

Strategic Policy Initiatives

The Department of Labor and Employment has identified five strategic policy initiatives for FY 2017-18 and beyond. For this performance evaluation, the Department has updated progress on the initiatives identified in the FY2019 Performance Plan that capture the Department’s strategic and operational priorities, and reflect the overall direction as identified by Department leadership. The updates reflect data as of October 1, 2017.

Additional detail for these, and other, strategic policy initiatives is available in the Department’s Performance Plan, which may be accessed here.

Operational Measures

Strategic Policy Initiative #1: Consistently Deliver Exceptional Customer Service

Customer satisfaction will be measured through the creation and implementation of an ongoing customer service survey.

Maintain a satisfaction rating above 90%.

Improve access to resources in the talent development system.

- Percent employers who agree: “My engagement with the workforce ecosystem helped me find the right number of employees with the skills and experience I need.”
- Percent job seekers and students who agree with: “My engagement with the workforce ecosystem helped me access the resources and/or training I need to find a job or advance my career.”
- Percent entering employment after services from the primary Workforce System job finding program
- Percent job retention after services from the primary Workforce System job finding program.
- Average annual wage after services from the primary Workforce System job finding program.
- Job placement for people with disabilities.
