COLORADO PROPERTY TAX

OVERVIEW

The Colorado property tax system provides revenue exclusively for local government services. The largest share of property tax revenue (53.5%) goes to support the state's public schools. County governments claim the next largest share (24.8%), followed by special districts (15.3%), municipal governments (5.4%), and junior colleges (1.0%).

The authority for property taxation is both constitutional and statutory. Article X of the Colorado Constitution provides that all property is taxable unless declared exempt by the Constitution, and that the actual value of taxable property shall be determined under the general laws to secure just and equalized valuations. The specific statutes pertaining to property taxation are found in Title 39, Articles 1 through 14, Colorado Revised Statutes.

Under the general laws of Colorado, county assessors are required to value all taxable property within their territorial jurisdictions. The State Board of Equalization (state board) has supervision over the administration of all laws concerning the valuation and assessment of taxable property and the levying of property taxes. The Division of Property Taxation (Division), under the leadership of the Property Tax Administrator (administrator), coordinates and administers the implementation of property tax law throughout the sixty-four counties.

Taxing Entities

Revenue derived from 2002 property taxes (payable 2003) will increase statewide for every type of local government. The combined revenue increase from taxes payable in 2003 is 5.92 percent. Table 1 lists the percentage increases in property tax revenue between taxes payable in 2002 and taxes payable in 2003.

Taxing Entity	2001-2002 % Increase
School District K-12.....	+ 5.02%
Junior Colleges .....	+ 3.04%
Counties.....	+ 7.07%
Municipalities.....	+ 3.94%
Special Districts.....	+ 8.05%
Combined Increase .....	+ 5.92%

In addition to receiving the largest share of local property tax revenue (53.5%), schools also derive a major portion of their funding from the state. Provisions in the state school finance act create a relationship between the distribution of state funding for schools and the assessed values within the individual districts. In general, districts with higher assessed values per pupil receive less state aid than those with lower assessed values per pupil. Instead, the districts with higher assessed values derive a greater portion of their funding from local property taxes. During the 2002-2003 budget year, funding from the state is expected to provide $3,425 per pupil, or about 59.5 percent of schools' total program funding.

State Board of Equalization

Membership

The State Board of Equalization consists of the Governor, the President of the Senate, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, or their designees, and two members appointed by the Governor with consent of the Senate. Each appointed member must be a qualified appraiser, a former assessor, or a person who has knowledge and experience in property taxation. The state board members for 2002 were Lyle C. Kyle, Chairperson and appointee of Governor Bill Owens; Heather Witwer, Vice-Chair and designee of Governor Owens; Senator Terry Phillips, designee of Stan Matsunaka, President of the Senate; Representative Joe Stengel, designee of Doug Dean, Speaker of the House of Representatives; and JoAnn Groff, appointee of Governor Owens.

Duties and Responsibilities

The state board has various duties concerning the administration of property tax laws and equalization of the values of classes and subclasses of taxable property. Duties of the state board are found primarily in Article X, Sections 3 and 15 of the Colorado Constitution and in Title 39, Articles 1 and 9, Colorado Revised Statutes.

Among its duties, the state board reviews the findings and conclusions of the annual study contractor and orders reappraisals in counties found not in compliance. The annual study was initiated by a 1982 amendment to the Constitution to ensure that all assessors value property at the same level of value using standardized procedures and statistical measurements. The study is conducted by an independent auditing firm contracted by the Director of Research, Legislative Council, 39-1-104(16), C.R.S. The study and the resulting orders of reappraisal are the primary means of achieving statewide equalization.

The state board's equalization function is important due to the relationship between assessed values and state aid to schools. Generally, if the property in a school district is under-assessed, it is likely that the district will receive more state revenue than it is entitled. The state board also reviews county Abstracts of Assessment, decisions of county boards of equalization (county board), and the policies and recommendations of the Property Tax Administrator.

2002 Enforcement and Repayment Actions

On October 7, 2002, the state board met to review the findings and conclusions of Thos. Y. Pickett & Co., Inc., annual study contractor for Legislative Council.

After considering all evidence and testimony, the state board concluded that 2002 class values for all 64 counties were in compliance with Colorado assessment law, and it issued no orders requiring the reappraisal of a class or sub-class of property.

However, the state board issued an order to the Mesa County Board of Equalization that it rescind its decision to remove the possessory interest valuations from two properties. The order, and related correspondence with other counties, are discussed in more detail on page II-29.

2001 Enforcement and Repayment Actions

On October 15, 2001, the state board met to review the findings and conclusions of Thos. Y. Pickett & Co., Inc., annual study contractor for Legislative Council.

The report by the annual study contractor recommended that two counties receive reappraisal orders. The recommendations were for the reappraisal of the commercial and industrial classes in Conejos County and the natural resources class in Routt County.

In response, the counties testified that they had resolved the problems identified in the report. Their testimony was supported by a representative of the annual study contractor, who confirmed that the company reviewed the revisions of both counties and that they were in compliance with the standards established by the state board. Based on the testimony, the state board determined that the values for the two counties, and Colorado's 61 other counties, were in compliance with Colorado assessment law, and no reappraisals were ordered.

2001 Possessory Interest Orders

Pursuant to the Colorado Supreme Court's decision in Board of County Commissioners, County of Eagle, State of Colorado v. Vail Associates Inc. and the Board of Assessment Appeals and Allen S.

Black et al. v. Colorado State Board of Equalization, 19 P.3d 1263 (Colo 2001), the state board unanimously voted on November 21, 2001, to order county assessors that were not parties to the case to value possessory interests beginning with tax year 2001. The order is discussed in more detail on page II-29.

2000 Enforcement and Repayment Actions

On October 10, 2000, the state board met to review the findings and conclusions of Thos. Y. Pickett & Co., Inc., annual study contractor for Legislative Council.

After considering all evidence and testimony, the state board concluded that 2000 property values for all 63 counties were in compliance with Colorado assessment law, and no reappraisals were ordered.

The state board also reviewed the results of reappraisals ordered the prior year for vacant land in Park and Saguache Counties. The state board determined that the reappraisals in both counties were successfully completed, and it ordered the counties to make the following paybacks and reimbursements.

County	Supervision Reimbursement	State Aid to Schools Payback
Park .....	$ 6,602.07 .....	$63.72
Saguache .....	$15,159.79 .....	$90.43

Since 1988, the state board has allowed counties to choose an alternative method for the repayment of the supervision costs. Rather than paying the money to the state, counties are allowed to apply the supervision repayment to the budgets of their assessors' offices, for the purpose of enhancing their operational effectiveness.

The Saguache County Commissioners chose to employ the alternative method, and submitted a plan detailing how the money would be used to enhance the effectiveness of the assessor's office. The Park County Commissioners chose not to employ this method of repayment, and were ordered to pay the supervisory costs.

1999 Enforcement and Repayment Actions

The vacant land reappraisal orders for Park and Saguache Counties were issued during the October 12, 1999, meeting of the state board. At the meeting, the state board also determined that Fremont County's irrigated farm land was out of compliance. The state board's decisions were based on the 1999 findings and conclusions of annual study contractor Thos. Y. Pickett & Co., Inc.

Vacant land values for Park County were found out of compliance because the reappraisal achieved a 26.46 percent coefficient of dispersion. That figure exceeds the vacant land standard of 20.99 percent. Saguache vacant land was out of compliance because the median sales ratio of 93.06 percent fell outside the allowable range of 95.0 to 105.0 percent.

A reappraisal of Fremont County's irrigated land was ordered because the crop yield used for valuing the subclass was 125 percent of the ten-year average yield reported by the Colorado Agricultural Statistics Service (CASS). This fell outside the state board's compliance standard of 90 to 110 percent. Upon receiving the order, the county made a uniform adjustment to its irrigated land values to achieve compliance with the state board standard prior to publication of the tax warrant.

On December 3, 1999, the state board met and approved the plans for reappraisal submitted by Park and Saguache Counties. The state board rescinded the reappraisal order for Fremont County upon receiving testimony from the Division of Property Taxation that Fremont's adjusted values for irrigated land were in compliance. The state board did not consider repayment actions for 1999, because all 1998 values were found to be in compliance.

1998 Enforcement and Repayment Actions

On October 5, 1998, the state board met to review the findings and conclusions of annual study contractor Thos. Y. Pickett & Co., Inc.

After considering all evidence and testimony, the state board concluded that 1998 property values for all 63 counties were in compliance with Colorado assessment law, and no reappraisals were ordered.

