OFFICE OF THE STATE PUBLIC DEFENDER

FISCAL YEAR 2021-22 BUDGET REQUEST

OFFICE OF THE STATE PUBLIC DEFENDER

MEGAN A. RING STATE PUBLIC DEFENDER

October 30, 2020

To the Members of the Joint Budget Committee of the Colorado General Assembly:

Thank you for considering the Office of the State Public Defender's (OSPD) Budget Request for Fiscal Year 2021-2022. In 1963, the United States Supreme Court ruled that the United States Constitution requires states to provide counsel for indigent people accused in criminal cases. The Court said that:

[f]rom the very beginning, our state and national constitutions and laws have laid great emphasis on procedural and substantive safeguards designed to assure fair trials before impartial tribunals in which every defendant stands equal before the law. This noble ideal cannot be realized if the poor man charged with crime has to face his accusers without a lawyer to assist him.

Gideon v. Wainwright, 372 U.S. 335, 344 (1963).

In 1970, Colorado developed a statewide system of providing counsel for the indigent accused. The statutory mission of the OSPD is to serve clients

Independently of any political considerations or private interests, provide legal services to indigent persons accused of crime that are commensurate with those available to nonindigents, and conduct the office in accordance with the Colorado rules of professional conduct and with the American bar association standards relating to the administration of criminal justice, the defense function.

§ 21-1-102(1), C.R.S.

Currently, the OSPD staffs twenty-one regional trial offices, serving clients in each of Colorado's twenty-two judicial districts and all of Colorado's sixty-four counties. A central Appellate Division in Denver handles appeals for all OSPD clients before the Colorado Court of Appeals and the Colorado Supreme Court. The OSPD's central office provides administrative support (including IT, finance, human resources and training) to these twenty-two offices. Eighty-five percent of our budget is spent on personal services, with the remaining fifteen percent supporting mandated and operational costs.

This year has brought numerous and significant challenges to our mandate of providing the poor and marginalized with effective and zealous representation. Since 1970, the OSPD has witnessed the effects of systemic and institutional racism in the criminal legal system. Many of the persons that OSPD serves are members of communities of color and poverty – the very communities most impacted by COVID-19. Justice has always been an illusory concept for the poor and disenfranchised. While COVID-19 has diminished the quality of life for most Coloradans, it has diminished the quality of justice for many. Recent events

STATE OFFICE • 1300 BROADWAY, SUITE 400 DENVER, COLORADO 80203 PHONE: (303) 764-1400 • FAX: (303) 764-1478 highlighting the racism and classism in our criminal legal system have decreased even further client confidence in law enforcement and the court system. Our ability to convince clients that there is a path forward and that the system will treat them fairly has been compromised. As one experienced OSPD lawyer aptly noted, "I am working 3 times harder and accomplishing less for my clients."

Adding to these challenges, budget cuts have necessitated several drastic measures for the OSPD. The agency has instituted salary freezes, voluntary furloughs, delays in hiring and reduction in operational budgets to cover salaries.

COVID-19 has also changed the way attorneys do business. As we strive to provide zealous and safe representation for our clients, we also are trying to protect OSPD employees. Many lawyers and staff are working almost entirely virtually as we have had positive COVID cases throughout many of our offices. Jails and detention facilities are locations of highest COVID risk and we are trying to keep staff safe from infection at these facilities or bringing the virus into them. We have a large population of not simply indigent clients but clients who have no home and no access to phones or computers and the economic crisis caused by COVID-19 puts more people in similar circumstances. Thus, while the virtual system has some benefits, nearly every activity from getting signed paperwork to sharing discovery (including multiple body-cam videos) to resolving cases has become more difficult and time-consuming.

Closures of courts and docket postponements due to COVID infections have forced additional court hearings and delays in resolving cases, which impacts attorney caseloads. Cases are more difficult to resolve when clients are afraid they will be infected if even a short jail sentence is required. Lawyers are working diligently to file additional bond reduction motions to try to get persons released from jails who do not present a public safety risk. While jury trials have resumed in many jurisdictions, limited capacity due to COVID-19 and changes to speedy trial rules have caused some cases to get set over multiple times without resolution. Witnesses can be harder to find and some people are afraid or simply unable to come to court due to health risks, even to support family members.

In this environment, OSPD office heads and supervisors are constantly working with judges, sheriffs, district attorneys and others to organize client contact, Webex hearings for court, safety protocols and more. This has been challenging because no statewide COVID courthouse protocols have been established, so courthouse pandemic procedures vary not just from district to district but sometimes from courtroom to courtroom.

