COLORADO PROPERTY TAXES

OVERVIEW

The Colorado property tax system provides revenue exclusively for local government services. The largest share of property tax revenue (56.5%) goes to support the state's public schools. County governments claim the next largest share (24.8%), followed by special districts (12.9%), municipal governments (4.9%), and junior colleges (0.9%).

The authority for property taxation is both constitutional and statutory. Article X of the Colorado Constitution provides that all property is taxable unless declared exempt by the Constitution, and that the actual value of taxable property shall be determined under the general laws to secure just and equalized valuations. The specific statutes pertaining to property taxation are found in Title 39, Articles 1 through 14, Colorado Revised Statutes.

Under the general laws of Colorado, county assessors are required to value all taxable property within their territorial jurisdictions. The State Board of Equalization has supervision over the administration of all laws concerning the valuation and assessment of taxable property and the levying of property taxes. The Division of Property Taxation, under the leadership of the Property Tax Administrator, coordinates and administers the implementation of property tax law throughout the sixty-three counties.

RESIDENTIAL ASSESSMENT RATE

For most property classes, assessors estimate the actual value of property, which is then multiplied by an assessment rate to determine the assessed (taxable) value. Until 1982, the assessment rate for residential and non-residential property was the same. However, as part of an effort to head off a tax shift to owners of residential improved property, a 1982 amendment to the Colorado Constitution provides for an adjustment of the residential rate to maintain a consistent relationship between the assessed values of residential and non-residential property. In years of general reappraisal, which occur in odd numbered years, the General Assembly is required to adjust the residential rate when the reappraisal causes a change in the percentage of statewide residential actual value to total actual value. The current residential assessment rate is 9.74 percent of actual value. The assessment rate for all other taxable property, except producing mines and oil and gas leaseholds, is fixed at 29 percent of its actual value.

Using projections by the Division of Property Taxation, the General Assembly has reduced the residential assessment rate for each reappraisal cycle since 1987. In 1987, the rate was lowered from 21 percent to 18 percent of actual value, and it was reduced to 16 percent the following year based on 1987 values reported by assessors. The rate was further reduced to 15 percent in 1989, 14.34 percent in 1991, 12.86 percent in 1993, 10.36 percent in 1995 and 9.74 percent in 1997.

ASSESSED VALUES FOR 1998

Table 1 shows the percentage changes in the assessed values of each property class that occurred between the 1997 and 1998 property tax years.

Table 1
Class	Percent Change 1997-1998
Vacant Land	- 5.9%
Residential	+ 4.4%
Commercial	+ 5.2%
Industrial	+ 2.7%
Agricultural	+ 1.5%
Natural Resources	+ 5.3%
Producing Mines	+ 17.5%
Oil & Gas	+ 20.1%
State Assessed	+ 3.3%
Net Total	+ 4.2%

Since 1998 was not a year of general reappraisal, the net total change was largely the result of new construction and the strength of the Colorado economy. In dollar terms, the largest increases occurred in the residential and commercial classes. Nearly half of the total increase occurred in the residential class with $570.7 million in assessed value or $5.86 billion in actual value attributable to residential new construction. Non-residential new construction, that occurred primarily in the commercial class, accounted for an increase of $544.8 million in assessed value or $1.88 billion in actual value. New construction also resulted in a reduction to the total value of vacant land. In percentage terms, the oil and gas and producing mines classes saw the largest increases. These changes are the result of production and price increases that occurred in 1997 and are reflected in 1998 values.

TAXING ENTITIES

As discussed in the overview, the largest share of local property tax revenue (56.5%) goes to public schools. Schools, however, also receive a major portion of their funding from the state. Provisions in the state school finance act tie the distribution of state funding for schools to the assessed values within the individual school districts. Districts with a greater assessed value per pupil receive less state aid than those with a lower assessed value per pupil. The local property tax burden in those districts increases to fill the gap.

Statewide, the property tax revenue for school districts and other entities increased for 1998. Table 2 indicates the percentage increases between the 1997 and 1998 tax years.

