Letter of Transmittal

---

January 2, 1934.

To His Excellency,

ED C. JOHNSON,
Governor of Colorado.

Sir:

There is herewith submitted, as required under Section 68, Chapter 44, Session Laws of Colorado, 1913, the report of your State Bank Commissioner for the year of 1933, setting forth general conditions for the past year, under which trying circumstances the State Banks and Trust Companies, under supervision of this Department, were obliged to radically change policies of management and capitalization to meet Government requirements.

The general moratorium effective March 3rd found many banking institutions in condition whereby it was necessary to extend leniency or precipitate a disaster to many localities by closing orders, which was avoided by general plan adopted, permitting operation on restricted basis temporarily, and except with limited number was a successful move.

There are at this date eighty-three banks and trust companies operating on unrestricted basis; however, incomplete information prevents definite statement as to number qualified for insurance feature of the Glass-Steagel Bill.

Under official call of the Bank Commissioner under date of November 25th, there are reporting ninety-seven banks and trust companies with Capital, Surplus and Undivided Profits of $7,378,515.00 and Deposits of $54,223,640.44. Compilation of consolidated report shows an average Legal Reserve of 34.97 per cent, a material increase over past years.

The reduction in number of operating banks is due to mergers, consolidations and voluntary liquidations, with limited number only closed by the Department, as shown by the following.

VOLUNTARY LIQUIDATIONS

The First State Bank of Hillrose, Hillrose.

First State Bank of Nunn, Nunn.

The Motor Bank, Denver.

Weldon Valley State Bank, Weldona.

PURCHASED OR MERGED

The Colorado Title & Trust Co., Colorado Springs, deposit liability taken over by The First National Bank, trust business continued.

The Elizabeth State Bank, Elizabeth, taken over by Elbert County Bank, Elbert.

The Stockgrowers State Bank, Kiowa, taken over by The Kiowa State Bank, Kiowa.

CLOSED

The Cheyenne County State Bank, Cheyenne Wells.

The State Bank of Ramah, Ramah.

The Wallace State Bank, Monte Vista.

Rio Grande State Bank, Del Norte.

The Monte Vista Bank & Trust Co., Monte Vista.

Ovid State Bank, Ovid.

Durango Bank & Trust Company, Durango.

The Englewood State Bank, Englewood.

General provisions of the present laws will occasion discontinuance of smaller banking institutions, due to limited business and increasing expenses and several are now preparing to discontinue by full settlement with creditors.

During the past year there have been organized four Credit Unions, bringing the total in operation at this time to eleven. The function of Credit Unions has been very satisfactory to their members, supplying a credit where necessary at reasonable rate of interest to borrower.

Relative to Industrial Banks, organized and operating under provisions of the Industrial Bank Act, Session Laws 1923, in general their business is confined to small loans, at high interest rates. Repeated efforts have been made to secure changes in this law, however without success. Complaints reach this Department regarding exorbitant interest charges on loans and the character of assets are questionable from point of realization. The volume of business requires more time for examination than necessary to devote to regular banks. Reported under this date in operation there are listed fourteen Industrial Banks and we can only recommend that all such institutions be brought under all regulations and restrictions as govern State Banks and Trust Companies, eliminating all provisions of conversion of loan companies into Industrial Banks.

Conditions of the past year have brought unlimited work and serious problems for solution and courtesies and counsel extended the Department by Governor and Attorney General have been extremely helpful and appreciated by the Bank Commissioner and assistants.

Supported by experienced and capable Special Deputies, the Liquidation Department has distributed many thousands of dollars, reducing the accumulated bills payable of closed banks, adjustment of secured claims and distributions of dividends to general creditors in amount of $871,055.66 during the past twelve months.

Constantly changing conditions will determine during the ensuing year the relative position of state institutions in the financial structure of the United States and solution of many problems still in debatable form.

Respectfully submitted,

GRANT McFERSON,

State Bank Commissioner.
