Greetings from the Secretary....

Amendment 27, which addresses Campaign and Political Finance (CPF), was approved by Colorado Voters in 2002 and is Article XXVIII of the Colorado Constitution. To assist you in understanding the law, the Secretary of State's office has created several tools to make navigating the statutes and constitutional amendment much easier. This manual is intended to help provide guidelines and tips to help you comply with campaign finance laws and rules.

Moving forward in the Campaign and Political Finance arena, the Secretary of State's office has plans for innovations in the electronic filing system. We are looking forward to implementing these with your help and patience.

Please feel free to contact my staff (listed in the Appendix) with any questions or concerns.

Thank you.

Donetta Davidson
Colorado Secretary of State

I. Registering Your Committee

Whether you are a candidate committee, issue committee, political party, small donor committee or political committee, you must register BEFORE accepting contributions or making expenditures. [C.R.S. 1-45-108(3)]

How do you identify your committee “type”? Ask yourself these questions:

1. Are two or more persons (including natural persons) involved?
2. Are you raising or spending money?

If you answered “Yes” to either of these questions, read Sec. 2 (Definitions) of Art. XXVIII to see if you meet the criteria. Electronic registration is available through the Secretary of State’s website; however, it may be helpful if you completely review Article XXVIII, C.R.S. Title 1, Article 45, and Campaign and Political Finance Rules prior to registration.

Next, let’s examine the different types of committees.

A. Candidate Committees

If you are a candidate, or working with others to financially support a specific candidate, begin by checking the definition of a CANDIDATE COMMITTEE to confirm that you meet the criteria. Next, review the following provisions governing CANDIDATE COMMITTEES. A candidate may have only one candidate committee at one time in any jurisdiction. Note: Candidates who do not accept contributions but spend their own funds must file disclosure reports itemizing all expenditures of $20 or more. Candidates who do not have a committee and accept no contributions or make no expenditures are not required to file. You may file a voluntary report in order to provide full disclosure to the public. Call your appropriate officer whenever you need assistance.

Local candidates check with your municipal or county clerk. RTD candidates do not have contribution limits and are not required to file a personal financial disclosure statement 10 days after filing their candidate affidavit. (Art. XXVIII, Sec. 3)*
- Tip 3: Candidate committees (state, local, and municipal) cannot accept contributions from corporations or labor organizations. [Art. - Tip 10: No person shall act as a conduit for a contribution to a candidate committee. [Art. XXVIII, Sec. 3(7)]*

B. Issue Committees

Is there an issue in your community that you and others feel strongly about? Whether you support or oppose the issue, Colorado law requires that you register as an issue committee. BEFORE accepting contributions or making any expenditures, review the definition of ISSUE COMMITTEE to confirm that you meet the criteria. The reports are accessible via the Internet and available to the public for Internet viewing in the lobby of the Department of State. The REGISTERED AGENT plays a pivotal role in the success of every committee. The registered agent must be a natural person and is responsible for maintaining all committee records as well as filing all reports on time. Most agents compare their duties to keeping a checkbook. Simply keep track of all the money coming in – and all the money going out. However, all constitutional/statutory requirements must be adhered to in order to avoid complaints against the committee. We recommend that you thoroughly review Sections 7 – 10 of Art. XXVIII and C.R.S. 1-45-108 (Disclosure), 1-45-109 (Filing).

IX. Manual and Electronic Reporting

A. Manual Reporting

The Department of State has manual and electronic filing options for all committees. We encourage you to file electronically - you'll even have two extra days to file! While some committees have opted for the convenience of electronic filing, others prefer to file paper or "manual" reports. As with all reporting, it is important that your record keeping procedures are as simple as possible. For current filers the following section will be a valuable refresher; for first-time filers, please thoroughly study the statutes on disclosure and reporting before you begin.

Disclosure requirements: Art. XXVIII, Sec. 7, and C.R.S. 1-45-108

Reporting requirements: Art. XXVIII, Sec. 8, and C.R.S. 1-45-109

Report of Contributions and Expenditures (Cover Page): This page is designed to provide contribution and expenditure totals and past/current balances at a glance and to verify the committee name and address, the current reporting period, report status (current or amended) and the current registered agent.

Tip 1: All requested information on the Cover Page is required by statute and, therefore, mandatory.

Tip 2: Committee information (name, address, etc.) shall be amended within five days of any change by filing an amended committee registration form with the appropriate authority (secretary of state, county clerk or municipal clerk). (Campaign and Political Finance Rule 3.1)

Tip 3: Only the registered agent may sign the report. (Campaign and Political Finance Rule 2.3) An exception is made for candidate committees, allowing either the candidate or the registered agent to sign. (Campaign and Political Finance Rule 2.2)

Tip 4: File contributions and expenditures for the reporting period indicated only.

Tip 5: When filing an amended report of contributions and expenditures, a new form should be completed that includes the cover page of the report, the Detailed Summary page and any updated Schedules listing only the amended information. (Campaign and Political Finance Rule 4.2)

Tip 6: Type or print legibly. Please, no fonts smaller than 12 pt.

Detailed Summary: The Detailed Summary gives filers an opportunity to bring forward the totals of all the individual contribution and expenditure pages. These totals then are brought forward to the “Report of Contributions and Expenditures”.

Tip 1: Do not include “Non-Monetary” totals on the Report of Contributions and Expenditures cover page.

Tip 2: Be sure to total all “Non-Itemized” amounts (contributions and expenditures under $20) on the detailed summary only if they have not been itemized on “Schedule A” or “Schedule B”.

Tip 3: Contribution and expenditure totals on the “Detailed Summary” should match totals on the “Report of Contributions and Expenditures” cover page.

Schedule A – Contributions: All monetary contributions of $20 or more are reported on this form. It also allows committees to track and report aggregate totals for all contributors. (It may help manual filers to keep internal contribution records in alphabetical order by contributor.) Be sure that you know the appropriate election cycle for your committee to ensure that you do not exceed contribution limits. Please consult

Art. XXVIII Sec. 2(5), or with your appropriate elections official for clarification. Avoid relying on “hearsay” advice.

- Tip 1: Do not report “Non-Monetary” amounts on Schedule A - monetary contributions. Use the “Statement of Non-Monetary Contributions” reporting form for this purpose.
- Tip 2: Candidates, small donor committees, political parties and political committees cannot accept contributions from foreign citizens, corporations or governments. [Art. XXVIII, Sec. 3(12)]
- Tip 3: A contribution made by check is considered “received” on the date the check is deposited into the committee account. Contributions by lobbyists to state officers and candidates are considered accepted “when possession of the check is transferred to any person not under the control of the issuer.” [Campaign and Political Finance Rule 4.3(a) and (b)]
- Tip 4: State law prohibits making a contribution with the expectation that some or all will be reimbursed by another person. [Art. XXVIII, Sec. 3(11)]

Notice of Major Contributor: A Major Contributor Report is in addition to regular reporting requirements. All committees are required to file a major contributor report for contributions of $1,000. or more received within 30 days before the primary or general election. [C.R.S. 1-45-108(2.5)] This notice is file with the secretary of state.

- Tip 1: Do not file “major contribution” reports for contributions of more than $1,000 received before the 30-day cut-off.
- Tip 2: Contributions filed as “major contributions” should also be included on the Schedule A in the regular reports.

Schedule B – Expenditures: All expenditures of $20 or more per reporting period are itemized on this form. Expenditure also includes expenditures made by a third party on behalf of a candidate or committee.

- Tip 1: Third-party expenditures are reported as non-monetary contributions.
- Tip 2: Reimbursements to candidates, staff, and volunteers are reported as expenditures.

Schedule C - Loans: Candidates may receive loans from financial institutions, “if the loan bears the usual and customary interest rate...” [Article XXVIII, Sec. 3(8)]. This form gives committees a vehicle for reporting and tracking repayment until the loan is repaid in full.

Tip 1: Contribution limits shall not apply to loans. [Art. XXVIII, Sec. 3(8)]

Tip 2: Loans cannot be forgiven. [Art. XXVIII, Sec. 3(8)]

Schedule D - Returned Contributions & Expenditures: This form has been designed to accommodate both committees returning contributions and committees reporting returned contributions or expenditures. It should be filed with a Report of Contributions and Expenditures reflecting the revised totals and either Schedule A or Schedule B.

Tip 1: Amended reports with Returned Contribution statements may be filed at any time. They need not be held until the next filing date.

Statement of Non-Monetary Contributions: All non-monetary contributions are reported on this form. It also allows committees to track and report aggregate totals for all contributors. Be sure that you know the appropriate election cycle for your committee to ensure that you do not exceed contribution limits. Please consult with your appropriate officer for clarification.