The prior year, the state board determined that the 1997 values for three counties were out of compliance, and issued the following reappraisal orders:

County	Property Classes
Lake .....	Vacant land
Routt .....	Agricultural subclasses
Hinsdale .....	Single family residential, Vacant land, Commercial/ Industrial, Agricultural Improvements

Upon recommendation of the auditor, the state board concluded during its 1998 meeting, that the 1997 orders were justified and successfully completed. It ordered the counties that received 1997 orders to make the following paybacks and reimbursements.

County	Supervision Reimbursement	State Aid to Schools Payback
Lake .....	$10,599.00 .....	$ 0.00
Routt.....	$ 878.23 .....	$81.79
Hinsdale .....	$ 959.30 .....	$ 7.47

The counties chose the alternative repayment method of applying the supervisory costs to the budgets of the assessor's offices.

Division of Property Taxation

Under the general laws of Colorado, the Property Tax Administrator heads the Division of Property Taxation. The administrator is appointed by the State Board of Equalization to serve for a five-year term and until a successor is appointed and qualified.

One primary responsibility of the Division is to administer the implementation of property tax law throughout the sixty-four counties so that valuations are fair, uniform, and defensible, thereby ensuring that each property class contributes only a fair share of the total property tax revenue. In other words, the Division's goal is equalization of valuation and proper distribution of property taxes throughout the state.

The Division is comprised of four sections: Administrative Resources, Appraisal Standards, Exempt Properties, and State Assessed Properties.

Administrative Resources staff serves as liaison to the sixty-four county assessors in determining existing and future needs for assistance from the Division. In addition, the section serves as a liaison and coordinator with a variety of other agencies having an interest in property taxation.

The staff conducts all courses dealing with statutory reporting and the administration of an assessor's office and provides workshops in specialized areas of assessment administration such as parcel mapping, severed mineral assessment, title conveyance, tax increment financing, certification of values to taxing entities, and tax increment financing. All administrative courses are approved for continuing education by the Colorado Board of Real Estate Appraisers.

The staff also publishes manuals on assessment procedures and legal references, publishes the Annual Report to the Governor, publishes the Mobile Equipment Manual for county clerks and recorders and ports of entry, completes a documented study that estimates the residential assessment rate for each level of value period, and provides administrative services for the Division. It conducts research projects for the Division and the legislature and provides administrative assistance to the State Board of Equalization and the Statutory Advisory Committee to the Property Tax Administrator. It also responds to taxpayer complaints and processes abatement petitions while providing technical consultation and assistance to county staff.

Appraisal Standards staff serves as liaison to the sixty-four county assessors in determining existing and future needs for assistance from the Division primarily in the appraisal field. It also serves as a liaison and coordinator with a variety of other appraisal agencies and companies having an interest in property taxation.

The staff conducts courses dealing with all aspects of appraisal including the three approaches to value. It also conducts workshops in specialized areas such as standards and ethics for appraisers, sales ratio studies, agricultural valuation, vacant land discounting procedures, and the valuation of possessory interests. All appraisal courses are approved for licensing credit by the Colorado Board of Real Estate Appraisers.

Appraisal Standards also publishes manuals on appraisal procedures for both real and personal property.

Exempt Properties staff examines all applications for exemption from property taxation for property claimed to be owned and used solely and exclusively for religious worship, private schools, or charitable purposes, and makes determinations on the applications. Annual reports of exempt properties are reviewed to determine continuations of the exemptions. The Exemptions Section reviews approximately 700 applications and 9,700 annual reports for exemption each year.

State Assessed Properties values all public utility properties in the state. The State Assessed Section sets values on approximately 600 companies every year.

2002 INFORMATION

Assessed Values for 2002

Colorado assessed values increased by $1.70 billion, or 2.9 percent, between the 2001 and 2002 tax years. Table 2 breaks out the percentage change by property class.

Table 2

Class	2001-2002 Percent Change
Vacant Land.....	- 5.2%
Residential.....	+ 4.3%
Commercial.....	+ 2.1%
Industrial.....	- 1.5%
Agricultural.....	+ 1.6%
Natural Resources.....	+ 2.0%
Producing Mines.....	- 28.0%
Oil & Gas.....	+ 5.6%
State Assessed.....	+ 7.6%
Net Total.....	+ 2.9%

The 2002 tax year was an “intervening,” or non-reappraisal year, meaning the actual values of most properties were the same as those established for the 2001 tax year. An appraisal date of June 30, 2000 was used to establish the values. Therefore, increases to the total values of the two largest classes, residential and commercial, were primarily the result of new construction.

As a result of the new construction, a decrease in the total value of the vacant land class occurred due to the reclassification of properties under development from vacant land to an improved property classification. The slight decrease to the value of the industrial class occurred for various reasons. Among these was a large reduction in the value of an ore-processing mill in Grand County.

Unlike property in most classes, land in the natural resources, producing mines, and oil and gas classes is valued each year based on production that occurred during the prior year. Changes to the values of these classes resulted from increases or decreases in production amounts between 2001 and 2002 and changes to the market prices of the commodities being extracted.

The large decrease to the producing mines class was primarily caused by a sizable reduction in the value of a molybdenum mine located in Clear Creek and Grand Counties. The reduction in Grand County's industrial value, described above, is related to the loss in value of the mine.

The State Assessed class is comprised of property owned by public utilities, airlines, and railroads. It is valued each year by Division of Property Taxation appraisers and distributed to the counties according to the location of the property. The increase to this class was largely the result of increased business activity, new construction, and new personal property associated with the new construction.

Modest increases to the total assessed values occurred throughout Colorado. Table 3 displays the increases by region.

Increase in Value 2001 – 2002

Region	$ Change	% Change

Protests, Appeals and Abatements

Protests and Appeals

Colorado statutes mandate a process that allows taxpayers the opportunity to challenge the actual value established by the assessor. The process begins with the taxpayer's protest to the assessor. Upon receiving a protest, the assessor reviews the issues raised, and based on a preponderance of the evidence, either adjusts or maintains the actual value established for the property. Taxpayers who disagree with the assessor's decision can appeal to the county board of equalization. Taxpayers who disagree with the county board's decision have three choices for further appeal; they can appeal to the State Board of Assessment Appeals (BAA), district court, or binding arbitration. Decisions of the BAA and district court can be appealed to the Colorado Court of Appeals and ultimately to the Colorado Supreme Court. Decisions of an arbitrator are final.

The number of protests and appeals varies greatly from county to county. During 2001 (the last reappraisal year), Larimer County received the greatest number of appeals with 13,422 while Kiowa County received only two. For many counties, the protest process places a significant strain on the resources of the assessor's office, resulting in many hours of overtime or compensated time. Table 4 lists the protests and county board appeals for each county during the last three reappraisal years, organized according to the county officer pay categories established in 30-2-102, C.R.S. For the purpose of this table, The City and County of Denver is placed in category one. Table 5 provides a summary of protest and appeal statistics.

Taxpayers can protest and appeal in both reappraisal years, odd numbered years, and in intervening years, even numbered years. However, the number of protests and appeals is much greater during reappraisal years.

Abatements

Abatement petitions can be filed for taxes erroneously or illegally levied, for overvaluation, or for an assessment error. Taxpayers who filed a protest can file an abatement petition only for a clerical error or an illegality, but not for an overvaluation. The question of overvaluation involves appraisal judgment, which was reviewed during the protest, if a protest was filed.

Abatement petitions can be filed up to two years after the date the taxes are due. Because abatement petitions are filed on taxes already levied, the abated or refunded taxes constitute lost revenue to the affected local governments; however, 39-10-114(1)(a)(I)(B), C.R.S., and case law authorize local governments to recover abated taxes through an increase in their mill levies. Table 6 displays the taxes abated during 2000, 2001, and 2002.

Senior Citizen Exemption

In 2002, a property tax homestead exemption went into effect for qualifying senior citizens and their surviving spouses. Voters passed the exemption in 2000 with the enactment of Section 3.5, Article X of the Colorado Constitution. It reduced the actual value of a residential property by 50 percent, up to a maximum reduction of $100,000.

Each year, the assessor is required to mail a notice to all residential property owners that explains the existence of the exemption program. Qualifying seniors have until July 15 to apply for the exemption, and once granted, the exemption remains in effect for future years until a change in the ownership or occupancy requires its removal. To qualify, a senior must be at least 65 years old on January 1, and must have owned and occupied the property as his or her primary residence for at least ten consecutive years.

In 2002, the counties processed applications on approximately 128,600 properties and granted about 123,000 exemptions. Applicants denied the exemption had the right to appeal the denial to the county board of equalization comprised of the county commissioners. County boards considered 498 appeals and granted the exemption on 218 properties that had been denied.

No later than October 10, the assessor is required to send the Division an electronic list of the exemptions granted, including the names and social security numbers of each person occupying the property. The Division then searches through the lists to identify individuals who were granted the exemption on more than one property, and denies the exemption on each. In 2002, the Division denied 102 exemptions granted to 51 applicants.

