SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 1.

(S. L. 1913.)

ELECTION OF UNITED STATES SENATORS.

(By Senator Garman.)

RESOLUTIONS RATIFYING THE PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES PROVIDING THAT SENATORS SHALL BE ELECTED BY THE PEOPLE OF THE SEVERAL STATES.

Whereas, The sixty-second congress, in the second session, in both houses has passed the following proposition to amend the constitution of the United States, by a constitutional majority of two-thirds thereof, in words following, to-wit:

JOINT RESOLUTION, PROPOSING AN AMENDMENT TO THE CONSTITUTION PROVIDING THAT SENATORS SHALL BE ELECTED BY THE PEOPLE OF THE SEVERAL STATES.

“Resolved, By the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in congress assembled (two-thirds of each house concurring therein), That in lieu of the first paragraph of section three of article one of the constitution of the United States, and in lieu of so much of paragraph two of the same section as relates to the filling of vacancies, the following be proposed as an amendment to the constitution, which shall be valid to all intents and purposes as part of the constitution when ratified by the legislatures of three-fourths of the states:

“The Senate of the United States shall be composed of two senators from each state, elected by the people thereof, for six years; and each senator shall have one vote. The electors in each state shall have the qualifications requisite for electors of the most numerous branch of the state legislatures.

“When vacancies happen in the representation of any state in the Senate, the executive authority of such state shall issue writs of election to fill such vacancies; provided, that the legislature of any state may empower the executive thereof to make temporary appointments until the people fill the vacancies by election as the legislature may direct.

“This amendment shall not be so construed as to effect the election or term of any senator before it becomes valid as part of the constitution;” therefore be it

Resolved, by the General Assembly of the State of Colorado, That the said proposed amendment to the constitution be, and the same is, hereby ratified by the General Assembly of the State of Colorado.

Resolved, That a certified copy of the foregoing preamble and resolution be forwarded by the Governor to the Secretary of State for the United States, in accordance with section two hundred and five of the Revised Statutes of the United States.

ELECTIONS.

UNITED STATES SENATORS.

(S. B. No. 381, by Senator Joyce.)

AN ACT

CONCERNING ELECTIONS.

Be It Enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Colorado:
Election in 1914 and 1918.

Section 1. At the General election in 1914 and every six years thereafter there shall be elected one United States Senator for the term next ensuing; and at the general election in 1918 and every six years thereafter there shall be elected one United States Senator for the term next ensuing.

Governor make temporary appointment.

Section 2. Whenever a vacancy happens in the office of United States Senator from this State, the Governor shall make a temporary appointment to fill such vacancy until the same is filled by election as hereinafter provided.

Governor issue writ to Secretary of State.

Section 3. When a vacancy happens as aforesaid, the Governor shall issue a writ of election to the Secretary of State, directing him to include in his general election notice for the next general election a notice of the filling of such vacancy, whereupon the Secretary of State shall give notice accordingly, and at such election the vacancy shall be filled for the unexpired term; but if, for any reason, no United States Senator is elected at the next general election the person temporarily appointed by the Governor shall hold over until a United States Senator is elected at a succeeding general election.

Laws of State to apply at election.

Section 4. All laws of this State relating to primary and other elections shall prevail as to the election of United States Senators, and the canvass of the returns for the election of such United States Senators shall be held in the same manner as is now provided by law for the election of Representatives in Congress.

Approved: May 2nd, 1913 at 8:48 o'clock P. M.

ELECTIONS.

AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION OF THE STATE OF COLORADO CONCERNING ELECTIONS.

Amendments to Article XIV of the Constitution, Concerning County Officers.

Sec. 6. In each county having a population of less than seventy thousand there shall be elected, for a term of four years each, three county commissioners, who shall hold sessions for the transaction of county business as provided by law, any two of whom shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. Two of said commissioners shall be elected at the general election in the year nineteen hundred and four, and at the general election every four years thereafter; and the other one of said commissioners shall be elected at the general election in the year nineteen hundred and six, and at the general election every four years thereafter; Provided, That when the population of any county shall equal or exceed seventy thousand, the board of county commissioners may consist of five members, any three of whom shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. Three of said commissioners in said county shall be elected at the general election in the year nineteen hundred and four, and at the general election every four years thereafter; and the other two of said commissioners in such county shall be elected at the general election in the year nineteen hundred and six, and every four years thereafter; and all of such commissioners shall be elected for the term of four years. The term of office of the county commissioners in each county that expires in January, 1904, is hereby extended to the second Tuesday in January, A. D. 1905, and the term of office of the county commissioners that expires in January, 1906, is hereby extended to the second Tuesday in January, A. D. 1907; and in counties having a population of more than seventy thousand, the term of office of the commissioners that expires in 1904 shall be extended to the second Tuesday in January, 1905, and the term of office of the county commissioners that expires in 1906 is hereby extended to the second Tuesday in January, 1907. This section shall govern, except as hereafter otherwise expressly directed or permitted by constitutional enactment.

Sec. 8. There shall be elected in each county, at the same time at which members of the general assembly are elected, commencing in the year nineteen hundred and four, one county clerk, who shall be ex officio recorder of deeds and clerk of the board of county commissioners; one sheriff; one coroner; one treasurer, who shall be collector of taxes; one county superintendent of schools; one county surveyor; one county assessor; and one county attorney, who may be elected, or appointed, as shall be provided by law; and such officers shall be paid such salary or compensation, either from the fees, perquisites and emoluments of their respective offices, or from the general county fund, as may be provided by law. The term of office of all such officials that expires in January, 1904, is hereby extended to the second Tuesday in January, A. D. 1905. This section shall govern, except as hereafter otherwise expressly directed, or permitted by constitutional enactment.

Sec. 11. There shall be elected at the same time at which members of the general assembly are elected, beginning with the year nineteen hundred and four, two justices of the peace and two constables in each precinct in each county, who shall hold their office for a term of two years; Provided, That in precincts containing fifty thousand (50,000) or more inhabitants, the number of justices and constables may be increased as provided by law. The term of offices of all justices of the peace that expires January, 1904, is hereby extended to the second Tuesday in January, 1905. This section shall govern, except as hereafter otherwise expressly directed or permitted by constitutional enactment.

Amendments to Article VI of the Constitution, Concerning District Attorneys and County Judges.

Sec. 21. There shall be elected by the qualified electors of each judicial district, at the general election in the year nineteen hundred and four, and every four years thereafter, a district attorney for such district, whose term of office shall be four years, and whose duties and salary or compensation, either from the fees or emoluments of his office, or from the general county fund, as shall be provided by law. No person shall be eligible to the office of district attorney who shall not, at the time of his election, be at least twenty-five years of age and possess all the qualifications of judges of the district courts, as provided in this article. The term of office of the district attorneys serving in the several districts, at the time of the adoption of this amendment, is hereby extended to the second Tuesday of January, in the year A. D. 1905.

Sec. 22. There shall be elected at the general election in each organized county in the year nineteen hundred and four, and every four years thereafter, a county judge, who shall be judge of the county court of said county, whose term of office shall be four years, and who shall be paid such salary or compensation, either from the fees and emoluments of his office or from the general county fund, as shall be provided by law. The term of office of the county judges serving at the time of the adoption of this amendment is hereby extended to the second Tuesday of January in the year A. D. 1905.

Amendments to Article VI of the Constitution, Concerning the Supreme Court.

Sec. 6. The judges of the supreme court, except as herein provided, shall be elected by the electors of the state at large.

Sec. 7. The term of office of the judges of the supreme court hereafter elected, except as in this article otherwise provided, shall be ten years.