Taxing Entity	% Change 1997-1998
School District K-12	+ 6.07%
Junior Colleges	- 3.04%
Counties	+ 3.97%
Municipalities	+ 3.30%
Special Districts	+ 6.89%
All Entities	+ 5.41%

STATE BOARD OF EQUALIZATION

Membership

The State Board of Equalization (state board) consists of the Governor, the President of the Senate, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, or their designees, and two members appointed by the Governor with consent of the Senate. Each appointed member must be a qualified appraiser, a former assessor, or a person who has knowledge and experience in property taxation. The state board members for 1998 were Lyle C. Kyle, Chairperson and appointee of Governor Roy Romer; JoAnn Groff, Vice-Chairperson and appointee of Governor Romer; Senator Bill Schroeder, designee of Tom Norton, President of the Senate; Representative Steve Tool, designee of Charles E. Berry, Speaker of the House of Representatives; and Tim Daly, Designee of Governor Romer.

Duties and Responsibilities

The state board has various duties concerning the administration of property tax laws and equalization of the value of classes and subclasses of taxable property. Duties of the state board are found primarily in Article X, Sections 3 and 15 of the Colorado Constitution and in Title 39, Articles 1 & 9, Colorado Revised Statutes.

Among its duties, the state board reviews the findings and conclusions of the annual study and orders reappraisals in counties found not in compliance. The annual study was initiated by the 1982 amendment to the Constitution to ensure that all assessors value property at the same level of value using standardized procedures and statistical measurements. The study is conducted by an independent auditing firm contracted by the Director of Research, Legislative Council [39-1-104(16), C.R.S.]. The study and the resulting orders of reappraisal are the primary means of achieving statewide equalization. The state board also reviews county Abstracts of Assessment, decisions of county boards of equalization, and the policies and recommendations of the Property Tax Administrator.

1998 Enforcement and Repayment Actions

On October 5, 1998, the state board met to review the findings and conclusions of T.Y. Pickett & Co. Inc., audit contractor for Legislative Council.

After considering all the evidence and testimony, the state board concluded that 1998 property values for all 63 counties were in compliance with Colorado assessment law, and no reappraisals were ordered.

The prior year, the state board had determined that the 1997 values for three counties were out of compliance, and issued the following reappraisal orders:

County	Property Classes Ordered
Lake	Vacant Land
Routt	Agricultural Sub-Classes
Hinsdale	Single Family Residential, Vacant Land, Commercial/ Industrial, Agricultural Improvements

Upon recommendation of the auditor, the state board concluded during its 1998 meeting, that the 1997 orders were justified and successfully completed.

As part of the 1982 amendment to the constitution, all counties that are ordered to reappraise are required to pay back the state for excess state equalization payments made to school districts. Excess state aid to schools can occur when counties are undervalued. The counties may be required to reimburse the costs of supervision as well. In 1998, the state board ordered the counties that had received 1997 orders to make the following paybacks and reimbursements.

	Supervision	State Aid to Schools Payback
Lake	$10,599.00	$0
Routt	$878.23	$81.79
Hinsdale	$959.30	$7.47

Since 1988, the state board has allowed counties to choose an alternative method for the repayment of the supervision costs. Rather than paying the money to the state, counties are allowed to apply the supervision repayment to the budgets of their assessors' offices, for the purpose of enhancing their operational effectiveness. No mill levy increases are allowed to fund the repayment. Each county that received a 1998 repayment order chose the alternative method.

DIVISION OF PROPERTY TAXATION

Under the general laws of Colorado, the Division of Property Taxation is headed by the Property Tax Administrator. The current Property Tax Administrator is Mary E. Huddleston. The Administrator is appointed by the State Board of Equalization to serve for a five-year term and until a successor is appointed and qualified.

The primary responsibility of the Division of Property Taxation (division) is to administer the implementation of property tax law throughout the sixty-three counties so that valuations are fair, uniform, and defensible; and, thereby, ensure that each property class contributes a fair share, no more and no less, to total property tax revenue. In other words, the division's goal is equalization of valuation and proper distribution of property taxes throughout the state.

The division is comprised of four sections: Administrative Resources, Appraisal Standards, Exempt Properties, and State Assessed Properties.