The OSPD has a history of presenting you with data to support our budget requests. While we continue to rely on data, we are also requesting that the Joint Budget Committee understand the impact of COVID on our work. Our request this year is the minimum required to allow us to continue our mandate of providing effective representation during these challenging times.

We thank you again for considering the OSPD's funding request. I look forward to discussing our agency and answering your questions during the budget process.

Sincerely,

242

Megan A. Ring Colorado State Public Defender

AGENCY HIGHLIGHTS

MISSION

The mission of the Office of the State Public Defender is to defend and protect the rights, liberties, and dignity of those accused of crimes who cannot afford to retain counsel. We do so by providing constitutionally and statutorily mandated representation that is effective, zealous, inspired and compassionate.

OSPD Enabling Legislation:

The general assembly hereby declares that the state public defender at all times shall serve his clients independently of any political considerations or private interest, provide legal services to indigent persons accused of crime that are commensurate with those available to nonindigents, and conduct the office in accordance with the Colorado Rules of Professional Conduct and with the American Bar Association standards relating to the administration of criminal justice, the defense function. C.R.S. 21-1-101(1).

GOALS

The primary goals of the Office of the State Public Defender are to:

- provide effective legal representation in both the trial and appellate courts;
- hire and retain a sufficient number of high quality staff to effectively manage the assigned caseload; and
- provide both a high quality and quantity of staff development, training, new technology and other resources to adapt our response to the ever-changing criminal justice system so that our legal services are commensurate with those available for non-indigent persons.

VISION

The Office of the State Public Defender's vision is to develop, maintain and support our passionate and dedicated team so that they can provide the best possible quality of effective and efficient criminal defense representation for every one of our clients.

PROGRAM IN BRIEF

History

In 1963, the United States Supreme Court issued Gideon v. Wainwright, 372 U.S. 335 (1963), ensuring the right of the indigent accused to representation of counsel in criminal cases. During this same year, the Colorado General Assembly passed the Colorado Defender Act in response to the Supreme Court's decision in Gideon. This Act authorized Colorado counties to either establish a public defender's office or remain under the previous ad hoc system of appointing counsel for indigent citizens accused of criminal offenses. Four county public defender offices were established under the Act in Denver, Brighton, Pueblo and Durango.

In 1969, the State Legislature passed the Administrative Re-Organization Act. Pursuant to this Act, the State began to oversee the court system, which assumed responsibility for the appointment and funding of counsel for indigent defendants. The Office of the State Public Defender was created by statute and became an independent state agency in 1970.

Description

The Office of the State Public Defender (OSPD) is a single purpose program that is devoted to providing effective criminal defense representation to indigent persons charged with crimes except where there is a conflict of interest. Our clients are indigent people, overly representative of people of BIPOC identity, and overwhelming people living with mental illness who face the possibility of incarceration, are unable to afford private counsel and without counsel would otherwise be denied their constitutional right to representation throughout the criminal proceedings. Attorneys, investigators and legal support staff are necessary to provide effective representation of counsel as mandated by the federal and state constitutions, Colorado Revised Statutes, Colorado Court Rules, American Bar Association standards, and the Colorado Rules of Professional Conduct. The OSPD system is the most efficient means of meeting these requirements.

The OSPD is an independent agency within the Judicial Branch of Colorado state government. Courts appoint the OSPD when a defendant qualifies for public defender services pursuant to statute, applicable case law and Chief Justice Directives.

In order to fulfill our responsibility in criminal proceedings, our office operates as a single purpose program which handles cases at two different levels of the state court system – the trial court level and the appellate court level. The OSPD maintains 21 regional trial offices, which cover the State's 22 judicial districts and 64 counties. The OSPD appellate office handles statewide indigent criminal cases heard at the Court of Appeals and the Supreme Court. The staff in these offices are entirely devoted to the processing of cases as assigned by the courts.