The senior exemption program does not result in a loss of revenue to local governments. Instead, the state reimburses the local governments for the tax revenue exempted. No later than April 1, county treasurers send the State Treasurer an itemized list of the exemptions granted and taxes exempted. The State Treasurer reimburses the local governments for the lost revenue by April 15; this year the State Treasurer sent counties $61,490,941. Table 7 provides the number of applications and denials by county for 2002.

Agricultural Timberland

In 1990, the Colorado Legislature passed HB 90-1229, expanding the definition of "agricultural land" to include forested land that meets certain requirements. The definition reads as follows:

"A parcel of land that consists of at least forty acres, that is forest land, that is used to produce tangible wood products that originate from the productivity of such land for the primary purpose of obtaining a monetary profit, that is subject to a forest management plan, and that is not a farm or ranch, as defined in subsections (3.5) and (13.5) of this section. "Agricultural land" under this subparagraph (II) includes land underlying any residential improvement located on such agricultural land." 39-1-102(1.6)(a)(II), C.R.S.

Since the enactment of this law, numerous owners have taken advantage of it to secure significant tax reductions by developing "forest management plans" on what otherwise would generally be classified as vacant or residential improved land. This has resulted in a loss of revenue for the 2002 tax year to the following counties that have "agricultural timberland." The results are detailed in Table 8.

SB 02-032: Concerning the extension of the period that a portion of municipal taxes may be allocated to a special fund to pay indebtedness related to a downtown development authority

Amends 31-25-807(3)(a), C.R.S., to extend the period of time a downtown development authority can collect property taxes and/or municipal sales taxes within the development area from 25 years to 30 years. The legislation does not affect Urban Renewal Authorities found in 31-25-101 thru 115, C.R.S.

Effective Date: Ninety days after final adjournment, or August 7, 2002

SB 02-097: Concerning the modification of state housing authority law to make the statutory provisions governing all housing authorities consistent with the provisions governing city housing authorities, and making an appropriation in connection therewith

HB 00-1284, carried by Rep. Tate and Sen. Tanner during the 2000 legislative session, amended the statutes governing city housing authorities, 29-4-226(1) and 29-4-227, C.R.S., to allow the housing authorities to enter into financing agreements and various ownership agreements in order to create low income housing and not lose the exempt status of the property. The legislation also amended statute to allow commercial uses of the property. The intent of the legislation was to include all housing authorities, but that did not happen. Senator Tate and Representative Romanoff carried SB 02-097 to include other housing authorities.

Section 1 adds a new subsection, 29-1-204.5, C.R.S., under the multi-jurisdictional housing authorities statute to provide “exemption from all taxes and special assessments on the same basis and subject to the same conditions as provided for city housing authorities.”

Section 2 amends 29-4-502(4) and (5), C.R.S., concerning county housing authorities, to:

- (4) Change the name of the agency in the federal government that deals with this area to “the federal emergency administrator of public works” from the “public housing administration, the U.S. housing authority.”
- (5) Include “commercial facilities” in the definition of “project,” and to state that some of the residents do not have to qualify under the income requirements as long as the project “substantially benefits persons of low income as determined by the authority.”

Section 3 amends 29-4-507, C.R.S., concerning county housing authorities, to provide “exemption from all taxes and special assessments on the same basis and subject to the same conditions as provided for city housing authorities.”

The city housing authority statutes provide exemption from property taxation and special assessments to the property owned by or leased to a city housing authority. Also exempt is the portion of a project that is:

1. Occupied by low-income persons.
2. Not used as a store, office or other commercial facility, and
3. Owned by or leased to:
  - a. An entity that is wholly owned by a city housing authority, or
  - b. An entity in which the city housing authority has an ownership interest, or

- c. An entity in which an entity wholly owned by a city housing authority has an ownership interest, is exempt from general taxation and from special assessments.

Signed by Governor Owens: June 7, 2002
Effective Date: December 31, 2000
Note: Grand County Housing Authority had entered into an agreement that was not covered by the 2000 legislation.

SB 02-143: Concerning the duties of a county treasurer, and, in connection therewith, requiring a county treasurer to address any recommendation or finding contained in an audit of the treasurer's office and to report to the board of county commissioners regarding the disposition of the recommendation or findings, subjecting a county treasurer to contempt for failure to comply with these requirements, and specifying the penalty for failure to perform the duties of a county treasurer.

Section 1 adds a new subsection (3) to 30-10-709, C.R.S., that requires county treasurers to promptly address recommendations or findings contained in the final report of any audit conducted pursuant to 30-10-709(1) or (2) or 29-1-603, C.R.S., and must report the disposition of the recommendations or findings to the county commissioners no later than 90 days after the issuance of the final report.

If the treasurer fails to address a recommendation or finding or fails to report to the county board, the county board may seek a judicial order compelling compliance. If the treasurer fails to comply, the treasurer shall be subject to contempt of the court issuing the order. The language in the subsection cannot be construed to limit the ability of the county board or any other person to pursue any other legal remedy.

Section 2 amends 30-10-726, C.R.S., to remove all of the specific instances listed in the statute of duties not performed and, instead, says that treasurers who fail, neglect, or refuse to perform the duties of the office set forth in Part 7 are guilty of ...

Signed by Governor Owens: March 22, 2002
Effective Date: Ninety days after final adjournment, or August 7, 2002.

SB 02-157: Concerning the taxation of possessory interests in exempt real property

Sections 1, 2, 4, and 5 delete language placed in the statute [first sentence of 39-1-103(17)(a), last sentence of 39-1-106, a portion of 39-10-101(2)(a)(II), and first sentence of 43-1-1504, C.R.S.] by SB 96-218, concerning possessory interests, which the Supreme Court repealed in its February 26, 2001, decision.

Section 3 adds a new subsection, 39-1-107(4), C.R.S., to provide for the collection of the property tax on a possessory interest. It states that the property tax will not become a lien against the property; and when due, the property tax shall be a debt due from the holder of the possessory interest to the county commissioners. The taxes are recoverable by direct action in debt filed by the commissioners on behalf of each governmental entity.

Section 4 amends 39-10-101(2)(a)(II), C.R.S., to state that assessors and treasurers cannot treat possessory interests as omitted property prior to 2001.

Even though the State Board of Equalization, on November 21, 2001, ordered the counties who were not involved in the court cases only to value possessory interests for 2001 and forward, there were some interests who felt more comfortable having the legislature amend the law to that same effect.

Section 6 repeals 39-3-136, C.R.S., the statutes that exempted possessory interests.

Signed by Governor Owens: June 1, 2002
Effective Date: Ninety days after final adjournment, or August 7, 2002

Note: Paragraph 2 of the Effective date – applicability section states that the provisions of the act shall apply to property tax years commencing on or after January 1, 2001.

SB 02-166: Concerning compensation of county coroners.

Section 1 amends 30-2-102(2.1), C.R.S., to establish an annual salary for county coroners. Previously, the county commissioners determined the compensation, 30-2-108(1)(a), C.R.S.

Section 2 amends 30-2-108(1), C.R.S., to specify that the county coroners whose terms of office begin on or after January 1, 2002, will be paid according to 30-2-102(2.1), C.R.S., instead of the county commissioners setting their salaries. Further, the county commissioners will continue to determine the reimbursement for mileage and will begin to reimburse for travel expenses including mileage, lodging, subsistence, and incidental expenses; and it allows the county commissioners to provide additional compensation for post-mortem examinations.

Signed by Governor Owens: April 22, 2002
Effective Date: Ninety days after final adjournment, or August 7, 2002.
The salary change is effective January 2003.

SB 02-182: Concerning changes to borders between legislative districts due to a division of a residential parcel, and making an appropriation in connection therewith.

Section 1 creates the legislative declaration. The reapportionment commission drew senatorial and representative district lines based on a census bureau map created in 1999. The bill establishes a process to assign to one district real estate parcels that are divided between two senatorial and/or representative districts because areas were platted after the time the census bureau created the census blocks. The population data used by the census bureau was associated with the census blocks.