Administrative Resources staff serves as liaison to the sixty-three counties in determining existing and future needs for assistance from the division. In addition, the section serves as a liaison and coordinator with a variety of other agencies having an interest in property taxation.

The staff conducts all courses dealing with statutory reporting and the administration of an assessor's office and provides workshops in specialized areas of assessment administration such as parcel mapping, severed mineral assessment, and title conveyance.

The staff also researches, develops, and publishes manuals on assessment procedures and legal references, publishes the mobile equipment manual for county clerks and recorders, and provides data processing coordination and administrative services for the division. They conduct research projects for the division and the General Assembly and provide administrative services for the State Board of Equalization and the Statutory Advisory Committee to the Property Tax Administrator. They also deal with taxpayer complaints and process abatement petitions while providing technical consultation and assistance to county staff.

Appraisal Standards staff serves as liaison to the sixty-three counties in determining existing and future needs for assistance from the division primarily in the appraisal field. It also serves as a liaison and coordinator with a variety of other appraisal agencies and companies having an interest in property taxation.

The staff conducts courses dealing with all aspects of appraisal including all three approaches to value. It also conducts workshops in specialized areas such as standards and ethics for appraisers, sales ratios, agricultural valuation, contaminated property, and vacant land discounting procedures. All appraisal courses are approved for licensing by the Colorado Board of Real Estate Appraisers.

Appraisal Standards also researches, develops and publishes manuals on appraisal procedures for both real and personal property.

Exempt Properties examines all applications for exemption from property taxation for property claimed to be owned and used solely and exclusively for religious worship, private schools, or charitable purposes, and makes determinations on these cases. Annual reports of exempt properties are reviewed to determine continuations of the exemptions. The Exemptions Section reviews approximately 700 applications and 9,500 annual reports for exemption each year.

State Assessed Properties values all public utility properties in the state. The State Assessed Section sets values on approximately 600 companies every year.

POSSESSORY INTEREST

Possessory interest is a right to use government-owned property pursuant to a lease, license, permit or other right short of ownership. A question of considerable concern to Colorado assessors is whether such property, which would normally be exempt from taxation, should be subject to taxation due to the existence of a possessory interest. This section will attempt to trace the history of this debate.

In 1967, Mesa Verde Company filed an abatement/refund petition with Montezuma County seeking a refund of property taxes paid "under protest" since 1937. Mesa Verde claimed the improvements the company was taxed on were exempt because they were owned by the federal government. The petition was denied by the County Board of Equalization, and the company appealed to District Court. The court dismissed the appeal, ruling it must look "behind the shadow of the United States' title to the substantive ownership of plaintiff." The court ruled that Mesa Verde "had substantially all the incidents of ownership of these improvements" making them subject to taxation. Mesa Verde appealed the court's decision to the Supreme Court.

In Mesa Verde Company v. Montezuma County Board of Commissioners, et al., 178 Colo 49, 495 P. 2d 229 (Colo. 1972), the Colorado Supreme Court affirmed the District Court's ruling. The court noted that the contracts with the Secretary of the Interior granted Mesa Verde "...a possessory interest in all concessionaire's improvements consisting of all incidents of ownership..." The court stated that based on "...the contracts' terms, the language of relevant statutes, and the actions of the parties while under contract..." it was able to conclude there was support in the record for the trial court's finding. Of significance is the court's finding that legal title vested in the United States only for collateral security purposes for performance conditions is not conclusive evidence of ownership by the United States. In addition, since significant incidents of the plaintiff's ownership exist, the property should not be exempt from taxation.

In 1975, the Colorado Legislature passed Senate Bill 86, adding language to the statutes to affirm the taxation of possessory interest properties. The act stated in part:

"When any property which for any reason is exempt from taxation is leased, loaned, or otherwise made available to and used by a private individual, association, or corporation in connection with a business conducted for profit, the lessee or user thereof shall be subject to taxation in the same amount and to the same extent as though the lessee or user were the owner of such property,..." 39-3-112(1), C.R.S., repealed and reenacted in 1989 as section 39-3-135(1), C.R.S.

