TO: His Excellency Roy Romer
Governor of the State of Colorado

Dear Governor Romer:

I am honored to submit this Annual Report of Condition for all state chartered commercial banks in compliance with the provisions of section 11-2-110, C.R.S., as amended. The report also includes a Report of Condition for state chartered industrial banks and state chartered trust companies.

The 164 state chartered commercial banks reported total deposits of $4,500,323,000 and total assets of $5,003,115,000, as of December 31, 1989. Assets decreased by 23 percent over those reported in 1988. At the end of 1988, there were 173 state chartered commercial banks with total assets of $6,505,734,000 and total deposits of 5,768,379,000.

The 33 state chartered industrial banks reported total deposits of $264,488,000 and total assets of $407,502,000 as of December 31, 1989. Assets decreased 19 percent since 1988 at which time the 46 state chartered industrial banks reported total assets of $503,218,000. At year end 1988 the industrial bank's deposits totaled $286,775,000.

Colorado has five state chartered trust companies which reported total assets of $684,752,000 and total deposits of $631,753,000 as of December 31, 1989. Assets increased 882 percent since 1988 at which time the five state chartered trust companies reported total assets of $69,723,000. Prior to 1989 state chartered trust companies did not accept deposits.

Also included in this report are all rules which were adopted by the Colorado State Banking Board during 1989 and the dollar amount and geographic distribution of Colorado loans outstanding by banks conducting business in Colorado. The outstanding loans are reported in accordance with section 11-7-112, C.R.S., as amended.

Sincerely,

Ralph E. Mires
State Bank Commissioner

THE YEARS OF TRANSITION

In May of 1988, the Division of Banking received its performance audit from the State Auditor's office. The report enumerated several deficiencies and made 68 recommendations for improvement.

To address the deficiencies, six task forces were formed to review the Division's operations. The task forces consisted of individuals from within state government, representatives from the regulated industries and individuals from other regulatory agencies and the professional community. In all, there were over 100 individuals involved in this effort, the majority of whom volunteered their time. Through their efforts, Colorado will have a regulatory agency which promotes competition, protects depositors and insures that the credit needs of its citizens are met.

As a result of their efforts, an improvement plan was developed which addresses revisions to statutes, monitoring of institutions through both on-site examinations and off-site review of financial reports and the Division's operations from chartering to closing of an institution.

As 1988 came to a close, the improvement plan was finalized and the Division, the Banking Board, and the Department of Regulatory Agencies began the process of implementing the plan.

During the 1989 legislative session, five bills were introduced, debated and subsequently became law. Within the new laws, the Division's mission is clearly defined, the responsibilities of the State Bank Commissioner and the Banking Board are clarified, the Banking Board's enforcement powers are expanded to parallel Federal Agencies' powers, regulatory parity is insured and operational efficiencies are enhanced through the Board's rule-making process. The new laws will permit both the Division and the Banking Board to streamline its operations while its ability to insure a safe and sound financial environment in Colorado will be enhanced.

In 1989, the Division advanced from the pencil and paper age into the computer age. During 1989, computers were purchased for use by the field examiners and the office staff. Initial computer programs have been developed for use in field examinations and are currently being used by all examiners in all examinations. Programs have also been developed to assist the office staff in tracking work in process and measuring the productivity of both the Division and its staff. During the last year, the Division's ability to insure compliance with the Public Deposit Protection Act was significantly improved with automation. Automation has allowed for the timely pricing of collateral pledged against public funds, the timely pledging and releasing of pledged collateral and the automated tracking of pledged collateral. Also, limited off-site monitoring is being conducted by the problem bank supervisor and the team leaders.

During the next year, the Division will approach full automation. Work continues on further automating the examination process, as well as expanding off-site monitoring. The development of automated management information systems will continue, and the master information data file is being defined and designed. Full automation will permit the Division to operate in a more timely and effective manner while maximizing the efficiency of its limited resources. The ultimate result will be improved regulatory oversight while minimizing the cost to the supporting industries.

Improving the chartering and approval process continues. New forms will provide more useful information, and statute changes will provide consistency in the process for all institutions supervised by the Division. In the event an institution must be closed, statute changes and new procedures will make it easier to appoint the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation as receiver, while improving the likelihood that banking services will continue in the community. Operations have improved with the development and adoption of a significant number of policies and procedures. The new forms and remaining policies and procedures should be completed in 1990.

Last year the Division moved into its new facilities. With the new facilities, additional space was obtained for the examination staff, and layout of the Division was arranged by function and work flow. Also, for the first time, a formal training plan was developed and all employees have received some training.

While the Division continues to implement the improvement plan, the ultimate goal is to receive the professional certification from the Conference of State Bank Supervisors. Originally, certification was targeted for July, 1991. However, because of the Division's success in implementing the improvement plan, certification will be sought prior to the target date.

A new Public Deposit Protection Act (the "Act") was enacted on April 15, 1989. On September 1, 1989, the effective date of the new "Act," the following Emergency Rules, adopted by the State Banking Board, superseded the Rules and Regulations that were adopted under the former Act.

PDPA EMERGENCY RULE #1
EFFECTIVE SEPTEMBER 1, 1989

Capital Standards for Eligible Public Depositories [11-10.5-106(2)(b)]

For purposes of the Public Deposit Protection Act, a bank meeting adequate capital standards will maintain capital ratios as follows:

1. An eligible public depository must have and maintain a minimum level of primary capital to total assets in excess of 3%.
2. If an eligible public depository's minimum level of primary capital to total assets is less than 6%, but greater than 3%, that eligible public depository shall adopt a written capital improvement plan that is acceptable to the Banking Board, and be able to meet the risk-based collateral requirements in Emergency Rule #5.
3. Higher than minimum capital ratios may be required for an individual eligible public depository when the Banking Board determines that the bank's capital is, or may become, inadequate. For example, higher capital ratios may be appropriate for:
 - (a) A newly chartered bank;
 - (b) A bank receiving special supervisory attention;
 - (c) A bank which has, or is expected to have, losses resulting in capital inadequacy;
 - (d) A bank having a high proportion of off-balance sheet risks, especially standby letters of credit; or exposed to a high degree of asset depreciation or interest rate, funding, transfer, or similar risks; or having a low level of liquid assets in relation to short-term liabilities;
 - (e) A bank that is growing rapidly, either internally or through acquisitions; or
 - (f) A bank that may be adversely affected by the activities or condition of its holding company, affiliate(s), or other persons or institutions including chain banking organizations, with which it has significant business relationships, including concentrations of credit.
4. An eligible public depository's capital is inadequate if it does not meet the provisions of this rule.