The Public Defender System is directed at the state level by the Colorado State Public Defender, Megan A. Ring. The State Administrative Office provides centralized, state-wide administrative services and coordinates all office support functions to assist our regional trial offices and appellate division in providing services to clients. The administrative functions delivered by the State Administrative Office include:

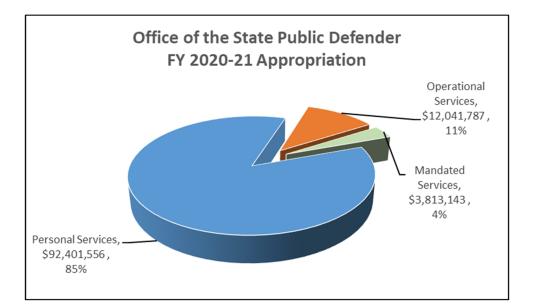

- all program direction, analysis, and planning, including statistical compilation and development;
- workforce development, training, personnel policy, compensation analysis and practice development;
- payroll and benefits coordination and administration;
- legislative affairs and statutory analysis;
- intragovernmental and intergovernmental affairs;
- budget analysis, development, allocation and management;
- financial management, analysis, tracking, transaction processing, procurement, and accounting;
- facilities planning, development, and lease negotiating;
- contracts and grants management; and
- development, distribution and maintenance of the agency's computer information and telecommunication systems.

Current Budget

To support the OSPD in the representation of its FY 2020-21 projected caseload, the OSPD was appropriated $ 108,256,486 and 925.1 FTE. The FTEs consist of 557 attorneys, 187 investigators/paralegals (including 14 social workers), 136 administrative assistants and 45 centralized management and support positions.

As part of our original budget we were appropriated new FTE to directly address our severe and growing staffing shortages. However, with the state facing a 3.3 billion budget shortfall the legislature was forced to cut funding for most agencies. The edict for us resulted in a 5 percent cut to personal services. We are a service-oriented agency. The portion of our appropriation devoted to personal services is 85 percent of our appropriation, whereas our mandated and operating appropriations total 15 percent. Accordingly, any changes to our personal services budget, such as those made through the aforementioned legislative action on common policies and for new legislation, have a tremendous effect on our overall appropriation.

To manage this significant reduction in funding we were forced to implement immediate measures to include salary freezes, furloughs, holding positions open, and delaying the hiring of our newly-approved FTE. These fiscal measures were manageable at first, as there was a brief respite in the caseload pressures in the late months of FY 2019-20. However, that respite has lapsed and the cases that were not able to be handled during COVID-related lockdown now require the attention of a staffed public defender's office. Because of the current workload increases we are now experiencing as a result of continuing filings paired with workload complications created by remote public defending, we can no longer continue to employ these measures and still fulfill our constitutionally-mandated mission. Our attorneys are stretched to the max, overwhelmed, and cannot sustain this level. It is imperative we go forward with filling vacant positions and ensure our funding remains intact.

Environmental Scan

While our primary function of providing criminal defense representation will not change, the criminal justice environment in which we operate is changing. For example, workload per case grew this year as a result of COVID, poverty related to economic hardship will cause more criminally-accused to qualify for our services, and the cases that we handle continue to become more complex requiring greater investment in IT infrastructure to understand and manage the technical nature of the discovery and facts of cases, training to develop expertise for staff, and additional work to navigate through serious, complex cases.

Additional factors have compounded these workload trends. These changes compound existing workload conditions, making it more difficult and time-consuming for attorneys to provide effective representation. Such changes include:

- staffing shortages;
- docket organization;
- the use of specialty courts;
- changes in prosecutorial practice and procedures;
- newly enacted criminal offenses;
- changes in classes of criminal offenses;
- changes in criminal penalties;
- changes to the time it takes to process a case;
- changes in the types, quality, complexity and quantity of evidence; and
- the history and documentation associated with a case.

This changing environment presents a compounding challenge to the OSPD's need to achieve the staffing levels that are required to provide effective representation.

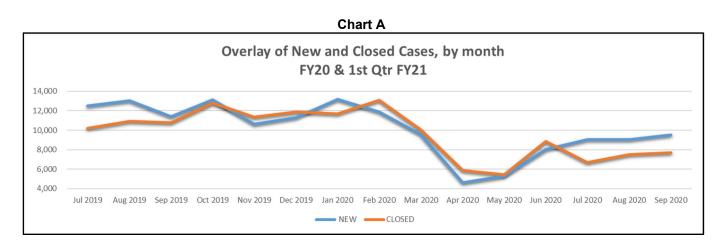

The most recent environmental change that our agency is now facing is the COVID-19 pandemic. Operating during the pandemic has caused unique challenges that are described in the next section.

