I. Registering Your Committee

Whether you are a candidate committee, issue committee, political party, small donor committee or political committee, you must register BEFORE accepting contributions or making expenditures. [C.R.S. 1-45-108(3)]

How do you identify your committee “type”? Ask yourself these questions:

1. Are two or more persons (including natural persons) involved?
2. Are you raising or spending money?

If you answered “Yes” to either of these questions, read Sec. 2 (Definitions) of Art. XXVIII to see if you meet the criteria. Electronic registration is available through the Secretary of State’s website; however, it may be helpful if you completely review Article XXVIII, C.R.S. Title 1, Article 45, and Campaign and Political Finance Rules prior to registration.

Next, let’s examine the different types of committees.

A. Candidate Committees

If you are a candidate, or working with others to financially support a specific candidate, begin by checking the definition of a CANDIDATE COMMITTEE to confirm that you meet the criteria. Next, review the following provisions governing CANDIDATE COMMITTEES. A candidate may have only one candidate committee at one time in any jurisdiction. Note: Candidates who do not accept contributions but spend their own funds must file disclosure reports itemizing all expenditures of $20 or more. Candidates who do not have a committee and accept no contributions or make no expenditures are not required to file. You may file a voluntary report in order to provide full disclosure to the public. Call your appropriate officer whenever you need assistance.

IX. Manual and Electronic Reporting

A. Manual Reporting

The Department of State currently has both manual and electronic filing options available. Pursuant to Campaign and Political Finance Rule 11, effective October 1, 2007 all filings where the Secretary of State is the appropriate filing officer which contain more than thirty (30) entries will be required to be submitted electronically. Filings containing thirty (30) entries or less may be submitted using manual forms.

Candidates and committees may apply for an exemption to this rule based on hardship or other good cause. Please review Rule 11 for more information.

As with all reporting, it is important that your record keeping procedures are as simple as possible. For current filers the following section will be a valuable refresher; for first-time filers, please thoroughly study the statutes on disclosure and reporting before you begin.

Disclosure requirements: Art. XXVIII, Sec. 7, and C.R.S. 1-45-108

Reporting requirements: Art. XXVIII, Sec. 8, and C.R.S. 1-45-109

Report of Contributions and Expenditures (Cover Page): This page is designed to provide contribution and expenditure totals and past/current balances at a glance and to verify the committee name and address, the current reporting period, report status (current or amended) and the current registered agent.

Tip 1: All requested information on the Cover Page is required by statute and, therefore, mandatory.

Tip 2: Committee information (name, address, etc.) shall be amended within five days of any change by filing an amended committee registration form with the appropriate authority (secretary of state, county clerk or municipal clerk). (Campaign and Political Finance Rule 3.1)

Tip 3: Only the registered agent may sign the report. (Campaign and Political Finance Rule 2.3) An exception is made for candidate committees, allowing either the candidate or the registered agent to sign. (Campaign and Political Finance Rule 2.2)

Tip 4: File contributions and expenditures for the reporting period indicated only.

Tip 5: When filing an amended report of contributions and expenditures, a new form should be completed that includes the cover page of the report, the Detailed Summary page and any updated Schedules listing only the amended information. (Campaign and Political Finance Rule 4.2)

Tip 6: Type or print legibly. Please, no fonts smaller than 12 pt.

Detailed Summary: The Detailed Summary gives filers an opportunity to bring forward the totals of all the individual contribution and expenditure pages. These totals then are brought forward to the “Report of Contributions and Expenditures”.

Tip 1: Do not include “Non-Monetary” totals on the Report of Contributions and Expenditures cover page.

Tip 2: Be sure to total all “Non-Itemized” amounts (contributions and expenditures under $20) on the detailed summary only if they have not been itemized on “Schedule A” or “Schedule B”.

Tip 3: Contribution and expenditure totals on the “Detailed Summary” should match totals on the “Report of Contributions and Expenditures” cover page.

Schedule A – Contributions: All monetary contributions of $20 or more are reported on this form. It also allows committees to track and report aggregate totals for all contributors. (It may help manual filers to keep internal contribution records in alphabetical order by contributor.) Be sure that you know the appropriate election cycle for your committee to ensure that you do not exceed contribution limits. Please consult Art. XXVIII Sec. 2(5), or with your appropriate elections official for clarification. Avoid relying on “hearsay” advice.

Tip 1: Do not report “Non-Monetary” amounts on Schedule A - monetary contributions. Use the “Statement of Non-Monetary Contributions” reporting form for this purpose.

Tip 2: Candidates, small donor committees, political parties and political committees cannot accept contributions from foreign citizens, corporations or governments. [Art. XXVIII, Sec. 3(12)]

Tip 3: A contribution made by check is considered “received” on the date the check is deposited into the committee account. Contributions by lobbyists to state officers and candidates are considered accepted “when possession of the check is transferred to any person not under the control of the issuer.” [Campaign and Political Finance Rule 4.3(a) and (b)]

Tip 4: For checks from natural persons the contributor is the person who signed the check.

Tip 5: State law prohibits making a contribution with the expectation that some or all will be reimbursed by another person. [Art. XXVIII, Sec. 3(11)]

Notice of Major Contributor: A Major Contributor Report is in addition to regular reporting requirements. All committees are required to file a major contributor report for contributions of $1,000. or more received within 30 days before the primary or general election. [C.R.S. 1-45-108(2.5)] This notice is file with the secretary of state.

Tip 1: Do not file “major contribution” reports for contributions of more than $1,000 received before the 30-day cut-off.

Tip 2: Contributions filed as “major contributions” should also be included on the Schedule A in the regular reports.

Schedule B – Expenditures: All expenditures of $20 or more per reporting period are itemized on this form. Expenditure also includes expenditures made by a third party on behalf of a candidate or committee.

Tip 1: Third-party expenditures are reported as non-monetary contributions.

Tip 2: Reimbursements to candidates, staff, and volunteers are reported as expenditures.

Schedule C - Loans: Candidates may receive loans from financial institutions, “if the loan bears the usual and customary interest rate...” [Article XXVIII, Sec. 3(8)]. This form gives committees a vehicle for reporting and tracking repayment until the loan is repaid in full.

Tip 1: Contribution limits shall not apply to loans from a financial institution. [Art. XXVIII, Sec. 3(8)]

Tip 2: Loans from a financial institution cannot be forgiven. [Art. XXVIII, Sec. 3(8)]

Tip 3: Loans made by a candidate to their own committee may be forgiven. [CPF Rule 4.5]

Schedule D - Returned Contributions & Expenditures: This form has been designed to accommodate both committees returning contributions and committees reporting returned contributions or expenditures. It should be filed with a Report of Contributions and Expenditures reflecting the revised totals and either Schedule A or Schedule B.

Tip 1: Amended reports with Returned Contribution statements may be filed at any time. They need not be held until the next filing date.

Statement of Non-Monetary Contributions: All non-monetary contributions are reported on this form. It also allows committees to track and report aggregate totals for all contributors. Be sure that you know the appropriate election cycle for your committee to ensure that you do not exceed contribution limits. Please consult with your appropriate officer for clarification.

Tip 1: Non-monetary contributions count against the contribution limits set forth in Art. XXVIII, Sec. 3.

Tip 2: Non-monetary contributions of one hundred dollars or more must list the occupation and employer of natural persons. [Art. XXVIII, Sec. 7, C.R.S. 1-45-108(a)(II)]

Notice of Independent Expenditure In Excess Of One Thousand Dollars: Any person making an independent expenditure of $1,000 or more must file the Notice of Independent Expenditure form. If the Independent Expenditure is made within thirty days of a primary or general election, the form must be filed within 48 hours after obligating funds for the expenditure. This notice is filed with the Secretary of State. (Art. XXVIII, Sec. 5)

Tip 1: Independent expenditures made by political parties and committees must still be reported on “Schedule B” within the correct reporting period.

Tip 2: Any expenditure made by a candidate committee or a candidate’s agent is not considered an “independent expenditure”. [Art. XXVIII, Sec. 2(9)]

Candidate Statement of Non-Receipt of Contributions or Non-Expenditures Funds: Candidates that accept no contributions and make no expenditures are not required to register a committee or file disclosure reports. Candidates, however, may wish to file this form to publicly disclose their “zero” contribution and expenditure status.

Tip 1: This filing is voluntary but may prevent the perception that a candidate has failed to file reports.

Statement of Personal Expenditures by a Candidate: Candidates who do not have a candidate committee and accept no contributions but prefer to expend only their own funds are required to disclose the amount of any expenditure. (Campaign and Political Finance Rule 4.14)

Tip 1: This filing is mandatory and may also prevent the perception that a candidate has failed to file reports.

Tip 2: This report is filed according to the same filing schedule as candidate committees.

Amended Reports: Whenever a committee becomes aware of an error in past reporting, the committee must amend the report as soon as possible by filing an “Amended Report of Contributions and Expenditures.”

Tip 1: If an error is identified in a previous report, all reports that follow must be amended to reflect the subsequent amended totals.

Tip 2: When amending a report, file only the first page of the Report of Contributions and Expenditures, the second page titled Detailed Summary Page, and any updated schedules listing only the amended information. (Campaign and Political Finance Rule 4.2)

B. Electronic Reporting – It's Quick and Easy!

The Secretary of State's Office introduced state committees to electronic campaign finance reporting in July 2000. Since that time, many committees have enjoyed the convenience of filing their reports directly, via the Internet.

Pursuant to Campaign and Political Finance Rule 11, effective October 1, 2007 all filings where the Secretary of State is the appropriate filing officer containing more than thirty (30) entries will be required to be submitted electronically. Filings containing thirty (30) entries or less may be submitted using manual forms. Candidates and committees may apply for an exemption to this rule based on hardship or other good cause. Please review Rule 11 for more information.

The Secretary of State's Office offers several ways to file electronically. Filers may use the standard online interface or may choose to utilize a bulk filing process by submitting disclosure reports in a specified format. For more information on bulk data filing, please visit the Campaign Finance page on the Secretary of State's website or contact one of our support team members.

In order to use the standard online interface, you will need to apply for a committee registration online. A user ID and password will then be generated and emailed to you. The Secretary of State generally issues the user ID and password within one business day of your registration.

Tip 1: Effective January 1, 2007, electronically filed reports are due the same day as manual reports. [C.R.S. 1-45-108(2.3)(b) and Campaign and Political Finance Rule 5.6 (b)]

Tip 2: Keep your e-mail address current with the Secretary of States office because confirmations of reports filed electronically are sent via E-mail. If you do not receive the electronic confirmation, please call the Campaign Finance Unit of the Elections Division at 303-894-2200.

C. Trouble Shooting - Electronic Challenges

Does the thought of electronic filing have you running for the hills? Don't put those sneakers on yet! Listed below are some common problems experienced by all levels of computer users. Before contacting your filing office try using the chart below. This may save you and your filing office valuable time.

Problem	Solution
User ID and or Password are not recognized	The User ID is not case sensitive; however the password is. Check and make sure you're using the correct case. If your User ID or password contains the letters L, O or I or the numbers one or zero make sure that the letters should be letters and not numbers or vice versa. A change in registered agent may have prompted a change in the user id and password. You may contact the designated election office to confirm your user id and password. The user id and password may only be given to the registered agent or candidate. You may be required to submit a written request to obtain this information for security measures.
Accessing the Web or the SOS Website	Can you get to other sites on the web? Check with your internet provider to make sure there is not a connectivity problem occurring with your provider. If using a dial-up modem and you have call waiting you may want to disable your call waiting during your internet use. Information on this process may be found in the information pages of your telephone book. From time to time we may upgrade portions of the Secretary of State's website. Upgrades do not always display a new or different look. If you have bookmarked the SOS website and do not update your bookmark periodically, you may be returning to an "old" version of the website. Try accessing the website without using your bookmark. Avoid using the Secretary of State's website during maintenance hours. Maintenance hours are 2:20 a.m. – 6:00 a.m. Monday – Friday and 2:20 a.m. – 6:00 a.m. Saturday and Sunday.

My report shows “past” or is not showing as filed; I can see the report link but cannot access it.	The last step to file an electronic report is to click on the action button “File My Report”. If this action is not completed, the report will not be filed and could cause the candidate or committee to miss a report filing deadline, resulting in penalties being assessed. In most cases, the report information has been saved and is just waiting to be filed. A report that has not been filed will prevent the user from filing the current or next report showing due until the previous report is filed. File the past report to access the current report. To request a waiver or reduction of late filing penalties, please review the waiver process section of this manual.
I did not receive an e-mail confirmation of electronic filing.	An outdated e-mail address may be to blame. As long as the candidate or committee maintains a current e-mail address with the appropriate election office you should receive, almost immediately, an e-mail confirming your electronic report filing. You may check the e-mail address on record by using the Committee Maintenance link. The Committee Maintenance screen allows you to update important information about the candidate or committee.