Tip 1: Non-monetary contributions count against the contribution limits set forth in Art. XXVIII, Sec. 3.

Tip 2: Non-monetary contributions of one hundred dollars or more must list the occupation and employer of natural persons. [Art. XXVIII, Sec. 7, C.R.S. 1-45-108(a)(II)]

Notice of Independent Expenditure In Excess Of One Thousand Dollars: Any person making an independent expenditure of $1,000 or more must file the Notice of Independent Expenditure form. If the Independent Expenditure is made within thirty days of a primary or general election, the form must be filed within 48 hours after obligating funds for the expenditure. This notice is filed with the Secretary of State. (Art. XXVIII, Sec. 5)

Tip 1: Independent expenditures made by political parties and committees must still be reported on “Schedule B” within the correct reporting period.

Tip 2: Any expenditure made by a candidate committee or a candidate’s agent is not considered an “independent expenditure”. [Art. XXVIII, Sec. 2(9)]

Candidate Statement of Non-Receipt of Contributions or Non-Expenditures Funds:

Candidates that accept no contributions and make no expenditures are not required to register a committee or file disclosure reports. Candidates, however, may wish to file this form to publicly disclose their “zero” contribution and expenditure status.

Tip 1: This filing is voluntary but may prevent the perception that a candidate has failed to file reports.

Statement of Personal Expenditures by a Candidate: Candidates who do not have a candidate committee and accept no contributions but prefer to expend only their own funds are required to disclose the amount of any expenditure. (Campaign and Political Finance Rule 4.14)

Tip 1: This filing is mandatory and may also prevent the perception that a candidate has failed to file reports.

Amended Reports: Whenever a committee becomes aware of an error in past reporting, the committee must amend the report as soon as possible by filing an “Amended Report of Contributions and Expenditures.”

Tip 1: If an error is identified in a previous report, all reports that follow must be amended to reflect the subsequent amended totals.

Tip 2: When amending a report, file only the first page of the Report of Contributions and Expenditures, the second page titled Detailed Summary Page, and any updated schedules listing only the amended information. (Campaign and Political Finance Rule 4.2)

C. Trouble Shooting - Electronic Challenges

Does the thought of electronic filing have you running for the hills? Don't put those sneakers on yet! Listed below are some common problems experienced by all levels of computer users. Before contacting your filing office try using the chart below. This may save you and your filing office valuable time.

Problem	Solution
User ID and or Password are not recognized	The login is not case sensitive; however the password is. Check and make sure you're using the correct case. If your login or password contains the letters L, O or I or the numbers one or zero make sure that the letters should be letters and not numbers or vice versa. A change in registered agent may have prompted a change in the user id and password. You may contact the designated election office to confirm your user id and password. The user id and password may only be given to the registered agent or candidate. You may be required to submit a written request to obtain this information for security measures.
Accessing the Web or the SOS Website	Can you get to other sites on the web? Check with your internet provider to make sure there is not a connectivity problem occurring with your provider. If using a dial-up modem and you have call waiting you may want to disable your call waiting during your internet use. Information on this process may be found in the information pages of your telephone book. From time to time we may upgrade portions of our website. Upgrades do not always display a new or different look. If you have bookmarked the SOS website and do not update your bookmark periodically, you may be returning to an "old" version of the website. Try accessing the website without using your bookmark. Avoid using the Secretary of State's website during maintenance hours. Maintenance hours are 2:20 a.m. – 6:00 a.m. Monday – Friday and 2:20 a.m. – 6:00 a.m. Saturday and Sunday.

My report shows “past” or is not showing as filed; I can see the report link but cannot access it.	The last step to file an electronic report is to click on the action button “File My Report”. If this action is not completed, the report will not be filed and could cause the candidate or committee to miss a report filing deadline, resulting in penalties being assessed. In most cases, the report information has been saved and is just waiting to be filed. A report that has not been filed will prevent the user from filing the current or next report showing due until the previous report is filed. File the past report to access the current report. To request a waiver or reduction of late filing penalties, please review the waiver process section of this manual.
I did not receive an e-mail confirmation of electronic filing.	An outdated e-mail address may be to blame. As long as the candidate or committee maintains a current e-mail address with the appropriate election office you should receive, almost immediately, an e-mail confirming your electronic report filing. You may check the e-mail address on record by using the Committee Maintenance link. The Committee Maintenance screen allows you to update important information about the candidate or committee.
I entered all information but the figures do not total	The current application allows you to delete a report sum total (such as non-itemized contributions) and not enter anything (the application should regard an empty entry as ZERO, but it doesn’t). Try putting ‘0’ (zero) in any blank sum total entry field. If this doesn’t work, please contact your filing office to have them do a forced reconciliation after you file your report . In the summer of 2005 this issue will be addressed with a new release.

X. Waiver Process

If a state candidate, committee or party receives a penalty pursuant to Article XXVIII, Section 10 of the Colorado Constitution, that person or committee may submit a written request, addressed to the Secretary of State, explaining why a waiver or reduction in the penalty should be granted. The Secretary of State's office must receive the request no later than 30 days after the date the notice was mailed. Mail waiver requests to Colorado Secretary of State, Attn: Elections Division, 1700 Broadway, Suite 270, Denver, CO 80290.

The Secretary will review the requests and make a determination, at which time the candidate, committee or party will be notified in writing as to the outcome of their request. An invoice will accompany the letter if a penalty remains.

If a state candidate, committee or party does not agree with the determination made by the Secretary of State, they may appeal the decision by filing a complaint with the Secretary of State's office. The complaint will be forwarded to the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) for review. The last resort for appealing a penalty is the Court of Appeals.

Please review Article XXVIII, Sec. 9 and 10 for complete understanding of the complaint and appeals process.

XI. Terminating Your Committee

It is very important that committees terminate properly to end all filing requirements and avoid fines and penalties for non-reporting. A committee may only terminate by filing a Report of Contributions and Expenditures indicating a "zero" balance. The disbursement of unexpended campaign funds is unregulated for political parties, political committees and small donor committees; specific guidelines are given for candidate and issue committees. (C.R.S. 1-45-106)

Tip 1: Inactive candidate committees must terminate after nine years.

[C.R.S. 1-45-106 (1)(a)(III)]

Tip 2: A federal committee may terminate their active status with the Secretary of State if the committee submits a letter of termination. A termination letter may be filed at any time. (Campaign and Political Finance Rule 3.2)

XII. Conducting Research

Researching campaign reports has become easier than ever with the implementation of our website at www.sos.state.co.us. Data is updated daily providing the most current and accurate information available to everyone with access to the Internet. For those without Internet access, data may be obtained at the Colorado Department of State, 1700 Broadway, Suite 270 Denver, CO 80290 (downtown Denver). If coming to the office is not convenient or feasible, please send your written request to the above address, attention Elections Division. All requests are processed in the order received; pre-paid copies are available for $0.50 per page. Please allow five to ten days for large orders. You may also submit a request via the Elections Division e-mail sos.elections@state.co.us, or by fax at 303-869-4861.

XIII. Filing Campaign & Political Finance Complaints

Anyone who believes that there have been intentional violations of the provisions listed in Art. XXVIII or Title 1, Article 45, C.R.S., may file a complaint with the Secretary of State. All complaints must be filed with the Secretary of State and are reviewed for strict compliance with the guidelines in Campaign and Political Finance Rule 6 and then forwarded to an administrative law judge for a hearing. Once a Campaign and Political Finance complaint has been submitted to the Division of Administrative Hearings all subsequent communication, correspondence, pleadings, etc., must be directed to that office only. The Division of Administrative Hearings main office is located at 1120 Lincoln Street, Suite 1400, Denver, CO 80203 or you may contact them by phone at 303-764-1400 or by fax at 303-764-1401. Complaints must be filed within 180 days of the alleged violation. Anyone considering filing a complaint should first thoroughly review Art. XXVIII, Sec. 9 and 10, C.R.S. 1-45-112 and Campaign and Political Finance Rule 6. The Secretary of State's office cannot offer legal advice or interpret the law; our office can only advise with regard to the procedures for filing a complaint.