PDPA EMERGENCY RULE #2
EFFECTIVE SEPTEMBER 1, 1989

Revocation, Suspension, or Restriction of Designation and Certification as an Eligible Public Depository [11-10.5-106(3)(b)(1)]

Test the market values and ratings for selected securities, including subinvestment quality and out-of-area securities. Discuss any subinvestment quality or out-of-area securities with the appropriate officer as to their suitability and/or performance. If any permanent declines in value have occurred, examine the allowance account for proper presentation and adequacy.

 4. Select a sample of borrowers (including loans from each major category) and determine through examination of loan files and other institution reports whether lending and collection policies are being followed (e.g., type of loan is in accordance with loan policy, funds were not advanced until after loan approval was received from proper loan authorization level, loan is within collateral policies, insurance coverage is adequate, and institution is named as loss payee).
 5. Select a sample of borrowers from each major category of secured loans and determine through examinations of files and other institution reports whether collateral policies are being followed (e.g., loan is adequately collateralized, documentation is present and properly prepared, assignments are perfected, and collateral is properly valued, marketable, and has not become susceptible to deterioration in realizable value).

 11. Confirm a minimum of ten (10) percent of the total number and ten (10) percent of the total dollar amount of all loans within each major category. (Statistical sampling may be used instead of the percentage requirement.) Include past due and nonaccrual loans in the verification process.
 12. Review multiple loans to the same borrower with the same person as guarantor to determine if they were made on consecutive days to circumvent the loan authorization policy and to determine whether policies and procedures are designed to assure that all related credits are considered in loan granting and administration. Review these loans for relationships to institution insiders or their related interests.

Insider Transactions

1. Review the institution's policies and procedures to ensure that extensions of credit to and other transactions with insiders are addressed. Ascertain that these policies include specific guidelines defining fair and reasonable transactions between the bank and insiders and test insider transactions for compliance with these guidelines and statutory and regulatory requirements. Ascertain that the policies and procedures on extensions of credit comply with the requirements of governing statutes and rules and regulations.

2. Obtain an institution-prepared list of insiders, including any other business relationships they may have other than as a nominal customer. Also obtain a list of extensions of credit to and other transactions that the institution, its affiliates, and its subsidiaries have had with insiders. Compare these lists to those prepared for the prior year's external program to test for completeness.
3. Review the Board of Directors' minutes, loan trial balances, supporting loan documentation, and other appropriate institution records in conjunction with the list of insiders obtained from the institution to verify that all extensions of credit to and transactions with insiders were:
 - a. In compliance with institution policy for similar transactions and were at prevailing rates at that time;

5. Reconcile total extensions of credit to executive officers, principal shareholders, and their related interests as recorded on the institution records to the latest Call Report (Schedule RC-M, item 1).
6. Review the institution's policies and procedures to ensure that expense accounts of individuals who are executive officers, directors, and principal shareholders are addressed and test the actual expense account records for compliance with these policies and procedures.
7. Determine through inquiry whether or not securities purchases and sales are being made through related parties (as defined in Financial Accounting Standards Board Statement No. 57, "Related Party Disclosures"). If so, determine and test through inquiry and observation the Board of Directors' procedures to ensure that appropriate prices and commissions are being paid.
8. Determine through inquiry whether or not the institution has leased, purchased, or otherwise acquired property and/or equipment from, has purchased other goods or services from, or has had other transactions with related parties. If so, review and verify through inquiry and observation that the procedures listed in items 3 a, b, and c above were followed by the Board of Directors and ensure that appropriate levels of payment are being made.
9. Determine through inquiry whether or not institution employees are serving as financial officers (treasurer, financial manager, etc.) of civic or charitable organizations. Ascertain, through inquiry, whether or not the institution duties and civic or charitable duties present any potential conflict of interest or are otherwise incompatible.

Internal Controls

1. Review the Board of Directors' minutes to verify that account reconciliation policies have been approved and are reviewed periodically by the BOD and determine that management has established appropriate procedures to ensure the timely completion of reconciliations of accounting records and the timely resolution of reconciling items.

6. Verify balances per reconciliations to the general ledger and supporting trial balance. Trace general ledger balances to the Call Report.
7. Verify that the institution maintains adequate records of its off-balance sheet activities, including, but not limited to, its outstanding letters of credit and its loan commitments, and trace the totals to the most recent Call Report.
8. Review the BOD's minutes to determine whether the BOD has reviewed and approved the institution's EDP policies (including those regarding outside servicers, if any, and the in-house use of individual personal computers and personalized programs for official institution records) at least annually, confirm that management has established appropriate implementing procedures, and verify the institution's compliance with these policies and procedures.
 - a. The policies and procedures for either in-house-processing or use of an outside service center should address:

Appendix A CB101.34

- A. Restrictions and criteria relating to capital components - mandatory convertible securities:

- 1) There are two basic types of mandatory convertible securities: "equity contract notes" - securities that obligate the holder to take common or perpetual preferred stock of the issuer in lieu of cash for repayment of principal, and "equity commitment notes" - securities that are redeemable only with the proceeds from the sale of common or perpetual preferred stock. Both equity commitment notes and equity contract notes qualify as primary capital for bank holding companies, but only equity contract notes qualify as primary capital for banks.
- 2) Criteria applicable to both types of mandatory convertible securities:

- a. The securities must mature in 12 years or less.
- b. The maximum amount of mandatory convertible securities that may be counted as primary capital is limited to 20% of primary capital, exclusive of mandatory convertible securities.
- c. The issuer may redeem securities prior to maturity only with the proceeds from the sale of common or perpetual preferred stock of the bank or bank holding company.
- d. Holders of the securities may not accelerate the payment of principal except in the event of bankruptcy, insolvency, or reorganization.
- e. The securities must be subordinate in right of payment to all senior indebtedness of the issuer. In the event that the proceeds of the securities are reloaned to an affiliate, the loan must be subordinated to the same degree as the original issue.
- f. An issuer that intends to dedicate the proceeds of an issue of common or perpetual preferred stock to satisfy the funding requirements of an issue of mandatory convertible securities generally must make such a dedication during the quarter in which the new common or preferred stock is issued. As a general rule, if the dedication is not made within the prescribed period, then the securities issued may not at a later date be dedicated to the retirement or redemption of the mandatory convertible securities.