X. Waiver Process

If a state candidate, committee or party receives a penalty pursuant to Article XXVIII, Section 10 of the Colorado Constitution, that person or committee may submit a written request, addressed to the Secretary of State, explaining why a waiver or reduction in the penalty should be granted. The Secretary of State's office must receive the request no later than 30 days after the date the notice was mailed. Mail waiver requests to Colorado Secretary of State, Attn: Elections Division, 1700 Broadway, Suite 270, Denver, CO 80290.

The Secretary will review the requests and make a determination, at which time the candidate, committee or party will be notified in writing as to the outcome of their request. An invoice will accompany the letter if a penalty remains.

If a state candidate, committee or party does not agree with the determination made by the Secretary of State, they may appeal the decision by filing a complaint with the Secretary of State's office. The complaint will be forwarded to the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) for review. The last resort for appealing a penalty is the Court of Appeals.

Please review Article XXVIII, Sec. 9 and 10 for more detailed information about the complaint and appeals process.

XI. Terminating Your Committee

It is very important that committees terminate properly to end all filing requirements and avoid fines and penalties for non-reporting. A committee may only terminate by filing a Report of Contributions and Expenditures indicating a "zero" balance. The disbursement of unexpended campaign funds is unregulated for political parties, political committees and small donor committees; specific guidelines are given for candidate and issue committees. (C.R.S. 1-45-106)

Tip 1: A committee which has a loan cannot be terminated until the loan has been paid and the committee has reached a zero balance.

Tip 2: Inactive candidate committees must terminate after nine years.
[C.R.S. 1-45-106 (1)(a)(III)]

Tip 3: A federal committee may terminate their active status with the Secretary of State if the committee submits a letter of termination. A termination letter may be filed at any time. (Campaign and Political Finance Rule 3.2)

Anyone who believes that there have been intentional violations of the provisions listed in Art. XXVIII or Title 1, Article 45, C.R.S., may file a complaint with the Secretary of State. All complaints must be filed with the Secretary of State and are reviewed for strict compliance with the guidelines in Campaign and Political Finance Rule 6 and then forwarded to an administrative law judge for a hearing. Once a Campaign and Political Finance complaint has been submitted to the Office of Administrative Courts all subsequent communication, correspondence, pleadings, etc., must be directed to that office only. - Q: May lobbyists or principals of lobbyists contribute to a member of the General Assembly who is a candidate for office in a home rule city or county when the General Assembly is in session?
- A: Section 1-45-105.5, C.R.S. precludes lobbyists or principals of lobbyists from contributing to a member of the General Assembly who is a candidate for office in a home rule city or county when the General Assembly is in session.
- Q: May a political committee make a contribution to a member of the General Assembly while in session? And what if the political committee has a lobbyist?
- A: Political Committees may contribute to a legislator during the session, unless the political committee "employs, retains, engages, or uses, with or without compensation, a professional or volunteer lobbyist".
- Q: Does the prohibition on the receipt of campaign contributions from lobbyists while the Colorado General Assembly is in session apply to federal lobbyist or individuals who lobby in other states who are not registered as lobbyists with the Colorado Secretary of State?
- A: The prohibition on lobbyist contributions applies only to persons who are professional or volunteer lobbyists and who are subject to C.R.S. 24-6-301, etc. A note of caution: these individuals covered by the law could also be "federal" lobbyists or lobbyists subject to the laws of other states. In other words, "lobbyists" that do not lobby in Colorado are not covered. They do not try to influence members of the General Assembly, so the purpose behind the law does not apply to out-of-state lobbyists who do not lobby in Colorado.

Q: May corporations and labor organizations make direct contributions to “Small Donor” committees?

A: No, only their employees or members may make contributions to Small Donor Committees.

Q: How do “Small Donor” committees work?

A: Small Donor Committees are a form of political committee. The contribution limit from their supporters is lower than political committees at only $50 per natural person per year, but they may make larger contributions to candidates: $5,300* to Governor/Lt. Governor combined, Secretary of State, Attorney General, State Treasurer and $2,125* to State Senate, State House of Representatives, State Board of Education, CU Regent, District Attorney for the primary and general elections.

Q: May a Small Donor Committee transfer a portion of the Balance of Funds on Hand back to the Local Union for regular union expenditure use?

A: No

Q: May the transfer of membership dues from a membership organization to a small donor committee be excluded from the $50 limitation set forth in Section 2(14)(a) based upon the exclusive language contained in Section 2(5)(b), which states, that”...Contribution does not include...a transfer by a membership organization of a portion of a member’s dues to a small donor committee sponsored by such membership organization”?

A: The transfer, itself, of membership dues from a membership organization to a small donor committee is excluded from the $50 limitation set forth in Article XXVIII, Sec. 2(14)(a) of the Colorado Constitution based upon the exclusive language contained in Article XXVIII, Sec. 2(5)(b) of the Colorado Constitution. However, that portion of a member’s dues transferred from a small donor committee is considered a pro-rata contribution from the individual members to a small donor committee.

Q: Is a membership organization required to segregate the dues it receives from corporations from the dues it receives from natural persons?

A: Not if the dues received from corporations are for the membership dues of natural persons. If the dues are received from corporations for their own corporate memberships, then such dues must be segregated and cannot be transferred to a small donor committee.

* Contribution limits reflect adjustments made by CPF Rule 12 pursuant to Article XXVIII, Section 3(13) of the Colorado Constitution effective April 1, 2007.

- Q: May a membership organization transfer dues to a small donor committee paid to it by a member's corporation on behalf of one or more individual members?
- A: Yes. The dues transferred by such membership organization to the small donor committee sponsored by such organization will be treated as pro-rata contributions from the individual members whose portion of membership dues was transferred. It is not considered to be a contribution from the corporation paying the member's dues, but rather a contribution from the member.
- Q: How does a small donor committee list a membership transfer from a membership organization since they are not contributions?
- A: If a small donor committee (SDC) receives $20 or more in dues and other contributions from any individual during a reporting period; the small donor committee should list each such individual. The total amount received from each individual that totals less the $20 during a reporting period should be reported as a non-itemized contribution as one entry from the membership organization with the description of "dues transfer". The membership organization must provide to the small donor committee a list of the members and the amount of dues transferred for each member and the small donor committee must keep that list for audit purposes to be sure that individuals do not exceed the $50 per year contribution limit.
- Q: May a candidate make a contribution to a (Federal) 527 organization from the candidate's candidate committee?
- A: No. Candidate committees are formed to support the nomination or election of a candidate to a state or local office: 527 organizations are allowed to support issues as well as candidates. They are not limited to solely supporting the candidate from whom they received the contribution. Therefore, this type of contribution is not allowed. Any such contributions made by a candidate committee to a 527 organization must be returned to the candidate committee.
- Q: Unexpended campaign contributions for candidate committees are allowed to be used for Political Issue Education under C.R.S. 1-45-106(II). May a candidate committee contribute unexpended campaign contributions to (Federal) 527 organizations for political issue education?
- A: No. 527 organizations may support or oppose a wide variety of issues. Political Issue Education [as referred to in C.R.S. 1-45-106(II)] is issue education that is personal to the candidate. In other words, political issue education is to be limited to specifically educating the elected official on legislative issues directly affecting their constituents or the elected official educating his/her constituents about the elected official or legislative issues directly affecting those constituents.

* All major party candidates may accept contributions for the primary and general election. Minor party candidates who appear on a primary election ballot may accept contributions for the primary and general elections. Unaffiliated and minor party candidates who do not appear on a primary election ballot may only accept contributions for the general election. The Governor and Lt. Governor are considered one committee and the contribution and spending limits for governor apply to the joint committee.

Contribution limits double for a candidate who has accepted voluntary spending limits if his or her opponent has not accepted the voluntary spending limits and has raised more than 10 percent of the spending limit. Contributions from a political party are based on a candidate's election cycle and cannot be doubled.

Contributions to a candidate committee by the candidate are counted as political party contributions when a candidate accepts voluntary spending limits. Any unexpended campaign contributions which are carried forward to a subsequent election cycle are also counted as a political party contribution.

C. State Voluntary Spending Limits Guide

Please note that there is nothing in Article XXVIII of the Colorado Constitution or Title 1, Article 45 of the Colorado Revised Statutes addressing voluntary spending limits for county or municipal candidates. Please contact your county clerk and recorder or municipal clerk to see if your county or municipality has spending limit guidelines or restrictions.

VOLUNTARY SPENDING LIMITS

This chart reflects the voluntary spending limits as adjusted by CPF Rule 12 pursuant to Article XXVIII, Section 4(7) of the Colorado Constitution effective April 1, 2007.

Political Party contribution limits cannot be doubled.

COLORADO CONSTITUTION
ARTICLE XXVIII
(Amendment 27)

Campaign and Political Finance

Section 1. Purpose and findings. The people of the state of Colorado hereby find and declare that large campaign contributions to political candidates create the potential for corruption and the appearance of corruption; that large campaign contributions made to influence election outcomes allow wealthy individuals, corporations, and special interest groups to exercise a disproportionate level of influence over the political process; that the rising costs of campaigning for political office prevent qualified citizens from running for political office; that because of the use of early voting in Colorado timely notice of independent expenditures is essential for informing the electorate; that in recent years the advent of significant spending on electioneering communications, as defined herein, has frustrated the purpose of existing campaign finance requirements; that independent research has demonstrated that the vast majority of televised electioneering communications goes beyond issue discussion to express electoral advocacy; that political contributions from corporate treasuries are not an indication of popular support for the corporation's political ideas and can unfairly influence the outcome of Colorado elections; and that the interests of the public are best served by limiting campaign contributions, encouraging voluntary campaign spending limits, providing for full and timely disclosure of campaign contributions, independent expenditures, and funding of electioneering communications, and strong enforcement of campaign finance requirements.

Section 2. Definitions. For the purpose of this Article and any statutory provisions pertaining to campaign finance, including provisions pertaining to disclosure:

(1) "Appropriate officer" means the individual with whom a candidate, candidate committee, political committee, small donor committee, or issue committee must file pursuant to section 1-45-109 (1), C.R.S., or any successor section.

(2) "Candidate" means any person who seeks nomination or election to any state or local public office that is to be voted on in this state at any primary election, general election, school district election, special district election, or municipal election. "Candidate" also includes a judge or justice of any court of record who seeks to be retained in office pursuant to the provisions of section 25 of article VI. A person is a candidate for election if the person has publicly announced an intention to seek election to public office or retention of a judicial office and thereafter has received a contribution or made an expenditure in support of the candidacy. A person remains a candidate for purposes of this Article so long as the candidate maintains a registered candidate committee. A person who maintains a candidate committee after an election cycle, but who has not publicly announced an intention to seek election to public office in the next or any subsequent election cycle, is a candidate for purposes of this article.

(3) "Candidate committee" means a person, including the candidate, or persons with the common purpose of receiving contributions or making expenditures under the authority of a candidate. A contribution to a candidate shall be deemed a contribution to the candidate's candidate committee. A candidate shall have only one candidate committee. A candidate committee shall be considered open and active until affirmatively closed by the candidate or by action of the secretary of state.

(4) "Conduit" means a person who transmits contributions from more than one person, directly to a candidate committee. "Conduit" does not include the contributor's immediate family members, the candidate or campaign treasurer of the candidate committee receiving the contribution, a volunteer fund raiser hosting an event for a candidate committee, or a professional fund raiser if the fund raiser is compensated at the usual and customary rate.

(5) (a) "Contribution" means:

(I) The payment, loan, pledge, gift, or advance of money, or guarantee of a loan, made to any candidate committee, issue committee, political committee, small donor committee, or political party;

(II) Any payment made to a third party for the benefit of any candidate committee, issue committee, political committee, small donor committee, or political party;

(III) The fair market value of any gift or loan of property made to any candidate committee, issue committee, political committee, small donor committee or political party;

(IV) Anything of value given, directly or indirectly, to a candidate for the purpose of promoting the candidate's nomination, retention, recall, or election.

(b) "Contribution" does not include services provided without compensation by individuals volunteering their time on behalf of a candidate, candidate committee, political committee, small donor committee, issue committee, or political party; a transfer by a membership organization of a portion of a member's dues to a small donor committee or political committee sponsored by such membership organization; or payments by a corporation or labor organization for the costs of establishing, administering, and soliciting funds from its own employees or members for a political committee or small donor committee.

(6) "Election cycle" means either:

(a) The period of time beginning thirty-one days following a general election for the particular office and ending thirty days following the next general election for that office;

(b) The period of time beginning thirty-one days following a general election for the particular office and ending thirty days following the special legislative election for that office; or

(c) The period of time beginning thirty-one days following the special legislative election for the particular office and ending thirty days following the next general election for that office.

(7) (a) "Electioneering communication" means any communication broadcasted by television or radio, printed in a newspaper or on a billboard, directly mailed or delivered by hand to personal residences or otherwise distributed that:

(I) Unambiguously refers to any candidate; and

(II) Is broadcasted, printed, mailed, delivered, or distributed within thirty days before a primary election or sixty days before a general election; and

(II) Any editorial endorsements or opinions aired by a broadcast facility not owned or controlled by a candidate or political party;

(III) Any communication by persons made in the regular course and scope of their business or any communication made by a membership organization solely to members of such organization and their families;

(IV) Any communication that refers to any candidate only as part of the popular name of a bill or statute.