Tip 1: The attorney general will investigate complaints concerning a candidate for secretary of state. [Art. XXVIII, Sec. 9(2)(b)]

Tip 2: Municipal and county clerks must notify any person under their jurisdictions of any Campaign and Political Finance complaint filed against them. [C.R.S. 1-45-112(1)(e)]

XIV. Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ's)

- Q: When do you become a candidate under Article XXVIII?
- A: You become a candidate when you publicly announce AND THEREAFTER receive a contribution or make an expenditure in support of your candidacy.
- Q: May governor and lieutenant governor candidates maintain separate candidate committees?
- A: No. Article XXVIII combines these two candidate committees into one and the contribution and spending limits for governor apply to the committee.
- Q: May state or local candidates accept corporate and labor money under Article XXVIII?
- A: No. Contributions from corporations and labor organizations to candidates are prohibited. Except for local public offices in certain home rule counties or home rule municipalities, Section 3(4)(a) of Article XXVIII and Rule 7.2 of the Secretary of State's "Rules Concerning Campaign and Political Finance" prohibit contributions and expenditures by corporations and labor organizations for candidates for office in local elections, including school board elections.
- Q: Is a political committee required to segregate the contributions it receives from corporations and labor organizations from the contributions it receives from natural persons?
- A: No.
- Q: How long do we keep our committee records?
- A: Committees must keep their records for 180 days following any general election in which the committee or party received contributions, unless a complaint is filed, then the records must remain available until the matter is resolved.
- Q: What is "electioneering communication"?
- A: This term refers to print, radio, TV and any other communications that unambiguously refer to any candidate and are distributed within 30 days of the primary and 60 days of the general election.
- Q: Do I have to report what I spend on "electioneering communications"?
- A: Yes. Anyone, other than the candidate or candidate committee, spending $1,000 or more per calendar year on "electioneering communications" must report to the secretary of state, using the manual or electronic Report of Electioneering Communications form. Reports must detail spending on Electioneering Communications as well as the name and address of each person contributing $250 or more per year. If the contributor is a natural person you must also provide the contributor's occupation and employer information.

- Q: May a corporation or labor organization contribute or provide funding for electioneering communications?
- A: No. Article XXVIII prohibits corporations or labor organization from funding this type of activity; however, a political committee or small donor committee established by a corporation or labor organization may provide funding for electioneering communication.
- Q: Are conduit contributions prohibited?
- A: Yes. Contributions delivered to a candidate committee by a third party are prohibited.
- Q: Are organizations, such as the Colorado Federation of Republican Women, which are social in nature, considered part of the Colorado Republican Party for reporting purposes? If not, under what circumstances are affiliates considered part of the Colorado Republican party for purposes of Article XXVIII?
- A: If the organizations are solely social in nature and not part of the party's formal nominating process they are not considered part of the party for reporting purposes. Social organizations associated with a particular political party are not considered "affiliates" of the party for reporting purposes under Article XXVIII, Sec. 2(13) of the Colorado Constitution. There may be other provisions, however, of Article XXVIII of the Colorado Constitution that may apply depending on the activities of the organizations.
- Q: May lobbyists or principals of lobbyists contribute to a member of the General Assembly who is a candidate for office in a home rule city or county when the General Assembly is in session?
- A: Section 1-45-105.5, C.R.S. precludes lobbyists or principals of lobbyists from contributing to a member of the General Assembly who is a candidate for office in a home rule city or county when the General Assembly is in session.
- Q: May a political committee make a contribution to a member of the General Assembly while in session? And what if the political committee has a lobbyist?
- A: Political Committees may contribute to a legislator during the session, unless the political committee "employs, retains, engages, or uses, with or without compensation, a professional or volunteer lobbyist".
- Q: Does the prohibition on the receipt of campaign contributions from lobbyists while the Colorado General Assembly is in session apply to federal lobbyist or individuals who lobby in other states who are not registered as lobbyists with the Colorado Secretary of State?
- A: The prohibition on lobbyist contributions applies only to persons who are professional or volunteer lobbyists and who are subject to C.R.S. 24-6-301, etc. A note of caution: these individuals covered by the law could also be "federal" lobbyists or lobbyists subject to the laws of other states. In other words, "lobbyists" that do not lobby in Colorado are not covered. They do not try to influence members of the General Assembly, so the purpose behind the law does not apply to out-of-state lobbyists who do not lobby in Colorado.

Q: May corporations and labor organizations make direct contributions to “Small Donor” committees?

A: No, only their employees or members may make contributions to Small Donor Committees.

Q: How do “Small Donor” committees work?

A: Small Donor Committees are a form of political committee. The contribution limit from their supporters is lower than political committees at only $50 per natural person per year, but they may make larger contributions to candidates: $5,000 (statewide office) and $2,000 (all other state candidates including District Attorney) for the primary and general elections.

Q: May a Small Donor Committee transfer a portion of the Balance of Funds on Hand back to the Local Union for regular union expenditure use?

A: No

Q: May the transfer of membership dues from a membership organization to a small donor committee be excluded from the $50 limitation set forth in Section 2(14)(a) based upon the exclusive language contained in Section 2(5)(b), which states, that”...Contribution does not include...a transfer by a membership organization of a portion of a member’s dues to a small donor committee sponsored by such membership organization”?

A: The transfer, itself, of membership dues from a membership organization to a small donor committee is excluded from the $50 limitation set forth in Article XXVIII, Sec. 2(14)(a) of the Colorado Constitution based upon the exclusive language contained in Article XXVIII, Sec. 2(5)(b) of the Colorado Constitution. However, that portion of a member’s dues transferred from a small donor committee is considered a pro-rata contribution from the individual members to a small donor committee.

Q: Is a membership organization required to segregate the dues it receives from corporations from the dues it receives from natural persons?

A: Not if the dues received from corporations are for the membership dues of natural persons. If the dues are received from corporations for their own corporate memberships, then such dues must be segregated and cannot be transferred to a small donor committee.

Q: May a membership organization transfer dues to a small donor committee paid to it by a member’s corporation on behalf of one or more individual members?

A: Yes. The dues transferred by such membership organization to the small donor committee sponsored by such organization will be treated as pro-rata contributions from the individual members whose portion of membership dues was transferred. It is not considered to be a contribution from the corporation paying the member's dues, but rather a contribution from the member.

Q: How does a small donor committee list a membership transfer from a membership organization since they are not contributions?

A: If a small donor committee (SDC) receives $20 or more in dues and other contributions from any individual during a reporting period; the small donor committee should list each such individual. The total amount received from each individual that totals less the $20 during a reporting period should be reported on Schedule A as one entry from the membership organization with the description of "dues transfer". The membership organization must provide to the small donor committee a list of the members and the amount of dues transferred for each member and the small donor committee must keep that list for audit purposes to be sure that individuals do not exceed the $50 per year contribution limit.

Q: May a candidate make a contribution to a (Federal) 527 organization from the candidate's candidate committee?

A: No. Candidate committees are formed to support the nomination or election of a candidate to a state or local office: 527 organizations are allowed to support issues as well as candidates. They are not limited to solely supporting the candidate from whom they received the contribution. Therefore, this type of contribution is not allowed. Any such contributions made by a candidate committee to a 527 organization must be returned to the candidate committee.

Q: Unexpended campaign contributions for candidate committees are allowed to be used for Political Issue Education under C.R.S. 1-45-106(II). May a candidate committee contribute unexpended campaign contributions to (Federal) 527 organizations for political issue education?

A: No. 527 organizations may support or oppose a wide variety of issues. Political Issue Education [as referred to in C.R.S. 1-45-106(II)] is issue education that is personal to the candidate. In other words, political issue education is to be limited to specifically educating the elected official on legislative issues directly affecting their constituents or the elected official educating his/her constituents about the elected official or legislative issues directly affecting those constituents.

B. Quick Reference of State Candidate Contribution Limits

Contribution limits double for a candidate who has accepted voluntary spending limits if his or her opponent has not accepted the voluntary spending limits and has raised more than 10 percent of the spending limit. This graph does not show double contribution limits. * Political Party contribution limits cannot be doubled.

Contributions to a candidate committee by the candidate are counted as political party contributions when a candidate accepts voluntary spending limits. Any unexpended campaign contributions that are carried forward to a subsequent election are also counted as political party contributions.

The governor and lieutenant governor are considered one committee and the contribution and spending limits for governor apply to the joint committee.

C. State Voluntary Spending Limits Guide

Please note that there is nothing in Article XXVIII of the Colorado Constitution or Title 1, Article 45 of the Colorado Revised Statutes addressing voluntary spending limits for county or municipal candidates. Please contact your county clerk and recorder or town/city clerk to see if your county or municipality has spending limit guidelines or restrictions.

VOLUNTARY SPENDING LIMITS

OFFICE / CANDIDATE	VOLUNTARY SPENDING LIMIT
Governor / Lieutenant Governor	$2,500,000
Secretary of State	500,000
Attorney General	500,000
State Treasurer	500,000
State Senate	90,000
State House of Representatives	65,000
State Board of Education	65,000

District Attorney	65,000

Remember: Contribution limits double for a candidate who has accepted voluntary spending limits if his or her opponent has not accepted the voluntary spending limits and has raised more than 10 percent of the spending limit; however, this does not double the candidate's spending limit. Political Party contribution limits cannot be doubled.