Section 2 adds a new subsection 2-2-507(2.5), C.R.S., describing the process. The process requires:

1. The county clerk to provide documentation of the division of the parcel between two districts to the Secretary of State, and
2. If the Secretary of State believes that the border should be moved, the Secretary of State then proposes a boundary change to the Supreme Court, describing any potential changes in populations of the affected districts. The Secretary of State shall propose moving the border between the two districts to a visible feature normally relied upon by the US Census Bureau such that the border:
  - a. Does not split a residential parcel;
  - b. Moves the remaining portion of the residential parcel into the least populated of the two districts. If the border is between both senatorial and a representative districts, the remaining portion of the residential parcel must be moved into the least populated of the two representative districts;
  - c. Would not result in a violation of section 46 or 47 of Article V of the State Constitution based upon the latest national census;
  - d. Minimizes the impact on the affected community for purposes of establishing polling places; and

- e. Minimizes changes in distances from the reapportionment plan approved by the Colorado Supreme Court.
- 3. If the proposal satisfies the criteria of 2-2-507(2.5)(a), C.R.S., the Supreme Court may approve the assignment. If the court determines that the assignment does not satisfy the criteria, the court shall deny the proposed assignment.

Signed by Governor Owens: May 6, 2002
Effective Date: Upon signature.

Nothing in this subsection (3) shall be construed to limit the powers of the general assembly over the provision of any health care function, service, or facility by any county, city, town, township, or special district.”

The bill also changes the name of the state agency that governs conservation districts from the "Soil Conservation Board" to the "Conservation Board." Existing statutes were amended, removing the word "soil" from the text.

Signed by Governor Owens: May 24, 2002
Effective Date: July 1, 2002

HB 02-1130: Concerning the board of real estate appraisers, and in connection therewith, continuing the board of real estate appraisers.

The board's records are subject to 24-72-203 (Public records open to inspection) and 24-72-204 (Allowance or denial of inspection – grounds – procedure – appeal), C.R.S.

Section 5 amends 12-61-706(2), C.R.S., to state that the board shall not grant continuing education credits to individuals who attend board meetings.

HB 02-1241: Concerning loans by the Department of the Treasury to taxpayers as part of the Homestead Property Tax Deferral Program, and making an appropriation in connection herewith

Section 1 adds two new sections to the statute dealing with the property tax deferral for seniors:

39-3.5-105.5, C.R.S. – states that when the State Treasurer approves an application filed by a senior for property tax deferral, the state is investing in a loan to the taxpayer, and that interest will be charged according to 39-3.5-105(5), C.R.S.

39-3.5-105.7, C.R.S. – states that all deferred real property taxes paid by the state prior to July 1, 2002, shall be reclassified as an investment in a loan to the taxpayer.

Section 2 changes the date by which the State Treasurer must pay the counties the deferred taxes from July 15 to April 30. The State Treasurer's office has been paying the counties by May 1 each year, so the bill does not change the office's procedures.

Sections 3, 4, 5, and 6 insert the "loan" language into the following statutes:

39-3.5-107(1), (2), (3), and (4), C.R.S.
39-3.5-110(1), C.R.S.
39-3.5-111(1), (2), (3), and (5), C.R.S.
39-3.5-113(1) and (2), C.R.S.

Section 7 repeals 39-3.5-114, C.R.S., which required that deferred tax certificates and the accrued interest not be taken into account in the computation of the reserve or surplus available to the state until the amounts were collected and credited to the general fund.

Treating the deferrals as an investment or an asset of the state removes the requirement that payment of the deferred taxes by the state to the counties be treated as an appropriation, coming under the state's 6½ percent revenue limit. The payment of the taxes to the counties will be treated the same as all other investments made by the state.

The thinking behind the bill was that the state is really investing money when it pays seniors' property taxes, as it is paid back later with interest.

Signed by Governor Owens: May 24, 2002
Effective Date: July 1, 2002

HB 02-1265: Concerning clarification of the property tax status of certain residential real property

Section 1

A. Amends 39-1-102(5.5), C.R.S., to redefine hotels and motels to:

(5.5)(a) "Hotels and motels" means improvements and the land associated with such improvements that are used by a business establishment primarily to provide lodging, camping, or personal care or health facilities to the general public and that are predominantly used on an overnight or weekly basis; except that "hotels and motels" does not include:

The revised definition excludes:

1. A residential unit, except for a residential unit that is a hotel unit;
2. A residential unit that would otherwise be classified as a hotel unit IF:
  - a. The unit is held as inventory by a developer primarily for sale in the ordinary course of the developer's trade or business
  - b. Is marketed for sale by the developer AND
  - c. EITHER has been held for less than two years since the CO has been issued OR is not depreciated under IRS code, as defined in section 39-22-103(5.3), C.R.S., while owned by the developer;
3. A residential unit that would otherwise be classified as a hotel unit IF:
  - a. The unit has been acquired by a lender or an owners' association through foreclosure, a deed in lieu of foreclosure, or a similar transaction
  - b. The unit is marketed for sale by the lender or owners' association AND is not depreciated under the IRS code, as defined in section 39-22-103(5.3), C.R.S., while owned by the lender or owners' association; OR

4. A residential improvement IF:
  - a. A portion of the improvement is occupied by its owner OR by one or more lessees of the owner as a primary residence AND
  - b. A portion of the improvement is offered to the general public for accommodations as a bed and breakfast or similar operation.
  - c. The value of such improvement shall be determined as provided in section 39-1-103(9)(a), C.R.S.

c. Any appeal of the county board's decision is governed by 39-10-114.5, C.R.S.

Note: The statute also states that the declaration or other express agreement binding on the non-hotel unit owners and the hotel unit owners may provide a manner for the payment of property taxes.

C. Amends 39-1-102(5.5), C.R.S., adding paragraph (c), to add definitions:

(I) "Condominium unit" means a unit, as defined in section 38-33.3-103(30), C.R.S., and also includes a time-share unit.

(II) "Hotel unit owners" means any person or member of a group of related persons whose ownership and use of a residential unit cause the residential unit to be classified as a hotel unit.

(III) "Hotel units" means more than four residential unit ownership equivalents in a project that are owned, in whole or in part, directly, or indirectly through one or more intermediate entities, by one person or by a group of related persons if the person or group of related persons uses the residential units or parts thereof in connection with a business establishment primarily to provide lodging, camping, or personal care or health facilities to the general public predominantly on an overnight or weekly basis. "Hotel unit" means any residential unit included in hotel units for purposes of this subparagraph (III):

(A) "Control" means the power to direct the business or affairs of an entity through direct or indirect ownership of stock, partnership interests, membership interests, or other forms of beneficial interests.

(B) "Related persons" means individuals who are members of the same family, including only spouses and minor children, or persons who control, are controlled by, or are under common control with each

B. Amends 39-1-102(5.5), C.R.S., adding paragraph (b), to provide for the calculation of the property tax in situations wherein a time-share estate, a time-share use period, an undivided interest, or other partial ownership interest in a hotel unit is owned by a party other than the hotel.

1. Each non-hotel unit owner pays a portion of the taxes on the unit. The property tax is calculated based on a value determined on the basis of the property being residential real property. The degree or percentage of ownership OR the usage percentage of the unit is multiplied by the calculated property tax amount to determine the unit owner's tax liability.
2. The hotel must pay the remaining taxes not paid by the non-hotel unit owners.
  - a. Either party may request that the assessor calculate the property tax that would have been levied if the value had been determined as if the property were residential real property.
  - b. If either party disagrees, a petition may be filed with the county board of equalization for a review of the assessor's calculation under the abatement statute, 39-10-114, C.R.S.

other. Persons are not related persons solely because they engage a common agent to manage or rent their residential units, they are members of an owners' association or similar group, they enter into a tenancy in common or a similar agreement with respect to undivided interests in a residential unit, or any combination of the foregoing.

(IV) "Project" means one or more improvements that contain residential units if the boundaries of the residential units are described in or determined by the same declaration, as defined in section 38-33.3-103 (13), C.R.S.

(V) "Residential unit" means a condominium unit, a single-family residence, or a town home.

(VI) "Non-hotel unit owner" means any owner of a time-share estate, time-share use period, undivided interest, or other partial ownership interest in any hotel unit who is not a hotel unit owner with respect to the hotel unit.

(VII) "Residential unit ownership equivalent" means:

(A) In the case of time share units, time share interests or time share use periods in one or more time share units that in the aggregate entitle the owner of such time share interests or time share use periods to three hundred sixty-five days of use in any calendar year or three hundred sixty-six days of use in any calendar year that is a leap year; and

(B) In the case of residential units other than time-share units, undivided interests or other ownership interests in one or more such residential units that total one hundred percent. For purposes of this sub-subparagraph (B), any undivided interest or other ownership interest not stated in terms of a percentage of total ownership shall be converted to a percentage of total ownership based on the rights accorded to the holder of the undivided interest or other ownership interest.

(VIII) "Time share unit" means a condominium unit that is divided into time share estates as defined in section 38-33-110(5), C.R.S., or that is subject to a time share use as defined in section 12-61-401(4), C.R.S.