In 1980, the U.S. 10th Circuit Court of Appeals ruled in the United States of America v. State of Colorado, et al. (Rockwell Case), 627 F.2d 217 (1980), that management contracts do not create a possessory interest in property that is used in conjunction with the agreement. This case concerned the Rocky Flats Nuclear Weapons Plant and the operator/manager, Rockwell International. The court determined the relationship between the government and Rockwell was such that the company operated under a management contract and any use of the property was strictly delineated by the contract, making it not fall under the description of possessory interest.

In 1983, the Colorado Court of Appeals cited the "Rockwell Case" in Southern Cafeteria Inc. v. Property Tax Administrator, et al, 677 P.2d 362 (Colo. App. 1983) (Southern Cafeteria) ruling that management contracts cannot be valued as a possessory interest. Once again, the court found the taxpayer had no "incidents of ownership" over the property. The government provided essentially all equipment, fixtures, and real property, monitored the pricing structure, and maintained control over the amount of profit Southern Cafeteria could realize.

The issue surfaced again in 1992 when, under an order from the Montezuma County Board of Equalization, the assessor placed an omitted property assessment on four parcels of land on which Mesa Verde Company operated its concessions. The company still operated under a contract with the U.S. Government to manage the improvements for the benefit of the general public. The taxpayer protested, then appealed to the County Board Of Equalization, but was denied. The taxpayer then appealed to District Court, who ruled that: 1. "Mesa Verde did not enjoy a taxable 'ownership interest' in the subject land". 2. "Mesa Verde's use and possessory interest in the subject land was ... exempt from Colorado property tax under the plain language of sections 39-3-135(1) and 39-3-135(4)(c)..." and 3. Montezuma County had no standing to challenge the constitutionality of the statutes. Mesa Verde Company v. the Montezuma County Board of Equalization et al., 898 P.2d 1, (Colo 1995).

The Montezuma County Board of Equalization appealed the issue of standing directly to the Supreme Court. In Mesa Verde Company v. Montezuma County Board of Equalization, et al., 831 P.2d 482 (Colo. App. 1992), the Supreme Court affirmed that the County Board of Equalization and assessor lacked standing to challenge the constitutionality of statute.

In 1993, the Colorado Legislature enacted 30-11-105.1, C.R.S., allowing counties or county officers, in defending an action in court, to contest the constitutionality of a statute. Based on this, Montezuma County filed a motion in District Court to vacate the judgment. The parties stipulated that the county now had standing, and the county's motion to vacate would be treated as a motion for summary judgment. The court agreed to vacate part of its order regarding the county's standing, but kept other parts of the order in force until it could rule on the constitutionality of 39-3-135, C.R.S.

In October 1993, the District Court denied the county's motion and ruled that 39-3-135, C.R.S., was unconstitutional as applied to users of federal land because it violates the Supremacy Clause of the U.S. Constitution. The court held that neither the federal land nor any alleged interest of Mesa Verde in the federal land is subject to Colorado property taxation, and that the county had no authority to tax Mesa Verde's use and possessory interest. Montezuma County appealed to the Colorado Supreme Court.

On April 24, 1995, in Mesa Verde Co. v. Montezuma County Board of Equalization et al., 898 P.2d 1 (Colo. 1995), the Supreme Court reversed the judgment of the District Court, ruling that:

- Mesa Verde Company's possessory interest was "real property" within the meaning of statutory provisions defining real property for tax purposes.

- Mesa Verde Company's possessory interest fell within the Government Contractor Exemption and the Public Park Exemption. However, those exemptions were invalid; they represented attempts by the Legislature to exempt real property that the Colorado Constitution did not authorize the Legislature to exempt.
- The Supremacy Clause did not preclude the state's taxation of the concessionaire's possessory and usufructuary interests in federally owned land.
- The resulting tax was valid because the Ski Area Valuation Rule (and not the unqualified As-if owned Rule) applied to determine valuation, 39-3-135(6), C.R.S. Thus, the result found unacceptable in the Rockwell case did not apply in this case.