B. Conditions applicable to secondary capital components to qualify as capital:

- 1) A bank's secondary capital includes limited-life preferred stock and long-term, unsecured (which in the case of banks, must be subordinated to deposits) debt.
- 2) The secondary components must meet the following conditions to qualify as capital:
 - a. The instrument must have an original weighted-average maturity of at least 7 years.
 - b. The instrument must be unsecured.
 - c. The instrument must clearly state on its face that it is not a deposit and not insured by a federal agency.
 - d. Bank debt instruments must be subordinated to claims of depositors.
 - e. The aggregate amount of limited-life preferred stock and subordinate debt qualifying as capital may not exceed 50% of the amount of the bank's primary capital.

1. A bank must have and maintain a minimum level of primary capital to adjusted total assets of 5 1/2% and a minimum level of total capital to adjusted total assets of 6%.

 - (a) A newly chartered bank;
 - (b) A bank receiving special supervisory attention;
 - (c) A bank which has or is expected to have losses resulting in capital inadequacy;
 - (d) A bank having a high proportion of off-balance sheet risks, especially standby letters of credit; or exposed to a high degree of asset depreciation or interest rate, funding, transfer, or similar risks; or having a low level of liquid assets in relation to short-term liabilities;

This prohibition does not apply to an extension of credit by a bank to a bank holding company (as defined in 12 U.S.C. 1841(a)) of which the bank is a subsidiary of that bank holding company.
- (4) Overdrafts. No bank may pay an overdraft of an executive officer or director of the bank on an account at the bank, unless the payment of funds is made in accordance with (1) a written, preauthorized, interest-bearing extension of credit plan that specifies a method of repayment or (2) a written, preauthorized transfer of funds from another account of the account holder at the bank. This prohibition does not apply to payment of inadvertent overdrafts on an account in an aggregate amount of $1,000 or less: Provided, (1) The account is not overdrawn for more than 5 business days, and (2) the bank charges the executive officer or director the same fee charged any other customer of the bank in similar circumstances.

(5) Additional restrictions on loans to executive officers

- (a) No bank may extend credit to any of its executive officers, and no executive officer of a bank shall borrow from or otherwise become indebted to the bank, except in the amounts, for the purposes, and upon the conditions specified in paragraphs (c) and (d) of this rule.
- (b) No bank may extend credit in an aggregate amount greater than the amount permitted in paragraph (c)(iii) of this rule to a partnership in which one or more of the bank's executive officers are partners and, either individually or together, hold a majority interest. For the purposes of paragraph (c)(iii) of this rule, the total amount of credit extended by a bank to such partnership is considered to be extended to each executive officer of the bank who is a member of the partnership.
- (c) A bank is authorized to extend credit to any executive officer of the bank:
 - (i) In any amount to finance the education of the executive officer's children;
 - (ii) In any amount to finance the purchase, construction, maintenance, or improvement of a residence of the executive officer, if the extension of credit is secured by a first lien on the residence and the residence is owned (or expected to be owned after the extension of credit) by the executive officer. ("First lien" for the purpose of this paragraph includes not only a first mortgage or deed of trust but also a second or other junior mortgage or deed of trust where the bank holds all prior encumbrances and such junior encumbrance has the same priority with respect to liens of third parties as the first mortgage or deed of trust); and
 - (iii) For any other purpose not specified in paragraphs (5)(c)(i) and (ii), if the aggregate amount of loans to that officer under this paragraph does not exceed at any one time the higher of 2.5 percent of the bank's total capital or $25,000, but in no event more than $100,000.
- (d) Any extension of credit by a bank to any of its executive officers shall be: (1) Promptly reported to the bank's board of directors; (2) in compliance with the requirements of general prohibitions, paragraph (1) of this rule; (3) preceded by the submission of a detailed current financial statement of the executive officer; and (4) made subject to the condition that the extension of credit will, at the option of the bank, become due and payable at any time that the officer is indebted to any other bank or banks in an aggregate amount greater than the amount specified for a category of credit in paragraph (5)(c) of this rule.

No state bank shall purchase its own stock nor the stock of any other corporation except such as it may necessarily acquire in the protection or satisfaction of previously existing loans made in good faith. Any bank stock so acquired shall be sold by the bank within one year, and sooner, if it can be done without impairing the bank's investment in same. This rule shall not apply to any investment made by a bank acting as a fiduciary pursuant to the authority of section 11-10-102, nor shall it apply to investments made pursuant to the authority of section 11-7-106(2), 11-7-106(10), or 11-9-102.

CB101.39 Sale of Federal Funds [11-7-102]

- (a) Definition. "Sale of Federal funds" means, for purposes of this Rule, any transaction among depository institutions involving the transfer of immediately available funds resulting from credits to deposit balances at Federal Reserve banks or from credits to new or existing deposit balances due from a correspondent depository institution.
- (b) Sales of Federal funds with a maturity of one business day or under a continuing contract are not "loans and extensions of credit" for purposes of lending limits. However, sales of Federal funds with a maturity of more than one business day are subject to the lending limits.
- (c) A "continuing contract" refers to an agreement that remains in effect for more than one business day but has no specified maturity and requires no advance notice for termination.