(8) (a) "Expenditure" means any purchase, payment, distribution, loan, advance, deposit, or gift of money by any person for the purpose of expressly advocating the election or defeat of a candidate or supporting or opposing a ballot issue or ballot question. An expenditure is made when the actual spending occurs or when there is a contractual agreement requiring such spending and the amount is determined.

(b) "Expenditure" does not include:

(I) Any news Articles, editorial endorsements, opinion or commentary writings, or letters to the editor printed in a newspaper, magazine or other periodical not owned or controlled by a candidate or political party;

(II) Any editorial endorsements or opinions aired by a broadcast facility not owned or controlled by a candidate or political party;

(9) "Independent expenditure" means an expenditure that is not controlled by or coordinated with any candidate or agent of such candidate. Expenditures that are controlled by or coordinated with a candidate or candidate's agent are deemed to be both contributions by the maker of the expenditures, and expenditures by the candidate committee.

(10) (a) "Issue committee" means any person, other than a natural person, or any group of two or more persons, including natural persons:

(I) That has a major purpose of supporting or opposing any ballot issue or ballot question; or

(II) That has accepted or made contributions or expenditures in excess of two hundred dollars to support or oppose any ballot issue or ballot question.

(b) "Issue committee" does not include political parties, political committees, small donor committees, or candidate committees as otherwise defined in this section.

(11) "Person" means any natural person, partnership, committee, association, corporation, labor organization, political party, or other organization or group of persons.

(12) (a) "Political committee" means any person, other than a natural person, or any group of two or more persons, including natural persons that have accepted or made contributions or expenditures in excess of $200 to support or oppose the nomination or election of one or more candidates.

(b) "Political committee" does not include political parties, issue committees, or candidate committees as otherwise defined in this section.

(I) All political committees established, financed, maintained, or controlled by a single corporation or its subsidiaries;

(II) All political committees established, financed, maintained, or controlled by a single labor organization; except that, any political committee established, financed, maintained, or controlled by a local unit of the labor organization which has the authority to make a decision independently of the state and national units as to which candidates to support or oppose shall be deemed separate from the political committee of the state and national unit;

(III) All political committees established, financed, maintained, or controlled by the same political party;

(IV) All political committees established, financed, maintained, or controlled by substantially the same group of persons.

(13) "Political party" means any group of registered electors who, by petition or assembly, nominate candidates for the official general election ballot. "Political party" includes affiliated party organizations at the state, county, and election district levels, and all such affiliates are considered to be a single entity for the purposes of this Article, except as otherwise provided in section 7.

(14) (a) "Small donor committee" means any political committee that has accepted contributions only from natural persons who each contributed no more than fifty dollars in the aggregate per year. For purposes of this section, dues transferred by a membership organization to a small donor committee sponsored by such organization shall be treated as pro-rata contributions from individual members.

(b) "Small donor committee" does not include political parties, political committees, issue committees, or candidate committees as otherwise defined in this section.

(c) For the purposes of this Article, the following are treated as a single small donor committee:

(I) All small donor committees established, financed, maintained, or controlled by a single corporation or its subsidiaries;

(II) All small donor committees established, financed, maintained, or controlled by a single labor organization; except that, any small donor committee established, financed, maintained, or controlled by a local unit of the labor organization which has the authority to make a decision independently of the state and national units as to which candidates to support or oppose shall be deemed separate from the small donor committee of the state and national unit;

(III) All small donor committees established, financed, maintained, or controlled by the same political party;

(IV) All small donor committees established, financed, maintained, or controlled by substantially the same group of persons.

(15) "Unexpended campaign contributions" means the balance of funds on hand in any candidate committee at the end of an election cycle, less the amount of all unpaid monetary obligations incurred prior to the election in furtherance of such candidacy.

Editor's note: (1) This section was contained in an article that was repealed and reenacted in 1996. Provisions of this section, as it existed in 1996, are similar to those contained in 1-45-103 as said section existed in 1995, the year prior to the repeal and reenactment of this article.

(2) (a) Subsection (4) of section 1 of article V of the state constitution provides that initiated and referred measures shall take effect from and after the official declaration of the vote thereon by the proclamation of the Governor. The measure enacting article XXVIII of the state constitution takes effect upon proclamation of the vote by the Governor. The Governor's proclamation was issued on December 20, 2002. However section 13 of the measure enacting article XXVIII of the state constitution provides that the effective date of article XXVIII is December 6, 2002.

(b) This section was repealed by an initiated measure that was adopted by the people in the general election held November 5, 2002. Section 12 of article XXVIII provides for the repeal of this section. For the text of the initiative and the vote count, see Session Laws of Colorado 2003, p. 3609.

(3) Section 4 of chapter 289, Session Laws of Colorado 2007, provides that the act enacting subsections (6)(c), (14.5), and (16.5) applies to the portion of any election cycle or for the portion of the calendar year remaining after July 1, 2007, and for any election cycle or calendar year commencing after July 1, 2007, whichever is applicable.

ANNOTATION

Annotator's note. Since § 1-45-103 is similar to § 1-45-103 as it existed prior to its repeal in 2002, relevant cases construing that provision and its predecessors have been included in the annotations to this section.

It is apparent from the plain language of subsection (2) that a candidate committee may be comprised of one person only and that the candidate acting alone may be a candidate committee. Thus, a candidate committee who acts alone for the purpose of receiving campaign contributions or making campaign expenditures is a candidate committee subject to the disclosure requirements of this article. Therefore, the expenditures made by a candidate from the candidate's personal funds before certification of his or her committee were either contributions to the ultimately certified candidate committee or expenditures by a separate campaign committee composed of the candidate alone. Hlavec v. Davidson, 64 P.3d 881 (Colo. App. 2002) (decided under section that was repealed by article XXVIII of the state constitution).

Court's interpretation of the term "candidate committee" to include expenditures of personal money by the candidate on his or her campaign does not limit the amount of money a candidate could personally spend on his or her campaign in violation of the first amendment. The act does not specifically address whether a candidate's personal expenditures are contributions. However, in light of Buckley v. Valeo, 424 U.S. 1 (1976), the court holds that the definition of "contribution" contained in subsection (4) does not include a candidate's expenditures of personal funds and contributions made by the candidate to his or her own candidate committee. Accordingly, the court rejected candidate's first amendment argument. Hlavec v. Davidson, 64 P.3d 881 (Colo. App. 2002) (decided under section that was repealed by article XXVIII of the state constitution).

Phrases unconstitutional. The phrase in subsection (7), "which unambiguously refer to any specific public office or candidate for such office, but does not include expenditures made by persons, other than political parties and political committees, in the regular course and scope of their business and political messages sent solely to their members[.]" is unconstitutional under the first amendment. Citizens for Responsible Gov't State Political Action Comm. v. Davidson, 236 F.3d 1174 (10th Cir. 2000).

The phrase in subsection (11), "or which unambiguously refers to such candidate[.]" is unconstitutional under the first amendment. Citizens for Responsible Gov't State Political Action Comm. v. Davidson, 236 F.3d 1174 (10th Cir. 2000).

The court concluded that the unconstitutional phrases were severable and declared subsections (7) and (11) invalid only insofar as they reach beyond that which may constitutionally be regulated. Citizens for Responsible Gov't State Political Action Comm. v. Davidson, 236 F.3d 1174 (10th Cir. 2000).

Term "independent expenditure" in subsection (7) permits the regulation of only those expenditures that are used for communications that expressly advocate the election or defeat of a clearly identified candidate. This standard includes the words and phrases listed in Buckley v. Valeo, 424 U.S. 1 (1976), and other substantially similar or synonymous words. This approach remains focused on actual words, as contrasted with images, symbols, or other contextual factors, provides adequate notice in light of due process concerns, and strikes an appropriate balance between trying to preserve the goals of campaign finance reform and protecting political speech. League of Women Voters v. Davidson, 23 P.3d 1266 (Colo. App. 2001).

None of the advertisements of so-called educational committee at issue amounted to "express advocacy" as that term is applied in Buckley and progeny and, therefore, so-called educational committee was not subject to the requirements of the Fair Campaign Practices Act. League of Women Voters v. Davidson, 23 P.3d 1266 (Colo. App. 2001).

The term "issue" in subsection (8) includes an initiative that has gone through the title-setting process, but has not been formally certified for the election ballot. To construe the term to include only measures actually placed on the ballot would frustrate the purposes of the Campaign

Reform Act by allowing groups to raise and spend money, without limit and without disclosure to the public, to convince electors to sign or not to sign a particular petition, thus significantly influencing its success or failure. Colo. for Family Values v. Meyer, 936 P.2d 631 (Colo. App. 1997).

Telephone opinion poll was not "electioneering" and thus did not constitute an "electioneering communication" within the meaning of subsection (9) of this section and § 6 of article XXVIII of the state constitution. In giving effect to the intent of the electorate, court gives term "communication" its plain and ordinary meaning. Court relies upon dictionary definitions of "communication" that contemplate imparting a message to, rather than having mere contact with, another party. In reviewing scripts used by telephone opinion pollster, "communication" occurred because "facts, information, thoughts, or opinions" were "imparted, transmitted, interchanged, expressed, or exchanged" by pollster to those it called. Telephone opinion pollster, therefore, communicated information to members of the electorate during its opinion poll. Harwood v. Senate Majority Fund, LLC, 141 P.3d 962 (Colo. App. 2006).

Telephone opinion poll, however, did not satisfy meaning of electioneering. Colorado electorate intended article XXVIII to regulate communication that expresses "electorate advocacy" and tends to "influence the outcome of Colorado elections". This conclusion is reinforced by plain and ordinary meaning of term "electioneering". Court relies upon dictionary definitions suggesting that "electioneering" is defined by such activities as taking an active part in an election campaign, campaigning for one's own election, or trying to sway public opinion especially by the use of propaganda and that "campaigning" means influencing the public to support a particular candidate, ticket, or measure. Here, telephone opinion poll did not seek to influence voters or sway public opinion but instead merely asked neutral questions to collect data and measure public opinion. Accordingly, telephone opinion poll did not constitute an "electioneering communication" under subsection (9) of this section and article XXVIII of the state constitution. Harwood v. Senate Majority Fund, LLC, 141 P.3d 962 (Colo. App. 2006).

The term "issue committee" covers only those issue committees that were formed for the purpose of supporting or opposing a ballot initiative. An association that was formed and operated for purposes other than "accepting contributions or making expenditures to support or oppose any ballot issue or ballot question" does not become an "issue committee" as defined in this section if, at a future point in time, it engages in those activities with regard to a specific ballot issue or ballot question. Common Sense Alliance v. Davidson, 995 P.2d 748 (Colo. 2000).

A "political committee" is formed when two or more persons associate themselves with the original purpose of making independent expenditures. Citizens for Responsible Gov't State Political Action Comm. v. Davidson, 236 F.3d 1174 (10th Cir. 2000).

The term "political committee" in subsection (10) includes a for-profit corporation which makes contributions, contributions in kind, or expenditures to or on behalf of state political campaigns out of its ordinary corporate treasury. Therefore, such corporation is required to file a statement of organization, to report its contributions, contributions in kind, and expenditures, and otherwise to comply with any filing and reporting requirements of the "Campaign Reform Act of 1974". Colo. Common Cause v. Meyer, 758 P.2d 153 (Colo. 1988) (decided prior to 1988 amendment to subsection (10)).

While the stated purposes for the formation of an organization may be one criterion upon which to determine whether it is a "political committee", such purposes are not conclusive. To so hold would permit regulable conduct to escape regulation merely because the stated purposes were misleading, ambiguous, fraudulent, or all three. In addition, such a holding would exalt form over substance and would almost entirely eviscerate the Fair Campaign Practices Act and make a mockery of legitimate attempts at campaign finance reform. League of Women Voters v. Davidson, 23 P.3d 1266 (Colo. App. 2001).

The use of the disjunctive term "or" in subsection (11) renders the definition of "political message" applicable to messages that "unambiguously refer to a candidate", even if such messages do not also "advocate the election or defeat" of that candidate. Citizens for Responsible Gov't State Political Action Comm. v. Davidson, 236 F.3d 1174 (10th Cir. 2000).

To qualify as a political message under subsection (11), a message need only: (1) Be delivered by telephone, any print or electronic media, or other written material, and (2) either (a) advocate the election or defeat of any candidate or (b) unambiguously refer to such candidate. Citizens for Responsible Gov't State Political Action Comm. v. Davidson, 236 F.3d 1174 (10th Cir. 2000).

Voter guides that unambiguously refer to specific candidates but do not expressly advocate the election or defeat of any candidate constitute "political messages" as defined in subsection (11). Therefore, the funds expended to produce and disseminate the voter guides are subject to regulation as "independent expenditures" as the term is defined in subsection (7). Citizens for Responsible Gov't State Political Action Comm. v. Davidson, 236 F.3d 1174 (10th Cir. 2000).