In reaching its decision, the Supreme Court ruled that Mesa Verde's use and possession of federal land fell under the limitations in 39-3-135(1) and (4)(c), C.R.S. The court also ruled, however, that the second sentence of 39-3-135 (1) and all of (4)(c) were unconstitutional because they created exemptions not authorized by Article X of the Colorado Constitution. The court also stated: "Furthermore, sections 9 and 10 of Article X specifically proscribe the legislative power 'to impair the financial base of government operations' by exempting corporate bodies, such as Mesa Verde, from their share of taxation. Allardice v. Adams County, 173 Colo. 133, 158, 476 P.2d 982, 995 (1970); see also Colo. Const. Art. X; Sections 9 & 10."

At the time of the Supreme Court's decision, HB 95-1071, titled Concerning Property Taxes, had passed through the House, and was in the Senate. HB 95-1071 was amended to repeal the possessory interest statute, 39-3-135, C.R.S., and the unit assessment rule statute, 39-1-106, C.R.S., and to place into statute valuation procedures if the Colorado Constitution was ever found to require possessory interest valuation. The reasoning behind repealing the possessory interest statute was that county assessors must have statutory permission to value possessory interests. This premise was partially based on a 1970 Supreme Court ruling that an assessor could not value a leasehold interest in otherwise exempt personal property without express direction from the Legislature, City and County of Denver v. Security Life & Accident Co., Colo. 173 Colo. 248, 477 P.2d 369 (Colo 1970).

On June 5, 1995, Governor Romer vetoed HB 95-1071 stating more time should be dedicated to arriving at a solution. A group made up of possessory interest holders, their representatives, and governmental individuals met during the interim, but no agreement was reached.

The issue was debated again in 1996, resulting in passage of Senate Bill 96-218. The legislation did three things.

- Stated that possessory interests should not be taxed with the exceptions of: 1) equities in state lands, 2) mines, quarries, or minerals, including hydrocarbons, and 3) public utilities.
- Repealed 39-3-135, C.R.S., in its entirety and further stated that possessory interests in real or personal property exempt from taxation under 39-3-136, C.R.S., shall not be subject to taxation unless specific statutory provisions are enacted directing the taxation of possessory interests.
- Established procedures for valuing possessory interests that take effect if possessory interests are found to be taxable under the Constitution, 39-1-103(17), C.R.S.

The stated concern of the Legislature was the Supreme Court's holding that certain possessory interests in land are "real property" and, therefore, subject to property taxation. The Legislature felt the decision opened the door for a variety of possessory interest valuations such as grazing leases, permits on government land, or government employees' parking spaces in government-owned garages becoming subject to property taxation. Further, those interests could be valued by different methods.

SB 96-218 was signed by Governor Romer June 5, 1996, a month after the statutory date for mailing Notices of Valuation to taxpayers. When the State Board of Equalization (state board) met on October 16, 1996, eighteen counties had not yet removed possessory interest valuations because they believed the legislation was unconstitutional. The state board postponed the hearing on possessory interests to October 28, 1996, so counties had time to prepare presentations. They also informed the counties of their intention to uphold the law.

When the state board met on October 28, 1996, fourteen counties had not removed the possessory interest valuations. The state board issued orders to each of the counties to remove the possessory interest valuations, and it further ordered the counties to report back by November 13, 1996, that the order had been implemented.

The state board met on November 19, 1996, to review the counties' responses. Ten counties notified the state board they had not removed the possessory interest valuations. To protect remedies, Boulder County filed an appeal in Denver District Court November 13, 1996; Clear Creek County filed in Denver District Court November 13, 1996, and seven counties filed an action November 25, 1996. The seven counties were Eagle, Grand, Jefferson, Montezuma, Pitkin, Routt, and Summit. Gunnison County chose not to file an appeal in anticipation of the state board's filing a petition for writ of mandamus with the Supreme Court.

On approximately December 5, 1996, the state board filed a petition for writ of mandamus with the Supreme Court asking the court to order the ten counties to show cause why they should not comply with the state board's order to remove the possessory interest valuations from the county assessment rolls. The state board also requested the court to stay the proceedings pending in Denver District Court. On December 19, 1996, the court denied the petition without comment.

