable assistance, and my thanks for the personal courtesies they have extended to me.

> A. C. DUTCHER, Warden.

CHAPLAIN'S REPORT.

To the Honorable Board of Commissioners of the Colorado State Reformatory:

Gentlemen—It is an easy task to confine a prisoner, but it is difficult work to reform a criminal. To restore a dethroned conscience, and to build up a sturdy moral character out of defective, and often perverted, material requires all the skill and patience that the officers can command, and all the outward braces to morality which the resources of the institution can supply.

The degree of turpitude in the prisoner to be overcome can be measured only by one's knowledge of the causes that find ultimately their fruitage in crime. To plan wisely, one must know approximately the disposition of the criminal, and the cause or causes that led to his crime. After carefully weighing all the facts gleaned by observation and conversation (during the term now closing) from the inmates, I submit the following classification of the causes of crime:

- 1. Lack of efficient parental care and oversight.
- 2. Unhappy social conditions, resulting in disgrace, want, and sometimes expulsion from home.
 - 3. Ignorance of law and its gravity.
 - 4. Moral obtuseness.
 - 5. Desire to live without labor.
- 6. Discontent with the present order of things in the social and financial world.
- , 7. Lack of skill in labor, making a livelihood hard to earn.
 - 8. Ignorance.
 - 9. Idleness.

More violations of law are attributed to the two causes mentioned at the close of the list than the facts warrant.

The bulk of crime can be traced neither to ignorance nor idleness. One who has investigated this phase of criminal life says that 66 per cent. of American criminals have a fair English education, and 82 per cent. of them were at work when arrested. It is true, nevertheless, that the number of illiterate ones is quite large enough to make a daily school necessary.

Increasing obstacles in the way of unskilled labor renders a livelihood more difficult to obtain each year. It is, therefore, a matter for regret that the limited resources of the Reformatory make the maintenance of a skilled labor training school impossible. It would strengthen the weakened will of many an inmate to leave the institution with even a small measure of mechanical skill.

The work of the chaplain lies mainly along three lines of effort. These are: The chapel service, the school and personal contact.

CHAPEL SERVICE.

A service, of which the sermon is the principal feature, is held at 2:30 every Sunday. For a year the attendance has varied from 75 per cent. to 85 per cent. of the total number in the Reformatory. As attendance on these services is not compulsory, it is hoped that they are proving in some measure helpful to the work of reform. In these services dogma is avoided as far as possible, and Christianity is presented not as resting on belief only, but on a living, present, and therefore accessible God. Denominational ear-marks are carefully eschewed. The reasonableness of religion is made prominent. The music, both vocal and instrumental, has been furnished chiefly by the inmates, but visitors from town have frequently taken part in both, and have thus lent additional charm to that part of the service.

SCHOOL.

The warden selects for pupils such inmates as he thinks need and will profit by the opportunity. These are taught in the chapel by the chaplain. They are easily put in classes that correspond to the seven or eight grades in our public schools. We point with pleasure to the fact that quite a number who had no knowledge of letters in a few months have learned to read and to write well, while others, more advanced, have easily grasped the principles of higher arithmetic and English grammar. Those who have entered the school with a keen appreciation of their intellectual short-comings have, of course, progressed most rapidly. Short talks on manhood, self-control, manners and many other subjects have been well received by the scholars, and may bear fruit in some small way. Two Italians, one Mexican and one Russian, who knew not our tongue, can now read, write and speak English sufficiently well for all practical purposes.

Five days each week are given to the school, which begins at 9 a. m. and closes at 4:30 p. m. The above mentioned hours include recess for dinner.

PERSONAL CONTACT.

The numerous duties of the chaplain make it impossible to do as much work in this line as might be profitably undertaken. It is worthy of note, however, that any one of the inmates in search of information, advice, or sympathy in trouble, quickly finds the chaplain. There is a loneliness inseparable from the state of condemnation in which a prisoner lives that tends to dishearten its victim, and which can be successfully met by personal sympathy alone. It is hoped that the labors abundant connected with the chaplaincy have not hindered, to any serious extent, the essential features of this important field of work.

To the duties of the chaplain already mentioned some others are added. The letters sent out and received by the inmates pass through his hands, to be carefully read, so that any objectionable matter may be reported to the warden. These messages from the outside world vary in number from one hundred and ten to one hundred and thirty each week. Their contents are held sacred and are divulged to no person not entitled to know them. Could the tale of woe many of them tell be poured into the public ear, hearts now indifferent would throb in sympathy with Reformatory work.

LIBRARY.

A library is a necessary adjunct to a Reformatory. The number of great and good men who trace the upward turning point in their lives to the perusal of some book is surprisingly large. Next to a mother's most powerful hold, on most lives comes the silent influence of the literature they read. The "lives" of Webster, Clay and Calhoun implanted senatorial ambitions in one boy's mind at least that have recently been realized. Books often start impulses in young life that push their way, like plants, through all manner of rubbish, up to the light. A recent invoice shows a total of 1,440 volumes in the library. Included in this number are 290 school books, which shows an increase in this class of books during this term of 189. The records show that about 400 books are read and returned each month. Over 500 magazines have also been circulated in connection with the books of the library.