CB101.43 Lending Limits [11-7-103]

- (1) (a) The total loans and extensions of credit by a state bank to a person outstanding at one time and not fully secured, as determined in a manner consistent with paragraph (2) of this subsection, by collateral having a market value at least equal to the amount of the loan or extension of credit shall not exceed 15 per centum of total capital.
- (b) The total loans and extensions of credit by a state bank to a person outstanding at one time and fully secured by readily marketable collateral having a market value, as determined by reliable and continuously available price quotations, at least equal to the amount of the funds outstanding shall not exceed 10 per centum of the total capital. This limitation shall be separate from and in addition to the limitation contained in paragraph (1) of this subsection.
- (2) For the purposes of this rule --
 - (a) The term "loans and extensions of credit" shall include all direct or indirect advances of funds to a person made on the basis of any obligation of that person to repay the funds or repayable from specific property pledged by or on behalf of the person and shall also include any liability of a state bank to advance funds to or on behalf of a person pursuant to a contractual commitment; and
 - (b) The term "person" shall include an individual, sole proprietorship, partnership, joint venture, association, trust, estate, business trust, corporation, sovereign government or agency, instrumentality, or political subdivision thereof, or any similar entity or organization.

- (3) The limitations contained in subsection (1) shall be subject to the following exceptions:
- (a) Loans or extensions of credit arising from the discount of commercial or business paper evidencing an obligation to the person negotiating it with recourse shall not be subject to any limitation based on capital.
 - (b) The purchase of bankers' acceptances of the kind described in section 13 of the Federal Reserve Act and issued by other banks shall not be subject to any limitations based on capital.
 - (c) Loans and extensions of credit secured by bills of lading, warehouse receipts, or similar documents transferring or securing title to readily marketable staples shall be subject to a limitation of 35 per centum of total capital in addition to the general limitations if the market value of the staples securing each additional loan or extension of credit at all times equals or exceeds 115 per centum of the outstanding amount of such loan or extension of credit. The staples shall be fully covered by insurance whenever it is customary to insure such staples.
 - (d) Loans or extensions of credit secured by bonds, notes, certificates of indebtedness, or Treasury bills of the United States or by other such obligations fully guaranteed as to principal and interest by the United States shall not be subject to any limitation based on capital.
 - (e) Loans or extensions of credit to or secured by unconditional takeout commitments or guarantees of any department, agency, bureau, board, commission, or establishment of the United States or any corporation wholly owned directly or indirectly by the United States shall not be subject to any limitation based on capital.
 - (f) Loans or extensions of credit secured by a segregated deposit account in the lending bank shall not be subject to any limitation based on capital.
 - (g) Loans or extensions of credit to any financial institution or to any receiver, conservator, or other agent in charge of the business and property of such financial institution, when such loans or extensions of credit are approved by the Banking Board, shall not be subject to any limitation based on capital.
 - (h) (I) Loans and extensions of credit arising from the discount of negotiable or nonnegotiable installment consumer paper which carries a full recourse endorsement or unconditional guarantee by the person transferring the paper shall be subject under this section to a maximum limitation equal to 25 per centum of total capital, notwithstanding the collateral requirements set forth in subsection (1)(b).

(II) If the bank's files or the knowledge of its officers of the financial condition of each maker of such consumer paper is reasonably adequate, and an officer of the bank designated for that purpose by the board of directors of the bank certifies in writing that the bank is relying primarily upon the responsibility of each maker for payment of such loans or extensions of credit and not upon any full or partial recourse endorsement or guarantee by the transferor, the limitations of this section as to the loans or extensions of credit of each such maker shall be the sole applicable loan limitations.

(i) (I) Loans and extensions of credit secured by shipping documents or instruments transferring or securing title covering livestock or giving a lien on livestock when the market value of the livestock securing the obligation is not at any time less than 115 per centum of the face amount of the note covered, shall be subject under this section, notwithstanding the collateral requirements set forth in subsection (1)(b), to a maximum limitation equal to 25 per centum of total capital.

(II) Loans and extensions of credit which arise from the discount by dealers in dairy cattle of paper given in payment for dairy cattle, which paper carries a full recourse endorsement or unconditional guarantee of the seller, and which are secured by the cattle being sold, shall be subject under this section, notwithstanding the collateral requirements set forth in subsection (1)(b), to a limitation of 25 per centum of total capital.

(j) Loans or extensions of credit to the Student Loan Marketing Association shall not be subject to any limitation based on capital.

(4) The Banking Board also shall have authority to determine when a loan putatively made to a person shall for purposes of this section be attributed to another person.

CB101.44 Dividends [11-3-118] The approval of the Banking Board shall be required if the total of all dividends declared by such state bank in any calendar year shall exceed the total of its net profits of that year combined with its retained net profits of the preceding two years, less any required transfers to a fund for the retirement of any preferred stock.

CB101.45 Generally Accepted Accounting Principles [11-3-115(3)(a)]

A) Generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP) as defined for this section will consist of those opinions and statements generally recognized and supported by the Accounting Principles Board (APB) or the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB).

B) While it is the Board's intention to require generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP) to be followed whenever these are appropriate, certain statements filed by the banks with various state and federal regulatory agencies are supervisory and regulatory documents, not primarily accounting documents. Because of the special supervisory, regulatory, and economic policy needs of these reports, their instructions do not always follow GAAP. In reporting transactions not covered in principle by these regulatory instructions, banks may follow GAAP. However, in such circumstances, unless the bank has already obtained a ruling from another regulatory agency pursuant to the policies expressed in Section 11-1-101.5, a specific ruling shall be sought promptly from the Board.

CB101.46 Standards for Determining Value of Asset {11-2-106(3)(a)}
For purposes of this section, the standard for the value of an asset shall be the lower of cost or market.

Valuation reserves, such as for bad debts or fixed asset depreciation, shall be established and assets will be depreciated or amortized where appropriate as required by GAAP or regulatory authorities.

