

BEWARE OF IMPOSTER FRAUD

Who's Pretending to be the Government Now?

You've probably gotten the calls from Social Security, the IRS, or Medicare. Scammers often impersonate government officials in an attempt to coerce consumers into sending them money or to steal personal information.

Don't do it! Federal and state government agencies and their employees don't ask people to send money for prizes, unpaid loans, or back taxes; nor are they permitted to ask you to wire money or add money to a prepaid debit card to pay for anything.

Tips on avoiding Imposter Fraud

Press Room

Attorney General Phil Weiser joins bipartisan coalition fighting for student borrowers

"Many student loan servicers have engaged in a broad range of unfair, deceptive, and abusive practices such as overcharging borrowers and steering them into expensive repayment plans," said Weiser, whose office is investigating Navient.

Read more

Major carriers, state AGs will work to combat robocalls

Attorney General Phil Weiser announced that a public-private coalition of 51 attorneys general and 12 phone companies have agreed to adopt eight principles to fight illegal robocalls.

Read More

Report Fraud

Every report we receive gives us insights into problems that people are experiencing in the marketplace and helps us to identify and prioritize problems for potential action. The result: better outcomes for consumers, businesses, and a better marketplace for Coloradans.

Tell us your story