On August 11, 1997, Denver District Court decided in favor of the State Board of Equalization and upheld the constitutionality of SB 96-218. The court based its ruling on the following points:

- The Supreme Court's decision in Mesa Verde Co. v. Montezuma is clearly based on a statutory definition of possessory interests as "real property." "The Supreme Court did not hold, or even suggest, that the subject land-use rights were inherently 'real property' as that term is defined in Article X, section 3," of the Constitution. Subsequent to the Supreme Court's decision, the Legislature enacted 39-3-136, C.R.S. (SB 96-218) to exclude possessory interests from the statutory definition of "real property."
- The counties did not meet the burden to prove SB 96-218 unconstitutional beyond a reasonable doubt.
- There is no requirement in the Colorado Constitution to tax possessory interests.
- The state board did not abuse its discretion in ordering all counties with 1996 possessory interest assessments to remove them from their tax rolls.

The counties appealed to the court of appeals, and on December 24, 1998 the court issued a decision that affirmed the decision of the district court. In doing so, the court cited the reasoning in Vail Associates, Inc. v. Eagle County Board of County Commissioners, Colo. App. No. 97CA0265, 10/29/98. This closely related case came before the court when Eagle County appealed the BAA's decision requiring them to remove Vail Associates' possessory interest value from the tax rolls.

In Vail Associates, the court based its decision on an understanding that the taxation of property requires implementing legislation; therefore, "the General Assembly has the discretion to determine questions of time, method, nature, purpose, and extent in respect to the imposition of taxes, the subjects upon which the taxing power is to be exercised, and the proceedings concerning taxation." The court said the constitution is a document that sets the limits in which the General Assembly can operate, but there is no restriction against the General Assembly taking actions within those limits. The General Assembly recognized its constitutional limitations "noting that it could not create a class of property to be taxed and then exempt certain members of that class." Therefore, the General Assembly "decided that it simply would not create that class consisting of possessory interests."

The court also addressed the BOE's objection to the enactment of 39-3-136, C.R.S., without the amendment of 39-1-102(14) and 39-1-111, C.R.S., the statutes cited in Mesa Verde as defining possessory interests as real property subject to taxation. "It is not for the reviewing court to determine that the General Assembly could have addressed an issue in a different or 'better' manner," it said. "Rather, the court's function is to uphold the intent of the General Assembly and determine whether a statute is constitutional."

The counties have appealed the decision to the Colorado Supreme Court.

AGRICULTURAL TIMBERLAND

In 1990, the Colorado legislature passed HB 90-1229, expanding the definition of "agricultural land" to include forested land that meets certain requirements. The definition reads as follows:

"A parcel of land which consists of at least forty acres; which is forest land; which is used to produce tangible wood products that originate from the productivity of such land for the primary purpose of obtaining a monetary profit; which is subject to a forest management plan; and which is not a farm or ranch, as defined in subsection (3.5) and (13.5) of this section. "Agricultural land" under this subparagraph (II) includes land underlying any residential improvement located on such agricultural land." 39-1-102(1.6)(a)(II), C.R.S.

Since the enactment of this law, several owners have taken advantage of it to secure significant tax reductions by developing "forest management plans" on what otherwise would generally be classified as vacant or residential improved land. This has resulted in a loss of revenue for 1998 to the following counties that have "agricultural timberland."

SHIFT OF PROPERTY TAX BURDEN DUE TO GALLAGHER AMENDMENT

Table Number 4 on the next page, shows the shift of property tax burden away from residential owners from the inception of the Gallagher Amendment through 1998. Residential taxpayers have saved approximately $3,758,694,091 since the amendment's inception.

The table begins with 1987, because the residential assessment rate remained at 21% until 1987. The contents of each row in the table are described below.

- Row 1. Hypothetical residential assessment rate, 21%.
- Row 2. Actual residential assessment rate for each particular year.
- Row 3. Actual average mill levy.
- Row 4. Hypothetical average mill levy, had the residential rate been 21% every year. This is calculated by dividing the total actual revenue received in each year (Row 9), by the total assessed value, had the residential rate been 21% (Row 8).
- Row 5. Actual total residential assessed value.
- Row 6. Actual total statewide assessed value.
- Row 7. Total hypothetical residential assessed value, had the residential rate remained at 21%.
- Row 8. Hypothetical total assessed value, had the residential assessment rate remained at 21%.
- Row 9. Total actual statewide property tax revenue.
- Row 10. Total hypothetical tax revenue attributable to residential property, had the residential rate remained at 21%. This is calculated by multiplying the hypothetical mill levy at 21% (Row 4) by the hypothetical residential assessed value at 21% (Row 7).

