Subject: 1995-1996 Abstract of Votes

I am honored to present you with this official publication of the 1995-1996 Abstract of Votes Cast.

The information compiled in this summary is from material filed in my office by the county clerk and recorders. This publication will assist in the profiling of voting patterns of Colorado voters during the 1995 odd-year election and the 1996 presidential primary, primary, and general elections.

Therefore, I commemorate this abstract to those who practice their rights as Colorado citizens pursuant to the Constitution of Colorado.

"All elections shall be free and open; and no power, civil or military, shall at any time interfere to prevent the free exercise of the right of suffrage."

| Initiative      | The Colorado Constitution provides that registered voters may propose Constitutional Amendments or changes to the Colorado Revised Statutes by petition. Title 1, Article 40, C.R.S., provides specific procedures for submitting initiative petitions. Petitions require signatures of registered electors in an amount equal to 5% of the votes cast for all candidates for the office of Secretary of State at the previous General Election.                                                                                                                                                                                                         |                                                                                                                                |
| Referendum      | The General Assembly may propose Constitutional Amendments or refer changes in the statutes to the people. In addition, the Colorado Constitution provides that a referendum may be ordered against any act of the General Assembly, except laws necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety and appropriations for the support and maintenance of the departments of state and state institutions. Referenda initiated by the people require signatures of registered electors in an amount equal to 5% of the votes cast for all candidates for the office of Secretary of State at the previous General Election. |                                                                                                                                |
|                        | Referendum petitions must be filed with the Secretary of State not more than 90 days after the final adjournment of the session of the General Assembly that passed the bill on which the referendum is demanded.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |                                                                                                                                |

REFERENDUM D

"An amendment to section 20 of article X of the constitution of the state of Colorado, concerning the exclusion of funds for unemployment compensation from fiscal limitations, and, in connection therewith, modifying the definition of "Fiscal Year Spending" to exclude unemployment compensation funds, excluding actions relating to charges imposed to fund unemployment compensation from the voter-approval requirement for tax increases, and requiring a one-time reduction in district bases to exclude a portion of a district's fiscal year spending from unemployment compensation funds."

REFERÉNDUM D

"Una enmienda a la sección 20 del artículo X de la constitución del estado de Colorado, con respecto a la exclusión de las limitaciones fiscales de fondos destinados a compensación por desempleo y, en relación con la misma modificando la definición de "gastos del ejercicio" para excluir los fondos de compensación por desempleo, excluyendo acciones relacionadas con los cargos impuestos para habilitar la compensación por desempleo del requisito de aprobación de los votantes para aumentos de impuestos, y exigiendo una reducción única en las bases de distrito para excluir una porción de los gastos de ejercicio de un distrito de los fondos de compensación por desempleo".
