COLORADO PARKS AND WILDLIFE
Report On
REAL ESTATE PROJECTS

INTRODUCTION

The mission of the Division of Parks and Wildlife is to perpetuate the wildlife resources of the state, to provide a quality state park system, and to provide enjoyable outdoor recreation opportunities including hunting, angling, and wildlife viewing that educate and inspire current and future generations to serve as active stewards of Colorado's natural resources.

SCOPE OF REPORT

This report reflects the fee title, easement and term transactions approved by the Capital Development Committee in the period from January 1, 2007 through December 31, 2011. The transactions referenced above are summarized in Attachment A. Attachment A reflects both former Division of Wildlife acquisitions and former Division of Parks and Outdoor Recreation acquisitions over this time period.

During the period from January 1, 2012 through December 31, 2012, Wildlife acquisitions include the following: 16,561 acres protected through Perpetual Conservation Easements held by CPW, 6,322 acres of Term Interest, and 2,173 acres of Public Access. Also protected were 36,593 acres in Perpetual Conservation Easements held by third parties other than CPW. 13 acres of Fee Title and 7 acres of Public Access were acquired for Parks between January 1, 2012 and December 31, 2012.

As of June 30, 2012, (which does not include any transactions closed after June 30, 2012), the Wildlife holdings of Colorado Parks and Wildlife includes a total of 397,380 acres in Fee Title, Perpetual Conservation Easements held by CPW on 175,191 acres, and Perpetual Public Access Easements on 78,028 acres. CPW also holds term agreements on approximately 182,386 acres and the Statewide Public Access Lease Agreement, a term agreement with the State Land Board for the current acreage of 493,113. An additional 168,450 acres are protected through Perpetual Conservation Easements held by 3rd parties other than CPW.

As of June 30, 2012, (which does not include any transactions closed after June 30, 2012), the Parks holdings of Colorado Parks and Wildlife includes a total of 49,175 acres in Fee Title, Perpetual Conservation Easements held by CPW on 4,871 acres, and Perpetual Public Access Easements on 4,152 acres. CPW also holds term agreements on approximately 173,404 acres, including 79,524 acres leased from the State Land Board. An additional 1,991 acres are protected through Perpetual Conservation Easements held by 3rd parties other than CPW.