- A. For the purposes of C.R.S. 11-22-109(5)(e)(I)(A) an industrial bank (institution), at a minimum, shall have the following procedures performed annually. The person performing such procedures should be informed of and permitted access to all examination reports, administrative orders, and any additional written communications between the institution and the Division of Banking, including the Colorado State Banking Board, as well as, the appropriate federal bank regulatory agency. The person performing such procedures should obtain institution management's written representation that he or she has been informed of and granted access to all such documents prior to completion of the field work.

At a minimum, the person performing such procedures should review:

Securities

1. Review the investment policies and procedures established by the bank's board of directors (BOD) and the BOD (or Investment Committee) minutes to verify that these policies and procedures are periodically reviewed and approved. The policies and procedures should include, but not be limited to:
 - a. Investment objectives;
 - b. Permissible types of investments;
 - c. Diversification guidelines to prevent undue concentration;
 - d. Maturity schedules;
 - e. Limitation on quality ratings;
 - f. Hedging activities; other uses of futures, forwards, options, and other financial instruments; and trading activities.
 - g. Handling exceptions to standard policies;
 - h. Valuation procedures and frequency;
 - i. Limitations on the investment authority of officers; and
 - j. Frequency of periodic reports to the BOD on securities holdings.
2. Test compliance with the BOD's investment policies and procedures and determine whether information reported to the BOD (or Investment Committee) for securities transactions is accurate by comparing the following to the trade tickets for selected items (including futures, forwards, and options):
 - a. Descriptions
 - b. Interest rate
 - c. Maturity
 - d. Par value, or number of shares
 - e. Cost
 - f. Market value on date of transaction.
3. Using the same selected items, analyze the securities register for accuracy, and confirm the existence of the selected items by examining securities physically held in the bank and verifying the safekeeping of those securities held by others.
4. Review policies and procedures regarding controls which ensure that unauthorized transactions do not occur. Test selected control points. Determine that investment officers and/or appropriate committee members have been properly authorized to purchase/sell investments and determine if there are any limitations or restrictions on delegated responsibilities.
5. Confirm totals in the investment sub-ledger(s) at the as of date. Review the reconciliation of investment subledger(s) to the general ledger. Trace the general ledger total(s) to the most recent Call Report.

6. Obtain a schedule of book and par values as well as market values and rating classifications of securities. Test the market values and ratings for selected securities, including subinvestment quality and out-of-area securities. Discuss any subinvestment quality or out-of-area securities with the appropriate officer as to their suitability and/or performance. If any permanent declines in value have occurred, examine the allowance account for proper presentation and adequacy.
7. Test securities income and accrued interest by:
 - a. Determining the institutions method of calculating and recording interest accruals;
 - b. Obtaining trial balances of accrued interest if maintained separately from trial balances of investment and money market holdings;
 - c. Testing the addition of the trial balances and the reconciliation of the trial balances to the general ledger;
 - d. Determining that interest accruals are not made on defaulted issues;
 - e. Selecting items from each type of investment and money market holdings and;
 - i. Determining the stated interest rate and most recent interest payment date of coupon instruments by reference to sources of such information that are independent of the institution,
 - ii. Testing timely receipt of interest payments and correctness of entries to applicable general ledger accounts,
 - iii. Calculating accrued interest and comparing it to the trial balance,
 - iv. Reviewing recorded book value for appropriate accretion of discount and amortization of premium;
 - f. Review yields on each type of investment and money market holdings for reasonableness.
8. Review investment accounts for volume of purchases, sales activity and length of time securities have been held. Inquire as to the institution's intent and ability to hold securities until maturity. Review high volume activity with any one broker for propriety of the transactions and competitiveness of any fees. (If there is frequent trading in an investment account, it may constitute a trading account.) Test gains and losses on disposal of investment securities by sampling investment sales records and;
 - a. Determining sales prices by examining invoices or brokers' advices;
 - b. Checking computation of book value on settlement date;
 - c. Determining that the general ledger has been properly relieved of the investment, accrued interest, premium, discount, and other related accounts;
 - d. Recomputing the gain or loss and comparing to the amount recorded in the general ledger; and
 - e. Determining that the sales were approved by the BOD or a designated committee or were in accordance with policies approved by the BOD.

Loans

1. Determine that the institution has policies that address the lending and collection functions. Read the institution's loan policies to determine whether they address the following items:
 - a. General fields of lending in which the institution will engage and the types of loans within each field;
 - b. Descriptions of the institution's normal trade area and circumstances under which the institution may extend credit to borrowers outside of such area;
 - c. Limitations on the maximum volume of each type of loan product in relation to total assets;

- d. Responsibility of the Board of Directors in reviewing, ratifying, or approving loans;
 - e. Lending authority of the loan or executive committee (if such a committee exists);
 - f. Adherence to legal lending limits;
 - g. Types of secured and unsecured loans which will be granted;
 - h. Guidelines for rates of interest and terms of repayment for secured and unsecured loans;
 - i. Documentation required by the institution for each type of secured and unsecured loan;
 - j. Limitations on the amount advanced in relation to the value of various types of collateral;
 - k. Limitations on the extension of credit through overdrafts;
 - l. Level or amount of loans granted in specific industries or specific geographic locations;
 - m. Guidelines for participations purchased and/or sold;
 - n. Guidelines for documentation of new loans prior to approval and updating loan files throughout the life of the loan;
 - o. Maintenance and review of complete and current credit files on each borrower;
 - p. Collection procedures, including, but not limited to, actions to be taken against borrowers who fail to make timely payments;
 - q. Guidelines for nonaccrual loans (i.e., when an asset should be placed on nonaccrual, individuals responsible for identifying non-performing assets and placing them on nonaccrual, and circumstances under which an asset will be placed back on accrual.);
 - r. Guidelines for charge-offs.
2. Review the Board of Directors' minutes to determine that the loan policies have been reviewed and approved. Through review of the Board of Directors' minutes and through inquiry of executive officers, determine whether the Board of Directors revises the policies and procedures periodically as needed.
 3. Obtain Loan Committee (or, if applicable, Board of Directors' minutes) and, through a comparison of loans made throughout the period with lending policies, determine whether loans are being made within the loan authorization policy.
 4. Select a sample of borrowers (including loans from each major category) and determine through examination of loan files and other institution reports whether lending and collection policies are being followed (e.g., type of loan is in accordance with loan policy, funds were not advanced until after loan approval was received from proper loan authorization level, loan is within collateral policies, insurance coverage is adequate, and institution is named as loss payee).
 5. Select a sample of borrowers from each major category of secured loans and determine through examinations of files and other institution reports whether collateral policies are being followed (e.g., loan is adequately collateralized, documentation is present and properly prepared, assignments are perfected, and collateral is properly valued, marketable, and has not become susceptible to deterioration in realizable value).
 6. Review policies for checking floor plan merchandise, warehouse inventory and accounts receivable by responsible institution personnel and test for compliance.
 7. Determine whether participations purchased and participations sold transactions have been reported to and authorized by the Board of Directors or Loan Committee, if applicable, through review of appropriate minutes.