Sec. 8. On the first Wednesday of April, 1905, the court of appeals shall cease to exist, and the judges of said court whose regular terms shall not then have expired shall become judges of the supreme court. All causes pending before the court of appeals shall then stand transferred to and be pending in the supreme court, and no bond or obligation given in any of said causes shall be affected by said transfer. The term of office of that judge of the supreme court whose term expires on the second Tuesday in January, 1907, shall so expire; the term of office of that judge transferred from the court of appeals whose term shall expire in April, 1907, shall expire on the second Tuesday in January, 1907; and the term of office of that judge of the supreme court whose term expires in January, 1910, is hereby extended to the second Tuesday in January, 1911; and the term of office of the judge or judges transferred from the court of appeals whose term would expire in April, 1909, shall expire on the second Tuesday in January, 1909; and the term of office of the judge of the supreme court whose term expires on the second Tuesday in January, 1913, shall so expire. At the general election in the year 1906, and every tenth year thereafter, there shall be elected two judges of the supreme court. At the general election in the year 1908, there shall be elected three judges of the supreme court, one for the term of six years and two for the term of ten years. At the general election in the year 1910, and every tenth year thereafter, there shall be elected one judge of the supreme court. At the general election in the year 1912, and every tenth year thereafter, there shall be elected one judge of the supreme court. At the general election in the year 1914, and every tenth year thereafter, there shall be elected one judge of the supreme court. At the general election in the year 1918, and every tenth year thereafter, there shall be elected two judges of the supreme court.

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT.

INITIATIVE AND REFERENDUM.

(Chapter 3, S. L. 1910.)

AN ACT

TO SUBMIT TO THE QUALIFIED VOTERS OF THE STATE OF COLORADO AN AMENDMENT TO SECTION 1 OF ARTICLE V OF THE CONSTITUTION OF THE STATE OF COLORADO, PROVIDING FOR THE INITIATIVE AND REFERENDUM.

Be it Enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Colorado:

Section 1. There shall be submitted to the qualified electors of the State of Colorado, at the next general election for members of the General Assembly for their approval or rejection the following constitutional amendment, which, when ratified by a majority of those voting thereon, shall be valid as part of the Constitution.

Section 1, article V, of constitution amended—Legislative power, where vested—Initiative—Eight per cent. of legal voters required to propose same—Petitions filed with secretary of state—Referendum, exceptions from—Five per cent. of legal voters required to order same—Petitions filed with secretary of state within ninety days—Veto of governor not to apply—When submitted—Majority of votes required—Governor to issue proclamation—Basis of number of signers to petitions—Secretary of state shall submit measures—Petition, form of same, how signed—Affidavit of elector required to verify signatures—Publication required—Style of laws—Initiative and referendum powers reserved to cities and towns—Not more than ten per cent. of voters required to order same.

Section 2. That Section 1 of Article V of the Constitution of the State of Colorado be so amended as to read as follows:

Section 1. The legislative power of the State shall be vested in the General Assembly consisting of a Senate and House of Representatives, both to be elected by the people, but the people reserve to themselves the power to propose laws and amendments to the Constitution and to enact or reject the same at the polls independent of the General Assembly, and also reserve power at their own option to approve or reject at the polls any act, item, section or part of any act of the General Assembly.

The first power hereby reserved by the people is the INITIATIVE, and at least eight per cent. of the legal voters shall be required to propose any measure by petition, and every such petition shall include the full text of the measure so proposed. Initiative petitions for State legislation and amendments to the Constitution, shall be addressed to and filed with the Secretary of State at least four months before the election at which they are to be voted upon.

The second power hereby reserved is the REFERENDUM, and it may be ordered, except as to laws necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health or safety, and appropriations for the support and maintenance of the department of state and state institutions, against any act, section or part of any act of the General Assembly, either by a petition signed by five per cent. of the legal voters or by the General Assembly. Referendum petitions shall be addressed to and filed with the Secretary of State not more than ninety days after the final adjournment of the session of the General Assembly, that passed the bill on which the referendum is demanded. The filing of a referendum petition against any item, section or part of any act, shall not delay the remainder of the act from becoming operative. The veto power of the Governor shall not extend to measures initiated by, or referred to the people. All elections on measures referred to the people of the State shall be held at the biennial regular general election, and all such measures shall become the law or a part of the Constitution, when approved by a majority of the votes cast thereon, and not otherwise, and shall take effect from and after the date of the official declaration of the vote thereon by proclamation of the Governor, but not later than thirty days after the vote has been canvassed. This section shall not be construed to deprive the General Assembly of the right to enact any measure. The whole number of votes cast for Secretary of State at the regular general election last preceding the filing of any petition for the initiative or referendum shall be the basis on which the number of legal voters necessary to sign such petition shall be counted.

The Secretary of State shall submit all measures initiated by or referred to the people for adoption or rejection at the polls, in compliance herewith. The petition shall consist of sheets having such general form printed or written at the top thereof as shall be designated or prescribed by the Secretary of State; such petition shall be signed by qualified electors in their own proper persons only, to which shall be attached the residence address of such person and the date of signing the same. To each of such petitions, which may consist of one or more sheets, shall be attached an affidavit of some qualified elector, that each signature thereon is the signature of the person whose name it purports to be, and that to the best of the knowledge and belief of the affiant, each of the persons signing said petition was at the time of signing, a qualified elector. Such petition so verified shall be prima facie evidence that the signatures thereon are genuine and true and that the persons signing the same are qualified electors. The text of all measures to be submitted shall be published as constitutional amendments are published, and in submitting the same and in all matters pertaining to the form of all petitions the Secretary of State and all other officers shall be guided by the general laws, and the act submitting this amendment, until legislation shall be especially provided therefor.

The style of all laws adopted by the people through the Initiative shall be, "Be it Enacted by the People of the State of Colorado."

The initiative and referendum powers reserved to the people by this section are hereby further reserved to the legal voters of every city, town and municipality as to all local, special and municipal legislation of every character in or for their respective municipalities. The manner of exercising said powers shall be prescribed by general laws, except that cities, towns and municipalities may provide for the manner of exercising the initiative and referendum powers as to their municipal legislation. Not more than ten per cent. of the legal voters may be required to order the referendum, nor more than fifteen per cent. to propose any measure by the initiative in any city, town or municipality.

This section of the Constitution shall be in all respects self-executing.

Form of ballot—Canvass of votes.

Section 3. Each elector voting at said election and desirous of voting for or against this amendment shall deposit in the ballot box a ticket whereon shall be printed or written the words, "For the amendment to Section one of Article V of the Constitution providing for the initiative and referendum," and "Against the amendment to Section one of Article V of the Constitution providing for the initiative and referendum," and shall indicate his or her approval or rejection of the proposition by placing a cross (X) after one of such sentences. The vote cast for the adoption or rejection of said amendment shall be canvassed and the result determined in the manner provided by the laws of the State of Colorado for the canvass of votes for Representative in Congress.

Emergency.

Section 4. In the opinion of the General Assembly an emergency exists, therefore this act shall take effect on and after its passage.

Approved, September 2, 1910. (Laws 1910, pages 11-14.)

Ratified at General Election November 8, 1910.

GRANTING HOME RULE TO CITIES AND TOWNS.

Be It Enacted by the People of the State of Colorado:

That Section 6 of Article XX of the Constitution of the State of Colorado, be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 6. The people of each city or town in this State, having a population of two thousand inhabitants as determined by the last preceding census taken under the authority of the United States, the State of Colorado or said city or town, are hereby vested with, and they shall always have, power to make, amend, add to or replace the charter of said city or town, which shall be its organic law and extend to all its local and municipal matters.

Such charter and the ordinances made pursuant thereto in such matters shall supersede within the territorial limits and other jurisdiction of said city or town any law of the State in conflict therewith.

