5 TIPS TO STAY SAFE IN THE FIELD

Successful turkey hunting requires hunters to be stealthy and well-camouflaged. However, this also means you are well-camouflaged from other hunters, which can increase the chances of hunting-related accidents. Keep these points in mind in the field:

1 KNOW YOUR TARGET. As with all hunting opportunities, be absolutely sure of your target and what lies beyond it before you pull the trigger. Never shoot at sound or movement.

2 STAY ALERT. When using a turkey call, hunters may mistake your call for a real turkey.

3 CHOOSE GOOD COVER. Choose hunting locations that provide cover for your back and also give you visibility. Your calling position should have a solid background as wide as your shoulders and higher than your head, while providing you with 180-degree visibility.

Don't hide so well that you can't see what's happening. Sit still; both turkeys and hunters may see even slight movements.

4 KNOW WHAT NOT TO WEAR. Don't wear red, white or blue clothing, because you could look like a mature male turkey, which also sports these colors. Alert other hunters to your presence. You can hang fluorescent material (like a hunter-orange or pink cap or vest) above your calling spot and wear hunter orange or pink while going to and from your hunting spot.

5 DON'T ATTEMPT TO STALK a turkey in the spring. Hunters use calling to attract birds, and you may be stalking a hunter, increasing the chances of an accident. Find a good location to sit and call birds to you. If you see another hunter approaching, don't use turkey calls to alert the hunter. In a clear, loud voice say, "Hunter."

LEGAL HUNTING HOURS

Legal hunting hours for turkey are one-half hour before sunrise to sunset. The sunrise/sunset chart below lists Denver times. Subtract 1 minute from opening and closing time for each 12 1/2 miles east of Denver. Add 1 minute to opening and closing time for each 12 1/2 miles west of Denver. (These changes assume that each degree of longitude equals 50 miles and a change of 1 degree of longitude equals a 4-minute change in sunrise and sunset times.)

Get the lead out

See the CDC public health statement: www.atsdr.cdc.gov/ToxProfiles/tp13-c1-b.pdf

From the field to the table, ensuring your next harvest is safe for your family is important. Switching from lead bullets may be an option that's right for you.

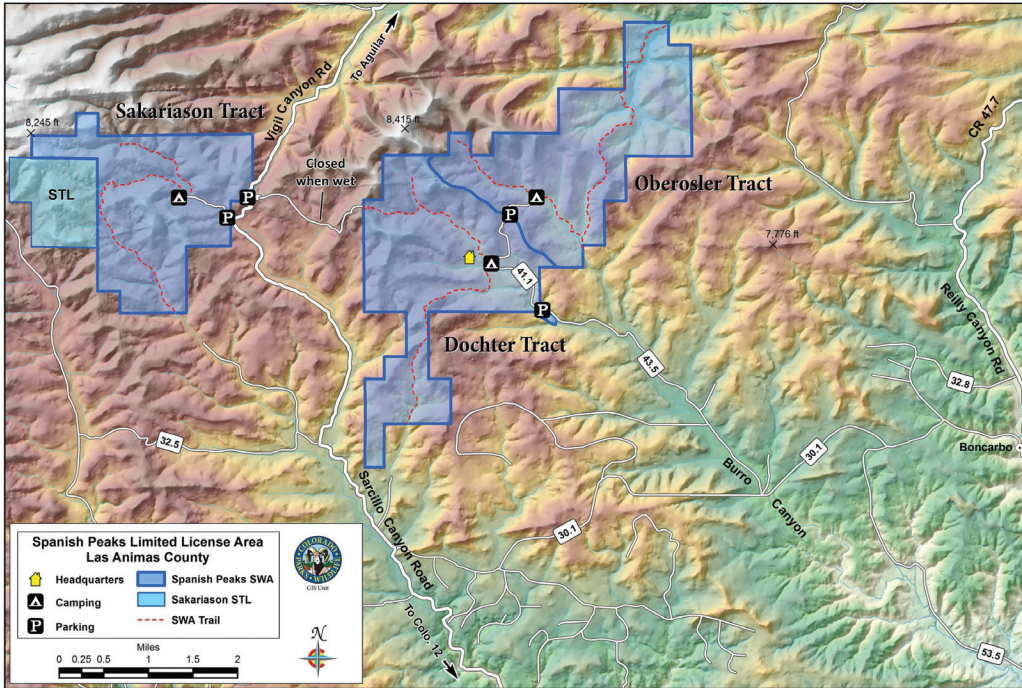

Science tells us ingesting lead can cause potential health problems. Risks are low for most people; however, you can also:

1. Use lead-free shot or bullets.
2. Liberally trim and discard meat damaged by the bullet when you process an animal. Fragments can scatter far from the wound.
3. Clean your meat grinder between each animal. Lead is soft and can go through your grinder, contaminating an entire batch of ground meat.
4. Avoid eating game meat from animals harvested with lead bullets if you are pregnant. Children younger than 6 should also avoid it.

Show Your Pride, Colorado Style

If you're a Colorado sportsman, hunting and fishing is more than a hobby or pastime—it's a way of life. It's how you connect with nature and, just as important, connect with others who share your passion for Colorado's wildlife and outdoor heritage.

Now you can unite with other hunters and anglers in a display of pride and support by purchasing a Colorado Sportsmen's License Plate for your vehicle.

Designed by Colorado Parks and Wildlife (CPW), the plates feature bold imagery highlighted against the snowy backdrop of the Rocky Mountains. Elk are silhouetted against a vibrant sunset and a native greenback cutthroat trout is prominently displayed front and center.

Best of all, the plate's simple message, "Hunters and Anglers Fund Conservation," is a great way to educate others about the important role sportsmen play in wildlife conservation. Hunters and anglers fund more than 70 percent of CPW's annual budget, which helps to protect critical habitat and manage 960 wildlife species.

The plates may be ordered at statewide DMV offices beginning Jan. 1, 2016. The annual renewal is $25 plus vehicle registration fees. The proceeds from the plates go toward fish habitat, angling access and the development of public shooting ranges.

Show your support by purchasing a Colorado Sportsmen's License Plate today.