D. Contributions Allowed Between Committees

The chart below assists you in determining if a contribution between different types of committees is allowed. Remember contribution limits outlined in Art. XXVIII, Sec. 3 of the Colorado Constitution for state committees must be adhered to. Using the chart below, find in the first column the type of committee wishing to make a contribution and then using the top row find the committee type receiving the contribution, where the column and row meet gives the answer as to whether the contribution is allowed. For example, may a candidate committee give to a small donor committee? The answer is no. Small Donor Committees may only receive contributions of $50 per year per natural person. Please also review Campaign Finance Rules 2.6 and 2.7 (listed below the chart) relating to issue and political committee contributions.

COLORADO CONSTITUTION
ARTICLE XXVIII
(Amendment 27)

Campaign and Political Finance

Section 1. Purpose and findings. The people of the state of Colorado hereby find and declare that large campaign contributions to political candidates create the potential for corruption and the appearance of corruption; that large campaign contributions made to influence election outcomes allow wealthy individuals, corporations, and special interest groups to exercise a disproportionate level of influence over the political process; that the rising costs of campaigning for political office prevent qualified citizens from running for political office; that because of the use of early voting in Colorado timely notice of independent expenditures is essential for informing the electorate; that in recent years the advent of significant spending on electioneering communications, as defined herein, has frustrated the purpose of existing campaign finance requirements; that independent research has demonstrated that the vast majority of televised electioneering communications goes beyond issue discussion to express electoral advocacy; that political contributions from corporate treasuries are not an indication of popular support for the corporation's political ideas and can unfairly influence the outcome of Colorado elections; and that the interests of the public are best served by limiting campaign contributions, encouraging voluntary campaign spending limits, providing for full and timely disclosure of campaign contributions, independent expenditures, and funding of electioneering communications, and strong enforcement of campaign finance requirements.

Section 2. Definitions. For the purpose of this Article and any statutory provisions pertaining to campaign finance, including provisions pertaining to disclosure:

(2) "Candidate" means any person who seeks nomination or election to any state or local public office that is to be voted on in this state at any primary election, general election, school district election, special district election, or municipal election. "Candidate" also includes a judge or justice of any court of record who seeks to be retained in office pursuant to the provisions of section 25 of article VI. A person is a candidate for election if the person has publicly announced an intention to seek election to public office or retention of a judicial office and thereafter has received a contribution or made an expenditure in support of the candidacy. A person remains a candidate for purposes of this Article so long as the candidate maintains a registered candidate committee. A person who maintains a candidate committee after an election cycle, but who has not publicly announced an intention to seek election to public office in the next or any subsequent election cycle, is a candidate for purposes of this article.

(3) "Candidate committee" means a person, including the candidate, or persons with the common purpose of receiving contributions or making expenditures under the authority of a candidate. A contribution to a candidate shall be deemed a contribution to the candidate's candidate committee. A candidate shall have only one candidate committee. A candidate committee shall be considered open and active until affirmatively closed by the candidate or by action of the secretary of state.

(4) "Conduit" means a person who transmits contributions from more than one person, directly to a candidate committee. "Conduit" does not include the contributor's immediate family members, the candidate or campaign treasurer of the candidate committee receiving the contribution, a volunteer fund raiser hosting an event for a candidate committee, or a professional fund raiser if the fund raiser is compensated at the usual and customary rate.

(5) (a) "Contribution" means:

(I) The payment, loan, pledge, gift, or advance of money, or guarantee of a loan, made to any candidate committee, issue committee, political committee, small donor committee, or political party;

Candidates shall be personally liable for penalties imposed upon the candidate's committee.

(2) (a) The appropriate officer shall impose a penalty of fifty dollars per day for each day that a statement or other information required to be filed pursuant to section 5, section 6, or section 7 of this Article, or sections 1-45-108, 1-45-109 or 1-45-110, C.R.S., or any successor sections, is not filed by the close of business on the day due. Upon imposition of a penalty pursuant to this subsection (2), the appropriate officer shall send the person upon whom the penalty is being imposed proper notification by certified mail of the imposition of the penalty. If an electronic mail address is on file with the secretary of state, the secretary of state shall also provide such notification by electronic mail. Revenues collected from fees and penalties assessed by the secretary of state or revenues collected in the form of payment of the secretary of state's attorney fees and costs pursuant to this Article shall be deposited in the department of state cash fund created in section 24-21-104 (3), C.R.S., or any successor section.

(b) (I) Any person required to file a report with the secretary of state and upon whom a penalty has been imposed pursuant to this subsection (2) may appeal such penalty by filing a written appeal with the secretary of state no later than thirty days after the date on which notification of the imposition of the penalty was mailed to such person's last known address in accordance with paragraph (a) of this subsection (2). Except as provided in paragraph (c) of this subsection (2), the secretary shall refer the appeal to an administrative law judge. Any hearing conducted by an administrative law judge pursuant to this subsection (2) shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of section 24-4-105, C.R.S., or any successor section. The administrative law judge shall set aside or reduce the penalty upon a showing of good cause, and the person filing the appeal shall bear the burden of proof. The decision of the administrative law judge shall be final and subject to review by the court of appeals pursuant to section 24-4-106 (11), C.R.S., or any successor section.

(II) If the administrative law judge finds that the filing of an appeal brought pursuant to subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (b) was frivolous, groundless, or vexatious, the administrative law judge shall order the person filing the appeal to pay reasonable attorney fees and costs of the secretary of state in connection with such proceeding.

(c) Upon receipt by the secretary of state of an appeal pursuant to paragraph (b) of this subsection (2), the secretary shall set aside or reduce the penalty upon a showing of good cause.

(d) Any unpaid debt owing to the state resulting from a penalty imposed pursuant to this subsection (2) shall be collected by the state in accordance with the requirements of section 24-30-202.4, C.R.S., or any successor section.

(3) Failure to comply with the provisions of this article shall have no effect on the validity of any election.

1-45-102. Legislative declaration. The people of the state of Colorado hereby find and declare that large campaign contributions to political candidates allow wealthy contributors and special interest groups to exercise a disproportionate level of influence over the political process; that large campaign contributions create the potential for corruption and the appearance of corruption; that the rising costs of campaigning for political office prevent qualified citizens from running for political office; and that the interests of the public are best served by limiting campaign contributions, encouraging voluntary campaign spending limits, full and timely disclosure of campaign contributions, and strong enforcement of campaign laws.

ANNOTATION

Annotator's note. Since § 1-45-103 is similar to § 1-45-103 as it existed prior to its repeal in 2002, relevant cases construing that provision and its predecessors have been included in the annotations to this section.

It is apparent from the plain language of subsection (2) that a candidate committee may be comprised of one person only and that the candidate acting alone may be a candidate committee. Thus, a candidate committee who acts alone for the purpose of receiving campaign contributions or making campaign expenditures is a candidate committee subject to the disclosure requirements of this article. Therefore, the expenditures made by a candidate from the candidate's personal funds before certification of his or her committee were either contributions to the ultimately certified candidate committee or expenditures by a separate campaign committee composed of the candidate alone. Hlavec v. Davidson, 64 P.3d 881 (Colo. App. 2002) (decided under section that was repealed by article XXVIII of the state constitution).

Court's interpretation of the term "candidate committee" to include expenditures of personal money by the candidate on his or her campaign does not limit the amount of money a candidate could personally spend on his or her campaign in violation of the first amendment. The act does not specifically address whether a candidate's personal expenditures are contributions. However, in light of Buckley v. Valeo, 424 U.S. 1 (1976), the court holds that the definition of "contribution" contained in subsection (4) does not include a candidate's expenditures of personal funds and contributions made by the candidate to his or her own candidate committee. Accordingly, the court rejected candidate's first amendment argument. Hlavec v. Davidson, 64 P.3d 881 (Colo. App. 2002) (decided under section that was repealed by article XXVIII of the state constitution).

Phrases unconstitutional. The phrase in subsection (7), "which unambiguously refer to any specific public office or candidate for such office, but does not include expenditures made by persons, other than political parties and political committees, in the regular course and scope of their business and political messages sent solely to their members[.]" is unconstitutional under the first amendment. Citizens for Responsible Gov't State Political Action Comm. v. Davidson, 236 F.3d 1174 (10th Cir. 2000).