Administrative law judge (ALJ) did not err in concluding that definition of "expenditures" did not apply to metropolitan district boards. Respondents had argued that the metropolitan districts qualified as "persons" that could expend payments on behalf of issue committee supporting ballot issue. Even if the definition of "person" could be stretched to cover political subdivisions of the state such as metropolitan districts, respondents failed to explain how the payments at issue were "made with the prior knowledge and consent of an agent" of the issue committee that was not yet formed in order to bring such payments within the definition of "expenditure". Skruch v. Highlands Ranch Metro. Dists., 107 P.3d 1140 (Colo. App. 2004).

ALJ did not err by interpreting "expenditure" to occur when a payment is made and when there is a contractual agreement and the amount is determined.

The use of the disjunctive "or" in the definition of "expenditure" indicates that an expenditure is made if either criterion is met after the ballot title is submitted. Skruch v.

Highlands Ranch Metro. Dists., 107 P.3d 1140 (Colo. App. 2004).

1-45-103.7. Contribution limits - definitions. (1) Nothing in article XXVIII of the state constitution or this article shall be construed to prohibit a corporation or labor organization from making a contribution to a political committee.

(2) A political committee may receive and accept moneys contributed to such committee by a corporation or labor organization pursuant to subsection (1) of this section for disbursement to a candidate committee or political party without depositing such moneys in an account separate from the account required to be established for the receipt and acceptance of all contributions by all committees or political parties in accordance with section 3 (9) of article XXVIII of the state constitution.

(3) A candidate committee may accept:

(a) The aggregate contribution limit specified in section 3 (1) of article XXVIII of the state constitution for a primary election at any time after the date of the primary election in which the candidate in whose name the candidate committee is accepting contributions is on the primary election ballot; or

(b) The aggregate contribution limit specified in section 3 (1) of article XXVIII of the state constitution for a general election at any time prior to the date of the primary election in which the candidate in whose name the candidate committee is accepting contributions is on the primary election ballot.

(4) A candidate committee may expend contributions received and accepted for a general election prior to the date of the primary election in which the candidate in whose name the candidate committee is accepting contributions is on the primary election ballot. A candidate committee established in the name of a candidate who wins the primary election may expend contributions received and accepted for a primary election in the general election.

(5) (a) No limited liability company shall make any contribution to a candidate committee or political party if one or more of the individual members of the limited liability company is:

(I) A corporation;

(II) A labor organization;

(III) A natural person who is not a citizen of the United States;

(IV) A foreign government;

(V) A professional lobbyist, volunteer lobbyist, or the principal of a professional or volunteer lobbyist, and the contribution is prohibited under section 1-45-105.5 (1); or

(VI) Otherwise prohibited by law from making the contribution.

(b) No limited liability company shall make any contribution to a political committee if one or more of the individual members of the limited liability company is:

(I) An entity formed under and subject to the laws of a foreign country;

(II) A natural person who is not a citizen of the United States; or

(III) A foreign government.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of this subsection (5), no limited liability company shall make any contribution to a candidate committee or political party if either the limited liability company has elected to be treated as a corporation by the internal revenue service pursuant to 26 CFR 301.7701-3 or any successor provision or the shares of the limited liability company are publicly traded. A contribution by a limited liability company with a single natural person member that does not elect to be treated as a corporation by the internal revenue service pursuant to 26 CFR 301.7701-3 shall be attributed only to the single natural person member.

(d) (I) Any limited liability company that is authorized to make a contribution shall, in writing, affirm to the candidate committee, political committee, or political party to which it has made a contribution, as applicable, that it is authorized to make a contribution, which affirmation shall also state the names and addresses of all of the individual members of the limited liability company. No candidate committee, political committee, or political party shall accept a contribution from a limited liability company unless the written affirmation satisfying the requirements of this paragraph (d) is provided before the contribution is deposited by the candidate committee, political committee, or political party. The candidate committee, political committee, or political party receiving the contribution shall retain the written affirmation for not less than one year following the date of the end of the election cycle during which the contribution is received.

(II) Any contribution by a limited liability company, and the aggregate amount of contributions from multiple limited liability companies attributed to a single member of any such company under this subparagraph (II), shall be subject to the limits governing such contributions under section 3 of article XXVIII of the state constitution. A limited liability company that makes any contribution to a candidate committee, political committee, or political party shall, at the time it makes the contribution, provide information to the recipient committee or political party as to how the contribution is to be attributed among the members of the limited liability company. The limited liability company shall then attribute the contribution to its members against the aggregate contribution limit applicable to multiple limited liability companies under this subparagraph (II); except that the aggregate amount of contributions from multiple limited liability companies attributed to a single member shall not exceed the contribution limits in section 3 of article XXVIII of the state constitution. Nothing in this subparagraph (II) shall be construed to restrict a natural person from making a contribution in his or her own name to any committee or political party to the extent authorized by law.

(6) No foreign corporation shall be permitted to make any contribution under article XXVIII of the state constitution or this article that a domestic corporation is prohibited from making under article XXVIII of the state constitution or this article.

(7) (a) Any person who believes that a violation of subsection (5) or (6) of this section has occurred may file a written complaint with the secretary of state no later than one hundred eighty days after the date of the alleged violation. The complaint shall be subject to all applicable procedures specified in section 9 (2) of article XXVIII of the state constitution.

(b) Any person who has violated any of the provisions of paragraph (a), (b), or (c) of subsection (5) or subsection (6) of this section shall be subject to a civil penalty of at least double and up to five times the amount contributed or received in violation of the applicable provision.

(c) Any person who has violated any of the provisions of subparagraph (I) of paragraph (d) of subsection (5) of this section shall be subject to a civil penalty of fifty dollars per day for each day that the written affirmation regarding the membership of a limited liability company has not been filed with or retained by the candidate committee, political committee, or political party to which a contribution has been made.

(8) As used in this section, "limited liability company" includes any form of domestic entity as defined in section 7-90-102 (13), C.R.S., or foreign entity as defined in section 7-90-102 (23), C.R.S.; except that, as used in this section, "limited liability company" shall not include a domestic corporation, a domestic cooperative, a domestic nonprofit association, a domestic nonprofit corporation, a foreign corporation, a foreign cooperative, a foreign nonprofit association, or a foreign nonprofit corporation, as those terms are defined in section 7-90-102, C.R.S.

Court's interpretation of the term "candidate committee" to include expenditures of personal money by the candidate on his or her campaign does not limit the amount of money a candidate could personally spend on his or her campaign in violation of the first amendment. The act does not specifically address whether a candidate's personal expenditures are contributions. However, in light of Buckley v. Valeo, 424 U.S. 1 (1976), the court holds that the definition of "contribution" does not include a candidate's expenditures of personal funds and contributions made by the candidate to his or her own candidate committee. Accordingly, the court rejected candidate's first amendment argument. Hlavec v. Davidson, 64 P.3d 881 (Colo. App. 2002) (decided under section that was repealed by article XXVIII of the state constitution).

1-45-105.5. Contributions to members of general assembly and governor during consideration of legislation. (1) (a) No professional lobbyist, volunteer lobbyist, or principal of a professional lobbyist or volunteer lobbyist shall make or promise to make a contribution to, or solicit or promise to solicit a contribution for:

(I) A member of the general assembly or candidate for the general assembly, when the general assembly is in regular session;

(II) (A) The governor or a candidate for governor when the general assembly is in regular session or when any measure adopted by the general assembly in a regular session is pending before the governor for approval or disapproval; or

(B) The lieutenant governor, the secretary of state, the state treasurer, the attorney general, or a candidate for any of such offices when the general assembly is in regular session.

(b) As used in this subsection (1):

(I) "Principal" means any person that employs, retains, engages, or uses, with or without compensation, a professional or volunteer lobbyist. One does not become a principal, nor may one be considered a principal, merely by belonging to an organization or owning stock in a corporation that employs a lobbyist.

(II) The terms "professional lobbyist" and "volunteer lobbyist" shall have the meanings ascribed to them in section 24-6-301, C.R.S.

(c) (I) Nothing contained in this subsection (1) shall be construed to prohibit lobbyists and their principals from raising money when the general assembly is in regular session or when regular session legislation is pending before the governor, except as specifically prohibited in paragraph (a) of this subsection (1).

(II) Nothing contained in this subsection (1) shall be construed to prohibit a lobbyist or principal of a lobbyist from participating in a fund-raising event of a political party when the general assembly is in regular session or when regular session legislation is pending before the governor, so long as the purpose of the event is not to raise money for specifically designated members of the general assembly, specifically designated candidates for the general assembly, the governor, or specifically designated candidates for governor.

(III) A payment by a lobbyist or a principal of a lobbyist to a political party to participate in such a fund-raising event shall be reported as a contribution to the political party pursuant to section 1-45-108; except that, if the lobbyist or principal of a lobbyist receives a meal in return for a portion of the payment, only the amount of the payment in excess of the value of the meal shall be considered a contribution to the political party. The political party shall determine the value of the meal received for such payment, which shall approximate the actual value of the meal.

(IV) A gift of a meal described in subparagraph (III) of this paragraph (c) by a lobbyist or a principal of a lobbyist to an incumbent in or a candidate elected to any office described in paragraph (a) of this subsection (1) shall be reported as follows:

(A) The lobbyist shall report the value of the meal in the lobbyist disclosure statement filed pursuant to section 24-6-302, C.R.S.

(B) The incumbent or candidate shall report the value of the meal in the public official disclosure statement filed pursuant to section 24-6-203, C.R.S.

1-45-106. Unexpended campaign contributions. (1) (a) (I) Subject to the requirements of section 3 (3) (e) of article XXVIII of the state constitution, unexpended campaign contributions to a candidate committee may be:

(A) Contributed to a political party;

(B) Contributed to a candidate committee established by the same candidate for a different public office, subject to the limitations set forth in section 1-45-105.3 (4) (b) and (c), if the candidate committee making such a contribution is affirmatively closed by the candidate no later than ten days after the date such a contribution is made;

(C) Donated to a charitable organization recognized by the internal revenue service;

(D) Returned to the contributors, or retained by the committee for use by the candidate in a subsequent campaign.

(II) In no event shall contributions to a candidate committee be used for personal purposes not reasonably related to supporting the election of the candidate.

(III) A candidate committee for a former officeholder or a person not elected to office shall expend all of the unexpended campaign contributions retained by such candidate committee, for the purposes specified in this subsection (1), no later than nine years from the date such officeholder's term expired or from the date of the election at which such person was a candidate for office, whichever is later.

(b) In addition to any use described in paragraph (a) of this subsection (1), a person elected to a public office may use unexpended campaign contributions held by the person's candidate committee for any of the following purposes:

(I) Voter registration;

(II) Political issue education, which includes obtaining information from or providing information to the electorate;

(III) Postsecondary educational scholarships;

(IV) To defray reasonable and necessary expenses related to mailings and similar communications to constituents;

(V) Any expenses that are directly related to such person's official duties as an elected official, including, but not limited to, expenses for the purchase or lease of office equipment and supplies, room rental for public meetings, necessary travel and lodging expenses for legislative education such as seminars, conferences, and meetings on legislative issues, and telephone and pager expenses.

(2) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2000, p. 123, § 4, effective March 15, 2000.)

(3) Unexpended contributions to an issue committee may be donated to any charitable organization recognized by the Internal Revenue Service or returned to the contributor.

(4) This section shall apply to unexpended campaign contributions transferred from a political committee formed prior to January 15, 1997, to a candidate committee registering after January 15, 1997, pursuant to section 1-45-108.

(5) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any unexpended campaign contributions retained by a candidate committee for use in a subsequent election cycle shall be counted and reported as contributions from a political party in any subsequent election in accordance with the requirements of section 3 (3) (e) of article XXVIII of the state constitution.

ANNOTATION

Subsection (2) is constitutional. The state's interest in preventing avoidance of valid contribution limits by use of funds carried over from prior campaigns is both compelling and served by the restriction set forth in subsection (2). This provision is narrowly tailored to accomplish the state's legitimate interest. Citizens for Responsible Gov't State Political Action Comm. v. Buckley, 60 F. Supp.2d 1066 (D. Colo. 1999).

Candidate's disclosure report not required to report unexpended campaign funds at the end of an election cycle as contributions from a political party. To accomplish the purpose of subsection (5), it is necessary only that a candidate committee report the amount of unexpended campaign funds on hand at the end of an election cycle. To report money already on hand as a fictional, new contribution from an unidentified political party would artificially inflate the amount of funds reportedly available to a candidate committee and would be confusing to those who read the report. Williams v. Teck, 113 P.3d 1255 (Colo. App. 2005).

Candidate committee permitted to use unexpended contributions to pay elected state senator's legal fees. Although legal fees are not specifically mentioned as permissible expenses under subsection (1)(b)(V), the words "including, but not limited to," indicate that the statute merely illustrates the kinds of expenses that may be regarded as directly related to an elected official's duties. Here, the legal fees may properly be characterized as directly related to official duties of elected state senator. The senator's duties include filing periodic reports with the secretary of state, and the fees were reasonably necessary to demonstrate that senator and his or her committee had properly performed this duty. Williams v. Teck, 113 P.3d 1255 (Colo. App. 2005).