8. On a test basis, review participations purchased to confirm that the institution does its own independent credit analysis. Also review participation documents and determine that terms and conditions between the lead institution and participants are specified, including:
 - a. Which party is paid first;
 - b. What happens in the event of default;
 - c. How set-offs received by either institution are to be treated;
 - d. How collection expenses are to be divided; and
 - e. Who is responsible to collect the note in the event of default.
9. Confirm participations purchased and participations sold with participating institutions to verify that they are legitimate transactions and that they are properly reflected as being with or without recourse in the bank's records.
10. Balance detail ledgers or reconcile computer generated trial balances with the general ledger control accounts for each major category of loans, including loans carried as past due or in a nonaccrual status.
11. Confirm a minimum of ten (10) percent of the total number and ten (10) percent of the total dollar amount of all loans within each major category. (Statistical sampling may be used instead of the percentage requirement.) Include past due and nonaccrual loans in the verification process.
12. Review multiple loans to the same borrower with the same person as guarantor to determine if they were made on consecutive days to circumvent the loan authorization policy and to determine whether policies and procedures are designed to assure that all related credits are considered in loan granting and administration. Review these loans for relationships to institution insiders or their related interests.

Allowance for Loan Losses

1. Test charge-offs and recoveries for proper authorization and/or reporting by reference to the Board of Directors' minutes. Review charged-off loans for any relationship with institution insiders or their related interests.
2. Review the most recent quarter's determination of the allowance for loan losses through a review of the institution's computation. Documentation should include consideration of the following matters:
 - a. General, local, national and international (if applicable) economic conditions;
 - b. Trends in loan growth and depth of lending staff with expertise in these areas;
 - c. Concentrations of loans (e.g. by type, borrower, geographic area, and sector of the economy);
 - d. Trends in the level of delinquent and classified loans;
 - e. Results of regulatory examinations;
 - f. The extent of renewals and extensions to keep loans current; and
 - g. Review of specific loans on the "watch list" taking into account borrower financial status, classification, collateral type and value, payment history, and potential permanent impairment.

Insider Transactions

1. Review the institution's policies and procedures to ensure that extensions of credit to and other transactions with insiders are addressed. Ascertain that these policies include specific guidelines defining fair and reasonable transactions between the bank and insiders and test insider transactions for compliance with these guidelines and statutory and regulatory requirements. Ascertain that the policies and procedures on extensions of credit comply with the requirements of governing statutes and rules and regulations.

2. Obtain an institution-prepared list of insiders, including any other business relationships they may have other than as a nominal customer. Also obtain a list of extensions of credit to and other transactions that the institution, its affiliates, and its subsidiaries have had with insiders. Compare these lists to those prepared for the prior year's external program to test for completeness.
3. Review the Board of Directors' minutes, loan trial balances, supporting loan documentation, and other appropriate institution records in conjunction with the list of insiders obtained from the institution to verify that all extensions of credit to and transactions with insiders were:
 - a. In compliance with institution policy for similar transactions and were at prevailing rates at that time;
 - b. Involved no more than a normal degree of risk or presented no other unfavorable features;
 - c. Approved by the Board of Directors in advance with the interested party abstaining from voting; and
 - d. Within the aggregate lending limits imposed by Regulation O or other legal limits.
4. Review overdraft reports, suspense items, account statements, and deposit ledgers to verify that there were no overdrafts on accounts of executive officers and directors except in accordance with those exemptions permitted under governing statutes and rules and regulations.
5. Reconcile total extensions of credit to executive officers, principal shareholders, and their related interests as recorded on the institution records to the latest Call Report (Schedule RC-M, item 1).
6. Review the institution's policies and procedures to ensure that expense accounts of individuals who are executive officers, directors, and principal shareholders are addressed and test the actual expense account records for compliance with these policies and procedures.
7. Determine through inquiry whether or not securities purchases and sales are being made through related parties (as defined in Financial Accounting Standards Board Statement No. 57, "Related Party Disclosures"). If so, determine and test through inquiry and observation the Board of Directors' procedures to ensure that appropriate prices and commissions are being paid.
8. Determine through inquiry whether or not the institution has leased, purchased, or otherwise acquired property and/or equipment from, has purchased other goods or services from, or has had other transactions with related parties. If so, review and verify through inquiry and observation that the procedures listed in items 3 a, b, and c above were followed by the Board of Directors and ensure that appropriate levels of payment are being made.
9. Determine through inquiry whether or not institution employees are serving as financial officers (treasurer, financial manager, etc.) of civic or charitable organizations. Ascertain, through inquiry, whether or not the institution duties and civic or charitable duties present any potential conflict of interest or are otherwise incompatible.