COVID-19

The COVID-19 pandemic and the Stay-At-Home orders forced the Office of the State Public Defender (OSPD) to quickly react to a world where much of the work of representing clients became virtual. In a very short period of time, the agency took several steps to adapt, including:

- Providing all employees with laptops to be able to conduct work from home, as many of our administrative staff previously had desk-top computers;
- Increasing VPN capability from approximately 50 employees per day to nearly 900 users per day;
- Reconfiguring phone systems to allow for remote access and usage;
- Implementing the different remote court solutions such as Webex and Lifesize for our employees;
- Implementing capabilities for remote client applications;
- Providing laptops and iPads for our in-custody clients to review discovery;
- Acquiring Webex licenses to allow in-custody clients to communicate via video; and
- Acquiring Zoom licenses to enable remote staff meetings and trainings, including conducting our annual training conference in an entirely virtual format.

As the pandemic accelerated, the number of new OSPD cases dropped significantly in the spring. By the fourth quarter of FY 2019-20, the decline had reached approximately 50 percent. The number of cases has started to rebound, however. This change is shown in Chart A below.

Our staff have observed several reasons for the initial decline and subsequent rebound in new cases.

- Initially, some courts granted a significant number of personal recognizance bonds. Because more people were on these bonds at first advisement, our numbers dipped. Now, many of these cases which were set out for a few months are starting to move forward again. As people have court dates scheduled, they apply for our services so our numbers are going back up.
- While there was a temporary lull in filings when COVID hit, they are picking back as agencies have adapted to new filing, summons and arrest procedures.

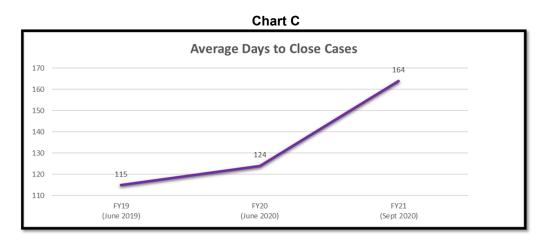

While Denver Police were initially not arresting people for certain low-level felonies and misdemeanors early in the pandemic, they have resumed this practice.

In addition to the number of cases currently increasing from the lowest pandemic levels, some offices have experienced a substantial increase in their higher level felony cases (violent crime). A comparison of these cases in the first quarter of FY 2020-21 to the first quarter of last year is in Chart B below. While caseloads are down in other categories, class one and two felonies have increased by 8 percent and 50 percent, respectively. These serious felonies require the greatest attorney effort, time and resources. As our Denver Office, reported, "[o]ur office has a record number of active homicide cases and our COV [crime of violence] cases have increased. We are all carrying more life-in-prison cases than ever before and these types of cases require substantially more work and time."

| F1 | 48 | 52 | 8% | | | | | | |
| F2 | 80 | 120 | 50% | | | | | | |

Since the pandemic, the number of closed cases has declined and cases are taking substantially longer to resolve. Although our new and closed case numbers dropped in FY 2019-20, Chart C shows we have experienced a dramatic 43 percent increase in the average days it takes to close a case when compared to FY 2018-19. This percentage is even more significant because COVID-19 only began affecting our averages during the last few months of the fiscal year.

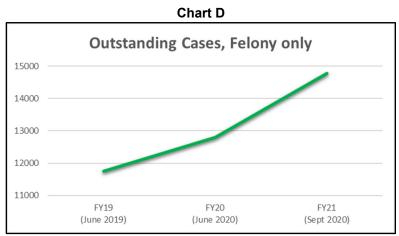

As a direct result of the pandemic, cases take longer to resolve, as many tasks take additional time. Our attorneys have shared many challenges they face related to COVID-19:

- > We spend a lot of time telling people how to apply and how to attend court electronically.
- The applications process has proven especially difficult. We have a large population of not simply indigent clients but clients with no home and no access to phones or computers making virtual applications almost impossible for this clientele. We have had to shift our administrative workloads to try and accommodate the number of potential clients calling in to try and apply.
- The legwork required for a normal docket has increased because everything has to be reviewed and signed by clients ahead of time.
- Virtual interviews, meetings and dockets are frequently beset by technological delays and glitches from all sides, which causes time to slide unproductively away. Additionally, the very nature of these communications is less productive and more time consuming – it just takes longer to get things done in this format.
- While some jails have been very cooperative, others have made it very difficult for us to have adequate, confidential communication with our clients.
- When we have clients in other facilities, such as the DOC, it can be extremely difficult to talk to them, if we are able to talk to them at all. We spend a great amount of time trying to figure out these meetings and often still do not get to speak with them.
- We currently spend a lot more time trying to track down clients to speak with them and figure out how to get them discovery to review. This is especially complicated with large electronic files like body-cam video.
- In rural and poor jurisdictions it is work just being able to contact our clients. Most don't have access to email (believe it or not). A majority have lost their phones because of a loss of work. And there has definitely been an increase in the homeless population due to COVID. Mail is often the only way to make contact with clients.
- When we were all in court there were many things that got hammered out in the courtroom. It was a time when client, victim, DA and we were all present. Client's sticking point may be "x" and we could go to the DA right there and discuss it. DA could then talk to victim and we could get the case hammered out in 20 minutes. Now, those 20 minutes can take up to 4 weeks of back and forth and trying to find people.