Proposals for charter conventions shall be submitted by the city council or board of trustees, or other body in which the legislative powers of the city or town shall then be vested, at special elections, or at general state or municipal elections, upon petitions filed by qualified electors, all in reasonable conformity with section 5 of this article, and all proceedings thereon or thereafter shall be in reasonable conformity with sections 4 and 5 of this article.

From and after the certifying to and filing with the Secretary of State of a charter framed and approved in reasonable conformity with the provisions of this article, such city or town, and the citizens thereof, shall have the powers set out in sections 1, 4 and 5 of this article, and all other powers necessary, requisite or proper for the government and administration of its local and municipal matters, including power to legislate upon, provide, regulate, conduct and control:

a. The creation and terms of municipal offices, agencies and employments; the definition, regulation and alteration of the powers, duties, qualifications and terms of tenure of all municipal officers, agents and employes;

b. The creation of police courts; the definition and regulation of the jurisdiction, powers and duties thereof, and the election or appointment of police magistrates therefor;

c. The creation of municipal courts; the definition and regulation of the jurisdiction, powers and duties thereof, and the election or appointment of the officers thereof;

d. All matters pertaining to municipal elections in such city or town, and to electoral votes therein on measures submitted under the charter or ordinances thereof, including the calling or notice and the date of such election or vote, the registration of voters, nominations, nomination and election systems, judges and clerks of election, the form of ballots, balloting, challenging, canvassing, certifying the result, securing the purity of elections, guarding against abuses of the elective franchise, and tending to make such elections or electoral votes non-partisan in character;

e. The issuance, refunding and liquidation of all kinds of municipal obligations, including bonds and other obligations of park, water and local improvement districts;

f. The consolidation and management of park or water districts in such cities or towns or within the jurisdiction thereof;

but no such consolidation shall be effective until approved by the vote of a majority, in each district to be consolidated, of the qualified electors voting therein upon the question;

g. The assessment of property in such city or town for municipal taxation and the levy and collection of taxes thereon for municipal purposes and special assessments for local improvements; such assessment, levy and collection of taxes and special assessments to be made by municipal officials or by the county or state officials as may be provided by the charter;

h. The imposition, enforcement and collection of fines and penalties for the violation of any of the provisions of the charter, or of any ordinance adopted in pursuance of the charter.

It is the intention of this article to grant and confirm to the people of all municipalities coming within its provisions the full right of self-government in both local and municipal matters and the enumeration herein of certain powers shall not be construed to deny to such cities and towns, and to the people thereof, any right or power essential or proper to the full exercise of such right.

The statutes of the State of Colorado, so far as applicable, shall continue to apply to such cities and towns, except in so far as superseded by the charters of such cities and towns or by ordinance passed pursuant to such charters.

All provisions of the charters of the City and County of Denver and the Cities of Pueblo, Colorado Springs and Grand Junction, as heretofore certified to and filed with the Secretary of State, and of the charter of any other city heretofore approved by a majority of those voting thereon and certified to and filed with the Secretary of State, which provisions are not in conflict with this article, and all elections and electoral votes heretofore had under and pursuant thereto, are hereby ratified, affirmed and validated as of their date.

Any act in violation of the provisions of such charter or of any ordinance thereunder shall be criminal and punishable as such when so provided by any statute now or hereafter in force.

The provisions of this section 6 shall apply to the City and County of Denver.

This article shall be in all respects self-executing.

Ratified at General Election November 5, 1912.

RECALL FROM OFFICE.

Be It Enacted by the People of the State of Colorado:

Section 1. The Constitution of the State of Colorado shall be amended by adding thereto a new Article to be known as "ART-ICLE XXI—RECALL FROM OFFICE," which when ratified by a majority of those voting thereon shall be valid as a part of the Constitution of the State of Colorado, and the said amendment is in the following words and figures :

Article XXI—Recall from Office.

Section 1. Every elective public officer of the State of Colorado may be recalled from office at any time by the electors entitled to vote for a successor of such incumbent through the procedure and in the manner herein provided for, which procedure shall be known as the Recall, and shall be in addition to and without excluding any other method of removal provided by law.

The procedure hereunder to effect the recall of an elective public officer shall be as follows :

A petition signed by electors entitled to vote for a successor of the incumbent sought to be recalled equal in number to twenty-five per centum of the entire vote cast at the last preceding election for all candidates for the position which the incumbent sought to be recalled occupies, demanding an election of the successor to the officer named in said petition, shall be filed in the office in which petitions for nominations to office held by the incumbent sought to be recalled are required to be filed; Provided, if more than one person is required by law to be elected to fill the office of which the person sought to be recalled is an incumbent, then the said petition shall be signed by electors entitled to vote for a successor to the incumbent sought to be recalled equal in number to twenty-five per centum of the entire vote cast at the last preceding general election for all candidates for the office, to which the incumbent sought to be recalled was elected as one of the officers thereof, said entire vote being divided by the number of all officers elected to such office, at the last preceding general election; and such petition shall contain a general statement, in not more than two hundred words, of the ground or grounds on which such recall is sought, which statement is intended for the information of the electors, and the electors shall be the sole and exclusive judges of the legality, reasonableness and sufficiency of such ground or grounds assigned for such recall, and said ground or grounds shall not be open to review.

Section 2. Any recall petition may be circulated and signed in sections, provided each section shall contain a full and accurate copy of the title and text of the petition; and such recall petition shall be filed in the office in which petitions for nominations to office held by the incumbent sought to be recalled are required to be filed.

The signatures to such recall petition need not all be on one sheet of paper, but each signer must add to his signature the date of his signing said petition, and his place of residence, giving his street number, if any, should he reside in a town or city. The person circulating such sheet must make and subscribe an oath on said sheet that the signatures thereon are genuine, and a false oath, wilfully so made and subscribed by such person, shall be perjury and be punished as such. All petitions shall be deemed and held to be sufficient if they appear to be signed by the requisite number of signers, and such signers shall be deemed and held to be qualified electors, unless a protest in writing under oath shall be filed in the office in which such petition has been filed, by some qualified elector, within fifteen days after such petition is filed, setting forth specifically the grounds of such protest, whereupon the officer with whom such petition is filed shall forthwith mail a copy of such protest to the person or persons named in such petition as representing the signers thereof, together with a notice fixing a time for hearing such protest not less than five nor more than ten days after such notice is mailed. All hearings shall be before the officer with whom such protest is filed, and all testimony shall be under oath. Such hearings shall be summary and not subject to delay, and must be concluded within thirty days after such petition is filed, and the result thereof shall be forthwith certified to the person or persons representing the signers of such petition. In case the petition is not sufficient it may be withdrawn by the person or a majority of the persons representing the signers of such petition, and may, within fifteen days thereafter, be amended and refiled as an original petition. The finding as to the sufficiency of any petition may be reviewed by any state court of general jurisdiction in the county in which such petition is filed, upon application of the person or a majority of the persons representing the signers of such petition, but such review shall be had and determined forthwith. The sufficiency, or the determination of the sufficiency, of the petition referred to in this section shall not be held, or construed, to refer to the ground or grounds assigned in such petition for the recall of the incumbent sought to be recalled from office thereby.

When such petition is sufficient, the officer with whom such recall petition was filed, shall forthwith submit said petition, together with a certificate of its sufficiency to the Governor, who shall thereupon order and fix the date for holding the election not less than thirty days nor more than sixty days from the date of submission of said petition: Provided, if a general election is to be held within ninety days after the date of submission of said petition, the recall election shall be held as part of said general election.

Section 3. If such officer shall offer his resignation, it shall be accepted, and the vacancy caused by such resignation, or from any other cause, shall be filled as provided by law; but the person appointed to fill such vacancy shall hold his office only until the person elected at the recall election shall qualify. If such officer shall not resign within five days after the sufficiency of the recall petition shall have been sustained, the Governor shall make or cause to be made publication of notice for the holding of such election, and officers charged by law with duties concerning elections shall make all arrangements for such election, and the same shall be conducted, returned and the result thereof declared in all respects as in the case of general elections.