The phrase in subsection (11), "or which unambiguously refers to such candidate[.]" is unconstitutional under the first amendment. Citizens for Responsible Gov't State Political Action Comm. v. Davidson, 236 F.3d 1174 (10th Cir. 2000).

The court concluded that the unconstitutional phrases were severable and declared subsections (7) and (11) invalid only insofar as they reach beyond that which may constitutionally be regulated. Citizens for Responsible Gov't State Political Action Comm. v. Davidson, 236 F.3d 1174 (10th Cir. 2000).

Term "independent expenditure" in subsection (7) permits the regulation of only those expenditures that are used for communications that expressly advocate the election or defeat of a clearly identified candidate. This standard includes the words and phrases listed in Buckley v. Valeo, 424 U.S. 1 (1976), and other substantially similar or synonymous words. This approach remains focused on actual words, as contrasted with images, symbols, or other contextual factors, provides adequate notice in light of due process concerns, and strikes an appropriate balance between trying to preserve the goals of campaign finance reform and protecting political speech. League of Women Voters v. Davidson, 23 P.3d 1266 (Colo. App. 2001).

None of the advertisements of so-called educational committee at issue amounted to "express advocacy" as that term is applied in Buckley and progeny and, therefore, so-called educational committee was not subject to the requirements of the Fair Campaign Practices Act. League of Women Voters v. Davidson, 23 P.3d 1266 (Colo. App. 2001).

The term "issue" in subsection (8) includes an initiative that has gone through the title-setting process, but has not been formally certified for the election ballot. To construe the term to include only measures actually placed on the ballot would frustrate the purposes of the Campaign Reform Act by allowing groups to raise and spend money, without limit and without disclosure to the public, to convince electors to sign or not to sign a particular petition, thus significantly influencing its success or failure. Colorado for Family Values v. Meyer, 936 P.2d 631 (Colo. App. 1997).

The term "issue committee" covers only those issue committees that were formed for the purpose of supporting or opposing a ballot initiative. An association that was formed and operated for purposes other than "accepting contributions or making expenditures to support or oppose any ballot issue or ballot question" does not become an "issue committee" as defined in this section if, at a future point in time, it engages in those activities with regard to a specific ballot issue or ballot question. Common Sense Alliance v. Davidson, 995 P.2d 748 (Colo. 2000).

A "political committee" is formed when two or more persons associate themselves with the original purpose of making independent expenditures. Citizens for Responsible Gov't State Political Action Comm. v. Davidson, 236 F.3d 1174 (10th Cir. 2000).

The term "political committee" in subsection (10) includes a for-profit corporation which makes contributions, contributions in kind, or expenditures to or on behalf of state political campaigns out of its ordinary corporate treasury. Therefore, such corporation is required to file a statement of organization, to report its contributions, contributions in kind, and expenditures, and otherwise to comply with any filing and reporting requirements of the "Campaign Reform Act of 1974". Colorado Common Cause v. Meyer, 758 P.2d 153 (Colo. 1988) (decided prior to 1988 amendment to subsection (10)).

While the stated purposes for the formation of an organization may be one criterion upon which to determine whether it is a "political committee", such purposes are not conclusive. To so hold would permit regulable conduct to escape regulation merely because the stated purposes were misleading, ambiguous, fraudulent, or all three. In addition, such a holding would exalt form over substance and would almost entirely eviscerate the Fair Campaign Practices Act and make a mockery of legitimate attempts at campaign finance reform. League of Women Voters v. Davidson, 23 P.3d 1266 (Colo. App. 2001).

The use of the disjunctive term "or" in subsection (11) renders the definition of "political message" applicable to messages that "unambiguously refer to a candidate", even if such messages do not also "advocate the election or defeat" of that candidate. Citizens for Responsible Gov't State Political Action Comm. v. Davidson, 236 F.3d 1174 (10th Cir. 2000).

To qualify as a political message under subsection (11), a message need only: (1) Be delivered by telephone, any print or electronic media, or other written material, and (2) either (a) advocate the election or defeat of any candidate or (b) unambiguously refer to such candidate. Citizens for Responsible Gov't State Political Action Comm. v. Davidson, 236 F.3d 1174 (10th Cir. 2000).

Voter guides that unambiguously refer to specific candidates but do not expressly advocate the election or defeat of any candidate constitute "political messages" as defined in subsection (11). Therefore, the funds expended to produce and disseminate the voter guides are subject to regulation as "independent expenditures" as the term is defined in subsection (7). Citizens for Responsible Gov't State Political Action Comm. v. Davidson, 236 F.3d 1174 (10th Cir. 2000).

1-45-103.7. Contribution limits. (1) Nothing in article XXVIII of the state constitution or this article shall be construed to prohibit a corporation or labor organization from making a contribution to a political committee.

(2) A political committee may receive and accept moneys contributed to such committee by a corporation or labor organization pursuant to subsection (1) of this section for disbursement to a candidate committee or political party without depositing such moneys in an account separate from the account required to be established for the receipt and acceptance of all contributions by all committees or political parties in accordance with section 3 (9) of article XXVIII of the state constitution.

(3) A candidate committee may accept:

(a) The aggregate contribution limit specified in section 3 (1) of article XXVIII of the state constitution for a primary election at any time after the date of the primary election in which the candidate in whose name the candidate committee is accepting contributions is on the primary election ballot; or

(b) The aggregate contribution limit specified in section 3 (1) of article XXVIII of the state constitution for a general election at any time prior to the date of the primary election in which the candidate in whose name the candidate committee is accepting contributions is on the primary election ballot.

(4) A candidate committee may expend contributions received and accepted for a general election prior to the date of the primary election in which the candidate in whose name the candidate committee is accepting contributions is on the primary election ballot. A candidate committee established in the name of a candidate who wins the primary election may expend contributions received and accepted for a primary election in the general election.

The measure enacting article XXVIII of the state constitution takes effect upon proclamation of the vote by the Governor. The Governor's proclamation was issued on December 20, 2002. ANNOTATION

Court's interpretation of the term "candidate committee" to include expenditures of personal money by the candidate on his or her campaign does not limit the amount of money a candidate could personally spend on his or her campaign in violation of the first amendment. The act does not specifically address whether a candidate's personal expenditures are contributions. However, in light of Buckley v. Valeo, 424 U.S. 1 (1976), the court holds that the definition of "contribution" does not include a candidate's expenditures of personal funds and contributions made by the candidate to his or her own candidate committee. Accordingly, the court rejected candidate's first amendment argument. Hlavec v. Davidson, 64 P.3d 881 (Colo. App. 2002) (decided under section that was repealed by article XXVIII of the state constitution).

1-45-105.5. Contributions to members of general assembly and governor during consideration of legislation. (1) (a) No professional lobbyist, volunteer lobbyist, or principal of a professional lobbyist or volunteer lobbyist shall make or promise to make a contribution to, or solicit or promise to solicit a contribution for:

(I) A member of the general assembly or candidate for the general assembly, when the general assembly is in regular session;

(II) (A) The governor or a candidate for governor when the general assembly is in regular session or when any measure adopted by the general assembly in a regular session is pending before the governor for approval or disapproval; or

(B) The lieutenant governor, the secretary of state, the state treasurer, the attorney general, or a candidate for any of such offices when the general assembly is in regular session.

(b) As used in this subsection (1):

(I) "Principal" means any person that employs, retains, engages, or uses, with or without compensation, a professional or volunteer lobbyist. One does not become a principal, nor may one be considered a principal, merely by belonging to an organization or owning stock in a corporation that employs a lobbyist.

(II) The terms "professional lobbyist" and "volunteer lobbyist" shall have the meanings ascribed to them in section 24-6-301, C.R.S.

(c) (I) Nothing contained in this subsection (1) shall be construed to prohibit lobbyists and their principals from raising money when the general assembly is in regular session or when regular session legislation is pending before the governor, except as specifically prohibited in paragraph (a) of this subsection (1).

(II) Nothing contained in this subsection (1) shall be construed to prohibit a lobbyist or principal of a lobbyist from participating in a fund-raising event of a political party when the general assembly is in regular session or when regular session legislation is pending before the governor, so long as the purpose of the event is not to raise money for specifically designated members of the general assembly, specifically designated candidates for the general assembly, the governor, or specifically designated candidates for governor.

(III) A payment by a lobbyist or a principal of a lobbyist to a political party to participate in such a fund-raising event shall be reported as a contribution to the political party pursuant to section 1-45-108; except that, if the lobbyist or principal of a lobbyist receives a meal in return for a portion of the payment, only the amount of the payment in excess of the value of the meal shall be considered a contribution to the political party. The political party shall determine the value of the meal received for such payment, which shall approximate the actual value of the meal.

