Compliance Report
Of the
Department of Local Affairs

Issued Pursuant to C.R.S. 24-76.5-101 et seq.

“Restrictions on Public Benefits”

For the Year Ended

June 30, 2008

Compliance Report Pursuant to C.R.S. 24-76.5-101 et seq.

The Department of Local Affairs (DOLA) administered various grants for the year ending June 30, 2008, which may provide certain public benefits to end users. However, the majority of state and federal grants administered by DOLA are issued to units of government or corporations and not directly to individuals.

Division of Emergency Management (DEM)

The Division of Emergency Management (DEM) administered 60 grants for the year ended June 30, 2008. These grants included some of the following programs: Buffer Zone Protection Program, Citizen Corp Program, Chemical Stockpile Emergency Preparedness Program, Flood Mitigation Assistance Program, Law Enforcement Terrorism Preparedness Program, Homeland Security, Transit Security Grant Program, Urban Area Security Initiative, certain Emergency Declarations and other programs. Often times, various grant programs were accessed for a particular project. There were 58 grants administered with units of government and two (2) grants were with faith-based organizations. There were no grants administered to individuals.

Division of Housing (DOH)

The Division of Housing (DOH) administers various state and federal grant programs. The following programs were administered for the year ended June 30, 2008:

• Community Development Block Grant (CDBG)

DOH administered 26 CDBG grants for the year ended June 30, 2008 and all grants were to units of government.

• Emergency Shelter Grants (ESG)

DOH administered 44 ESG grants for the year ended June 30, 2008. One (1) grant was to a unit of government and the other 43 grants were to faith-based, non-profit and corporate entities.

• Housing Development Grant (HDG)

DOH administered 10 HDG grants for the year ended June 30, 2008 and three grants were with units of government and the other seven (7) grants were with faith-based, non-profit and corporate entities.

• HOME

DOH administered 26 HOME grants for the year ended June 30, 2008 and three (3) grants were with units of government and the other 23 grants were with faith-based, non-profit and corporate entities.

• Housing Opportunities for Persons With Aids (HOPWA)

DOH administered two (2) HOPWA grants for the year ended June 30, 2008 and both grants were with corporate entities.

- Revolving Loan Fund (RLF)

DOH administered four (4) RLF programs for the year ended June 30, 2008 and 2 were with units of government and the other two (2) were with non-profit or corporate entities.

Division of Local Government (DLG)

The Division of Local Government (DLG) administers various state and federal grant programs. The following programs were administered for the year ended June 30, 2008:

- Community Development Block Grant (CDBG)

DLG administered 14 CDBG grants for the year ended June 30, 2008 and all grants were to units of government.

- Colorado Heritage Planning Grants (CHPG)

DLG administered seven (7) CHPG grants for the year ended June 30, 2008 and all grants were to units of government.

- Energy Impact Assistance Funds (EIAF)

DLG administered 354 EIAF grants for the year ended June 30, 2008 and all grants were to units of government.

- State Local Government Limited Gaming Impact Fund

DLG administered 49 Local Government Limited Gaming Impact Fund grants for the year ended June 30, 2008 and all grants were to units of government.

- State Waste Tire Disposal and Recycling Program

DLG administered 38 Waste Tire Disposal and Recycling Program grants for the year ended June 30, 2008 and all grants were to units of government.

DLG also provided funds to six (6) companies for the End Users/Processors portion of the State Waste Tire Program for the year ended June 30, 2008. All six (6) companies were corporations.

None of the state or federal grants and/or funding programs administered by the Department of Local Affairs was issued to individuals.