In addition, while jury trials have resumed in many jurisdictions, the number of trials that can proceed while operating with requirements of physical distancing and rising case counts has been significantly reduced. Thus, while new cases overall are lower than pre-pandemic, outstanding cases are rising as is the number of more serious cases. This is having a tremendous impact on the workload our attorneys face.

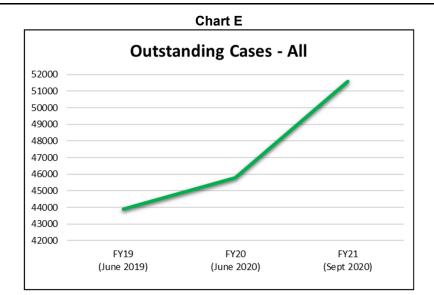

Chart D illustrates the effect statewide of the increase in outstanding felony cases, 26 percent in just the first three months of FY 2020-21, while Chart E includes all case types.

For almost a quarter of a century, the OSPD has relied on workload standards derived from independently-developed workload studies to determine our staffing and resource needs. In the current, unprecedented pandemic, these metrics do not accurately capture the current workload of Public Defenders.

For example, carrying a larger number of more serious cases for a longer period of time contributes to the already existing high stress levels and time demands being made of our staff. Our staff are concerned for the health and safety of themselves, their co-workers, their families, and their clients and their families. Many of those suffering the most during the pandemic reflect our client base: poor communities and especially communities of color. As the pandemic has progressed, we have seen this toll impact our attorney attrition rate. Attorney attrition rates are up, which is not how attrition rates typically operate during an economic downturn when people do not leave stable employment. As we have reported in previous budget cycles, an increase in attrition rates compounds demands on remaining staff because the workload is redistributed to the remaining attorneys many of whom are less experienced.

To date, the Public Defender estimates that the costs directly associated with COVID-19 are approximately $200,000. This amount includes $160,000 for IT and communication-related costs, $50,000 for workplace cleanings after employees tested positive or were diagnosed with COVID-19, and for PPE and miscellaneous supplies. This $50,000 number might have been significantly higher if, early in the pandemic, adequate supplies of PPE had been more available to non-medical workers in the U.S. In the end, this amount reflects what our current budget was able to bear.

Indirect costs are unquantifiable. They include staff personally paying to upgrade their wireless systems so they are able to efficiently work from home, purchases of secondary cell phones for client communication, purchases of necessary PPE and general supplies.