Internal Controls

1. Review the Board of Directors' minutes to verify that account reconciliation policies have been approved and are reviewed periodically by the BOD and determine that management has established appropriate procedures to ensure the timely completion of reconciliations of accounting records and the timely resolution of reconciling items.
2. Determine whether the institution's policies regarding segregation of duties and required vacations for employees (including those involved in the EDP function) have been approved by the BOD, and verify that these policies and the implementing procedures established by management are periodically reviewed, are adequate, and are followed.
3. Verify selected deposits in the various types of deposit accounts maintained by the institution. Test that reconciliations are prepared for all major accounts significant to the institution and their related accrued interest accounts, if any, such as "due from" accounts; commercial loans; installment loans; NOW accounts; money market deposit accounts; other savings deposits; certificates of deposit; and other time deposits. Test controls over dormant deposit accounts.
4. Review reconciliations for:
 - a. Timeliness and frequency;
 - b. Accuracy and completeness; and
 - c. Review by appropriate personnel with no conflicting duties. Verify that the preparer and reviewer initial reconciliations to insure responsibility and lack of conflict.
5. Examine detail and aging of reconciling items and items in suspense, clearing, and work-in-process accounts by:
 - a. Testing aging;
 - b. Determining whether items are followed up on and appropriately resolved on a timely basis;
 - c. Reviewing any charged-off items for proper authorization; and
 - d. Discussing items remaining on reconciliations and in the suspense account with appropriate personnel to ascertain whether any should be written off.

Capital [11-22-105] The capital of an industrial bank shall consist of primary capital and secondary capital, the components of which are listed below:

- A. Primary capital components consist of:
- 1) Equity capital
 - a. Common stock
 - b. Perpetual preferred stock
 - c. Capital surplus
 - d. Undivided profits
 - e. Contingency and other reserves
 - 2) Valuation reserve for loans
 - 3) Minority interest in equity accounts in consolidated subsidiaries
 - 4) Mandatory convertible debt (see Appendix A for the criteria for mandatory convertible instruments to qualify as primary capital) may be counted as primary capital to the extent it does not exceed 20% of primary capital, exclusive of mandatory convertible securities.
 - 5) Net worth certificates issued pursuant to 12 USC 1823(i).
 - 6) The unamortized balance of agricultural loan losses deferred pursuant to 12 USC 1823(j), 1819, and other provisions of the Federal Deposit Insurance Act (12 USC 1811-31d).

- C. "Total Capital" means the sum of primary capital and allowable secondary capital.

APPENDIX A

- A. Restrictions and criteria relating to capital components - mandatory convertible securities

- 1) There are two basic types of mandatory convertible securities: "equity contract notes" - securities that obligate the holder to take common or perpetual preferred stock of the issuer in lieu of cash for repayment of principal, and "equity commitment notes" - securities that are redeemable only with the proceeds from the sale of common or perpetual preferred stock. Both equity commitment notes and equity contract notes qualify as primary capital for bank holding companies, but only equity contract notes qualify as primary capital for banks.
- 2) Criteria applicable to both types of mandatory convertible securities:
 - a. The securities must mature in 12 years or less.
 - b. The maximum amount of mandatory convertible securities that may be counted as primary capital is limited to 20% of primary capital, exclusive of mandatory convertible securities.
 - c. The issuer may redeem securities prior to maturity only with the proceeds from the sale of common or perpetual preferred stock of the bank or bank holding company.
 - d. Holders of the securities may not accelerate the payment of principal except in the event of bankruptcy, insolvency, or reorganization.
 - e. The securities must be subordinate in right of payment to all senior indebtedness of the issuer. In the event that the proceeds of the securities are reloaned to an affiliate, the loan must be subordinated to the same degree as the original issue.
 - f. An issuer that intends to dedicate the proceeds of an issue of common or perpetual preferred stock to satisfy the funding requirements of an issue of mandatory convertible securities generally must make such a dedication during the quarter in which the new common or preferred stock is issued. As a general rule, if the dedication is not made within the prescribed period, then the securities issued may not at a later date be dedicated to the retirement or redemption of the mandatory convertible securities.

B. Conditions applicable to secondary capital components to qualify as capital:

- 1) A bank's secondary capital includes limited-life preferred stock and long-term, unsecured (which in the case of banks, must be subordinated to deposits) debt.
- 2) The secondary components must meet the following conditions to qualify as capital:
 - a. The instrument must have an original weighted-average maturity of at least 7 years.
 - b. The instrument must be unsecured.
 - c. The instrument must clearly state on its face that it is not a deposit and not insured by a federal agency.
 - d. Bank debt instruments must be subordinated to claims of depositors.
 - e. The aggregate amount of limited-life preferred stock and subordinate debt qualifying as capital may not exceed 50% of the amount of the bank's primary capital.

Adequacy of Capital [11-22-105] An industrial bank having adequate capital will maintain capital ratios as follows:

1. A bank must have and maintain a minimum level of primary capital to adjusted total assets of 5 1/2% and a minimum level of total capital to adjusted total assets of 6%.
2. Higher than minimum capital ratios may be required for an individual bank when the Banking Board believes that the bank's capital is or may become inadequate in view of its circumstances. For example, higher capital ratios may be appropriate for:
 - (a) A newly chartered bank;
 - (b) A bank receiving special supervisory attention;
 - (c) A bank which has or is expected to have losses resulting in capital inadequacy;
 - (d) A bank having a high proportion of off-balance sheet risks, especially standby letters of credit; or exposed to a high degree of asset depreciation or interest rate, funding, transfer, or similar risks; or having a low level of liquid assets in relation to short-term liabilities;
 - (e) A bank that is growing rapidly, either internally or through acquisitions; or
 - (f) A bank that may be adversely affected by the activities or condition of its holding company, affiliate(s), or other persons or institutions including chain banking organizations, with which it has significant business relationships, including concentrations of credit.
3. An industrial bank's capital is inadequate if it does not meet the provisions of this Rule.
4. This rule will apply to the following statutes:
 - (a) 11-22-105
 - (b) 11-22-109(5)(c) and (g)
 - (c) 11-22-115(1)(a)
 - (d) 11-22-518(1)
 - (e) 11-22-601(1)
 - (f) 11-22-602(1)
 - (g) 11-22-607(1)

Generally Accepted Accounting Principles

[11-22-109(5)(e)(1)(B)(111)]

A) Generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP) as defined for this section will consist of those opinions and statements generally recognized and supported by the Accounting Principles Board (APB) or the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB).