HB 02-1288: Concerning the assessment of property for property tax purposes

Section 1 amends 39-3-206(2), C.R.S., dealing with the senior homestead exemption, to specify a date by which an individual must file an appeal with the county commissioners, sitting as the county board of equalization, regarding the assessor's denial of the application for the senior exemption. The deadline is September 15. The amendment also allows the commissioners to appoint referees to hear the appeals.

Section 2 amends 39-3-207(1), C.R.S., dealing with the senior homestead exemption, to change the date for filing the listing of the individuals who were approved for the exemption from October 5 to October 10. The report is filed with the Division.

Jefferson County Commissioners sought the above changes because they were concerned:

1. That too many appeals would come in at the last minute – the last day for an appeal hearing is October 1;

2. That the commissioners themselves would not have enough time to hear all of the appeals, and referees would ensure that all appeals are heard; AND
3. That the commissioners' staff would not have enough time between October 1 and October 5 to notify the assessor of the decisions so the listing of exemptions can be sent to the Division.

two days prior to any appeal hearing data supporting the assessor's valuation.

Changes made by HB 02-1288: adds two statutory references to the introductory portion that cover protests to the assessor. The added references are shown in "bold" highlight below.

(5) In any appeal authorized by this section or by section 39-5-122, 39-5-122.7, or 39-10-114:

Section 3 adds a new paragraph (c) to 39-5-132(2), C.R.S., (dealing with a county's ability to pick up new construction after January 1) which requires the county to change the land classification from vacant land to residential when construction begins after January 1. If the land is classified as agricultural, the classification of the land remains agricultural.

AND the new paragraph (e) deals with assessors including sales of residential property, in the pool of sales used in determining reappraised values of properties that have been converted to another residential use. The language states that if an assessor has knowledge of the conversion from one residential use to another residential use, the conversion creates a rebuttable presumption that the sale is not a comparable sale for purposes of establishing the value of a property having a similar prior residential use.

Previously, 39-5-132(2)(b), C.R.S., prohibited the reclassification of the land. Douglas County is the only county to adopt the procedure that allows it to assess new construction built after January 1.

Concerns were expressed that "an assessor" was using sales of apartment buildings that were or are converted to condominiums to value apartment buildings, and that a buyer who is going to convert to condos will pay a higher price than a buyer who continues the use of the building as apartments.

Section 4 amends the introductory portion to 39-8-108(5), C.R.S., and adds a new paragraph (e) to 39-8-108(5), C.R.S. This statute provides criteria that apply to appeals after the county board hearings, and paragraphs (a) through (d) already required:

1. That the valuation cannot be adjusted to a value higher than that set by the county board of equalization.
2. That the assessor's value of similar property similarly situated is credible evidence;
3. That the respondent may not rely on confidential information which is not available for review by the taxpayer; AND
4. That upon request, the respondent must make available to the taxpayer

Section 5 amends 39-8-109, C.R.S., dealing with effects of Board of Assessment Appeals or district court decisions, to state that a refund based on the appeal must be paid to the appellant even if the appellant is not the current owner of the property.

The amendment came about because there was an instance in which a refund due, because of an appeal decision, was mailed to the current owners of the properties instead of the party who appealed the values.

Section 6 amends 39-10-114(1)(b), C.R.S., dealing with abatements, to state that refund interest will not be paid to owners of personal property if the abatement/refund is based on a taxpayer's reporting error on a personal property declaration schedule.

Senator Terry Phillips amended the language regarding the personal property reporting error into the legislation during the Senate Business, Labor, and Finance Committee meeting.

HB 02-1333: Concerning recommendations of the House Committee On Finance relating to the continuation of requirements for certain reports to the General Assembly from executive agencies, and, in connection therewith, repealing reporting requirements to the General Assembly

Three sections in the legislation affect reports regarding property taxation. Statutes required that the reports be filed with the General Assembly. In Sections 1, 2, and in 3 the legislation removes the requirement to file property taxation reports with the General Assembly, but not the requirements to prepare the studies/reports. The reports are:

1. Section 1 – 39-1-104(16)(a), C.R.S., the annual study auditor's report to the State Board of Equalization.
2. Section 2 – 39-1-104.2(6), C.R.S., the residential assessment rate study.
3. Section 3 – 39-2-119, C.R.S., the Division's Annual Report.

persons for purposes of the Public Records Act, Article 72 of Title 24, Colorado Revised Statutes, and specifying the manner in which public bodies are to record their meetings.

The bill expands the definition of "person" to include any elected or appointed public official or public employee acting in an official capacity. It also declares that if a state or local public body electronically recorded its open meetings prior to August 8, 2001, the public body must continue to electronically record its open meetings that occur after August 8, 2001.

HB 02-1357: Concerning modification of the requirements relating to notification of surface development to owners of severed mineral estates

Last year, part of HB 01-1088 created a "streamlined procedure" for providing notice to mineral owners of impending surface development. Problems surfaced, and legislation was introduced to take care of the problems. Below is a portion of a write-up on the legislation published in the May/June 2002 COGA Flowline, Vol. 18, No. 2, page 4.

"This bill to amend last year's HB 1088 was proposed by utilities, the commercial real estate developers and homebuilders .

HB 1357 was intended to narrow the notice to a single time by the surface developer.

". . . The surface developer only has to give a single notice, but the oil and gas industry can get the local government to place them on their list for subsequent notices. The industry will not be notified at the zoning or rezoning of property. Rather, the notice will come at the time of platting or other similar permit request to give the industry a better opportunity to review what is proposed and then object to and request a modification to the proposal. In addition, 'Certified Professional Landmen' were added as people who could provide the surface developer the list of mineral owners to notice. The thinking was that they probably have the best data and could do the job at a lesser cost.”

HB 02-1358: Concerning the assessment of a bed and breakfast for property tax purposes

Section 1 adds new subsections to 39-1-102, C.R.S., definitions:

1. (2.5) Defines a bed and breakfast as:
  - a. A residential dwelling unit or an appurtenance thereto in which the innkeeper resides. OR
  - b. Is a building designed but not necessarily occupied as a single family residence that is next to, or directly across the street from, the innkeeper’s residence. AND in either circumstance, in which
    - i. Lodging accommodations are provided for a fee;
    - ii. At least one meal per day is provided at no charge other than the lodging fee; AND
    - iii. There are no more than thirteen sleeping rooms available for guests.
2. (3.1) Defines commercial lodging area as:
  - a. A guest room or a private or shared bathroom that is offered for the exclusive use of paying guests.
  - b. Commercial classification is based on whether at any time during a year the rooms are offered by an innkeeper as nightly or weekly lodging to guests for a fee.

- c. Classification cannot be based on the number of days that the rooms are actually occupied by paying guests.
3. (5.6) States that hotels and motels as defined in 39-1-102(5.5), C.R.S., does not include bed and breakfasts.
4. (7.1) Defines an innkeeper as the owner, operator, or manager of a bed and breakfast.
5. (14.4) Creates an exception in the definition of residential land for the classification of a portion of the property as residential even though it is not used as residential property by saying:

. . . The term does not include any portion of the land THAT is used for any purpose THAT would cause the land to be otherwise classified, EXCEPT AS PROVIDED FOR IN SECTION 39-1-103(10.5). (Bold and caps. reflect new language)

Section 2 adds a new subsection (10.5) to 39-1-103, C.R.S., which dictates how bed and breakfast properties are to be classified.

1. Subsection (10.5)(a) declares that bed and breakfast properties are “unique” mixed-use properties. That all areas of a bed and breakfast, except for the commercial lodging area, are “shared common areas” in which the innkeepers and guests interact in a residential setting, that the land is primarily residential in nature, and that a wide disparity appears to exist in how assessors classify the different portions of the properties.
2. Therefore, the commercial lodging area of a bed and breakfast shall be assessed at 29 percent, and

- a. The area that is not commercial lodging must be considered a residential improvement and the assessors must apply the residential assessment rate.
- b. The actual value of each portion of the bed and breakfast must be determined by the application of the appropriate approaches to appraisal as provided in 39-1-103(5), C.R.S.
- c. The actual value of the land must be determined by application of the three approaches to appraisal as provided in 39-1-103(5), C.R.S., and the land must be assessed as:
  - i. The land directly under the building(s), must be assessed according to 39-1-103(9), C.R.S., the "mixed use" statute. The statute requires that the land be allocated on the same percentage basis as exists between residential and commercial uses in the building(s). AND
  - ii. A rebuttable presumption exists that all remaining land is residential; and the presumption can only be overcome if there is a nonresidential use not reasonably associated with the operation of the bed and breakfast.
  - iii. If another use exists, the portion of the land containing the "other use" must be assessed at 29 percent.
  - iv. Agricultural land containing a bed and breakfast remains classified as agricultural.