CASE TRENDS

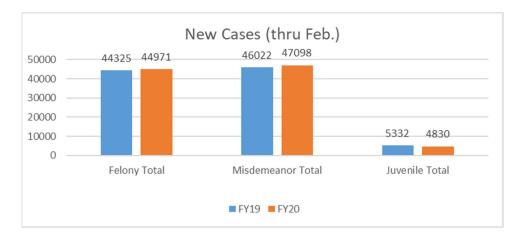

REGIONAL TRIAL OFFICE CASELOAD

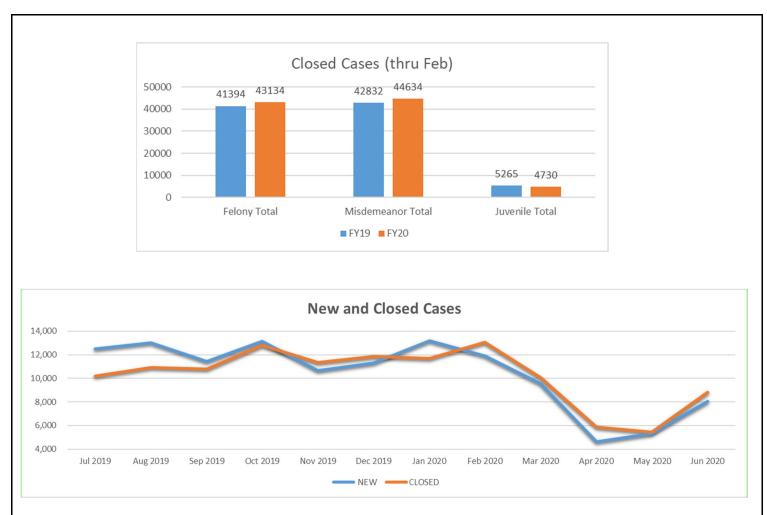

OVERALL OSPD CASE TRENDS

Total Cases. The Office of the State Public Defender (OSPD) tracks and monitors its caseload in three separate categories: New Cases, Closed Cases and Active Cases. In FY 2019-20, the OSPD was appointed on 124,586 new cases, closed 122,712 cases and actively worked on 168,512 cases. Active caseload incorporates all cases in which the OSPD is actively representing clients in a given year: the total new cases, plus the remaining unfinished cases from prior years and therefore carried forward into the current year.

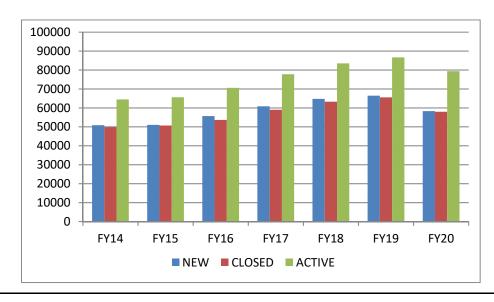

As shown in the chart above, the total number of cases had been increasing every year though FY 2018-19. Through the first eight months of FY 2019-20, our totals were up in both our felony and misdemeanor cases. However, cases dropped in every area as a direct result of the COVID-19 pandemic.

Felony Cases. In FY 2019-20, the OSPD had 79,374 active felony cases. Although this is below the prior year level of 86,668, this decrease occurred in the last 3 months of the fiscal year as a result of COVID-19. Prior to this, the OSPD had experienced significant increases each year, amounting to over a 50 percent increase since FY 2011-12. Felony cases, primarily the Trial and Pre-trial cases, require the greatest attorney effort, time and dedication of resources.

Given their seriousness and complexity, although felony cases make up approximately 47 percent of our trial cases, they require 66 percent of our trial FTE resources.

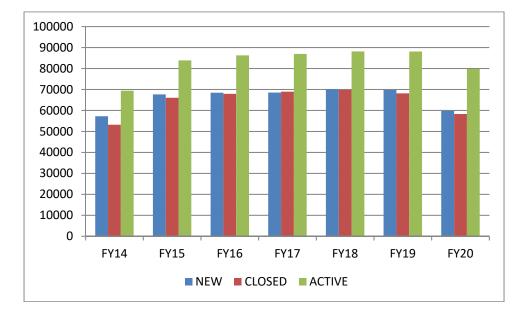

Felony Case Trends

Misdemeanor Cases. Through FY 2012-13, misdemeanor case growth in each category of new, closed and active caseload was relatively predictable increasing by a rate of 6 to 7 percent per year.

In FY 2013-14 and FY 2014-15, the OSPD experienced a significant increase in its misdemeanor caseload primarily due to legislation enacted on January 1, 2014. H.B. 13-1210 (commonly known as the Rothgery bill) amended C.R.S. 16-7-301(4)(a), striking the section of law requiring defendants in misdemeanors, petty offenses and traffic offenses to first discuss plea negotiations with the prosecution prior to being assigned defense counsel. Over the course of those two years, the number of active misdemeanor cases surged to well over 80,000. Prior to Rothgery, the OSPD was handling roughly 50,000 cases per year. While some of this is due to normal case growth, the impact of Rothgery was definitely the driving force.

Misdemeanor caseloads seemed to have stabilized, with the OSPD handling 88,089 cases in FY 2018-19. Caseloads were consistent through the first eight months of FY 2019-20 but were similarly impacted by COVID and dropped in the final 3 months of the fiscal year resulting in 79,797 active cases in FY 2019-20.

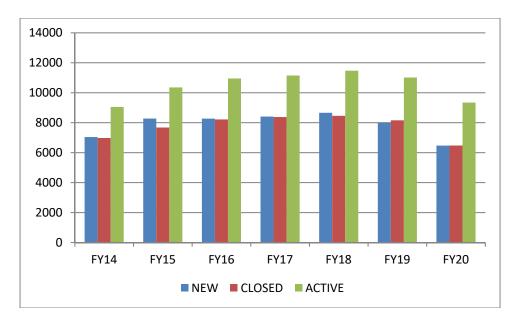

Misdemeanor cases represent about 48 percent of our total cases and require about 24 percent of our trial FTE resources.