(IV) A gift of a meal described in subparagraph (III) of this paragraph (c) by a lobbyist or a principal of a lobbyist to an incumbent in or a candidate elected to any office described in paragraph (a) of this subsection (1) shall be reported as follows:

(A) The lobbyist shall report the value of the meal in the lobbyist disclosure statement filed pursuant to section 24-6-302, C.R.S.

ANNOTATION

Subsection (2) is constitutional. The state's interest in preventing avoidance of valid contribution limits by use of funds carried over from prior campaigns is both compelling and served by the restriction set forth in subsection (2). This provision is narrowly tailored to accomplish the state's legitimate interest. Citizens for Responsible Gov't State Political Action Comm. v. Buckley, 60 F. Supp.2d 1066 (D. Colo. 1999).

1-45-107. Independent expenditures. (Repealed)

Source: Initiated 96: Entire article R&RE, effective upon proclamation of the Governor, January 15, 1997. Initiated 2002: Entire section repealed, effective upon proclamation of the Governor, December 20, 2002; however section 13 of the initiated measure repealing this section provides that the effective date of this section is December 6, 2002.

Editor's note: (1) Prior to its repeal, this section was contained in an article that was repealed and reenacted in 1996. Provisions of this section, as it existed in 1996, are similar to those contained in 1-45-110.5 as said section existed in 1995, the year prior to the repeal and reenactment of this article.

(2) (a) Subsection (4) of section 1 of article V of the state constitution provides that initiated and referred measures shall take effect from and after the official declaration of the vote thereon by the proclamation of the Governor. The measure enacting article XXVIII of the state constitution takes effect upon proclamation of the vote by the Governor. The Governor's proclamation was issued on December 20, 2002. However, section 13 of the measure enacting article XXVIII of the state constitution provides that the effective date of article XXVIII is December 6, 2002.

(b) This section was repealed by an initiated measure that was adopted by the people in the general election held November 5, 2002. Section 12 of article XXVIII provides for the repeal of this section. For the text of the initiative and the vote count, see Session Laws of Colorado 2003, p. 3609.

1-45-108. Disclosure - repeal. (1) (a) (I) All candidate committees, political committees, issue committees, small donor committees, and political parties shall report to the appropriate officer their contributions received, including the name and address of each person who has contributed twenty dollars or more; expenditures made, and obligations entered into by the committee or party.

(II) In the case of contributions made to a candidate committee, political committee, issue committee, and political party, the disclosure required by this section shall also include the occupation and employer of each person who has made a contribution of one hundred dollars or more to such committee or party.

(III) Any person who expends one thousand dollars or more per calendar year on electioneering communications shall report to the secretary of state, in accordance with the disclosure required by this section, the amount expended on the communications and the name and address of any person that contributes more than two hundred fifty dollars per year to the person expending one thousand dollars or more on the communications. If the person making such contribution of two hundred fifty dollars or more is a natural person, the disclosure required by this section shall also include the person's occupation and employer.

(b) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2003, p. 2158, § 3, effective June 3, 2003.)

(c) A candidate committee in a special district election shall not be required to file reports under this section until the committee has received contributions or made expenditures exceeding twenty dollars in the aggregate.

(d) For purposes of this section, a political party shall be treated as a separate entity at the state, county, district, and local levels.

(e) A candidate's candidate committee may reimburse the candidate for expenditures the candidate has made on behalf of the candidate committee. Any such expenditures may be reimbursed at any time. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any expenditure reimbursed to the candidate by the candidate's candidate committee within the election cycle during which the expenditure is made shall be treated only as an expenditure and not as a contribution to and an expenditure by the candidate's candidate committee. Notwithstanding the date on which any such expenditure is reimbursed, the expenditure shall be reported at the time it is made in accordance with the requirements of this section.

(2) (a) (I) Except as provided in subsections (2.3), (2.5), (2.7), and (6) of this section, such reports that are required to be filed with the secretary of state shall be filed:

(A) Quarterly in off-election years no later than the fifteenth calendar day following the end of the applicable quarter;

(B) On the first Monday in July and on each Monday every two weeks thereafter before the primary election if reports can be filed electronically through a website on the internet with the secretary of state by July 1, 2000; except that nothing in this sub-subparagraph (B) shall require filing by such means;

(C) On the first day of each month beginning the sixth full month before the major election; except that no monthly report shall be required on the first day of the month in which the major election is held;

(D) On the first Monday in September and on each Monday every two weeks thereafter before the major election;

(E) Thirty days after the major election in election years; and

(F) Fourteen days before and thirty days after a special legislative election held in an off-election year.

(II) Such reports that are required to be filed with the county clerk and recorder or with the municipal clerk shall be filed on the twenty-first day and on the Friday before and thirty days after the primary election, where applicable, and the major election in election years and annually in off-election years on the first day of the month in which the anniversary of the major election occurs.

(III) For purposes of this section, "election year" means every even numbered year for political parties and political committees and each year in which the particular candidate committee's candidate, or issue committee's issue, appears on the ballot; and "major election" means the election that decides an issue committee's issue and the election that elects a person to the public office sought by the candidate committee's candidate.

(IV) If the reporting day falls on a weekend or legal holiday, the report shall be filed by the close of the next business day.

(b) The reports required by this section shall also include the balance of funds at the beginning of the reporting period, the total of contributions received, the total of expenditures made during the reporting period, and the name and address of the financial institution used by the committee or party.

(c) All reports filed with the secretary of state pursuant to this subsection (2) shall be for the reporting periods established pursuant to rules promulgated by the secretary of state in accordance with article 4 of title 24, C.R.S.

(d) A candidate committee for a former officeholder or a person not elected to office that has no change in the balance of funds maintained by such committee, receives no contributions, makes no expenditures, and enters into no obligations during a reporting period shall not be required to file a report under this section for such period.

(e) The reporting period for all reports required to be filed with the county clerk and recorder or with the municipal clerk shall close five calendar days prior to the effective date of filing.

(2.3) (a) A candidate committee, political committee, issue committee, small donor committee, political party, or any other person that utilizes the electronic filing system described in section 1-45-109 (6) to file reports with the secretary of state shall have two additional days after each due date prescribed in paragraph (a) of subsection (2) of this section in which to file such reports.

(b) This subsection (2.3) is repealed, effective January 1, 2007.

(2.5) In addition to any report required to be filed with the secretary of state under this section, all candidate committees, political committees, issue committees, and political parties shall file a report with the secretary of state of any contribution of one thousand dollars or more at any time within thirty days preceding the date of the primary election or general election. This report shall be filed with the secretary of state no later than twenty-four hours after receipt of said contribution.

(2.7) Any candidate or candidate committee supporting any candidate, including an incumbent, in a recall election, shall file reports of contributions and expenditures with the appropriate officer fourteen and seven days before the recall election and thirty days after the recall election.

(3) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (3.5) of this section, all candidate committees, political committees, issue committees, small donor committees, and political parties shall register with the appropriate officer before accepting or making any contributions. Registration shall include a statement listing:

- (a) The organization's full name, spelling out any acronyms used therein;
- (b) A natural person authorized to act as a registered agent;
- (c) A street address and telephone number for the principle place of operations;
- (d) All affiliated candidates and committees;
- (e) The purpose or nature of interest of the committee or party;

(f) Any intent of the candidate committee, political committee, issue committee, small donor committee, or political party to electronically file reports required by this article that may be filed electronically on a web site operated and maintained by the secretary of state pursuant to section 1-45-109.

(3.5) Any political committee that has registered with the federal election commission may file with the appropriate officer a copy of the registration filed with the federal election commission and, insofar as such registration contains substantially the same information required by subsection (3) of this section, the political committee shall be considered to have registered with the appropriate officer for purposes of subsection (3) of this section and, therefore, shall be authorized to accept or make contributions as permitted by law. Any political committee that satisfies the requirements of this subsection (3.5) shall be subject to all other legal requirements pertaining to contributions and disclosure that are applicable to political committees.

(4) For purposes of subsection (3) of this section, a political committee in existence on January 1, 1997, shall register with the secretary of state on or before April 1, 1997, pursuant to the requirements of this act.

(5) The registration and reporting requirements of this section shall not apply to that part of the organizational structure of a political party which is responsible for only the day-to-day operations of such political party at the national level if copies of the reports required to be filed with the Federal Election Commission pursuant to the "Federal Election Commission Act of 1971", as amended, are filed with the secretary of state and include the information required by this section.