On the official ballot at such election shall be printed in not more than 200 words, the reasons set forth in the petition for demanding his recall, and in not more than three hundred words there shall also be printed, if desired by him, the officer's justification of his course in office. If such officer shall resign at any time subsequent to the filing thereof, the recall election shall be called notwithstanding such resignation.

There shall be printed on the official ballot, as to every officer whose recall is to be voted on, the words, "Shall (name of person against whom the recall petition is filed) be recalled from the office of (title of the office)?" Following such question shall be the words "Yes" and "No," on separate lines, with a blank space at the right of each, in which the voter shall indicate, by marking a cross (X), his vote for or against such recall.

On such ballots, under each question, there shall also be printed the names of those persons who have been nominated as candidates to succeed the person sought to be recalled; but no vote cast shall be counted for any candidate for such office, unless the voter also voted for or against the recall of such person sought to be recalled from said office. The name of the person against whom the petition is filed shall not appear on the ballot as a candidate for the office.

If a majority of those voting on said question of the recall of any incumbent from office shall vote "no," said incumbent shall continue in said office; if a majority shall vote "yes," such incumbent shall thereupon be deemed removed from such office upon the qualification of his successor.

If the vote had in such recall elections shall recall the officer then the candidate who has received the highest number of votes for the office thereby vacated shall be declared elected for the remainder of the term, and a certificate of election shall be forthwith issued to him by the canvassing board. In case the person who received the highest number of votes shall fail to qualify within fifteen days after the issuance of a certificate of election, the office shall be deemed vacant, and shall be filled according to law.

Candidates for the office may be nominated by petition, as now provided by law, which petition shall be filed in the office in which petitions for nomination to office are required by law to be filed not less than fifteen days before such recall election.

Section 4. No recall petition shall be circulated or filed against any officer until he has actually held his office for at least six months, save and except it may be filed against any member of the state legislature at any time after five days from the convening and organizing of the legislature after his election.

After one recall petition and election, no further petition shall be filed against the same officer during the term for which he was elected, unless the petitioners signing said petition shall equal fifty per centum of the votes cast at the last preceding general election for all of the candidates for the office held by such officer as herein above defined.

If at any recall election the incumbent whose recall is sought is not recalled, he shall be repaid from the State treasury any money authorized by law and actually expended by him as expenses of such election; and the legislature shall provide appropriations for such purpose.

If the Governor is sought to be recalled under the provisions of this article, the duties herein imposed upon him shall be performed by the Lieutenant Governor; and if the Secretary of State is sought to be recalled, the duties herein imposed upon him, shall be performed by the State Auditor.

The recall may also be exercised by the electors of each county, city and county, city and town of the State, with reference to the elective officers thereof, under such procedure as shall be provided by law.

Until otherwise provided by law, the legislative body of any such county, city and county, city and town may provide for the manner of exercising such recall powers in such counties, cities and counties, cities and towns, but shall not require any such recall petition to be signed by electors more in number than twenty-five per centum of the entire vote cast at the last preceding election, as in Section 1 hereof more particularly set forth, for all the candidates for office which the incumbent sought to be recalled occupies, as herein above defined.

Every person having authority to exercise or exercising any public or governmental duty, power or function, shall be an elective officer, or one appointed, drawn or designated in accordance with law by an elective officer or officers, or by some board, commission, person or persons legally appointed by an elective officer or officers, each of which said elective officers shall be subject to the recall provision of this constitution; provided that, subject to regulation by law, any person may, without compensation therefor, file petitions, or complaints in courts concerning crimes, or do police duty only in cases of immediate danger to person or property.

Nothing herein contained shall be construed as affecting or limiting the present or future powers of cities and counties, or cities having charters adopted under the authority given by the Constitution, except as in the last three preceding paragraphs expressed.

In the submission to the electors of any petition proposed under this Article, all officers shall be guided by the General Laws of the State, except as otherwise herein provided.

This Article is self executing, but legislation may be enacted to facilitate its operations, but in no way limiting or restricting the provisions of this Article, or the powers herein reserved.

Ratified at General Election November 5, 1912.

RECALL OF DECISIONS.

Be It Enacted by the People of the State of Colorado:

Section 1. That Section 1 of Article 6 of the Constitution of the State of Colorado be and the same is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

"Section 1. The judicial power of the state as to all matters of law and equity, except as in the constitution otherwise provided, shall be vested in a Supreme Court, District Courts, County Courts, and such other courts as may be provided by law. In counties and cities and counties, having a population exceeding one hundred thousand, exclusive original jurisdiction in cases involving minors and persons whose offenses concern minors may be vested in a separate court now or hereafter established by law. None of said courts except the Supreme Court shall have any power to declare or adjudicate any law of this state or any city charter or amendment thereto adopted by the people in cities acting under Article XX hereof as in violation of the Constitution of this state or of the United States; provided that before such decision shall be binding it shall be subject to approval or disapproval by the people, as follows: Such decision shall be filed in the office of the Clerk of the Supreme Court within ten days after it is finally made. If it concerns a state law it shall not be binding until sixty days after such date. Within said sixty days a referendum petition, signed by not less than five per cent. of the qualified electors, addressed to and filed with the Secretary of State, may request that such law be submitted to the people of this state for adoption or rejection at an election to be held in compliance herewith. The Secretary of State shall cause to be published the text of such law or part thereof, as constitutional amendments are published, as near as may be, and he shall submit the same to the people at the first general election held not less than ninety days after such petition shall have been filed; provided that provision may be made by law for also submitting such laws or parts thereof at a special election. All such laws or parts thereof submitted as herein provided when approved by a majority of the votes cast thereon at such election shall be and become the law of this state notwithstanding the decision of the Supreme Court, to take effect from and after the date of the declaration of the vote thereon by proclamation of the Governor, not less than thirty days after the vote has been canvassed.

If such decision concerns a charter or an amendment thereto of a city or city and county acting under Article XX of this constitution, it shall not be binding until sixty days after it has been filed in the office of the clerk of said court. Within said sixty days a referendum petition, signed by not less than five per cent. of the qualified electors of such city or city and county, addressed to and filed with the legislative body of said city or city and county, may request that such charter or amendment thereto be submitted to the people of such city or city and county for their adoption or rejection. It shall be the duty of said legislative body to publish the text of such charter or amendment thereto as initiative ordinances are published as near as may be and submit such charter or amendment thereto to the people of such city or city and county, at an election to be called by said legislative body not less than sixty days after the filing of said petition, unless there should be under the charter of said city or city and county a regular election to be held for the election of officers of said city or city and county within said sixty days, in which event such charter or amendment thereto may be submitted to the vote of the people at such regular election. All such charters, or amendments thereto, so submitted as herein provided, when approved by a majority of the votes cast thereon in said city or city and county, shall be and become the law of this state and of said city or city and county notwithstanding the decision of the Supreme Court, to take effect from and after the date of the declaration of the vote thereon by proclamation of said legislative body not less than thirty days after the vote has been canvassed. The whole number of votes cast for Governor at the regular general election last preceding the filing of any petition to submit a state law under the provisions hereof, and, if a charter or amendment thereto, the whole number of votes cast for that officer receiving the highest vote cast at the last preceding general election for officers of such city or city and county requesting such submission shall be the basis on which the number of qualified electors necessary to sign such petition shall be counted.