Misdemeanor Case Trends

Juvenile Cases. Since FY 2014-15, the OSPD has experienced an increase in its juvenile caseload, due to legislation. H.B. 14-1032 (commonly known as the Juvenile Defense bill) requires the OSPD to be present at detention hearings, allows the court to appoint the OSPD when the parents refuse to provide counsel, allows the court to appoint the OSPD when the court deems it to be in the best interest of the child, and intentionally makes it more difficult for juveniles to waive counsel. Since November 1, 2014 when this legislation went into effect, the number of active juvenile cases rose from 9,050 in FY 2013-14 to 11,015 in FY 2018-19.

In FY 2019-20, the OSPD saw a decrease in the number of active cases handled, down to 9,341, again, as a result of COVID-19. Juvenile cases represent about 5 percent of our total cases and require about 4 percent of our trial FTE resources.

REGIONAL TRIAL OFFICE CASELOAD

TRIAL AND PRETRIAL CASE TRENDS

Trial and Pretrial closings reflect cases that are brought to a final disposition. The increase in Trial and Pretrial closings is the primary factor that drives attorney staffing needs, since these cases account for the greatest draw on attorney resources and time.

The office has participated in several workload studies over the years to determine the appropriate case weights for the various types of cases in order to determine its staffing needs. The OSPD case weights are applied to Trial and Pretrial cases, as well as to revocations, which make up a large portion of the Other Proceedings. The weights take into account the time associated with all Other Proceedings. Assuming that the proportionate share of Trial and Pretrial versus Other Proceedings caseloads remain relatively constant through time, these weights will remain accurate. As seen on the chart below, this has been the case with the Trial and Pretrial averaging at 54 percent of the total cases and 46 percent for the Other Proceedings.

OTHER PROCEEDINGS TRENDS

The Other Proceedings category includes all revocations, Rule 35(b) sentence reconsiderations, Rule 35(c) hearings, extradition matters, and other miscellaneous proceedings. Other Proceedings may also include appeals and original proceedings handled by a regional office. The partial service category refers to cases that are not brought to a final disposition. These include conflicts of interest, other withdrawals because a defendant retained private counsel or went pro se, and situations where a client fails to appear. In order to be opened and subsequently counted as a partial service closing there must be client contact and a specific action taken with respect to the client. Revocations constitute the biggest percent Other Proceedings, representing 52.3 percent of the total in FY 2019-20.

MISCELLANEOUS HEARINGS

As a result of H.B. 13-1210, the Rothgery bill, and H.B. 14-1032, the Juvenile Defense bill, OSPD began tracking the number of both felony and misdemeanor advisement/bond hearings along with juvenile detention hearings. These stats are shown separately below and are not included in the Other Proceedings.

Conflict Withdrawals. A "conflict of interest" occurs in situations where the Office represents a codefendant or a person who is a witness in the case, or other circumstances as identified in the Colorado Rules of Professional Conduct. The withdrawal rate due to a conflict has increased to 9 percent this past year.

APPELLATE DIVISION CASELOAD

APPELLATE CASE TRENDS

Appellate Cases. The Office of the State Public Defender maintains a centralized Appellate Division (the Division) that represents indigent clients in felony appeals from every jurisdiction in the state, regardless of who may have represented them in prior court proceedings (e.g., court appointed counsel, Alternate Defense Counsel and private attorneys). The Division is expected to handle a total of 1,870 cases in FY 2020-21, of which 1,054 are in phase one and 816 are in phase two.

• Phase one is where an initial OSPD brief has not yet been filed and is the phase during which the most resources are required. We estimate the Division will see 524 new cases, along with 530 backlog cases carried over from previous years.

• Phase two is the continuation of the case through the appeals process, which can take several years to complete.

Phase One:

In FY 2013-14, the number of backlog cases (those awaiting an initial brief) peaked at 749, the highest ever experienced, exceeding the NLADA standard caseload for the division by 470 cases. The following year, the Division requested and received additional FTEs and funding to help lower this number and had been successful in doing so, dropping to 539 cases as of FY 2017-18, which was the lowest level in over a decade. In FY 2018-19 this number jumped back up where the Division had a backlog of 603 cases which was the result of multiple factors. Over the past year, the Division has been back to nearly full staffing levels and have worked hard to lower this backlog to 530 cases.