CONCLUSION.

While every case treated is not cured, the work itself is a success. That which deals with the moral side of man can not be measured with exactness. Its depths may lie below the reach of plummet, and its width pass beyond the range of theodolite. There are books that will be opened only when the "heavens shall have rolled up as a scroll." In them lie the secrets of life. But enough is known to show that it is a good work to restore a brother "overtaken in a fault."

To the warden and your honorable board, for numerous courtesies and kindly co-operation, I return "most hearty thanks."

W. L. RICHARDSON, Chaplain.

PHYSICIAN'S REPORT.

Buena Vista, Colo., November 30, 1900.

To the Honorable Board of Commissioners, Colorado State Reformatory:

Gentlemen—I have the honor to submit to you my second biennial report of the medical department of this institution. The diseases treated during the two years ending November 30, 1900, have been much of the same nature as in the past.

Two deaths occurred in the two years just closed: Inmate W. T. Hall died on February 8, 1899; cause of death, general peritonitis. On April 15, 1900, Inmate Charles Kezler died, the cause of his death being cerebral abscess, following an attack of influenza.

Inmate Clifford Hansford suffered so severely from haemoptysis, which resisted all known medical treatment, that it was considered advisable to transfer him to a lower altitude, and he was accordingly sent to the state penitentiary at Canon City, where he made an uninterrupted recovery.

We have had but one case of typhoid fever in the period of time covered by this report.

Of the so-called infectious and contagious diseases, we have been practically free, and are so at the present time.

The different departments of the institution have been carefully inspected and all found in a most hygienic condition.

The water supply is pure and abundant.

Fresh vaccine is kept constantly on hand and all inmates vaccinated.

Much credit is due to all the officers of the institution for their very efficient services. I desire to especially thank Warden A. C. Dutcher for his hearty co-operation and support in giving every assistance in the performance of my duties.

To the honorable board I wish to tender my sincere thanks and appreciation of the uniform kindness shown me.

RULES GOVERNING INMATES.

INTRODUCTORY.

The citizens of Colorado, regardful of the welfare of the young men who have been led by inclination or inadvertence to commit a felony, have established this institution for the confinement of such offenders.

In the legal sense, it is a penal institution, consequently a place of restraint, discipline and deprivation; yet it is not solely a place for punishment, but rather one for the help, uplifting and the upbuilding of each inmate—a place affording advantages to each inmate, and to give you time to consider, with helpful surroundings, the certain results of wrong-doing and evil associations, and lead you to firmly resolve that you will lead an honest and upright life.

Here you are removed from all contaminating influences and evil surroundings, and are surrounded by friends who earnestly seek your reformation, and by whose aid and that of your own will you can be restored to good citizenship.

It is necessary that we should have proper rules and regulations in order to maintain that which is fair, just and best for the interests of everyone.

To these rules every prisoner must render a strict obedience. A prompt, cheerful obedience will help everyone and enable each prisoner to secure the greatest possible advantages to himself, and all the pleasantness and comfort that can consistently be granted to one here.

The plan of the reformatory is to put each prisoner on his own merits, and to give him a chance by good conduct and his own efforts to shorten his stay herein; to give proper schooling to those who need it; to give trades to those who have none, and by all available means to advance the material, mental and moral interests of each prisoner.

GRADE RULES.

- 1. Prisoners in the reformatory will be classed in three grades: First, being the highest; second, or intermediate, and the third, or lowest.
- 2. On admission, each prisoner shall enter the second grade.
- 3. A prisoner will be admitted to the first grade when he shall have earned 1,000 credit marks.
- 4. If a prisoner in the first grade shall fail to obtain 110 credit marks during any one month, he shall be reduced to the second grade. If a prisoner in the second grade shall fail to obtain 110 credit marks each month, for two consecutive months, he will be reduced to the third grade.
- 5. A prisoner who has lost his grade standing may be restored to the next higher grade if he have a perfect record in the month next ensuing.
- 6. A prisoner shall be allowed, for perfect conduct, industry in labor and diligence in study, five credit marks for each day. For bad conduct, negligence, or any justifiable cause, he shall lose such number of marks as the warden shall decide.
- 7. A prisoner in any grade, who shall obtain five credit marks each day for three consecutive full calendar months, shall receive as a bonus, 100 additional credit marks.
- 8. The warden may, with the approval of the commissioners, allow special credit marks to any prisoner.
- 9. Serious breaches of the peace or discipline of the reformatory will cause a prisoner to be reduced to the lowest grade, and to suffer such punishment as the warden may direct.
- 10. Promotions and reductions from one grade to another will be made on the first of each month.

CONDUCT RULES.