1-45-107. Independent expenditures. (Repealed)

Source: Initiated 96: Entire article R&RE, effective upon proclamation of the Governor, January 15, 1997. Initiated 2002: Entire section repealed, effective upon proclamation of the Governor, December 20, 2002; however section 13 of the initiated measure repealing this section provides that the effective date of this section is December 6, 2002.

Editor's note: (1) Prior to its repeal, this section was contained in an article that was repealed and reenacted in 1996. Provisions of this section, as it existed in 1996, are similar to those contained in 1-45-110.5 as said section existed in 1995, the year prior to the repeal and reenactment of this article.

(2) (a) Subsection (4) of section 1 of article V of the state constitution provides that initiated and referred measures shall take effect from and after the official declaration of the vote thereon by the proclamation of the Governor. The measure enacting article XXVIII of the state constitution takes effect upon proclamation of the vote by the Governor. The Governor's proclamation was issued on December 20, 2002. However, section 13 of the measure enacting article XXVIII of the state constitution provides that the effective date of article XXVIII is December 6, 2002.

(b) This section was repealed by an initiated measure that was adopted by the people in the general election held November 5, 2002. Section 12 of article XXVIII provides for the repeal of this section. For the text of the initiative and the vote count, see Session Laws of Colorado 2003, p. 3609.

1-45-108. Disclosure. (1) (a) (I) All candidate committees, political committees, issue committees, small donor committees, and political parties shall report to the appropriate officer their contributions received, including the name and address of each person who has contributed twenty dollars or more; expenditures made, and obligations entered into by the committee or party.

(II) In the case of contributions made to a candidate committee, political committee, issue committee, and political party, the disclosure required by this section shall also include the occupation and employer of each person who has made a contribution of one hundred dollars or more to such committee or party.

(III) Any person who expends one thousand dollars or more per calendar year on electioneering communications shall report to the secretary of state, in accordance with the disclosure required by this section, the amount expended on the communications and the name and address of any person that contributes more than two hundred fifty dollars per year to the person expending one thousand dollars or more on the communications. If the person making such contribution of two hundred fifty dollars or more is a natural person, the disclosure required by this section shall also include the person's occupation and employer.

(b) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2003, p. 2158, § 3, effective June 3, 2003.)

(c) A candidate committee in a special district election shall not be required to file reports under this section until the committee has received contributions or made expenditures exceeding twenty dollars in the aggregate.

(d) For purposes of this section, a political party shall be treated as a separate entity at the state, county, district, and local levels.

(e) A candidate's candidate committee may reimburse the candidate for expenditures the candidate has made on behalf of the candidate committee. Any such expenditures may be reimbursed at any time. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any expenditure reimbursed to the candidate by the candidate's candidate committee within the election cycle during which the expenditure is made shall be treated only as an expenditure and not as a contribution to and an expenditure by the candidate's candidate committee. Notwithstanding the date on which any such expenditure is reimbursed, the expenditure shall be reported at the time it is made in accordance with the requirements of this section.

(2) (a) (I) Except as provided in subsections (2.5), (2.7), and (6) of this section, such reports that are required to be filed with the secretary of state shall be filed:

(A) Quarterly in off-election years no later than the fifteenth calendar day following the end of the applicable quarter;

(B) On the first Monday in July and on each Monday every two weeks thereafter before the primary election;

(C) On the first day of each month beginning the sixth full month before the major election; except that no monthly report shall be required on the first day of the month in which the major election is held;

(D) On the first Monday in September and on each Monday every two weeks thereafter before the major election;

(E) Thirty days after the major election in election years; and

(F) Fourteen days before and thirty days after a special legislative election held in an off-election year.

(II) Such reports that are required to be filed with the county clerk and recorder or with the municipal clerk shall be filed on the twenty-first day and on the Friday before and thirty days after the primary election, where applicable, and the major election in election years and annually in off-election years on the first day of the month in which the anniversary of the major election occurs.

(III) For purposes of this section, "election year" means every even numbered year for political parties and political committees and each year in which the particular candidate committee's candidate, or issue committee's issue, appears on the ballot; and "major election" means the election that decides an issue committee's issue and the election that elects a person to the public office sought by the candidate committee's candidate.

(IV) If the reporting day falls on a weekend or legal holiday, the report shall be filed by the close of the next business day.

(b) The reports required by this section shall also include the balance of funds at the beginning of the reporting period, the total of contributions received, the total of expenditures made during the reporting period, and the name and address of the financial institution used by the committee or party.

(c) All reports filed with the secretary of state pursuant to this subsection (2) shall be for the reporting periods established pursuant to rules promulgated by the secretary of state in accordance with article 4 of title 24, C.R.S.

(d) A candidate committee for a former officeholder or a person not elected to office that has no change in the balance of funds maintained by such committee, receives no contributions, makes no expenditures, and enters into no obligations during a reporting period shall not be required to file a report under this section for such period.

(e) The reporting period for all reports required to be filed with the county clerk and recorder or with the municipal clerk shall close five calendar days prior to the effective date of filing.

(2.3) Repealed.

(2.5) In addition to any report required to be filed with the secretary of state under this section, all candidate committees, political committees, issue committees, and political parties shall file a report with the secretary of state of any contribution of one thousand dollars or more at any time within thirty days preceding the date of the primary election or general election. This report shall be filed with the secretary of state no later than twenty-four hours after receipt of said contribution.

(2.7) Any candidate or candidate committee supporting any candidate, including an incumbent, in a recall election, shall file reports of contributions and expenditures with the appropriate officer fourteen and seven days before the recall election and thirty days after the recall election.

(3) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (3.5) of this section, all candidate committees, political committees, issue committees, small donor committees, and political parties shall register with the appropriate officer before accepting or making any contributions. Registration shall include a statement listing:

- (a) The organization's full name, spelling out any acronyms used therein;
- (b) A natural person authorized to act as a registered agent;
- (c) A street address and telephone number for the principle place of operations;
- (d) All affiliated candidates and committees;
- (e) The purpose or nature of interest of the committee or party;
- (f) Any intent of the candidate committee, political committee, issue committee, small donor committee, or political party to electronically file reports required by this article that may be filed electronically on a web site operated and maintained by the secretary of state pursuant to section 1-45-109.

(3.5) Any political committee that has registered with the federal election commission may file with the appropriate officer a copy of the registration filed with the federal election commission and, insofar as such registration contains substantially the same information required by subsection (3) of this section, the political committee shall be considered to have registered with the appropriate officer for purposes of subsection (3) of this section and, therefore, shall be authorized to accept or make contributions as permitted by law. Any political committee that satisfies the requirements of this subsection (3.5) shall be subject to all other legal requirements pertaining to contributions and disclosure that are applicable to political committees.

(4) For purposes of subsection (3) of this section, a political committee in existence on January 1, 1997, shall register with the secretary of state on or before April 1, 1997, pursuant to the requirements of this act.

(5) The registration and reporting requirements of this section shall not apply to that part of the organizational structure of a political party which is responsible for only the day-to-day operations of such political party at the national level if copies of the reports required to be filed with the Federal Election Commission pursuant to the "Federal Election Commission Act of 1971", as amended, are filed with the secretary of state and include the information required by this section.

(6) Any issue committee whose purpose is the recall of any elected official shall file a committee registration with the appropriate officer within ten business days of receiving its first contribution. Reports of contributions and expenditures shall be filed with the appropriate officer within fifteen days of the filing of the committee registration and every thirty days thereafter until the date of the recall election has been established and then fourteen days and seven days before the recall election and thirty days following the recall election.

ANNOTATION

Law reviews. For article, "Campaign Finance and 527 Organizations: Keeping Big Money in Politics", see 34 Colo. Law. 71 (July 2005).

Under subsection (1)(a), candidate committees must disclose all expenditures and obligations, even if no contributions are received. Thus, if a candidate runs without a separate committee and finances the campaign from personal funds, the candidate is a candidate committee and must disclose expenditures and obligations as required by subsection (1)(a). Nothing in subsection (1)(a) indicates that expenditures must be reported only if drawn on outside contributions. Hlavec v. Davidson, 64 P.3d 881 (Colo. App. 2002).

Here, both candidate and the candidate committee made expenditures under the authority of the candidate. Thus, both the candidate and the committee were candidate committees or the candidate was acting through the formed committee. In either instance, the expenditures were subject to the disclosure requirements of subsection (1)(a). Hlavec v. Davidson, 64 P.3d 881 (Colo. App. 2002).

Act is neither unconstitutionally vague nor unconstitutionally overbroad. As to candidate's vagueness argument, court finds that act provides sufficient notice to persons of ordinary intelligence that expenditures, regardless of the source of the funds, must be reported. As to candidate's arguments that act is unconstitutionally overbroad and inhibits basic first amendment freedoms, court finds that, construed to preserve its constitutionality, the act does not inhibit a candidate's expenditures of personal funds so long as those expenditures are made through a candidate committee and reported in accordance with this section. Hlavec v. Davidson, 64 P.3d 881 (Colo. App. 2002).

Candidate's disclosure report not required to report unexpended campaign funds at the end of an election cycle as contributions from a political party. It is necessary only that a candidate committee report the amount of unexpended campaign funds on hand at the end of an election cycle. To report money already on hand as a fictional, new contribution from an unidentified political party would artificially inflate the amount of funds reportedly available to a candidate committee and would be confusing to those who read the report. Williams v. Teck, 113 P.3d 1255 (Colo. App. 2005).

1-45-108.5. Political organizations - disclosure. (1) Any political organization shall report to the appropriate officer in accordance with the requirements of sections 1-45-108 and 1-45-109:

(a) Any contributions it receives, including the name and address of each person who has contributed twenty dollars or more to the political organization in the reporting period, and the occupation and employer of each natural person who has made a contribution of one hundred dollars or more to the political organization; and

(b) Any spending by the political organization that exceeds twenty dollars in any one reporting period.

(2) No political organization shall accept a contribution, or undertake spending, in currency or coin exceeding one hundred dollars.

(3) Nothing in this section shall be construed to:

(a) Require any political organization to make any additional disclosure pursuant to this section to the extent the political organization is already providing disclosure as a committee or political party in a manner that satisfies the requirements of sections 1-45-108 and 1-45-109; or

(b) Authorize the secretary of state to require disclosure of the name of any natural person that is a member of an entity unless the natural person has made a contribution to a political organization in the amount of twenty dollars or more in a reporting period.

Editor's note: Section 4 of chapter 289, Session Laws of Colorado 2007, provides that the act enacting this section applies to the portion of any election cycle or for the portion of the calendar year remaining after July 1, 2007, and for any election cycle or calendar year commencing after July 1, 2007, whichever is applicable.

1-45-109. Filing - where to file - timeliness. (1) For the purpose of meeting the filing and reporting requirements of this article, candidates for state wide office, the general assembly, district attorney, district court judge, or any office representing more than one county, except candidates for school district director; the candidate committees for such candidates; political committees in support of or in opposition to such candidates; issue committees in support of or in opposition to an issue on the ballot in more than one county; small donor committees making contributions to such candidates; and persons expending one thousand dollars or more per calendar year on electioneering communications shall file with the secretary of state. Candidates in municipal elections, their candidate committees, any political committee in support of or in opposition to such candidate, an issue committee supporting or opposing a municipal ballot issue, and small donor committees making contributions to such candidates shall file with the municipal clerk. Candidates in special district elections, except candidates for director of the regional transportation district; the candidate committees of such candidates; political committees in support of or in opposition to such candidates; issue committees supporting or opposing a special district ballot issue; and small donor committees making contributions to such candidate shall file with the clerk and recorder of the county in which the district court having jurisdiction over the special district pursuant to section 32-1-303, C.R.S., is located. All other candidates, candidate committees, issue committees, political committees, and small donor committees shall file with the county clerk and recorder of the county of their residence. However, a report required to be filed with a county clerk and recorder shall be deemed properly filed if filed electronically pursuant to subsection (8) of this section.

(2) (a) Reports required to be filed by this article are timely if received by the appropriate officer not later than the close of business on the due date. Reports may be filed by fax and are timely if received by the appropriate officer not later than the close of business on the due date only if an original of the report is received by the appropriate officer within seven days of the due date.

(b) A person upon whom a penalty has been imposed for failure to file a statement or other information required to be filed pursuant to section 5, 6, or 7 of article XXVIII of the state constitution or section 1-45-108, this section, or section 1-45-110 by the due date may appeal the penalty by filing a written appeal with the appropriate officer no later than thirty days after the date on which notification of the imposition of the penalty was mailed to the person's last-known address. Upon receipt of an appeal pursuant to this paragraph (b), the appropriate officer shall set aside or reduce the penalty upon a showing of good cause.

(3) In addition to any other reporting requirements of this article, every incumbent in public office and every candidate elected to public office is subject to the reporting requirements of section 24-6-203 C.R.S.

(4) (a) All reports required to be filed by this article are public records and shall be open to inspection by the public during regular business hours. A copy of the report shall be kept by the appropriate officer and a copy shall be made available immediately in a file for public inspection.