Section 3 repeals 39-1-102(5.5)(a)(IV), C.R.S., which was enacted in HB 02-1265, the "condominium" bill. The statute states that bed and breakfast properties are to be valued under 39-1-103(9), C.R.S., to distinguish such properties from residential condominiums. The clarification will no longer be needed beginning in property tax year 2003 as this legislation requires that bed and breakfast properties be valued and assessed under 39-1-103(10.5), C.R.S.

Signed by Governor Owens: June 7, 2002
 Effective date: Ninety days after final adjournment, or August 7, 2002.
 Note: The changes affect property tax years commencing January 1, 2003. Section 3 of the Act takes effect only if HB 02-1265 is enacted and becomes law. HB 02-1265 did become law.

RESIDENTIAL ASSESSMENT RATE

In 1982, the electorate passed Constitutional Amendment One. A portion of the amendment dealt with the residential assessment rate, and that part of the amendment is referred to as the "Gallagher Amendment."

The intent of Gallagher was to stabilize residential real property's share of the property tax base. Residential real property's share of total assessed value had increased from 29 percent in 1958 to 44 percent in 1982. By allowing the residential assessment rate to "float," residential real property would not continue to bear an ever-increasing share of the property tax burden. The floating rate would increase if residential real property's share of total taxable assessed value appreciably declined below 44.60 percent. Similarly, the rate would decrease if residential real property's share of total taxable assessed value appreciably exceeded 44.60 percent.

The 44.60 percent, which is now referred to as the "residential target percentage," was calculated based upon residential real property's share of total assessed value for 1986. The legislature (general assembly) provided for changes in the target percentage based upon growth or decline in various classes of property. The target percentage is adjusted during the year preceding each change in the level of value, i.e. during even-numbered years.

Property is reappraised every odd-numbered year. In a reappraisal year, Section 3(1)(b) of Article X of the Colorado Constitution and § 39-1-104.2(5)(a), C.R.S., requires an adjustment in the residential assessment rate in order to maintain a balance between residential and all other property. The legislature must adjust the residential assessment rate to ensure that the percentage of residential real property assessed value (target percentage), when compared to the assessed value of all property, remains essentially the same as the preceding year. The adjustment is intended to stabilize residential real property's share of the property tax base. Section 39-1-104.2(5)(c), C.R.S., requires the Property Tax Administrator to complete a documented study that estimates the residential assessment rate for each level of value period. Three major calculations are required (NOTE: our example will portray the calculation for the 2003-2004 level of value period):

Using the total actual 2001 assessed value for non-residential property, calculate what the total 2001 residential real property value should have been to exactly achieve the 2001 residential real property target percentage of 46.61 percent. Then, adjust the 46.61 percent target percentage to account for 2001 and 2002 net changes in new construction and the production volumes of producing natural resource properties, oil and gas wells, and earth and stone operations. The 2003 residential real property target percentage is calculated to be 47.08 percent.

Estimate the 2003 values and determine residential real property's share of the tax base assuming the residential assessment rate remains the same. The residential assessment rate for 2001 and 2002 was 9.15 percent. Based on our study of the reappraised values, if the assessment rate of 9.15 percent does not change, the estimated tax base share for residential real property would be 49.87 percent, instead of the required 47.08 calculated above.

Calculate the estimated residential assessment rate necessary to ensure that residential real property's share of the 2003 tax base is 47.08 percent of the total assessed value of all taxable property. In this calculation, the residential assessment rate would be adjusted to 7.96 percent. A history of changes to the residential assessment rate is shown in Table 9.

Shift of Property Tax Burden

Table 10, shows the shift of the property tax burden away from residential owners from the inception of the Gallagher Amendment through 2002. Residential taxpayers have saved approximately $6,801,344,031 since the amendment's inception.

The table begins with 1987, because the residential assessment rate remained at 21% until 1987. The contents of each row in the table are described below.

- Row 1. Hypothetical residential assessment rate, 21%.
- Row 2. Actual residential assessment rate for each particular year.
- Row 3. Actual average mill levy.

- Row 4. Hypothetical average mill levy, had the residential rate been 21% every year. This is calculated by dividing the total actual revenue received in each year (Row 9), by the total assessed value, had the residential rate been 21% (Row 8).
- Row 5. Actual total residential assessed value.
- Row 6. Actual total statewide assessed value.
- Row 7. Total hypothetical residential assessed value, had the residential rate remained at 21%.
- Row 8. Hypothetical total assessed value, had the residential assessment rate remained at 21%.
- Row 9. Total actual statewide property tax revenue.
- Row 10. Total hypothetical tax revenue attributable to residential property, had the residential rate remained at 21%. This is calculated by multiplying the hypothetical mill levy at 21% (Row 4) by the hypothetical residential assessed value at 21% (Row 7).
- Row 11. Total actual property tax revenue.
- Row 12. Savings to residential taxpayers, Row 10 minus Row 11.

normally be included in a fee ownership; and its value, therefore, is typically something less than the value in perpetuity of the whole bundle of rights. For purposes of the procedures, the Division of Property Taxation defines possessory interest as: A private property interest in government-owned property or the right to the occupancy and use of any benefit in government-owned property that has been granted under lease, permit, license, concession, contract, or other agreement. A question of considerable concern to Colorado assessors has been whether a possessory interest in government owned property, such as a ski resort's permit to use Forest Service land, represents a taxable interest, even though the government's fee interest in the land is exempt.

The issue has evolved through a series of court decisions and legislation, culminating in the February 26, 2001, Colorado Supreme Court decision in the consolidated cases Board of County Commissioners, County of Eagle, State of Colorado v. Vail Associates Inc. and the Board of Assessment Appeals and Allen S. Black et al. v. Colorado State Board of Equalization, 19 P.3d 1263 (Colo 2001).

By a four to three majority, the Supreme Court reversed decisions of the Court of Appeals, and affirmed the taxable status of possessory interests in government-owned property. The court declared that portions of the recently enacted statute, 39-3-136, C.R.S., were unconstitutional, because they created an exemption that did not fall within any of the exemption categories specified in Article X, of the Colorado Constitution. Section 3 of Article X is quoted in part as follows: "Each property tax levy shall be uniform upon all real and personal property not exempt from taxation under this article...."

HISTORY OF POSSESSORY INTEREST

Overview

Generally, possessory interests constitute a right to the possession and use of government property for a period of time less than perpetuity. It represents a portion of the bundle of rights that would

To better understand the decision, the following narrative traces the history of the possessory interest debate, from the original Mesa Verde case to the court's recent decision in Vail Associates.

Mesa Verde I

In 1967, Mesa Verde Company filed an abatement/refund petition with Montezuma County seeking a refund of property taxes paid “under protest” since 1937. Mesa Verde claimed that the improvements on which the company was taxed were exempt, because they were owned by the federal government. The petition was denied by the county board of equalization, and the company appealed to district court. The court dismissed the appeal, ruling it must look “behind the shadow of the United States’ title to the substantive ownership of plaintiff.” The court ruled that Mesa Verde “had substantially all the incidents of ownership of these improvements” making them subject to taxation. Mesa Verde appealed the court’s decision to the Supreme Court.

In Mesa Verde Company v. Montezuma County Board of Commissioners, et al., 178 Colo 49, 495 P. 2d 229 (Colo. 1972), the Colorado Supreme Court affirmed the district court’s ruling. The court noted that the contracts with the Secretary of the Interior granted Mesa Verde “...a possessory interest in all concessionaire’s improvements consisting of all incidents of ownership....” The court stated that based on “...the contracts’ terms, the language of relevant statutes, and the actions of the parties while under contract...” it was able to conclude there was support in the record for the trial court’s finding. Of significance is the court’s finding that legal title vested in the United States only for collateral security purposes for performance conditions is not conclusive evidence of ownership by the United States. In addition, since significant incidents of the plaintiff’s ownership exist, the property should not be exempt from taxation.

Enactment of 39-3-112, C.R.S. (amendments followed)

The legislature entered the debate in 1975 with the passage of an act titled concerning the taxation of a possessory interest in property otherwise exempt from taxation. The act created 39-3-112, C.R.S., which is quoted in part as follows.

“When any property which for any reason is exempt from taxation is leased, loaned, or otherwise made available to and used by a private individual, association, or corporation in connection with a business conducted for profit, the lessee or user thereof shall be subject to taxation in the same amount and to the same extent as though the lessee or user were the owner of such property...”
39-3-112(1), C.R.S.

Although 39-3-112, C.R.S., clearly stated the legislature’s intention that most possessory interests be taxed, it exempted certain possessory interests, such as agricultural land and public utility easements, from the provisions of the statute.

During the years that followed, the legislature amended the statute with several new exemptions to possessory interest taxation.