- 1. Each prisoner must keep his room neat, clean and in order, ready to be inspected, to which it will be subject at all times.
- 2. It must be swept every day, washed once a week, and oftener if necessary. The beds must be well made, and kept well filled. The wash bowls and night buckets must be kept clean; the doors dusted, tables and all other furniture kept clean and orderly.

- 3. There must be nothing put in the night bucket that will obstruct the sewer. It must be kept near the ventilator.
- 4. Each prisoner must take his blankets to the yard to be aired whenever ordered, and will use his night bucket for a cuspidor.
- 5. At the striking of the first gong in the morning, he will rise, wash, fully dress and strip his bed. Before going to breakfast he will make his bed and put his room in order.
- 6. At the sliding of the bar he will open his door quietly, step out, close it, and march in his proper order from the corridor. When he re-enters his room he will close his door quietly.
- 7. He will, when in his room, remain quiet and will retire at the proper signal at night.
- 8. When the count is being taken at night, he will stand with his right hand clasping a bar of his door, and remain in this position until satisfactory to the officer making such count.
- 9. An inspection of rooms will be made by officers daily, and by the deputy warden weekly.

WORK.

- 10. Each prisoner will perform, in an industrious and diligent manner, such work as may be assigned to him.
- 11. He will obey all orders promptly, be quiet, and remain in the place designated by the officer in charge.
- 12. Be industrious, painstaking and not wasteful when at work. Be studious when in school, and try to learn all you can.
- 13. You must not leave the line or place of your employment without permission or by order. If unable to work, from any cause, make this fact known to the officer in charge, and act as he may direct.

GENERAL.

14. At every signal to fall into line for marching, you must take your place in the line promptly. Give your attention to the officer in charge, attend to and obey his orders.

- 15. When in line, you must not talk, laugh, or make any disturbance whatever. You must keep your eyes to the front, head erect, hands to the side and shoulders well back. When coat is worn, it must be buttoned, and all clothing neatly arranged, and in proper order.
- 16. When a prisoner wishes to speak to an officer he will approach him in a respectful manner, salute him by raising his right hand to his forehead, then drop it to his side and remain in a respectful attitude until the conversation is finished.
- 17. When a prisoner desires to see the warden, deputy warden or chaplain, he will so inform the officer in charge.
- 18. You will not have in your possession, in your room or elsewhere, any knives, tools, articles, or materials whatsoever (excepting those which are necessary in the actual performance of your work), without a written permit from the warden; neither will you write, convey notes to, or receive notes from any other prisoner.
- 19. A prisoner will not, without the consent of the warden or deputy warden, hold conversation with any person from outside the prison, nor will he receive or give anything whatsoever from or to any such person, or through the mails, or other carriers. Neither will he turn from his work to gaze at visitors.

- 5. All letters to and from prisoners will be carefully read by the warden, or his duly authorized agent, and anything objectionable will not be received or sent out.
- 6. Prisoners can receive visits from relatives and friends only by permission of the warden.
- 7. Each prisoner will be furnished with a library catalogue and card.

- 12. All periodicals, magazines and weekly newspapers which may be approved may be admitted. Sunday and daily papers will not be admitted.

PAROLE AND RELEASE.

- 1. As the laws provide sentences to this Reformatory to be absolutely indefinite, with certain maximum limits, prisoners will be released only when it appears to the satisfaction of the board of commissioners and the warden that the prisoner has reformed.
- 2. By this plan the intent of the law will be carried out more thoroughly than by any other. It is inevitable that under any system the prisoners who remain will criticize the release of some of their companions, on account of their not knowing all of the facts upon which the management may make their decision.

- 3. The board of commissioners meets every three months, to consider, among other things, the application of prisoners to be placed on the parole list.
- 4. The warden presents the prisoner's name to the commissioners, and in doing this he is governed by the conduct and apparent character of the prisoner while he is in the Reformatory. The commissioners determine the question of placing such prisoner on the parole list, after considering all the facts and conditions and circumstances.
- 5. Each prisoner will stand upon his own individual merits, and no outside influence will affect the decision of the question.
- 6. No application will be considered except from prisoners in the first grade.
- 7. When a prisoner is allowed to go upon parole, it will be upon the conditions set forth in the following parole contract, which he will be required to sign. Should he fail in any way to keep his part of this contract, he will be returned to this institution:

Commissioners.

Each prisoner will bear in mind that he is still a prisoner of this institution, under the control of its management, until he receives his "Absolute Release," which restores him to citizenship.

REMARKS.

It will be the constant and earnest endeavor of the management of this institution to assist the personal efforts of its inmates to a wiser, higher, better and more proper life.

The standard of the Reformatory, which must be reached prior to the presentation of a prisoner to be placed on the parole list, is not unnecessarily high or difficult to obtain; nor are the conditions of release severe requirements. They are such as to promote the personal welfare, and will aid each one fulfilling them.

As individuals, promise yourself that you will make all possible progress toward intellectual improvement, and to that high plane of morality which will secure the confidence of those who have you in charge.