(b) Any report that is deemed to be incomplete by the appropriate officer shall be accepted on a conditional basis and the committee or party treasurer shall be notified by mail as to any deficiencies found. If an electronic mail address is on file with the secretary of state, the secretary of state may also provide such notification by electronic mail. The committee or party treasurer shall have seven business days from the date of mailing such notice to file an addendum that cures the deficiencies.

(5) (a) The secretary of state shall operate and maintain a website so as to allow any person who wishes to review reports filed with the secretary of state's office or with a county clerk and recorder pursuant to this article electronic read-only access to such reports free of charge.

(b) All reports required to be filed by this article that are electronically filed pursuant to subsection (6) of this section shall be made available immediately on the website.

(c) The website shall enable a user to produce summary reports based on search criteria that shall include, but not be limited to the reporting period, date, name of the person making a contribution or expenditure, candidate, and committee.

(d) At the earliest practicable date, the secretary of state shall develop and implement improvements to the website's design and structure to improve the public's ability to navigate, search, browse, download, and analyze information. Such improvements shall include but need not be limited to:

(I) Enhanced searching and summary reporting, including additional search fields such as zip code, employer, and vendor, the ability to search across multiple committees and all filers, the ability to filter or limit searches, such as by election cycle or candidate, the inclusion of smart-search features such as "name sounds like" or "name contains", and numerical totaling of amounts shown on search results;

(II) Features that facilitate the ability to download raw data and search results in one or more common formats to enable offline sorting and analyzing;

(III) Detailed, technical instructions for users;

(IV) Information to help users determine the scope of candidates' and committees' reports and campaign data available online, including explanations of which types of reports are available, the period covered by the online data, and which specific reports can be viewed for each campaign committee; and

(V) Resources that give the public comparative context when viewing campaign finance data, such as compilations of the total amounts of money raised and spent by individual candidates, lists of total amounts raised and spent by all statewide and legislative candidates, and compilations of fundraising and spending across candidates and election cycles.

(e) The secretary of state may promulgate rules necessary for the implementation of this subsection (5). Such rules shall be promulgated in accordance with article 4 of title 24, C.R.S.

(6) (a) The secretary of state shall establish, operate, and maintain a system that enables electronic filing using the internet of the reports required by this article to be filed with the secretary of state's office or with a county clerk and recorder. The rules for use of the electronic filing system shall be promulgated by the secretary of state in accordance with article 4 of title 24, C.R.S.

(b) In addition to any other method of filing, any person required to file with the secretary of state's office or with a county clerk and recorder may use the electronic filing system described in paragraph (a) of this subsection (6) in order to meet the filing requirements of this article. Where a person uses such electronic filing system to meet the filing requirements of this article, the secretary of state shall acknowledge by electronic means the receipt of such filing.

(7) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2007, p. 1296, § 1, effective July 1, 2007.)

(8) (a) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2007, p. 1296, § 1, effective July 1, 2007.)

(b) (I) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2007, p. 1296, § 1, effective July 1, 2007.)

(II) Each county clerk and recorder shall use the electronic filing system described in subsection (6) of this section to transmit any report filed with the county clerk and recorder to the secretary of state.

(III) A county clerk and recorder shall transmit any report to be transmitted to the secretary of state pursuant to subparagraph (II) of this paragraph (b) as quickly as practicable. The county clerk and recorder shall convert any report that is not electronically filed into electronic format before transmitting the report to the secretary of state.

(c) (I) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2007, p. 1296, § 1, effective July 1, 2007.)

(II) Any person required to file reports with a county clerk and recorder pursuant to this article may meet the filing requirements by using the electronic filing system described in subsection (6) of this section.

(9) Subsections (1) and (8) of this section shall not be construed to require the secretary of state to review reports electronically filed by persons required to file reports with a county clerk and recorder pursuant to this article or to impose any enforcement duties upon the secretary of state beyond the duties specified in section 9 of article XXVIII of the state constitution.

ANNOTATION

Administrative law judge (ALJ) correctly dismissed appellants' agency appeal under § 10 (2)(b)(I) of article XXVIII of the state constitution for lack of subject matter jurisdiction. No question that appellants were required to file reports with secretary of state under subsection (1) of this section once appellant-candidate became a candidate for the general assembly. This does not mean, however, appellants acquired right to appeal penalty to secretary of state. Report at issue was filed not in connection with appellant-candidate's candidacy for the general assembly but solely in connection with position as a county commissioner. Thus, ALJ correctly determined that, for purposes of report and penalty at issue, appellants were persons required to file appeal with county clerk and recorder, not with secretary of state. Sullivan v. Bucknam, 140 P.3d 330 (Colo. App. 2006).

Although appellants could have been required to file a report with the secretary of state in certain circumstances, those circumstances were not present in instant case. Appellants do not qualify as persons required to file with secretary of state under § 10 (2)(b)(I) of article XXVIII of the state constitution for purposes of underlying action merely because they could have been required to so file in other circumstances. Sullivan v. Bucknam, 140 P.3d 330 (Colo. App. 2006).

1-45-110. Candidate affidavit - disclosure statement. (1) When any individual becomes a candidate, such individual shall certify, by affidavit filed with the appropriate officer within ten days, that the candidate is familiar with the provisions of this article; except that an individual who is a candidate in a special legislative election that filed a candidate affidavit for the preceding general election shall not be required to comply with the provisions of this section, and except that a candidate in a special district election shall file the candidate affidavit or, alternatively, a copy of the candidate's self-nomination and acceptance form or letter submitted in accordance with section 32-1-804.3, C.R.S., if such form or letter contains a statement that the candidate is familiar with the provisions of this article, no later than the date established for certification of the special district's ballot pursuant to section 1-5-203 (3) (a). A candidate in a municipal election may comply with this section by filing a candidate affidavit pursuant to section 31-10-302 (6), C.R.S., if such affidavit contains a statement that the candidate is familiar with the provisions of this article.

(2) (a) Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection, each candidate for the general assembly, governor, lieutenant governor, attorney general, state treasurer, secretary of state, state board of education, regent of the University of Colorado, and district attorney shall file a statement disclosing the information required by section 24-6-202 (2) with the appropriate officer, on a form approved by the secretary of state, within ten days of filing the affidavit required by subsection (1) of this section.

(b) No candidate listed in paragraph (a) of this subsection shall be required to file another disclosure statement if the candidate had already filed such a statement less than ninety days prior to filing the affidavit required by subsection (1) of this section.

(3) Failure of any person to file the affidavit or disclosure statement required under this section shall result in the disqualification of such person as a candidate for the office being sought. Disqualification shall occur only after the appropriate officer has sent a notice to the person by certified mail, return receipt requested, addressed to the person's residence address. The notice shall state that the person will be disqualified as a candidate if the person fails to file the appropriate document within five business days of receipt of the notice.

(4) Any disclosure statement required by subsection (2) of this section shall be amended no more than thirty days after any termination or acquisition of interests as to which disclosure is required.

(5) If a person is defeated as a candidate or withdraws from the candidacy, that person shall not be required to comply with the provisions of this section after the withdrawal or defeat.

Editor's note: (1) This section was contained in an article that was repealed and reenacted in 1996. Provisions of this section, as it existed in 1996, are similar to those contained in 1-45-113 and 1-45-114 as said sections existed in 1995, the year prior to the repeal and reenactment of this article.

(2) (a) Subsection (4) of section 1 of article V of the state constitution provides that initiated and referred measures shall take effect from and after the official declaration of the vote thereon by the proclamation of the Governor. The measure enacting article XXVIII of the state constitution takes effect upon proclamation of the vote by the Governor. The Governor's proclamation was issued on December 20, 2002. However, section 13 of the measure enacting article XXVIII of the state constitution provides that the effective date of article XXVIII is December 6, 2002.

(b) This section was repealed by an initiated measure that was adopted by the people in the general election held November 5, 2002. Section 12 of article XXVIII provides for the repeal of this section. For the text of the initiative and the vote count, see Session Laws of Colorado 2003, p. 3597.

1-45-111.5. Duties of the secretary of state - enforcement. (1) The secretary of state shall promulgate such rules, in accordance with article 4 of title 24, C.R.S., as may be necessary to enforce and administer any provision of this article.

(2) A party in any action brought to enforce the provisions of article XXVIII of the state constitution or of this article shall be entitled to the recovery of the party's reasonable attorney fees and costs from any attorney or party who has brought or defended the action, either in whole or in part, upon a determination by the office of administrative courts that the action, or any part thereof, lacked substantial justification or that the action, or any part thereof, was interposed for delay or harassment or if it finds that an attorney or party unnecessarily expanded the proceeding by other improper conduct, including, but not limited to, abuses of discovery procedures available under the Colorado rules of civil procedure. For purposes of this subsection (2), "lacked substantial justification" means substantially frivolous, substantially groundless, or substantially vexatious.

ANNOTATION

District court did not abuse its discretion by entering preliminary injunction against secretary of state enjoining implementation of administrative rule defining "member" for purposes of constitutional provisions governing small donor committees. Proposed rule would force labor and other covered organizations to get written permission before using an individual's dues or contributions to fund political campaigns. Plaintiffs demonstrated reasonable probability of success on the merits in challenging secretary's authority to enact proposed rule. Secretary's "definition" of term "member" in proposed rule is much more than an effort to define term. It can be read effectively to add, modify, and conflict with constitutional provision by imposing new condition not found in text of article XXVIII. Secretary's stated purpose in enacting proposed rule not furthered by "definition" contained in proposed rule. Proposed rule does not further secretary's stated goal of achieving transparency of political contributions. Sanger v. Dennis, 148 P.3d 404 (Colo. App. 2006).

Plaintiffs demonstrated reasonable probability of success on the merits in alleging that administrative rule promulgated by secretary of state violated their constitutional rights to freedom of association as applied to them. Secretary's immediate enforcement of administrative rule forcing labor and other covered organizations to get written permission before using an individual's dues or contributions to fund political campaigns would have effectively prevented plaintiffs from exercising their first amendment rights in general election. Administrative rule was not narrowly tailored. Rationale justifying administrative rule was based upon speculation there would be dissenters, thereby impermissibly penalizing constitutional rights of the many for the speculative rights of the few. Accordingly, district court did not abuse its discretion by entering preliminary injunction against implementation of administrative rule. Sanger v. Dennis, 148 P.3d 404 (Colo. App. 2006).

1-45-117. State and political subdivisions - limitations on contributions. (1) (a) (I) No agency, department, board, division, bureau, commission, or council of the state or any political subdivision thereof shall make any contribution in campaigns involving the nomination, retention, or election of any person to any public office, nor shall any such entity expend any public moneys from any source, or make any contributions, to urge electors to vote in favor of or against any:

(A) State-wide ballot issue that has been submitted for the purpose of having a title designated and fixed pursuant to section 1-40-106 (1) or that has had a title designated and fixed pursuant to that section;

(B) Local ballot issue that has been submitted for the purpose of having a title fixed pursuant to section 31-11-111 or that has had a title fixed pursuant to that section;

(C) Referred measure, as defined in section 1-1-104 (34.5);

(D) Measure for the recall of any officer that has been certified by the appropriate election official for submission to the electors for their approval or rejection.

(II) However, a member or employee of any such agency, department, board, division, bureau, commission, or council may respond to questions about any such issue described in subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (a) if the member, employee, or public entity has not solicited the question. A member or employee of any such agency, department, board, division, bureau, commission, or council who has policy-making responsibilities may expend not more than fifty dollars of public moneys in the form of letters, telephone calls, or other activities incidental to expressing his or her opinion on any such issue described in subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (a).

(b) (I) Nothing in this subsection (1) shall be construed as prohibiting an agency, department, board, division, bureau, commission, or council of the state, or any political subdivision thereof from expending public moneys or making contributions to dispense a factual summary, which shall include arguments both for and against the proposal, on any issue of official concern before the electorate in the jurisdiction. Such summary shall not contain a conclusion or opinion in favor of or against any particular issue. As used herein, an issue of official concern shall be limited to issues that will appear on an election ballot in the jurisdiction.

(II) Nothing in this subsection (1) shall be construed to prevent an elected official from expressing a personal opinion on any issue.

(III) Nothing in this subsection (1) shall be construed as prohibiting an agency, department, board, division, bureau, commission, or council of the state or any political subdivision thereof from:

(A) Passing a resolution or taking a position of advocacy on any issue described in subparagraph (I) of paragraph (a) of this subsection (1); or

(B) Reporting the passage of or distributing such resolution through established, customary means, other than paid advertising, by which information about other proceedings of such agency, department, board, division, bureau, or council of the state or any political subdivision thereof is regularly provided to the public.

(C) Nothing in this subsection (1) shall be construed as prohibiting a member or an employee of an agency, department, board, division, bureau, commission, or council of the state or any political subdivision thereof from expending personal funds, making contributions, or using personal time to urge electors to vote in favor of or against any issue described in subparagraph (I) of paragraph (a) of this subsection (1).