Any petition herein provided for may be circulated and signed in sections, provided each section shall contain a full and accurate copy of the title and text of the law, or charter, or amendment thereto, which it is proposed to submit. The signatures to such petition need not all be on one sheet of paper, but each signer must add to his signature the date of his signing said petition, and his place of residence, giving his street number, if any, should he reside in a town or city. The person circulating such sheet must make and subscribe an oath on said sheet that the signatures thereon are genuine, and a false oath, wilfully so made and subscribed by such person, shall be perjury and be punished as such. All petitions shall be deemed and held to be sufficient if they appear to be signed by the requisite number of signers, and such signers shall be deemed and held to be qualified electors unless a protest in writing, under oath, shall be filed in the office in which such petition has been filed, by some qualified elector, within fifteen days after such petition is filed, setting forth specifically the ground of such protest, whereupon the officer with whom such petition is filed shall forthwith forward a copy of such protest to the person or persons named in such petition as representing the signers thereof, together with a notice fixing a time for hearing such protest not less than five nor more than ten days after such notice is made. All hearings shall be before the officer with whom such protest is filed, and all testimony shall be under oath. Such hearings shall be summary and not subject to delay, and must be concluded within thirty days after such petition is filed, and the result thereof shall be forthwith certified to the person or persons representing the signers of such petition. In case the petition is not sufficient it may be withdrawn by the person or a majority of the persons representing the signers of such petition, and may, within fifteen days thereafter, be amended and refiled as an original petition. The findings as to the sufficiency of any petition may be reviewed by any state court of general jurisdiction in the county in which such petition is filed, upon application of the person, or a majority of the persons, representing the signers of each petition, but such review shall be had and determined forthwith.

When any petition contains a form of submission of a law, charter, or amendment thereto, petitioned to be referred, when such form is a reasonably fair description thereof, the same shall be placed on the ballot, and no petition filed subsequent thereto shall be permitted to use any form of submission that is so similar to the one previously filed as to tend to confuse the voter, and in case of conflict the person or a majority of persons representing the subsequent petition may file a form of submission, provided the same shall be fairly descriptive of the law, city charter, or amendment thereto, petitioned to be submitted and not in conflict with any prior forms of submission nor tend to confuse the voter. Legislation may be enacted to facilitate the operation of this article, but in no way limiting or restricting the provisions hereof, or the powers herein reserved.

In submitting such laws the Secretary of State and all other officers shall be guided by the general laws so far as applicable, and the vote thereon as to state laws shall be canvassed and the result determined in the manner prescribed by law for the canvass of votes for representatives in Congress. In submitting a city charter, or amendment thereto, the vote thereon shall be canvassed and the result determined in the manner prescribed by the charter or law governing any such city or city and county for the canvass of votes for officers elected in such city or city and county."

Ratified at General Election November 5, 1912.

INITIATIVE AND REFERENDUM.

PAMPHLET PUBLICATION.

AN ACT

CONCERNING ELECTIONS, INCLUDING PROVISIONS FOR CARRYING INTO EFFECT THE INITIATIVE AND REFERENDUM POWERS RESERVED BY THE PEOPLE IN SECTION 1 OF ARTICLE V OF THE CONSTITUTION OF THE STATE OF COLORADO ON GENERAL, LOCAL, SPECIAL AND MUNICIPAL LEGISLATION AND PROVISIONS FOR PUBLISHING IN PAMPHLET FORM ALL MATTERS SUBMITTED TO VOTE OF THE PEOPLE, AND PRESCRIBING PENALTIES.

Be It Enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Colorado:

Warning, petition, signing of.

Section 1. At the top of every initiative and referendum petition shall be printed in plain black letters the following:

WARNING.

It is a felony for anyone to sign any initiative or referendum petition with any name other than his or her own, or to knowingly sign his name more than once for the same measure, or to sign such petition when not a qualified elector.

All initiative and referendum petitions shall be signed by qualified electors in their own proper person only, to which shall be attached the residence address of such person, including street and number, if any, and the date of signing the same. To each such petition shall be attached an affidavit of some qualified elector that each signature thereon is the signature of the person whose name it purports to be and that to the best of the knowledge and belief of the affiant each of the persons signing said petition was at the time of signing a qualified elector.

Petitions, form.

Section 2. Petitions shall be printed on pages eight and one-half inches wide by fourteen inches long, with a margin of two inches at the top for binding, and the sheets for signatures shall have their ruled lines numbered consecutively and shall be attached to a complete copy of what is proposed to be initiated or referred. Petitions may consist of any number of sections composed of sheets arranged as aforesaid. Each petition shall designate by name and address not less than three nor more than five persons who shall represent the signers thereof in all matters affecting the same. At the time of filing, the official with whom the petition is filed and a majority in number of the persons designated in the petition to represent the signers shall attach the sheets containing the signatures and affidavits together, which shall thereafter be bound in one or more convenient volumes and kept as public records, and any measure approved by the people of the state shall be printed with the acts of the next General Assembly, and such amendment, ordinance or measure approved by the people of any municipality shall be published as ordinances are.

Petition, held sufficient, may be amended.

Section 3. All petitions, so verified, shall be deemed and held sufficient if they appear to be signed by the requisite number of signers, and such signers shall be deemed and held to be qualified electors, unless a protest in writing under oath shall be filed in the office in which such petition has been filed, by some qualified elector, within fifteen days after such petition is filed, setting forth specifically the grounds of such protest and the names protested; whereupon the officer with whom such petition is filed shall forthwith mail a copy of such protest to the persons named in such petition as representing the signers thereof, at the addresses therein given, together with a notice fixing a time for hearing such protest, not less than five or more than twenty days after such notice is mailed. All records and hearings shall be public. Hearings shall be summary and must be concluded within forty days after such petition is filed, and the result thereof shall be forthwith certified to the persons representing the signers of such petition. In case the petition be declared insufficient in form or number of signatures of qualified electors, it may be withdrawn by a majority in number of the persons representing the signers of such petition, and may, within fifteen days thereafter, be amended or additional names signed thereto as in the first instance, and refiled as an original petition. The finding as to the sufficiency of any petition may be reviewed by any state court of general jurisdiction in the county in which such petition is filed, but such review shall be had and determined forthwith, and, upon application, the decision of such court thereon shall be reviewed by the supreme court summarily.

Measures, ballot title.

Section 4. Measures shall appear upon the official ballot by ballot title only. Each petition shall designate such ballot-title, which must be brief and not conflict with that selected in any petition previously filed for the same election. Such ballot-title may be enjoined from appearing upon the ballot, if misleading or unreasonably long, in which event, or if a majority of the persons representing the signers of such petition shall determine said ballot-title to be misleading or unreasonably long, a majority of such persons representing signers shall select another ballot-title that shall fairly describe the measure submitted to vote. Such ballot-titles shall be numbered consecutively in the order in which they are filed and shall be printed on the official ballot in that order, together with their respective numbers prefixed in bold-faced type. Each ballot-title shall appear on the official ballot but once and shall be separated from the other ballot-titles next to it by heavy black rules and shall be followed by the words "yes" and "no" with blank spaces to the right and opposite the same, as follows:

(HERE SHALL APPEAR THE BALLOT-TITLE IN FULL)	YES
	NO

A voter desiring to vote for the measure shall mark a cross (X) in the blank space to the right and opposite the word "yes"; a voter desiring to vote against the measure shall mark a cross (X) in the blank space to the right and opposite the word "no"; and the votes so marked shall be counted accordingly.

Secretary of State, certificate of.

Section 5. The secretary of state, at the time he certifies to the county clerks of the several counties the names of the candidates for state and district offices for general election, shall also certify to them the ballot-titles and numbers of each initiated and referred measure theretofore filed in his office to be voted upon at such election.

Votes, how canvassed.

Section 6. The votes and all measures submitted to the people shall be counted and properly entered after the votes for candidates for office cast at the same election are counted, and shall be counted, canvassed and returned and the result determined and certified in the manner provided by law concerning other elections as near as may be. A majority of the votes cast thereon shall adopt any measure so submitted, and in case of adoption of conflicting provisions, that one which receives the greatest number of affirmative votes shall prevail in all particulars as to which there is a conflict.