Concerning the Forms of Evidence That May Be Presented to Prove That a Parcel of Land is Not "Agricultural Real Estate" For Foreclosure Redemption Purposes.

This bill modifies the definition of "agricultural real estate" for foreclosure redemption purposes as NOT being in a platted subdivision, located within an incorporated town, city, or city and county, or is not valued and assessed by the assessor as agricultural land. Previously, statute required that in order for the property to not be considered as agricultural the parcel had to be either :

- 1) part of a platted subdivision or
- 2) located within an incorporated town, city, or city and county AND not valued and assessed by the assessor as agricultural property.

If it is not evident as to whether or not the land is agricultural land, then the public trustee or sheriff shall accept as evidence a certified copy of the plat of the subdivision that contains all or part of the parcel, a certificate from the county clerk and recorder of the city, town, or city and county that certifies that all or part of the parcel is located within the incorporated city limits, or a certificate from the assessor that the property is not valued and assessed as agricultural land. Previously, statute required :

- 1) a certified copy of the plat of the subdivision or
- 2) a certificate from the county clerk and recorder of the city, town, or city and county that certifies that all or part of the parcel is located within the incorporated city limits, AND a certificate from the assessor that the property is not valued and assessed as agricultural land.

The bill increases the income limitations for qualifying from less than $7,500 to $11,000 for single people and from less than $11,200 to $14,700 for husband and wife.

For heat/fuel expense assistance claimed for years on or after January 1, 1999 and after, the bill increases the amount of heat/fuel expense assistance grant from $160 to $192, reduced by 3.2% of the income exceeding $5,000 for single persons and $8,700 for husband and wife rather than 6.4%.

Each grant program will be reviewed by legislative finance committees every two years for possible changes due to a change in the level of the federal poverty index.

SB 98-027
Concerning the Authority of County Treasurers

This bill was initiated by the County Treasurers' Association. It adds a new section to Title 39 and a new section to Title 30. The first section, 39-10-110.5 C.R.S., allows the treasurers to accept partial payments on delinquent personal property taxes. The bill requires that the taxpayer and the treasurer agree to a written payment plan that includes the total amount of taxes due including fees, interest and penalties; the amount of each payment; and the payment due dates. The payment plan may not be longer than two years from the date the plan is made. The treasurer must keep a record of the plan and mark it "paid in full" when the owner has paid the total amount due. The treasurer may terminate the payment plan if the owner fails to abide by the terms and conditions of the plan.

The second section, statute 30-10-709(2), C.R.S., adds new language to allow the treasurer to perform, or cause to be performed, an audit of the county treasurer's office.

SB 98-093
Concerning the Alternative Procedure for Taxpayers to Contest the Valuation of Real Property for Property Tax Purposes in Certain Counties that Elect to Utilize such Alternative Procedure

This bill allows the governing bodies of Boulder, Jefferson, El Paso, and Denver counties to elect to alter the real property protest period by expanding the assessor's time to answer protests from the last regular working day in June to the last regular working day in August. This would give assessors an additional 60 days to respond to taxpayers' protests. If the alternative protest procedure is requested by the assessor and approved by the commissioners, the County Board of Equalization (CBOE) hearings would begin no later than September 1, rather than July 1. The taxpayer must file real property appeals with the CBOE by September 15. CBOE decisions must be rendered no later than November 1, rather than August 5, potentially giving the county board a total of 60 days to hear appeals.

Reporting requirements for certification of values should not be affected.

(1) Averages will not add to the Total Average County Levy because denominators (Assessed Valuation) are not common to all.

(2) Municipal Revenues are divided by the sum of Municipal Assessed Valuation.

(3) Special District Revenues are divided by the sum of all Special District Assessed Valuation.

* These figures include tax increment valuation, and all tax revenues attributable to the increment are allocated to the increment financing authority only.