(2) The provisions of subsection (1) of this section shall not apply to:

(a) An official residence furnished or paid for by the state or a political subdivision;

(b) Security officers who are required to accompany a candidate or the candidate's family;

(c) Publicly owned motor vehicles provided for the use of the chief executive of the state or a political subdivision;

(d) Publicly owned aircraft provided for the use of the chief executive of the state or of a political subdivision or the executive's family for security purposes; except that, if such use is, in whole or in part, for campaign purposes, the expenses relating to the campaign shall be reported and reimbursed pursuant to subsection (3) of this section.

(3) If any candidate who is also an incumbent inadvertently or unavoidably makes any expenditure which involves campaign expenses and official expenses, such expenditures shall be deemed a campaign expense only, unless the candidate, not more than ten working days after the such expenditure, files with the appropriate officer such information as the secretary of state may by rule require in order to differentiate between campaign expenses and official expenses. Such information shall be set forth on a form provided by the appropriate officer. In the event that public moneys have been expended for campaign expenses and for official expenses, the candidate shall reimburse the state or political subdivision for the amount of money spent on campaign expenses.

Editor's note: This section was contained in an article that was repealed and reenacted in 1996. Provisions of this section, as it existed in 1996, are similar to those contained in 1-45-116 as said section existed in 1995, the year prior to the repeal and reenactment of this article.

Annotator's note. Since § 1-45-117 is similar to § 1-45-116 as it existed prior to the 1997 repeal and reenactment of this article, relevant cases construing that provision have been included in the annotations to this section.

The purpose of this section is to prohibit the state government and its officials from spending public funds to influence the outcome of campaigns for political office or ballot issues. Colo. Common Cause v. Coffman, 85 P.3d 551 (Colo. App. 2003), aff'd, 102 P.3d 999 (Colo. 2004).

This section must be strictly construed. It is an established principle that statutes regarding the use of public funds to influence the outcome of elections are strictly construed. Coffman v. Colo. Common Cause, 102 P.3d 999 (Colo. 2004).

Moneys in fund administered by the Colorado compensation insurance authority that consisted primarily of premiums paid into the fund by employers constituted "public moneys" for purposes of this section. Denver Area Labor Fed'n v. Buckley, 924 P.2d 524 (Colo. 1996).

While the term "public moneys" is not defined, the all-inclusive language "from any source" indicates that the general assembly intended an expansive definition of the phrase. Thus, the term "public moneys" may not be construed to refer only to sums realized from the imposition of taxes. Denver Area Labor Fed'n v. Buckley, 924 P.2d 524 (Colo. 1996).

Although moneys collected by the political subdivision were not derived from state-imposed sales, use, property, or income taxes, those moneys may be spent by the political subdivision only for authorized public purposes. The general assembly has in essence declared that the expenditure of moneys in the fund for purposes prohibited by this section are not authorized expenditures for public purposes. Denver Area Labor Fed'n v. Buckley, 924 P.2d 524 (Colo. 1996).

This section prohibits the use of "public moneys from any source," not the use of "public funds". The general assembly thus selected a phrase not previously construed in seeking to limit the expenditure of funds by various governmental entities for certain purposes. Denver Area Labor Fed'n v. Buckley, 924 P.2d 524 (Colo. 1996).

This section tends to promote public confidence in government by prohibiting the use of moneys authorized for expenditure by political subdivisions for specified public purposes to advance the personal viewpoint of one group over another. A political subdivision's use of moneys that were authorized for expenditure for the benefit of an insured to oppose the passage of an amendment proposed by an insured is the type of conduct the general assembly intended to prohibit by the enactment of this section. Denver Area Labor Fed'n v. Buckley, 924 P.2d 524 (Colo. 1996).

What is of "official concern" to school district board of education is to be determined by reference to the official powers and duties delegated by the general assembly in the school laws. Mountain States Legal Found. v. Denver Sch. Dist. No. 1, 459 F. Supp. 357 (D. Colo. 1978).

A matter of official concern is one which at the very least involves questions which come before the officials for an official decision. Campbell v. Joint Dist. 28-J, 704 F.2d 501 (10th Cir. 1983).

Proposed constitutional amendment not of official concern. A proposed amendment to the state constitution on a general election ballot is not a matter of official concern. Campbell v. Joint Dist. 28-J, 704 F.2d 501 (10th Cir. 1983).

Not determined solely by board. The characterization of a campaign issue as being of "official concern" is not a judgment which can be made solely by the board of education; such an interpretation of this section would give unlimited discretion to the school board to use school funds and school facilities whenever it suited the personal preference of the majority of the members. Mountain States Legal Found. v. Denver Sch. Dist. No. 1, 459 F. Supp. 357 (D. Colo. 1978).

This section allows an employee with policy-making responsibility to expend public funds up to the $50 limit in expressing an opinion about a pending ballot issue. Regents of the Univ. of Colo. v. Meyer, 899 P.2d 316 (Colo. App. 1995).

Paid staff time is a contribution in kind for purposes of this section. Time spent by the state treasurer's staff during work hours on a non-volunteer basis preparing and disseminating press releases expressing the state treasurer's opposition to a statewide ballot issue therefore violated this section to the extent that the value of that time exceeded $50. Coffman v. Colo. Common Cause, 102 P.3d 999 (Colo. 2004).

State treasurer's press conference and press releases opposing a statewide ballot issue violated this section. The press releases were not balanced factual summaries of the ballot issue and were not resolutions because they were not formal expressions of a voting body. The state treasurer expended more than $50 in preparing the press releases and was not permitted to expend more than that to take a position of advocacy. Colo. Common Cause v. Coffman, 85 P.3d 551 (Colo. App. 2003), aff'd, 102 P.3d 999 (Colo. 2004).

Public school payroll deduction system for teachers' union dues, a portion of which was given by the union to a political action committee, did not constitute a "contribution in kind" because it did not support a specific "issue" or "candidate" that the political action committee supported or opposed during the time that the district made the payroll deductions. Mountain States v. Secretary of State, 946 P.2d 586 (Colo. App. 1997) (decided under law in effect prior to 1997 amendment).

Brochure mailed by metropolitan districts explaining proposed improvements violated this section. The brochure, when read in its entirety, did not present arguments for and against the issue. In fact, it took a position exclusively in favor of the issue, presented no contrary arguments, and expressly advocated the passage of the bond initiative that was titled only days after the mailing of the brochure. Thus, it urged voters to vote for the initiative. Skruch v. Highlands Ranch Metro. Dists., 107 P.3d 1140 (Colo. App. 2004).

Although brochure did not mention ballot initiative by name, administrative law judge appropriately concluded that the language of this section does not require that level of specificity. The section prohibits "the urging of electors to vote a certain way." Skruch v. Highlands Ranch Metro. Dists., 107 P.3d 1140 (Colo. App. 2004).

1-45-118. Severability. If any provision of this article or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the article which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this article are declared to be severable.

The exception may include time-based services volunteered by an individual as a member of any firm, association, or other business entity, including a corporation, if such individual receives no direct or indirect compensation for the time volunteered. If a tangible product is produced as a result of such services, “contribution” includes the reasonable value of the materials involved, unless such value is negligible.

Such statement includes a stated intention to explore the possibility of seeking an office. The registration of a candidate committee shall also constitute a public announcement of an intention to seek election or retention. [Article XXVIII, Section 2 (2)]
- 1.12 A registered agent or a committee or party treasurer for the purposes of Title 1, Article 45, shall be an individual or candidate designated to receive mailings and to address concerns and/or questions regarding the candidate committee, the political committee, the small donor committee, the issue committee, or the political party. [Article XXVIII, Section 2(12)(a)]
- 2.8 A political committee that is subject to reporting pursuant to both section 1-45-108 and the “Federal Election Commission Act of 1971” may file with the appropriate officer a copy of the registration filed with the federal election commission and, insofar as such registration contains substantially the same information required by subsection (3) of C.R.S. 1-45-108, the political committee shall be considered to have registered with the appropriate officer for purposes of subsection (3) of C.R.S. 1-45-103. The political committee shall not be required to file disclosure reports if copies of the reports required to be filed with the Federal Election Commission pursuant to the “Federal Election Commission Act of 1971”, as amended, are filed with the appropriate officer or are electronically available in the office of the appropriate officer and if such reports include the information required by C.R.S. 1-45-108.
- 2.9 A corporation or labor organization may establish both a political committee and a small donor committee. Each committee is subject to the individual contribution and expenditure limits for that committee. [Article XXVIII, Section 2(14)(b)]
- 2.10 In accordance with the procedures set out in the “State Administrative Procedures Act” (Article 1 or Title 24, Colorado Revised Statutes), the secretary of state may close an inactive committee after two years of non-reporting. [Article XXVIII, Section 2(3), and C.R.S. 24-4-105]

3. Responsibilities of Candidate Committees, Issue Committees, Political Committees, Small Donor Committees and Political Parties

- 3.1 Whenever any of the information disclosed on the committee registration form changes, the change must be reported within five days by filing an amended committee registration form with the appropriate filing officer. When filing an amendment to the committee registration form, a new form should be completed that includes any updated information. The form must be signed by the registered agent, and, if for a candidate committee, the candidate must also sign the form. [1-45-108(3)]
- 3.2 Any political committee that has registered with the Federal Election Commission, and filed a copy of the registration filed with the Federal Election Commission with the appropriate officer, may terminate its active status with the appropriate officer if the committee submits a letter of termination. A termination letter may be filed at any time.

- 3.3 A candidate committee that changes elective office sought shall terminate the existing candidate committee and register a new candidate committee not later than ten days after such change. If the new elective office is for a state candidate, then all contributions received shall be subject to contribution limits and restrictions set forth in Article XXVIII, Section 3 for the new office.
- 3.4 A committee may terminate if the following conditions are met: the candidate or committee no longer intends to receive contributions or make expenditures; a zero balance is achieved by having no cash on hand and no outstanding debts or obligations; and the candidate or committee files a termination statement of contributions and expenditures. A termination statement may be filed at any time. [Article XXVIII, Section 2(3) and 1-45-106]
- 3.5 A political committee may change status to a small donor committee without terminating the political committee if the political committee has never accepted contributions over the amount of $50 per natural person per year.
- 3.6 Unexpended campaign contributions to a candidate committee may be contributed to a candidate committee established by the same candidate for a different public office, subject to the limitations set forth in Article XXVIII, Section 3(3)(e), if the candidate committee making such a contribution is affirmatively closed by the candidate no later than ten days after the date such a contribution is made.
- 3.7 Unexpended campaign contributions to local candidate committees may not be contributed to a state candidate committee.
- 3.8 Multi-purpose issue committees – termination of status. In the case of an issue committee whose purposes are not limited to supporting or opposing ballot issues or ballot questions (a “multi-purpose issue committee”), such multi-purpose issue committee may terminate its status as an issue committee by filing a termination statement of contributions and expenditures with the appropriate filing officer. In accordance with Rule 3.4, a termination statement may be filed at any time if the following conditions are met:
- a. the multi-purpose issue committee no longer has a major purpose of supporting or opposing any ballot issue or ballot question and no longer intends to accept or make contributions or expenditures to support or oppose a ballot issue or ballot question; and
 - b. the committee's separate account maintained in accordance with Article XXVIII, section 3(9) has achieved a zero balance by having no cash on hand and no outstanding debts or obligations.
- 3.9 Contributions Where the Identity of the Contributor is Unknown.
- a. Contributions received by a candidate committee, political committee, political party committee, or small donor committee, of any amount, where the identity of the contributor is unknown, shall not be retained. Such contributions must, within thirty (30) days, be donated to any charitable organization recognized by the Internal Revenue Service, or transmitted to the State Treasurer for deposit into the unclaimed property fund or such other fund as the State Treasurer may direct.
 - b. Contributions received by an issue committee in excess of twenty dollars ($20) where the identity of the contributor is unknown, shall not be retained. Such contributions must, within thirty (30) days, be donated to any charitable organization recognized by the Internal Revenue Service, or transmitted to the State Treasurer for deposit into the unclaimed property fund or such other fund as the State Treasurer may direct.

4. Disclosure – Contributions and Expenditures

- 4.1 All committees must keep a record of all contributions. All contributions received of $20 or more during a reporting period shall be listed individually on the contribution and expenditure report. All other receipts and contributions under $20 may be reported in total as non-itemized contributions for the reporting period. [1-45-108(1)]
- 4.2 When filing an amended report of contributions and expenditures, a new form shall be completed that includes the cover page of the report of contributions and expenditures, the detailed summary page, and any updated schedules listing only the amended information. [C.R.S. 1-45-109(4)(b)]
- 4.3 Contributions – when counted.
- a. A contribution is considered made or received as of the date that it is accepted by the committee or party. In the case of a contribution by check or credit card, the date accepted is the date that the contribution is deposited into the committee's or party's account.
 - b. However, for purposes of section 1-45-105.5, concerning contributions by lobbyists to certain state officers and candidates when legislation is under consideration, a contribution is considered made or promised when possession of the check is transferred to any person not under the control of the issuer.
- 4.4 All committees must keep a record of all expenditures. All expenditures made of $20 or more during a reporting period shall be listed individually on the contribution and expenditure report. All other expenditures under $20 during a reporting period may be reported in total as non-itemized expenditures. [1-45-108(1)]
- 4.5 Loans received by a committee or party
- a. All loans received by a committee or party must be reported continuously until repaid. [Article XXVIII, Section 3(8)]
 - b. Notwithstanding Article XXVIII, Section 3(8), a candidate may make a loan to his or her candidate committee. Such loan shall be at no interest. In accordance with the definition of "contribution" in Article XXVIII, section 2(5), the amount of the loan is a contribution from the candidate to the committee, but the interest-free use of such loan by the committee is not a contribution to the committee.
 - c. Any repayment of a loan shall be considered a returned contribution, except that interest repaid for a loan made pursuant to Article XXVIII, Section 3(8) shall be reported as an expenditure by the candidate committee.
 - d. A loan made by a candidate to the candidate's own committee may be forgiven by the candidate. The amount of unpaid debt forgiven by the candidate shall remain a contribution and shall not be considered a returned contribution.
 - e. Loans made from a financial institution to a candidate committee pursuant to Article XXVIII, Section 3(8) shall not be forgiven.