Measure, how published.

Section 7. Not later than thirty days, nor earlier than sixty days before any general or special election at which any measure, constitutional amendment, initiated or referred measure or part of a measure, is to be submitted to the people, the Secretary of State shall cause to be published once in full in two newspapers, of opposite political faith, if such there be, in each county in the State, compactly and without unnecessary spacing, a true copy of the title and the text of each constitutional amendment, initiated or referred measure or part of a measure to be submitted, with the number and form in which the ballot title thereof will be printed in the official ballot, together with arguments for and against the same, as hereinafter provided. Any person, committee, or organization, interested for or against any constitutional amendment, initiated or referred measure or part of a measure may file with the Secretary of State not later than seventy (70) days before any special election or general election at which any said constitutional amendment, initiated or referred measure or part of a measure is to be submitted, arguments not exceeding fifteen hundred words in length either for or against any constitutional amendment, initiated or referred measure or part of a measure and showing by what person, committee or organization such argument was authorized; provided that said person, committee or organization shall deposit with the Secretary of State (as custodian for the said newspapers) sufficient moneys to pay for the publication of said arguments at the following rates, viz.: fifty cents (50c) per page per thousand copies to be circulated; provided further that the Secretary of State shall accept no deposit unless the same shall be sufficient to pay for the printing of the argument in the whole number of copies to be circulated in all counties of the State. All arguments bearing on a particular measure shall immediately follow such measure as printed. All affirmative arguments shall precede the negative arguments. Said constitutional amendments, initiated and referred measures, or parts of measures, and all arguments thereon shall be published in a separate part of said newspaper which shall be devoted exclusively to said constitutional amendments, initiated and referred measures, or parts of measures, arguments and statements or advertisements of candidates, as provided in section eight, in the form of a pamphlet whose pages shall be six (6) by nine (9) inches, the type form being 4 1/6 inches by 7 inches and pages shall be numbered consecutively, and it is further provided that said constitutional amendments, initiated or referred measures, or parts of measures, and arguments shall be printed in eight (8) point or brevier type, set solid, and in paying for the publishing of said constitutional amendments, initiated and referred measures and parts of measures, the said eight point brevier type shall be reduced to a nonpareil or six point basis, and payment shall be made as if set in nonpareil type. Provided that the Secretary of State shall issue no voucher to any publisher in any county in which said publications are made, until he shall be furnished with sufficient proof that a copy of said constitutional amendments, initiated and referred measures and parts of measures, and arguments was placed in the hands of every known registered elector, by such publishers making the publication in said county. Provided further that nothing herein shall be construed as requiring more than one copy to be furnished to the same name at the same street address; and provided further that upon the furnishing of such proof, the Secretary of State shall thereupon issue vouchers for the payment of publishing said constitutional amendments, initiated and referred measures and shall, out of moneys collected by him for such purpose, pay to each publisher publishing arguments as provided herein, a sum equal to fifty cents per page, per thousand copies, pro rata for any part of a thousand thereof actually placed in the hands of registered voters by such publishers as required herein.

Whenever the provisions of the Initiative and Referendum are applied to local and municipal affairs, the provisions of this section of this act shall apply; provided, that the city or town clerk or other official designated by law to receive petitions shall perform the duties specified in this section to be done by the Secretary of State; and provided further that said two publications provided for in this section shall be in two papers, if such there be, published within the municipality or local district wherein said Initiative or Referendum vote is to be taken.

State or congressional candidate, statement.

Section 8. Any State or congressional candidate to be voted on at any election at which measures are to be submitted may furnish the Secretary of State prior to the fifty-seventh day before such election a statement or advertisement of his candidacy of not exceeding fifteen hundred words, or not to exceed two printed pages. Provided, that the Secretary of State shall not be required to accept any such statement or advertisement unless such candidate shall deposit with him (as custodian for the said newspaper) sufficient moneys to pay for the publication thereof at the rate of fifty cents (50c) per page per thousand copies to be circulated within the district or districts wherein such candidate appears upon the official ballot; provided, further, that no deposit shall be accepted unless it be sufficient to pay for the publication in all copies to be circulated in the district or districts wherein such candidate appears upon the official ballot.

Measure, time of going into effect.

Section 9. No ordinance, resolution or franchise passed by the legislative body of any city or town shall take effect before thirty days after its final passage and publication, except an ordinance calling a special election or necessary to the immediate preservation of the public peace, health or safety, and not then unless it shall state in a separate section the reasons why it is thus necessary and unless it shall receive the affirmative vote of three-fourths of all the members elected to each branch of such legislative body taken by ayes and noes. If within said thirty days a petition signed by qualified electors equal in number to at least fifteen per cent. of the last preceding vote for all the candidates for governor within such municipality shall be filed with the city or town clerk or other election officer protesting against such ordinance or any part thereof taking effect, such ordinance or part thereof so protested against shall thereupon and thereby be suspended from taking effect and such legislative body shall immediately reconsider the same, and if the same be not repealed it shall forthwith publish the same as other ordinances are published, if no publication has theretofore been made, and shall submit the same to a vote of the qualified electors at the next general municipal election not held within sixty days after said petition is filed, or at a special election to be called thereafter by such legislative body for that purpose, and such ordinance or part thereof shall not take effect unless a majority of the qualified electors voting thereon at such election shall vote in favor thereof. If such petition be signed by qualified electors equal in number to at least ten per cent, but less than fifteen per cent. of the said last preceding vote for all candidates for governor, the legislative body shall submit such ordinance or part thereof to a vote of the qualified electors at the next ensuing general municipal election not held within sixty days after such petition is filed.

Ordinance or amendment submitted, by petition of 5 per cent. vote.

Section 10. Any proposed ordinance, charter or charter amendment may be submitted to the legislative body of any city or town by petition therefor of qualified electors equal in number to at least five per cent of the last preceding vote for all candidates for governor within such municipality by filing the same with the city or town clerk or other election officer, and such proposed ordinance, charter or charter amendment shall be adopted, without alteration, by such legislative body within twenty days after such petition is filed, and if vetoed by the mayor, shall be passed over his veto within ten days after such veto, or the legislative body shall refer such proposed ordinance, charter or charter amendment, in the form petitioned for, to the qualified electors at the next municipal election held not less than sixty days after such petition is filed. If such petition contain a request for a special election and is signed by qualified electors equal in number to at least fifteen per cent. of the said last preceding for governor, the ordinance, charter or charter amendment thereby proposed shall be passed by the legislative body, without amendment or change, within twenty days after such petition shall be filed, and, if vetoed by the mayor, shall be passed over his veto within ten days after such veto, or such legislative body shall refer such proposed ordinance, charter or charter amendment, in the form petitioned for, to the qualified electors at a special election which shall be called within said thirty days and held not less than sixty nor more than ninety days after such petition is filed, unless a special election for some other purpose or a general election is held within said period of time, in which case such proposed ordinance, charter or charter amendment shall be submitted to a vote at such election. The legislative body shall cause such proposed ordinance, charter or charter amendment, as well as those referred to a vote under the preceding section, to be printed in pamphlet form and circulated as herein provided. Alternative ordinances, charter or charter amendments may be submitted at the same election and if two or more conflicting measures be approved by the people, then that one which receives the greatest number of affirmative votes shall be adopted in all particulars as to which there is a conflict.

Vote upon which petition is based.

Section 11. Provided, that in all municipalities where the voting precinct or precincts therein are not wholly within the corporate limits of such municipality, the vote upon which any petition is based, shall be the total vote cast in such municipality at the last preceding election for all candidates for mayor, if there be such office, and if not, then on the total first-choice votes cast in any such municipality for the candidate for commissioner receiving the highest number of votes, added to the total first-choice votes, cast for all of his competitors for the same position.