B) While it is the Board's intention to require generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP) to be followed whenever these are appropriate, certain statements filed by the industrial banks with various state and federal regulatory agencies are supervisory and regulatory documents, not primarily accounting documents. Because of the special supervisory, regulatory, and economic policy needs of these reports, their instructions do not always follow GAAP. In reporting transactions not covered in principle by these regulatory instructions, industrial banks may follow GAAP. However, in such circumstances, unless the bank has already obtained a ruling from another regulatory agency pursuant to the policies expressed in Section 11-1-101.5, a specific ruling shall be sought promptly from the Board.

1B-36

Dividends [11-22-105(2)] The approval of the Banking Board shall be required if the total of all dividends declared by such industrial bank in any calendar year shall exceed the total of its net profits of that year combined with its retained net profits of the preceding two years, less any required transfers to a fund for the retirement of any preferred stock.

Capital [11-23-106] The capital of a trust company shall consist of primary capital and secondary capital, the components of which are listed below:

- A. Primary capital components consist of:
 - 1) Equity capital
 - a. Common stock
 - b. Perpetual preferred stock
 - c. Capital surplus
 - d. Undivided profits
 - e. Contingency and other reserves
 - 2) Valuation reserve for fee receivable.
 - 3) Minority interest in equity accounts in consolidated subsidiaries.
 - 4) Mandatory convertible debt may be counted as primary capital to the extent it does not exceed 20% of primary capital, exclusive of mandatory convertible securities.
 - 5) Net worth certificates issued pursuant to 12 USC 1823(i).
 - 6) Subtract "Goodwill" included in intangible assets from both primary capital and total capital.
- B. Secondary capital components (see Appendix A for conditions to be met):
 - 1) Mandatory convertible debt (that amount which is not included in primary capital).
 - 2) Secondary capital may be included to the extent the total does not exceed 50% of primary capital.
- C. "Total Capital" means the sum of primary capital and allowable secondary capital.
- D. This rule will apply to the following statutes:
 - (a) 11-23-109(d) refers to Equity Capital and Total Capital
 - (b) 11-23-110(2) refers to Total Capital
 - (c) 11-23-110(3) refers to Total Capital
 - (d) 11-23-110(5) refers to Total Capital

APPENDIX A TC-2

- A. Restrictions and criteria relating to capital components - mandatory convertible securities
 - 1) There are two basic types of mandatory convertible securities: "equity contract notes" - securities that obligate the holder to take common or perpetual preferred stock of the issuer in lieu of cash for repayment of principal, and "equity commitment notes" - securities that are redeemable only with the proceeds from the sale of common or perpetual preferred stock.
 - 2) Criteria applicable to both types of mandatory convertible securities:
 - a. The securities must mature in 12 years or less.
 - b. The maximum amount of mandatory convertible securities that may be counted as primary capital is limited to 20% of primary capital, exclusive of mandatory convertible securities.

- c. The issuer may redeem securities prior to maturity only with the proceeds from the sale of common or perpetual preferred stock of the trust company or parent.
 - d. Holders of the securities may not accelerate the payment of principal except in the event of bankruptcy, insolvency, or reorganization.
 - e. The securities must be subordinate in right of payment to all senior indebtedness of the issuer. In the event that the proceeds of the securities are loaned to an affiliate, the loan must be subordinated to the same degree as the original issue.
 - f. An issuer that intends to dedicate the proceeds of an issue of common or perpetual preferred stock to satisfy the funding requirements of an issue of mandatory convertible securities generally must make such a dedication during the quarter in which the new common or preferred stock is issued. As a general rule, if the dedication is not made within the prescribed period, then the securities issued may not at a later date be dedicated to the retirement or redemption of the mandatory convertible securities.
- B. Conditions applicable to secondary capital components to qualify as capital:
- 1) A trust company's secondary capital includes limited-life preferred stock and long-term, unsecured (which in the case of trust companies, must be subordinated to deposits) debt.
 - 2) The secondary components must meet the following conditions to qualify as capital:
 - a. The instrument must have an original weighted-average maturity of at least 7 years.
 - b. The instrument must be unsecured.
 - c. The instrument must clearly state on its face that it is not a deposit and not insured by a federal agency.
 - d. Trust company debt instruments must be subordinated to claims of depositors.
 - e. The aggregate amount of limited-life preferred stock and subordinate debt qualifying as capital may not exceed 50% of the amount of the trust company's primary capital.

TC-3

Adequacy of Capital [11-23-106] A trust company having adequate capital will maintain capital ratios as follows:

 - (e) A trust company that is growing rapidly, either internally or through acquisitions; or
 - (f) A trust company that may be adversely affected by the activities or condition of its holding company, affiliate(s), or other persons or institutions including chain banking organizations, with which it has significant business relationships, including concentrations of credit.
- 3. A trust company's capital is inadequate if it does not meet the provisions of this Rule.
 - 4. This rule will apply to the following statutes:

Generally Accepted Accounting Principles [11-23-118(1)]

- A) Generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP) as defined for this section will consist of those opinions and statements generally recognized and supported by the Accounting Principles Board (APB) or the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB).
- B) While it is the Board's intention to require generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP) to be followed whenever these are appropriate, certain statements filed by trust companies with various state and federal regulatory agencies are supervisory and regulatory documents, not primarily accounting documents. Because of the special supervisory, regulatory, and economic policy needs of these reports, their instructions do not always follow GAAP. In reporting transactions not covered in principle by these regulatory instructions, trust companies may follow GAAP. However, in such circumstances, unless the trust company has already obtained a ruling from another regulatory agency pursuant to the policies expressed in Section 11-1-101.5, a specific ruling shall be sought promptly from the Board.

TC-8

Dividends [11-23-116] The approval of the Banking Board shall be required if the total of all dividends declared by such trust company in any calendar year shall exceed the total of its net profits of that year combined with its retained net profits of the preceding two years, less any required transfers to a fund for the retirement of any preferred stock.