The plan is to continue to reduce this backlog yet keeping in mind that various factors as experienced in prior years could rise up and hinder this process, such as an increase in the number of appeals assigned to the Division as a result of the prior years' significant increase in felony filings at the trial level, an increase in the record size of the case, and attrition and loss of experienced attorney's. In addition, we acknowledge the volatility in our caseload as a result of the current COVID-10 pandemic. We expect appellate cases to follow the same general trend as what we're seeing in the trial courts, that of a temporarily decrease in the number of new cases, returning to pre-COVID levels in FY 2021-22.

Phase Two:

After an opening brief is filed, the case remains active as it progresses through the appellate process and the work involved extends well into subsequent years. During this second phase, numerous briefs, pleadings and oral arguments (see table below) are completed in accordance with appellate court deadlines, some of which require an attorney to work on things other than opening briefs. For example, court deadlines for briefs and petitions in the Colorado Supreme Court often must take precedence over briefs due in the Colorado Court of Appeals. As a result, appellate attorneys frequently pause work on briefs in the Court of Appeals in order to prioritize filings with the Supreme Court. While this may incur some delay in the filing of opening briefs in the Court of Appeals, it has also had the effect of more timely reduction of the cases pending in the second phase of the appeal. The Division estimates there are currently 816 cases at various stages within this process (phase two), which is a significant reduction from the 1,049 cases in phase two the Division was handling just three years ago. This reduction is a clear indication of the shift of resources that has taken place, which has had an impact on the Division's ability to reduce the backlog.

| Briefs, Pleadings & Arguments (Phase 2) | | | | |
|--|-----|--|--|--|
| Reply Briefs | 362 | | | |
| Petition for Rehearing | 96 | | | |
| Cert Petitions | 266 | | | |
| 35B Filed | 76 | | | |
| Dral Arguments 93 | | | | |

In addition to processing felony appeals statewide, the Division also assists in the appellate process for both county court and juvenile appeals. This past year, staff consulted or worked on over 245 cases, handled roughly 110 queries from juvenile attorneys in the trial offices, and held numerous statewide trainings, enabling trial offices to achieve improved administrative efficiencies as well as increased representational effectiveness.

JBC REQUEST FOR INFORMATION

Judicial Branch, Office of the State Public Defender, FY 2020-21, RFI #1

The State Public Defender is requested to provide by November 1, 2020, a report concerning the Appellate Division's progress in reducing its case backlog, including the following data for FY 2019-20: the number of new cases; the number of opening briefs filed by the Appellate Division; the number of cases resolved in other ways; the number of cases closed; and the number of cases awaiting an opening brief as of June 30, 2020.

Appellate Division Overview

The Office of the State Public Defender (OSPD) maintains a centralized Appellate Division (Division) that represents clients in felony appeals from every jurisdiction in the state regardless of who may have represented the clients in prior court proceedings (e.g., court-appointed counsel, Alternate Defense Counsel and private attorneys). The Division is expected to carry 1,054 cases this year (FY 2020-21), including 524 new cases and 530 backlog cases carried over from previous years. This 1,054 number represents those cases where an initial brief is expected to be filed and is the phase during which the most resources are required. After the brief is filed, the case remains active as it progresses through the remainder of the appellate process. The Division estimates there are currently 816 cases at various stages within this process and the work involved extends well into subsequent years.

Legislative Action

The legislature provided the OSPD with additional funding and staffing beginning in FY 2014-15 to help reduce the rapidly expanding appellate "backlog," address the impact of additional staff received by the Attorney General and to streamline the appellate process for all appeals.

FY 2019-20 Statistics

Following are the statistics requested for FY 2019-20, as of June 30, 2020.

- 1. Number of new cases 514;
- 2. Number of initial briefs filed 454;
- 3. Number of cases resolved in other ways 133;
- 4. Number of cases closed 587; and
- 5. Number of cases awaiting an opening brief 530.

Schedule 5

This section of the Long Bill provides the essential and necessary funding to support the operating needs of the Office of the State Public Defender, sufficient to meet minimal U.S. and Colorado Constitutional and Colorado Statutory needs of indigent clients facing criminal charges in the States' judicial system. In general, funding is determined in the first instance by defense attorney caseload standards, which allows attorneys to provide their clients with a vigorous defense in criminal trials and related procedural hearings. In the next instance, funding supports necessary investigative, administrative and agency level support staffing. Finally, the funding supports the mandated costs of facilitating the legal process; anciliary business costs such as leased space, utilities and general operating expenses; costs of employee benefits; and, finally, any other costs funded by the Legislature to support the needs the of State Public Defender and the interests of the State at large.