Local option.

Section 12. This act shall not apply to the provisions of the local option liquor laws providing methods of determining whether the sale of intoxicating liquors shall be prohibited in any county, city, district, ward or precinct.

Petition, qualifications to sign.

Section 13. Every person who is a qualified elector may sign a petition. Any person who shall wilfully and knowingly circulate or cause to be circulated, or sign or procure to be signed, any petition bearing the name, device or motto of any person, organization, association, league or political party or purporting in anywise to be endorsed, approved or submitted by any person, organization, association, league or political party, without the consent, approval and authorization of such person, organization, association, league or political party, or any person signing any name other than his or her own to any petition or knowingly signing his or her name more than once for the same measure at one election, or who is not at the time of signing the same a qualified elector, or any officer or person who shall wilfully do, or with another or others conspire, or agree or confederate to do, any act or acts which shall hinder, delay or in anywise interfere with the calling, holding or conducting of any election permitted under the initiative and referendum powers reserved by the people in Section 1 of Article V. of the Constitution of the State of Colorado or of registering electors therefor or any officer who shall wilfully do any act or acts which shall confuse or tend to confuse the issues submitted or proposed to be submitted at any election, or shall refuse to submit any petition in the form presented for submission at any election, or any officer or person wilfully violating any provision or provisions of this act shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished by a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars or by imprisonment in the penitentiary not exceeding two years, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Sec. 2, Art. XIX, amended before this applies.

Section 14. The provisions of this act requiring publication of measures in pamphlet form shall not be in force as to such measures submitted to the electors of the state at large unless and until the method of publishing such measures not provided in Section 2 of Article XIX of the Constitution of the State of Colorado shall have been changed to permit such publication to be made as provided by law.

(Chapter 4, S. L. 1910.)

ELECTIONS.

PRIMARIES.

AN ACT

CONCERNING NOMINATIONS OF CANDIDATES FOR PUBLIC OFFICE AND FOR POLITICAL PARTY POSITIONS, AND CONCERNING AND REGULATING THE GOVERNMENT OF POLITICAL PARTIES AND POLITICAL ORGANIZATIONS, AND CONCERNING ELECTIONS IN THE STATE OF COLORADO; AND TO PROVIDE FOR PUNISHING VIOLATIONS OF THE PROVISIONS OF THIS ACT, AND TO REPEAL ALL ACTS AND PARTS OF ACTS IN CONFLICT WITH THE PROVISIONS OF THIS ACT.

Be it Enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Colorado:

Nominations by direct primary elections—Exceptions—Assembly nominations—Certification.

Section 1. That all political parties shall make all nominations for candidates for the United States Senate, members of the House of Representatives in Congress, all elective State, District, city, county, city and county, ward and precinct offices, members of the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Colorado, by direct primary elections, and the Secretary of State and county and city clerks in the several counties in Colorado are prohibited from placing on the official election ballot the name of any person as a candidate of any political party not nominated in accordance with the provisions of this act; Provided, That this act, except as hereinafter specifically provided for, shall not be held to apply to nominations for special elections for filling vacancies for unexpired terms, and shall not be held to refer to nominations to municipal offices of any "Incorporated Town," so denominated under the statutes of the State of Colorado, and shall not be held to apply to the selection of delegates to any national political assemblies or to the nomination of presidential electors; and Provided further, That all such last named nominations by political parties shall be made by assemblies of the several political parties, and delegates to assemblies of political parties shall be selected as specified by the rules and regulations of the respective political parties participating therein; and Provided further, That the certification of the due and proper nomination of candidates for presidential electors and for the several offices above referred to in "Incorporated Towns," and to fill vacancies shall be as respectively provided by law.

[For Nomination and Election of U. S. Senators see Pages 3-5.]

Political parties to have separate tickets—Political party defined—Assembly defined.

Sec. 2. Any political organization which, at the general election last preceding any primary election provided for in this act, was represented on the official ballot by either regular party candidates or by individual nominees only may, upon complying with the provisions of this act have a separate primary election ticket as a political party, if its candidate for Governor received ten per cent. of the total vote cast at such last preceding general election in this State; and any such political organization shall be a "political party," within the meaning of the term as used in this act. An assembly of a political party within the meaning of this act is an organized assemblage of voters or delegates representing such political party, organized in accordance with the rules and regulations of such political party.

This act effective—Direct primary election, when and where held.

Sec. 3. This Act shall be, and become effective for the nomination of candidates for election in November, 1912. A direct primary election to nominate candidates to be voted for at the general election in November, 1912, shall be held at the regular polling places in each precinct on the second Tuesday of September, 1912, and biennially thereafter, for the nomination of candidates to be voted for at the succeeding general election. Every direct primary election other than the September primary election shall be held four weeks before the election for which candidates are to be nominated at such direct primary election.

Candidates for nomination, how placed on ballot—Petition, contents of—Assembly candidates for nomination, shall be certified—Assembly officers to make affidavit—Assembly designations—Only one ballot allowed—All candidates receiving ten per cent. of assembly vote to be certified—Assembly candidates to go on ballot in order of vote received—Assembly not to declare a nomination—Candidates must file written acceptance—Petition candidates to follow assembly candidates on ballot.

Sec. 4. All candidates for nominations to be made at any such primary election shall be placed on the direct primary ballot by petition or certificate of designation by assembly, as hereinafter provided.

No such petition shall contain the name of more than one person for the same office. Every such petition shall state the name of the office for which such person is a candidate, his name, postoffice, residence, and street number of residence, and place of business, if any, and shall designate in not more than three words the name of the political party which such candidate represents. All such assembly candidates for nomination by a political party shall be certified by the presiding officer and secretary of the assembly of the political party making the same, and shall be filed within the time, and with the same officer with whom nominations by petition for like offices are to be filed, as in this Act provided; and such presiding officer and secretary so certifying to said candidate for nomination shall add to their signature their respective places of residence and postoffice address, and make oath by affidavit thereto attached before an officer qualified to acknowledge the same that affiants are such officers of such assembly and that the statements contained in such certificate are true to the best of their knowledge and belief.

Assembly designations of candidates for nomination on the Direct Primary Ballot may be made by assemblies of the several political parties and delegates to such assemblies of political parties selected as specified by the rules and regulations of the respective political parties as now provided for the holding of assemblies, or as hereafter may be provided by such political parties for the holding of assemblies by the respective political parties participating therein and as follows:

Any such assembly shall take only one ballot upon candidates for each office to be filled at the ensuing election and within the jurisdiction of such assembly.

Every such candidate receiving ~~ten per cent.~~, or more, of the votes of the duly accredited delegates to such assembly for any office to be voted upon at such ensuing election, shall be certified as hereinbefore provided, and shall be placed upon the Direct Primary ballot as a candidate for such office before the ensuing Primary election.

All candidates designated and certified by assembly for a particular office shall be placed on the Direct Primary Ballot in the order of the vote received by each such candidate: That is to say, the candidate receiving the highest vote shall be placed first in order on such Direct Primary Ballot, followed by the candidate receiving the next highest vote, and so on until all of the candidates so designated by such assembly shall have been placed on such ballot; Provided, that no assembly shall in any wise declare that any candidate voted for, has received the nomination of any such assembly, and, Provided further, that any candidate so designated by assembly shall file his written acceptance of the same with the officer with whom certificates and petitions are herein provided to be filed, within seven days after the adjournment of such assembly. All candidates by petition for any particular office shall follow assembly candidates and shall be placed on the Direct Primary Ballot in alphabetical order.

Number of signatures required on petitions—Limitation—Electors signing petition to give address and precincts, and make oath—Petition requirements—Acceptance of candidate.