(6) Any issue committee whose purpose is the recall of any elected official shall file a committee registration with the appropriate officer within ten business days of receiving its first contribution. Reports of contributions and expenditures shall be filed with the appropriate officer within fifteen days of the filing of the committee registration and every thirty days thereafter until the date of the recall election has been established and then fourteen days and seven days before the recall election and thirty days following the recall election.

Editor's note: (1) This section was contained in an article that was repealed and reenacted in 1996. Provisions of this section, as it existed in 1996, are similar to those contained in 1-45-108 as said section existed in 1995, the year prior to the repeal and reenactment of this article.

(2) Subsections (2)(a)(I) and (2)(a)(II) as they existed prior to March 15, 2000, were renumbered on revision as (2)(a)(III) and (2)(a)(IV).

(3) Section 4 of chapter 248, Session Laws of Colorado 2004, provides that the requirements of the act enacting subsections (1)(e) and (3.5) and amending the introductory portion to subsection (3) apply to the portion of any election cycle or for the portion of the calendar year remaining after May 21, 2004, and for any election cycle or calendar year commencing after May 21, 2004, whichever is applicable.

ANNOTATION

Under subsection (1)(a), candidate committees must disclose all expenditures and obligations, even if no contributions are received. Thus, if a candidate runs without a separate committee and finances the campaign from personal funds, the candidate is a candidate committee and must disclose expenditures and obligations as required by subsection (1)(a). Nothing in subsection (1)(a) indicates that expenditures must be reported only if drawn on outside contributions. Hlavec v. Davidson, 64 P.3d 881 (Colo. App. 2002).

Here, both candidate and the candidate committee made expenditures under the authority of the candidate. Thus, both the candidate and the committee were candidate committees or the candidate was acting through the formed committee. In either instance, the expenditures were subject to the disclosure requirements of subsection (1)(a). Hlavec v. Davidson, 64 P.3d 881 (Colo. App. 2002).

Act is neither unconstitutionally vague nor unconstitutionally overbroad. As to candidate's vagueness argument, court finds that act provides sufficient notice to persons of ordinary intelligence that expenditures, regardless of the source of the funds, must be reported. As to candidate's arguments that act is unconstitutionally overbroad and inhibits basic first amendment freedoms, court finds that, construed to preserve its constitutionality, the act does not inhibit a candidate's expenditures of personal funds so long as those expenditures are made through a candidate committee and reported in accordance with this section. Hlavec v. Davidson, 64 P.3d 881 (Colo. App. 2002).

1-45-109. Filing - where to file - timeliness. (1) For the purpose of meeting the filing and reporting requirements of this article, candidates for state wide office, the general assembly, district attorney, district court judge, or any office representing more than one county, except candidates for school district director; the candidate committees for such candidates; political committees in support of or in opposition to such candidates; issue committees in support of or in opposition to an issue on the ballot in more than one county; small donor committees making contributions to such candidates; and persons expending one thousand dollars or more per calendar year on electioneering communications shall file with the secretary of state. Candidates in municipal elections, their candidate committees, any political committee in support of or in opposition to such candidate, an issue committee supporting or opposing a municipal ballot issue, and small donor committees making contributions to such candidates shall file with the municipal clerk. Candidates in special district elections, except candidates for director of the regional transportation district; the candidate committees of such candidates; political committees in support of or in opposition to such candidates; issue committees supporting or opposing a special district ballot issue; and small donor committees making contributions to such candidate shall file with the clerk and recorder of the county in which the district court having jurisdiction over the special district pursuant to section 32-1-303, C.R.S., is located. All other candidates, candidate committees, issue committees, political committees, and small donor committees shall file with the county clerk and recorder of the county of their residence. 1-45-117. State and political subdivisions - limitations on contributions. (1) (a) (I) No agency, department, board, division, bureau, commission, or council of the state or any political subdivision thereof shall make any contribution in campaigns involving the nomination, retention, or election of any person to any public office, nor shall any such entity expend any public moneys from any source, or make any contributions, to urge electors to vote in favor of or against any:

(A) State-wide ballot issue that has been submitted for the purpose of having a title designated and fixed pursuant to section 1-40-106 (1) or that has had a title designated and fixed pursuant to that section;

(B) Local ballot issue that has been submitted for the purpose of having a title fixed pursuant to section 31-11-111 or that has had a title fixed pursuant to that section;

(C) Referred measure, as defined in section 1-1-104 (34.5);

(D) Measure for the recall of any officer that has been certified by the appropriate election official for submission to the electors for their approval or rejection.

(II) However, a member or employee of any such agency, department, board, division, bureau, commission, or council may respond to questions about any such issue described in subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (a) if the member, employee, or public entity has not solicited the question. A member or employee of any such agency, department, board, division, bureau, commission, or council who has policy-making responsibilities may expend not more than fifty dollars of public moneys in the form of letters, telephone calls, or other activities incidental to expressing his or her opinion on any such issue described in subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (a).

(b) (I) Nothing in this subsection (1) shall be construed as prohibiting an agency, department, board, division, bureau, commission, or council of the state, or any political subdivision thereof from expending public moneys or making contributions to dispense a factual summary, which shall include arguments both for and against the proposal, on any issue of official concern before the electorate in the jurisdiction. Such summary shall not contain a conclusion or opinion in favor of or against any particular issue. As used herein, an issue of official concern shall be limited to issues that will appear on an election ballot in the jurisdiction.

(II) Nothing in this subsection (1) shall be construed to prevent an elected official from expressing a personal opinion on any issue.

(III) Nothing in this subsection (1) shall be construed as prohibiting an agency, department, board, division, bureau, commission, or council of the state or any political subdivision thereof from:

(A) Passing a resolution or taking a position of advocacy on any issue described in subparagraph (I) of paragraph (a) of this subsection (1); or

(C) Nothing in this subsection (1) shall be construed as prohibiting a member or an employee of an agency, department, board, division, bureau, commission, or council of the state or any political subdivision thereof from expending personal funds, making contributions, or using personal time to urge electors to vote in favor of or against any issue described in subparagraph (I) of paragraph (a) of this subsection (1).

(c) Publicly owned motor vehicles provided for the use of the chief executive of the state or a political subdivision;

(d) Publicly owned aircraft provided for the use of the chief executive of the state or of a political subdivision or the executive's family for security purposes; except that, if such use is, in whole or in part, for campaign purposes, the expenses relating to the campaign shall be reported and reimbursed pursuant to subsection (3) of this section.

(3) If any candidate who is also an incumbent inadvertently or unavoidably makes any expenditure which involves campaign expenses and official expenses, such expenditures shall be deemed a campaign expense only, unless the candidate, not more than ten working days after the such expenditure, files with the appropriate officer such information as the secretary of state may by rule require in order to differentiate between campaign expenses and official expenses. Editor's note: This section was contained in an article that was repealed and reenacted in 1996. Provisions of this section, as it existed in 1996, are similar to those contained in 1-45-116 as said section existed in 1995, the year prior to the repeal and reenactment of this article.

ANNOTATION

Annotator's note. Since § 1-45-117 is similar to § 1-45-116 as it existed prior to the 1997 repeal and reenactment of this article, relevant cases construing that provision have been included in the annotations to this section.

The purpose of this section is to prohibit the state government and its officials from spending public funds to influence the outcome of campaigns for political office or ballot issues. Colo. Common Cause v. Coffman, __ P.3d __ (Colo. App. 2003).

Moneys in fund administered by the Colorado compensation insurance authority that consisted primarily of premiums paid into the fund by employers constituted "public moneys" for purposes of this section. Denver Area Labor Fed'n v. Buckley, 924 P.2d 524 (Colo. 1996).

While the term "public moneys" is not defined, the all-inclusive language "from any source" indicates that the general assembly intended an expansive definition of the phrase. Thus, the term "public moneys" may not be construed to refer only to sums realized from the imposition of taxes. Denver Area Labor Fed'n v. Buckley, 924 P.2d 524 (Colo. 1996).

Although moneys collected by the political subdivision were not derived from state-imposed sales, use, property, or income taxes, those moneys may be spent by the political subdivision only for authorized public purposes. The general assembly has in essence declared that the expenditure of moneys in the fund for purposes prohibited by this section are not authorized expenditures for public purposes. Denver Area Labor Fed'n v. Buckley, 924 P.2d 524 (Colo. 1996).

This section prohibits the use of "public moneys from any source," not the use of "public funds". The general assembly thus selected a phrase not previously construed in seeking to limit the expenditure of funds by various governmental entities for certain purposes. Denver Area Labor Fed'n v. Buckley, 924 P.2d 524 (Colo. 1996).