- 4.6 Contributions by candidate – voluntary spending limits - loans.

American Constitutional Law Foundation, Inc., 520 U.S. 182, 119 S.Ct., 636 (1999), an issue committee that makes an expenditure of $20 or more in payment to a petition circulator is not required to disclose the name of the paid circulator. Instead, it is sufficient to list "payment to petition circulator" and the date and amount of the payment. [1-40-121(1)]
- 4.8 Candidate committees may share expenditures for costs of brochures, offices, office equipment, etc. if each candidate committee pays for its proportionate cost of the expense. If one candidate committee pays the entire cost, the reimbursement by the other candidate committee(s) shall be made within thirty (30) days. Such reimbursement is not a "contribution" from one committee to the other; it shall be reported as an expenditure by the reimbursing committee and as a returned expenditure by the reimbursed committee. If sharing expenditures results in a price discount based on volume or quantity, such discount shall not be considered a "contribution".
- 4.9 Any contributions received in excess of contribution limits shall be returned to the contributor within thirty (30) days.
- 4.10 If occupation and employer information as required by Article XXVIII, Section 7 is not provided, and the committee is unable to gather the information within 30 days after receipt of the contribution, the contribution shall be returned to the contributor no later than the 31st day after receipt.
- 4.11 The following rules relate to Article XXVIII, Section 3(3)(e), concerning the counting and reporting of unexpended campaign contributions retained for use in a subsequent election cycle.

 - b. If the amount retained is less than the limit on contributions from a political party specified in Section 3(3)(d), then the total of all political party contributions to the candidate committee during the subsequent election cycle shall not exceed the difference between the amount retained and the limit on political party contributions. At such time as the total amount of all political party contributions to the candidate committee during the subsequent election cycle equals or exceeds the difference between the retained amount and the limit on political party contributions, then any subsequent or additional contribution by a political party to the candidate committee during the subsequent election cycle shall constitute a violation of Section 3(3)(d).

- 4.12 For purposes of complying with the requirement of Article XXVIII, Section 5, that a notice of independent expenditure include “a detailed description of the use of such independent expenditure”, such notice is sufficient if it includes an identification of the payee of the expenditure, the medium used for the communication, the date or dates for broadcast, delivery, or publication of the communication, and either the complete written text or transcript of the communication produced by the expenditure or a summary of the major points contained within the communication.
- 4.13 Article XXVIII, Section 6(2), concerning the prohibition against funding by corporations and labor organizations for electioneering communications, shall not apply to any corporation that:
- a. Was formed for the purpose of promoting political ideas and cannot engage in business activities;
 - b. Has no shareholders with a claim on its assets or other income; and
 - c. Was not established by, and does not accept contributions from business corporations or labor organizations.
- 4.14 A candidate who does not accept contributions but who expends money for campaign purposes shall not be required to form a candidate committee, but shall file disclosure reports for the reporting periods during which expenditures are made, in accordance with sections 1-45-108 and 1-45-109.
- 4.15 Membership dues transferred to small donor committees and political committees
- a. Membership organizations transferring a portion of a member's dues to a small donor committee or political committee shall provide the respective committee with the member's name, address, amount of dues transferred, and the date of the dues transfer.
 - b. Each small donor committee and political committee shall keep records of all contributions received in the form of membership dues transferred by a membership organization to the committee. Such records shall include each contributing member's name, address, and amount of the dues transferred. [C.R.S. 1-45-108(1)(a)(I)]
 - c. Each small donor committee and political committee shall itemize and report the name and address of each person who has contributed $20 or more in a reporting period, including but not limited to contributions received in the form of membership dues transferred by a membership organization to the committee. [Article XXVIII, Section 2(14)(a); C.R.S. 1-45-108(1)(a)]
 - d. On each disclosure report, the candidate or registered agent of a candidate committee, political party committee, political committee, small donor committee, or issue committee shall certify and declare, under penalty of perjury, that to the best of his or her knowledge or belief all contributions received in a reporting period, including contributions received in the form of membership dues transferred by a membership organization, are from permissible sources. [Article XXVIII, Section 3.]
- 4.16 Multi-purpose issue committees. In the case of an issue committee whose purposes are not limited to supporting or opposing ballot issues or ballot questions (a “multi-purpose issue committee”):
- a. Such multi-purpose issue committee shall report only those contributions accepted, expenditures made, and obligations entered into for the purpose of supporting or opposing ballot issues or ballot questions. A multi-purpose issue committee shall not be required to report donations, membership dues, or any other receipts except to the extent they are designated or intended to be used for the purpose of supporting or opposing one or more ballot issues or ballot questions.

- b. Contributions accepted for the purpose of supporting or opposing ballot issues or ballot questions shall be deposited in an account separate from other funds of the issue committee in accordance with Article XXVIII, Section 3(9). If the issue committee accepts contributions relating to more than one ballot issue or ballot question, such contributions may be deposited in a separate account for each ballot issue or ballot question.
 - c. If a multi-purpose issue committee receives general, non-earmarked donations, membership dues, or other payments, and later chooses to allocate some or all of such non-earmarked contributions to support or oppose a ballot issue or ballot question, then it must transfer the funds into a separate campaign account maintained in accordance with Article XXVIII, Section 3(9) and report the transfer as a contribution from the committee itself.
- 4.17 Until terminated in accordance with these rules, a committee shall file a disclosure report for every reporting period, even if the committee has no activity (expenditures or contributions) to report during the reporting period

5. Filing Dates and Reporting Periods

- 5.1 Quarterly reporting periods close on the last day of the month. The report shall be filed on or before April 15th, July 15th, October 15th and January 15th - following each calendar quarter. - 5.2 Monthly reporting periods close five calendar days prior to the last day of the month. The report shall be filed on or before the first calendar day of the following month. If the filing deadline falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, the filing deadline is the next business day. When the filing deadline for a monthly report approximates the filing deadline for a biweekly report, no separate monthly report shall be filed, and the biweekly report shall serve as the monthly report. [1-45-108(2)(a) and (c)]
- 5.3 The reporting period for biweekly reports required by section 1-45-108(2)(a)(I)(B) and (D) closes on the Wednesday preceding the due date. If the filing deadline falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, the filing deadline is the next business day. [1-45-108(2)(a)]

All disclosure reports filed manually with the secretary of state pursuant to section 1-45-108 C.R.S., shall be filed using the provided form, or if the report is filed in another permitted format, it shall be type written and the font size shall be no less than 12 point.
- 5.6 Reports filed electronically.
 - a. Reports filed electronically are due two days after the due date for reports filed manually, after taking into account any extension of the due date of a manually filed report because the filing deadline falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday. If the filing deadline for a report filed electronically falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, the deadline is not extended to the next business day. Reports filed electronically before midnight shall be considered filed on that day. This paragraph a. is repealed effective January 1, 2007.
 - b. On and after January 1, 2007, reports filed electronically are due on the same date as manually filed reports and are due no later than close of business pursuant to C.R.S. 1-45-109(2).

- c. If the electronic filing system is unavailable for filing for a total of more than one hour after 4:00 p.m. on the due date for filing a report, the secretary of state may extend the due date for an additional day for electronically filed reports. [1-45-108(2.3), 1-45-109(6)]

 - b. Reports relating to special district elections that are required to be filed with the secretary of state shall be subject to quarterly, monthly, and biweekly reporting as provided in section 1-45-108(2)(a)(i) if the major elections for such special district occur on the date of the general election. If the major elections for such special district occur at any other time, then reports shall be required only on the 21st day prior to, on the Friday prior to, and on the 30th day after the date of the regular election.
- 5.9 The reporting period for any report that is required to be filed with the county clerk and recorder shall close five calendar days prior to the date that the report is due.
- 5.10 For purposes of section 1-45-108(2)(d), which exempts a candidate committee for a former officeholder or person not elected to office from reporting if there is no change in the balance of funds maintained by such committee and if certain other conditions are met, a change in the balance of funds resulting solely from the accrual of interest or dividends to the account and/or the automatic deduction of periodic service fees does not subject such candidate committee to the reporting requirements of section 1-45-108, except that such candidate committee shall file an annual report for each calendar year. State candidate committees shall file such report not later than January 15th of the following year, and county candidate committees shall file such report in accordance with section 1-45-108(2)(A)(ii). Candidate committees that choose this option must notify, in writing, the appropriate filing officer of their intent. [1-45-108(2)(c) and (2)(d)]
- 5.11 If a required report is not filed by 11:59 PM on the due date for electronic filing, then the daily penalty imposed pursuant to Article XXVIII, Section 10(2)(a) shall begin on the day following the due date for reports filed manually. This rule is repealed effective January 1, 2007.

 - a. Provide the person believed to have committed the violation with written notice of the facts or conduct that constitute the possible violation, and
 - b. Allow seven business days to correct the violation or to submit written statements explaining the reasons that support a conclusion that a violation was not committed.

6.2 If, within the time allotted pursuant to Rule 6.1, the person fails to correct the violation or to offer a satisfactory explanation, then the appropriate officer may file a complaint pursuant to Article XXVIII, Section 9(2)(a).

6.3 A written complaint filed with the secretary of state pursuant to Article XXVIII, Section 9(2) (a) shall include the following: the name, address, and signature of the complainant (if the complainant is represented by counsel, such counsel's name, address, and signature shall be included along with the name, address, and signature of the complainant); the name and address of each respondent alleged to have committed a violation; and the particulars of the violation. [Article XXVIII, Section 9(2)(a)]

7. Applicability of Constitutional and Statutory Provisions to Local Offices and Home Rule Elections

7.1 The requirements of Article XXVIII of the State Constitution and of Article 45 of Title 1, Colorado Revised Statutes, shall not apply to home rule counties or home rule municipalities that have adopted charters, ordinances, or resolutions that address any of the matters covered by Article XXVIII or Title 1, Article 45.

8.2 If a candidate for a special district office fails to file a candidate affidavit, or the filed self-nomination and acceptance form or letter, or the affidavit of intent to be a write-in candidate does not contain the statement required by section 1-45-110(1), C.R.S., the county clerk and recorder shall mail the special district a copy of the notification to the candidate regarding pending disqualification sent pursuant to section 1-45-110(3).

8.3 The clerk and recorder's receipt of the self-nomination and acceptance form or letter or the affidavit of intent to be a write-in candidate shall be deemed to be filed by the candidate; provided, however, that nothing in this rule shall be deemed or construed to impose any duty on a designated election official, presiding officer, or secretary to file any document on behalf of any candidate or to relieve any candidate of any obligation to file any document required by the fair campaign practices act, article XXVIII, or other law.

9. Electioneering Communications

9.1 All entities must keep a record of all contributions received for electioneering communications. 10.3 The incumbent in a recall election is not a candidate for the successor election according to C.R.S. 1-12-117; therefore, the incumbent may open an issue committee to oppose the recall.

10.4 The aggregate contribution limits specified for a general election in section 3 of article XXVIII shall apply to the recall election with respect to each successor candidate.

11. Electronic Filing.

11.1 Effective October 1, 2007, all disclosure reports filed with the secretary of state pursuant to Article XXVIII of the Colorado Constitution and Article 45 of Title 1 of the Colorado Revised Statutes shall be filed electronically. Reports required to be filed electronically with the secretary of state under this rule that are presented for manual filing shall not be accepted.

11.2 In accordance with section 24-21-111, C.R.S., reports are not required to be filed electronically in any of the following circumstances:

11.2.1 An individual report contains fewer than thirty (30) entries.

11.2.2 The secretary of state has granted an exception to the electronic filing requirement after written application based on hardship or other good cause shown. All applications for an exception shall include a brief statement of the hardship or good cause for which the exception is sought. Applications must be received by the secretary of state at least fifteen (15) calendar days prior to the first applicable filing deadline in the election cycle, unless the exception is based on emergency circumstances arising after such deadline, in which case the nature of the emergency shall be described in the application. The filing of an application for exception based on emergency circumstances does not delay any reporting deadlines, however, if a penalty is imposed for failure to file a report on the date due, the penalty may be set aside or reduced in accordance with section 10(2) of Article XXVIII. The Secretary of State shall review and respond in writing to all applications for an exception within three (3) business days.