- SB 76-029 amended 39-3-112(4), C.R.S., to exempt, for the term of an existing lease, property owned by a municipality and leased to a private entity in connection with a business, when the lease was initiated prior to July 1, 1976.
- HB 79-1531 amended 39-3-112(4)(c), C.R.S., to exempt possessory interests in publicly owned property when the use “...is by way of lease of or a concession in or relative to the use of public airport, park, market, fairground, or similar property which is available to the use of the general public.” Ski area property was specifically excluded from the exemption, and it continued to be valued by procedures stated in subsection six for federal lands used for recreational purposes.

- HB 79-1021 amended 39-3-112(1), C.R.S., to exempt real property furnished to a government contractor that "...maintains permanent records substantiating the terms of such contract," and to exempt possessory interests in property used by airline companies. The bill also amended 39-3-112(5), C.R.S., to exempt possessory interests in land owned by the state of Colorado and managed by the State Board of Land Commissioners.
- HB 83-1575 amended the "public airport" exemption found in 39-3-112(4)(c), C.R.S., to include property owned by an authority created by the Public Airport Authority Act, and to limit the exemption to property located "...within the boundaries of a public airport (that) is directly related to the ordinary function of the airport."
- HB 88-1015 amended 39-3-112(6), C.R.S., to specify that "the possessory interest, and only the possessory interest..." in federal lands used for recreational purposes be taxed. It also provided more detailed procedures for the valuation of possessory interests in recreational lands.

Rockwell Case

In 1980, the U.S. 10th Circuit Court of Appeals ruled in the United States of America v. State of Colorado, et al., 627 F.2d 217 (1980) (Rockwell Case), that management contracts do not create a possessory interest in property that is used in conjunction with the agreement. This case concerned the Rocky Flats Nuclear Weapons Plant and the operator/manager, Rockwell International. The court determined the relationship between the government and Rockwell was such that the company operated under a management contract and any use of the property was strictly delineated by the contract, making it not fall under the description of possessory interest.

Southern Cafeteria Case

In 1983, the Colorado Court of Appeals cited the "Rockwell Case" in Southern Cafeteria, Inc. v. Property Tax Administrator, et al., 677 P.2d 362 (Colo. App. 1983) (Southern Cafeteria) ruling that management contracts cannot be valued as a possessory interest. Once again, the court found that the taxpayer had no "incidents of ownership" over the property. The government provided essentially all equipment, fixtures, and real property, monitored the pricing structure, and maintained control over the amount of profit Southern Cafeteria could realize.

39-3-112, C.R.S., Repealed and 39-3-135, C.R.S., Enacted

As part of a 1989 recodification of article three, HB-1098 repealed 39-3-112, C.R.S., and reenacted the statute as 39-3-135, C.R.S. No substantive changes to the law were made.

Mesa Verde II

Mesa Verde Company reentered the debate in 1992 when, under an order from the Montezuma County Board of Equalization, the assessor placed an omitted property assessment on four parcels of land on which the company operated its concessions. Mesa Verde Company still operated under a contract with the United States Government to manage the improvements for the benefit of the general public. Mesa Verde protested, then appealed to the county board of equalization, but was denied. The taxpayer then appealed to district court, which ruled that: 1. "Mesa Verde (did) not enjoy a taxable 'ownership interest' in the subject land." (p. 3) 2. "Mesa Verde's use and possessory interest in the subject land was "...exempt from Colorado property tax under the plain language of sections, 39-3-135(1) and 39-3-135(4)(c)..." (p. 3), and 3. Montezuma County had no standing to challenge the constitutionality of those portions of the statute. Mesa Verde Company v. the Montezuma County Board of Equalization et al., 898 P.2d 1 (Colo. 1995).

The Montezuma County Board of Equalization appealed the issue of standing directly to the Supreme Court. In Mesa Verde Company v. Montezuma County Board of Equalization et al., 831 P.2d 482 (Colo. 1992), the Supreme Court affirmed that the county board of equalization and assessor lacked standing to challenge the constitutionality of statute.

Mesa Verde III

The legislature passed SB 93-046 the following year, enacting 30-11-105.1, C.R.S., to authorize counties or county officers, in defending an action in court, to contest the constitutionality of a statute. Subsequently, Montezuma County filed a motion in district court to vacate its judgment in Mesa Verde II. The court agreed to vacate part of its order regarding the county's standing, but kept other parts of the order in force until it could rule on the constitutionality of exemptions cited in 39-3-135(1) and 39-3-135(4)(c), C.R.S.

In October 1993, the district court denied the county's motion to vacate its judgment, and instead ruled that the entirety of 39-3-135, C.R.S., was unconstitutional as applied to users of federal land because it violated the Supremacy Clause of the United States Constitution. The court held that neither the federal land nor any alleged interest of Mesa Verde in the federal land is subject to Colorado property taxation, and that the county had no authority to tax Mesa Verde's use and possessory interest. Montezuma County appealed to the Colorado Supreme Court.

On April 24, 1995, in Mesa Verde Co. v. Montezuma County Board of Equalization et al., 898 P.2d 1 (Colo. 1995), the Supreme Court reversed the judgment of the district court, ruling that:

- Mesa Verde Company's possessory interest was "real property" within the meaning of statutory provisions defining real property for property tax purposes.

- Mesa Verde Company's possessory interest fell within the Government Contractor Exemption and the Public Park Exemption. However, those exemptions were invalid; they represented attempts by the legislature to exempt real property that the Colorado Constitution did not authorize the legislature to exempt.
- The Supremacy Clause did not preclude the state's taxation of the concessionaire's possessory and usufructuary interests in federally owned land.
- The resulting tax was valid because the Ski Area Valuation Rule (and not the unqualified As-if owned Rule) applied to determine valuation, 39-3-135(6), C.R.S.

In reaching its decision, the Supreme Court ruled that the second sentence of 39-3-135(1) and all of (4)(c) were unconstitutional because they created exemptions not authorized by Article X of the Colorado Constitution. The court also stated: "...Furthermore, sections 9 and 10 of Article X specifically proscribe the legislative power 'to impair the financial base of government operations' by exempting corporate bodies, such as Mesa Verde, from their share of taxation. Allardice v. Adams County, 173 Colo. 133, 158, 476 P.2d 982, 995 (1970); see also Colo. Const. Art. X; Sections 9 & 10...." (p. 8)

39-3-135, C.R.S., Repealed and 39-3-136 and 39-1-103(17), C.R.S. Enacted

In response to the Supreme Court's decision in Mesa Verde III, the legislature passed SB 96-218. The bill repealed 39-3-135, C.R.S., and enacted 39-3-136 and 39-1-103(17), C.R.S. The legislation had the following effect on the taxation of possessory interests in exempt property:

- It stated that possessory interests should not be taxed with the exception of: 1. equities in state lands, 2. mines, quarries, or minerals, including hydrocarbons, and 3. public utilities. 39-3-136(1)(h), C.R.S.

- It repealed 39-3-135, C.R.S., in its entirety and further stated that possessory interests in real or personal property exempt from taxation under 39-3-136, C.R.S., shall not be subject to taxation unless specific statutory provisions are enacted directing the taxation of possessory interests.
- It established procedures for valuing possessory interests that take effect if possessory interests are found to be taxable under the Constitution, 39-1-103(17), C.R.S.

The stated concern of the legislature was the Supreme Court's holding that certain possessory interests in land are "real property" and, therefore, subject to property taxation. The legislature felt the decision opened the door for a variety of possessory interests such as grazing leases, permits on government land, or government employees' parking spaces in government-owned garages becoming subject to property taxation. Further, those interests could be valued by different methods.

SB 96-218 was signed by Governor Romer on June 5, 1996, a month after the statutory date for mailing notices of valuation to taxpayers. When the state board met on October 16, 1996, eighteen counties had not yet removed possessory interest valuations because they believed the legislation was unconstitutional. The state board continued the hearing on possessory interests to October 28, 1996, so that counties had time to prepare presentations. The board also informed the counties of its intention to uphold 39-3-136, C.R.S.

Counties' Challenge to 39-3-136, C.R.S.

When the state board met on October 28, 1996, fourteen counties had not removed the possessory interest valuations. The state board issued orders to each of the counties to remove the valuations, and it further ordered the counties to report back by November 13, 1996, that the order had been implemented.

The state board met on November 19, 1996, to review the counties' responses. Ten counties notified the state board that they had not removed the possessory interest valuations. To protect remedies, Boulder County filed an appeal in Denver District Court November 13, 1996; Clear Creek County filed in Denver District Court November 13, 1996, and seven counties filed an action November 25, 1996. The seven counties were Eagle, Grand, Jefferson, Montezuma, Pitkin, Routt, and Summit. Gunnison County chose not to file an appeal in anticipation of the state board's filing a petition for writ of mandamus with the Supreme Court.