This section tends to promote public confidence in government by prohibiting the use of moneys authorized for expenditure by political subdivisions for specified public purposes to advance the personal viewpoint of one group over another. A political subdivision's use of moneys that were authorized for expenditure for the benefit of an insured to oppose the passage of an amendment proposed by an insured is the type of conduct the general assembly intended to prohibit by the enactment of this section. Denver Area Labor Fed'n v. Buckley, 924 P.2d 524 (Colo. 1996).

What is of "official concern" to school district board of education is to be determined by reference to the official powers and duties delegated by the general assembly in the school laws. Mountain States Legal Foundation v. Denver School Dist. No. 1, 459 F. Supp. 357 (D. Colo. 1978).

A matter of official concern is one which at the very least involves questions which come before the officials for an official decision. Campbell v. Joint Dist. 28-J, 704 F.2d 501 (10th Cir. 1983).

Proposed constitutional amendment not of official concern. A proposed amendment to the state constitution on a general election ballot is not a matter of official concern. Campbell v. Joint Dist. 28-J, 704 F.2d 501 (10th Cir. 1983).

Not determined solely by board. The characterization of a campaign issue as being of "official concern" is not a judgment which can be made solely by the board of education; such an interpretation of this section would give unlimited discretion to the school board to use school funds and school facilities whenever it suited the personal preference of the majority of the members. Mountain States Legal Foundation v. Denver School Dist. No. 1, 459 F. Supp. 357 (D. Colo. 1978).

This section allows an employee with policy-making responsibility to expend public funds up to the $50 limit in expressing an opinion about a pending ballot issue. Regents of the Univ. of Colo. v. Meyer, 899 P.2d 316 (Colo. App. 1995).

State treasurer's press conference and press releases opposing a statewide ballot issue violated this section. The press releases were not balanced factual summaries of the ballot issue and were not resolutions because they were not formal expressions of a voting body. The state treasurer expended more than $50 in preparing the press releases and was not permitted to expend more than that to take a position of advocacy. Colo. Common Cause v. Coffman, ___ P.3d ___ (Colo. App. 2003).

Public school payroll deduction system for teachers' union dues, a portion of which was given by the union to a political action committee, did not constitute a "contribution in kind" because it did not support a specific "issue" or "candidate" that the political action committee supported or opposed during the time that the district made the payroll deductions. Mountain States v. Secretary of State, 946 P.2d 586 (Colo. App. 1997) (decided under law in effect prior to 1997 amendment).

1-45-118. Severability. If any provision of this article or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the article which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this article are declared to be severable.

3.7 Unexpended campaign contributions to local candidate committees may not be contributed to a state candidate committee.

4. Disclosure – Contributions and Expenditures

4.1 All committees must keep a record of all contributions. All contributions received of $20 or more during a reporting period shall be listed individually on the contribution and expenditure report. All other receipts and contributions under $20 may be reported in total as non-itemized contributions for the reporting period. [1-45-108(1)]

4.2 When filing an amended report of contributions and expenditures, a new form shall be completed that includes the cover page of the report of contributions and expenditures, the detailed summary page, and any updated schedules listing only the amended information. [C.R.S. 1-45-109(4)(b)]

a. A contribution is considered made or received as of the date that it is accepted by the committee or party. In the case of a contribution by check, the date accepted is the date that the check is deposited into the committee's or party's account.

b. However, for purposes of section 1-45-105.5, concerning contributions by lobbyists to certain state officers and candidates when legislation is under consideration, a contribution is considered made or promised when possession of the check is transferred to any person not under the control of the issuer.

4.4 All committees must keep a record of all expenditures. All expenditures made of $20 or more during a reporting period shall be listed individually on the contribution and expenditure report. All other expenditures under $20 during a reporting period may be reported in total as non-itemized expenditures. [1-45-108(1)]

American Constitutional Law Foundation, Inc., 520 U.S. 182, 119 S.Ct., 636 (1999), an issue committee that makes an expenditure of $20 or more in payment to a petition circulator is not required to disclose the name of the paid circulator. Instead, it is sufficient to list "payment to petition circulator" and the date and amount of the payment. [1-40-121(1)]
- 4.8 Candidate committees may share expenditures for costs of brochures, offices, office equipment, etc. if each candidate committee pays for its proportionate cost of the expense. If one candidate committee pays the entire cost, the reimbursement by the other candidate committee(s) shall be made within thirty (30) days. Such reimbursement is not a "contribution" from one committee to the other; it shall be reported as an expenditure by the reimbursing committee and as a returned expenditure by the reimbursed committee. If sharing expenditures results in a price discount based on volume or quantity, such discount shall not be considered a "contribution".
- 4.9 Any contributions received in excess of contribution limits shall be returned to the contributor within thirty (30) days.
- 4.10 If occupation and employer information as required by Article XXVIII, Section 7 is not provided, and the committee is unable to gather the information within 30 days after receipt of the contribution, the contribution shall be returned to the contributor no later than the 31st day after receipt.
- 4.11 The following rules relate to Article XXVIII, Section 3(3)(e), concerning the counting and reporting of unexpended campaign contributions retained for use in a subsequent election cycle.
 - a. A candidate committee shall not list such retained amounts expressly on disclosure reports as "contributions from a political party" or as contributions from any specific political party.
 - b. If the amount retained is less than the limit on contributions from a political party specified in Section 3(3)(d), then the total of all political party contributions to the candidate committee during the subsequent election cycle shall not exceed the difference between the amount retained and the limit on political party contributions. At such time as the total amount of all political party contributions to the candidate committee during the subsequent election cycle equals or exceeds the difference between the retained amount and the limit on political party contributions, then any subsequent or additional contribution by a political party to the candidate committee during the subsequent election cycle shall constitute a violation of Section 3(3)(d).

- 4.12 For purposes of complying with the requirement of Article XXVIII, Section 5, that a notice of independent expenditure include “a detailed description of the use of such independent expenditure”, such notice is sufficient if it includes an identification of the payee of the expenditure, the medium used for the communication, the date or dates for broadcast, delivery, or publication of the communication, and either the complete written text or transcript of the communication produced by the expenditure or a summary of the major points contained within the communication.
- 4.13 Article XXVIII, Section 6(2), concerning funding by corporations and labor organizations for electioneering communications, shall not apply to any corporation that:
- a. Was formed for the purpose of promoting political ideas and cannot engage in business activities;
 - b. Has no shareholders with a claim on its assets or other income; and
 - c. Was not established by, and does not accept contributions from business corporations or labor organizations.

- a. Membership organizations transferring a portion of a member’s dues to a small donor committee shall provide the small donor committee with the member’s name, address, amount of dues transferred, and the date of the dues transfer.
 - b. A small donor committee shall keep records of all contributions received in the form of membership dues transferred by a membership organization to the small donor committee. Such records shall include each contributing member’s name, address, and amount of the dues transferred. [C.R.S. 1-45-108(1)(a)(I)]
 - c. A small donor committee shall itemize and report the name and address of each person who has contributed $20 or more in a reporting period, including but not limited to contributions received in the form of membership dues transferred by a membership organization to the small donor committee. [C.R.S. 1-45-108(1)(a)]

- 5.2 Monthly reporting periods close five calendar days prior to the last day of the month. The report shall be filed on or before the first calendar day of the following month. - 5.5 Reports filed electronically.
- a. Reports filed electronically are due two days after the due date for reports filed manually, after taking into account any extension of the due date of a manually filed report because the filing deadline falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday. If the filing deadline for a report filed electronically falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, the deadline is not extended to the next business day. Reports filed electronically before midnight shall be considered filed on that day.
 - b. If the electronic filing system is unavailable for filing for a total of more than one hour after 4:00 p.m. on the due date for electronically filed reports, the secretary of state may extend the due date for an additional day. [1-45-108(2.3), 1-45-109(6)]

If the major elections for such special district occur at any other time, then reports shall be required only on the 21st day prior to, on the Friday prior to, and on the 30th day after the date of the regular election.
- 5.8 The reporting period for any report that is required to be filed with the county clerk and recorder shall close five calendar days prior to the date that the report is due.

- 5.9 For purposes of section 1-45-108(2)(d), which exempts a candidate committee for a former officeholder or person not elected to office from reporting if there is no change in the balance of funds maintained by such committee and if certain other conditions are met, a change in the balance of funds resulting solely from the accrual of interest or dividends to the account and/or the automatic deduction of periodic service fees does not subject such candidate committee to the reporting requirements of section 1-45-108, except that such candidate committee shall file an annual report for each calendar year not later than January 15th of the following year. Candidate committees that choose this option must notify, in writing, the appropriate filing officer of their intent. [1-45-108(2)(c) and (2)(d)]