In December, 1996, the state board filed a petition for writ of mandamus with the Supreme Court asking the court to order the ten counties to show cause why they should not comply with the state board's order to remove the possessory interest valuations from the county. The state board also requested the court to stay the proceedings pending in Denver District Court. On December 19, 1996, the court denied the petition without comment.

On August 11, 1997, Denver District Court ruled in favor of the state board and upheld the constitutionality of SB 96-218. The court based its ruling on the following points:

- The Supreme Court's decision in Mesa Verde Co. v. Montezuma is clearly based on a statutory definition of possessory interests as "real property." "The Supreme Court did not hold, or even suggest, that the subject land-use rights were inherently 'real property' as that term is defined in Article X, Section 3," of the Constitution. Subsequent to the Supreme Court's decision, the legislature enacted 39-3-136, C.R.S., (SB 96-218) to exclude possessory interests from the statutory definition of "real property."

- The counties did not meet the burden to prove SB 96-218 unconstitutional beyond a reasonable doubt.
- There is no requirement in the Colorado Constitution to tax possessory interests.
- The state board did not abuse its discretion in ordering all counties with 1996 possessory interest assessments to remove them from their assessment.

The counties appealed to the Court of Appeals, and on December 24, 1998, the court issued its decision that affirmed the decision of the district court. In doing so, the court cited the reasoning in Vail Associates, Inc. v. Eagle County Board of County Commissioners, 983 P.2d 49 (Colo. App. 1998). This closely related case came before the court when Eagle County appealed the Board of Assessment Appeal's decision requiring it to remove Vail Associates' possessory interest value from the assessment roll.

In Vail Associates, the court based its decision on an understanding that the taxation of property requires implementing legislation; therefore, "the General Assembly has the discretion to determine questions of time, method, nature, purpose, and extent in respect to the imposition of taxes, the subjects upon which the taxing power is to be exercised, and the proceedings concerning taxation." (p. 54) The court said the Constitution is a document that sets the limits in which the legislature can operate, but there is no restriction against the legislature taking actions within those limits. In the court's opinion, the legislature recognized its limitations "noting that it could not create a class of property to be taxed and then exempt certain members of that class." (p. 56) Therefore, the legislature "decided that it simply would not create that class consisting of possessory interests." (p. 56)

The court also addressed the county's objection that upon enacting 39-3-136, C.R.S., the legislature did not amend 39-1-102(14) or 39-1-111, C.R.S. These are the statutes cited in Mesa Verde III as defining possessory interests as real property subject to taxation. By not amending them, the county argued possessory interests were still defined by statute as real property. The court disagreed. "It is not for the reviewing court to determine that the legislature could have addressed an issue in a different or 'better' manner. Rather, the court's function is to uphold the intent of the legislature and determine whether a statute is constitutional." (p. 56) The counties appealed the decisions of both cases to the Colorado Supreme Court.

Vail Associates

The Supreme Court consolidated the two cases, and in Board of County Commissioners, County of Eagle, State of Colorado v. Vail Associates Inc. and the Board of Assessment Appeals and Allen S. Black et al. v. Colorado State Board of Equalization, 19 P.3d 1263 (Colo 2001), the court overturned the decisions of the Court of Appeals. In its decision, the court found that 39-3-136, C.R.S., "unconstitutionally exempts some private possessory interests in tax-exempt property from taxation, contrary to Article X ... and (the court's) controlling decision in (Mesa Verde III)." (p.1267) As previously stated, the Colorado Constitution provides that "...each property tax levy shall be uniform upon all real and personal property not exempt from taxation under this article...." COLO. CONST. art. X, § 3(1)(a).

The court agreed with the Court of Appeals, that the taxation of property requires implementing legislation, but it said the legislature's authority is not unconstrained. "First, the General Assembly cannot refuse to exercise its taxation authority; it must enact tax statutes so that governmental operations may be funded.... Second, it cannot provide purely statutory exemptions from taxation that are not within the constitutional exemption categories of Article X.... Third, it must not enact provisions that exempt certain private interests from bearing their fair and proportionate burden of taxation.” (p. 1274)

The court found that the enactment of 39-3-136, C.R.S., violated each of these constraints. Its decision rests in part on reasoning stated in Mesa Verde III, that possessory interests in real property are themselves real property as defined by 39-1-102(14)(a), C.R.S.

“Real Property” means: (a) All lands or interests in lands to which title or the right of title has been acquired from the government of the United States or from sovereign authority ratified by treaties entered into by the United States, or from the state,.... 39-1-102(14)(a), C.R.S. (emphasis added by court) (p. 1274)

Although 39-3-136(1)(g), C.R.S., is quoted as saying that provisions of 39-1-102(14)(a), C.R.S., “...do not direct the taxation of possessory interests in exempt properties...,” the court disagreed with the appellate court’s opinion that its enactment removed possessory interests from the statutory definition of real property. “Defining property for taxation purposes and directing taxation of that property are different concepts...,” (p. 1275) the court said.

Instead, the court found that 39-3-136, C.R.S., imposed the following changes on the taxation of possessory interests:

- The statute “defines a class of property known as ‘possessory interests.’” (p. 1277)
- It “prohibits taxation of a subclass of that property – possessory interests in otherwise tax-exempt property – from taxation while continuing taxation of other possessory interests.” (p. 1277)
- And it “carves out certain interests within the subclass for continued taxation.” (p. 1277)

“This disparate tax treatment within the same class of property is only permissible if the property exempted in the statute is also exempted in the constitution,” (p. 1277) the court said. However, the only constitutional exemption from the taxation of possessory interests in exempt property is specific to the taxation of non-producing unpatented mining claims. (p. 1278) Therefore, “the express language of section 39-3-136 operates as a purely legislative exemption to taxation that is not authorized under Article X.” (p. 1278)

Accordingly, the court severed 39-3-136, C.R.S., and the final sentence of 39-1-106, C.R.S., and left in place the valuation provisions found in section 39-1-103(17), C.R.S., that the legislature intended to apply if the court required the taxation of possessory interests in exempt property. (p. 1280) On March 30, 2001, the State Board of Equalization voted that upon receiving the remands from district court, appropriate orders would be issued to the counties.

State Board Orders Assessment of Possessory Interests

The Supreme Court’s decision affirmed the taxable status of the possessory interest property assessed by counties who were parties to Vail Associates. Their possessory interests were taxable for the years in which they were placed on the assessment rolls and for future years. However, the question remained as to whether other possessory interest property was taxable for the years in which the state board ordered its removal, or whether it was taxable beginning in 2001, the year the court issued its decision. This included possessory interests that had been removed by counties in response to the state board’s 1996 order and possessory interests, such as grazing rights that had not been previously assessed.

The state board addressed the question during its November 21 meeting, in which members voted unanimously to order “... all county assessors except those who were parties to (Vail Associates, to) value possessory interests for property tax years 2001, 2002 and forward.”

The order explained that the intent of the legislature was expressed in statute, including section 39-10-101(2)(a)(II), C.R.S., (amended in 1996) that reads in part: "...the treasurer shall not treat any possessory interest in exempt property, as described in section 39-3-136(1)(a), as taxable property omitted from the tax list and warrant for any year if the exclusion of the possessory interest from the assessment roll was based upon any provision of law created or repealed by Senate Bill 96-218...." The state board said "the courts will defer to clear legislative intent regarding the retrospective application of court decisions. Kuhn v. State Department of Revenue, 817 P.2d 101, 110 (Colo. 1991)."

During an October 7, 2002, hearing of the state board, several county assessors disclosed that they had not valued all of the taxable possessory interests in their jurisdictions. The counties were Delta, Eagle, Jackson, Jefferson, Moffat, Pitkin, and Rio Grande. On November 4, 2002, the state board sent the assessors a letter reminding them of their obligation to comply with the state board's November 21, 2001, order and explaining the actions the board would take to enforce compliance if necessary. The assessors subsequently valued the taxable possessory interests in their counties for tax year 2002.

During the same meeting, the state board heard testimony from the Division of Property Taxation that the Mesa County Board of Equalization had incorrectly ordered the removal of possessory interest values placed on two properties by the Mesa County Assessor. The state board ordered the county board of equalization to rescind its decision and restore the actual values of $5,130 on one property and $80 on the other.

(1) Average will not add to the Total Average county Levy because denominators (Assessed Valuation) are not Common to all.

(2) Municipal Revenues are divided by the sum of Municipal Assessed Valuation.

(3) Special District Revenues are divided by the sum of Special District Assessed Valuation.

* These figures include tax increment valuation, and tax revenues attributable to the increment are all allocated to increment financing authority only.