Sec. 5. Every such petition in the case of a candidate for any National, State or district office greater than a county, shall be signed by not less than three hundred duly qualified electors, resident within the State or district for which the officer is to be elected, and in the case of a candidate for any other elective office, shall be signed by not less than one hundred duly qualified electors, resident within the political subdivision for which the officer is to be elected; Provided, however, That no such petition shall require more signers thereto than ten per cent. of the gubernatorial votes cast by such political party at the last preceding election in such political subdivision. The electors supporting such petition shall write opposite their names their respective addresses, and election precincts wherein resident as such electors, and shall make oath by affidavit thereto attached, before any officer authorized to administer the same, to the truth thereof, and that each such candidate is placed in nomination on behalf of the political party named in the petition, and is affiliated with the principles thereof; that affiants intend to vote for such candidate at the ensuing direct primary election, and that affiants have not signed any other petition for any other candidate for the same office designated by such petition. Such petition may consist of one or more sheets, to be fastened together in the form of one petition, but each sheet shall contain the same heading, and the affidavit of the subscribing electors shall be endorsed on the sheet on which their names shall be signed. Every such petition before the same is filed with the proper officer as herein designated, shall have endorsed thereon or thereto appended in writing, either on the first or last sheet of said petition, the acceptance of such candidate of such nomination by acknowledgment before any officer authorized to take acknowledgments.

Petitions, where, when, and with whom filed.

Sec. 6. Every such petition shall, in the case of a candidate for any National, State or district office greater than a county, be filed in the office of the Secretary of State, and in the case of a candidate for any other elective office, other than municipal or city, in the office of the county clerk wherein such candidate is placed in nomination, not more than sixty days and not less than thirty days prior to the ensuing direct primary election, and in the case of a municipal or city candidate, in the office of the municipal or city clerk, not more than thirty days and not less than twenty days prior to the ensuing direct primary election.

Secretary of state shall transmit list of candidates to county clerks—Primary election notice to be published and posted.

Sec. 7. At least twenty days before any September direct primary election, the Secretary of State shall transmit to each county clerk a certified list of each and every person entitled to be voted for at such primary election, and the office for which such person is a candidate, together with the other details mentioned in the nomination papers filed in the office of the Secretary of State. Each county clerk shall, at least ten days before the September direct primary election, publish once in a condensed form under the proper party designation and under the title of each office, the names and addresses of all persons for whom nomination papers have been filed, insofar as the same shall effect the electors of his county, giving the date of the direct primary election, the hours during which the polls will be open, and reciting that the said primary election will be held in the lawful polling places designated in each precinct, and shall cause to be posted copies of such notice in at least two public places in all rural precincts in his county.

Publication in two newspapers.

Sec. 8. Any publication required in this act shall be made once in two newspapers, if such there be, of general circulation, published in each county or city where such direct primary elections are to be held, representing the two political parties that cast respectively the largest and the next largest vote in such city or county at the last preceding general election.

Method of voting—Separate party ballots—All tickets must be uniform—Arrangement of ballot—Arrangement of names on direct primary ballot—City and municipal elections—Duties of city or municipal clerk—Form of ballot—General form of ballot to be followed.

Sec. 9. The method of voting at such direct primary election shall be by ballot, as herein provided.

Not later than ten days before the September direct primary election, the county clerk shall group all the candidates for each party by themselves and shall prepare at once in writing a separate sample ballot for each party for public inspection and shall forthwith proceed to have the primary election ballots printed in the following manner:

All tickets shall be uniform in color and size, shall be white and printed in black ink. Across the head of each ballot shall be printed in plain black type, "OFFICIAL DIRECT PRIMARY ELECTION BALLOT." On the next line shall be printed the name of the political party, and below that the precinct, ward, city and county in which the ballot is to be used. Then shall follow the words, "To Vote for a Person Mark a Cross (X) in the First Square at the Right of the Name of the Person For Whom You Desire to Vote." Beginning at the top of the left hand column at the left of the line in black type, shall appear the designated office for which the respective names following are the names of candidates, and to the extreme right of the same line the words, "Vote For," then the words, "One," "Two," or a spelled number designating how many persons under that head are to be voted for.

Following this shall come the name of each candidate for that office, enclosed in a light-faced rule, with a square to the right of said name, said square being separated by a heavy, black-faced rule, the parallel rules containing the names and the squares to be one-sixth of an inch apart and not more than two and one-sixth inches long over all, and following the names of all the candidates for any particular office shall be a blank space or spaces, wherein the voter may write the name or names of one or more candidates according to the number of candidates to be nominated for such office, for which the voter is entitled to vote. Each position, with the names of the candidates for that office shall be separated from the following one by a black-faced rule, to separate each position clearly. The positions shall be arranged as follows, insofar as selections are to be made or preferences indicated in such county under the provisions of this act: First, candidates for United States Senator; next, congressional candidates; next, State candidates; next, legislative candidates; next, other district candidates greater than a county; next, county candidates; next, precinct candidates; next, candidates for precinct members of the party committees of the several parties. The names of the candidates for each office upon the ballot and under the heading designating each official position upon the ballot to be used in voting, shall be arranged as provided in section 4 of this act. A black space two inches square shall be printed on the face of the ballot in the lower, left-hand corner of each ticket of the ballot. There shall be no other printing or distinguishing marks on the ballot except as in this act specifically provided. Sample ballots shall be in the same form as the official ballot, but upon colored paper.

In the city or municipal elections, it shall be the duty of the city or municipal clerk to prepare the ballots and arrange the positions of the offices on such ballots, commencing with the office of mayor, using his reasonable discretion as to such arrangement. The duties provided for in this act to be performed by the county clerk with reference to candidates for county and district offices or either of them, shall in like manner be performed by the city or municipal clerk in each city or municipality, with reference to the preparation of ballots and all other matters connected with direct primary election for candidates for city or municipal offices.

The form of ballot shall be substantially as follows:

“OFFICIAL DIRECT PRIMARY ELECTION BALLOT.”

.....PARTY. (DESIGNATION OF PARTY.)

When offices other than those given in the form above are to be filled at the coming election, the officer preparing the ballot shall use substantially the above form, putting the proper designation of the office in the space as above, and the names of the candidates therefor under the same, as indicated.

Party ballots to be fastened together—All party direct primary elections to be held at same time and place.

Sec. 10. Each political party entitled to participate in any direct primary election shall have a separate party ticket and all such party tickets shall have a perforated stub at the top thereof, not less than one inch in width, and the several tickets of each political party shall be securely fastened together at the top and folded by one of the judges of election prior to delivery thereof to the voter. The direct primary election of all political parties shall be held at the same time and at the same polling places and shall be conducted by the same election officials.

Qualifications of voters at direct primary elections—Voters must be registered—Method of voting—Spoiled ballots—Voter may write in name of person not printed on ballot—Blank ballot box, contents to be destroyed—Challenged voter to make oath.

Sec. 11. Every person possessing the constitutional qualifications of a voter, over the age of twenty-one years, a citizen of the United States, and who shall have resided in the State one year immediately preceding the ensuing election at which such person may legally vote, and who shall have resided in the county ninety days, in the city or town thirty days, and in the ward or precinct ten days next preceding such primary election, shall be entitled to vote thereat; Provided, That every such voter shall also be properly registered, if such registration shall be required by law for primary elections. Each voter desiring to vote at said primary election shall have the right to receive a ballot made up as aforesaid, and upon receiving said ballot the voter shall retire to one of the booths provided for such primary election and without undue delay, mark the respective party ballot desired to be voted by him, and shall then return the party ballot to be voted, to one of the judges of election by whom the same shall be numbered by writing, in the order in which it shall be received, the number thereof, on the opposite side of the black square aforesaid, and the corner whereof shall be turned and pasted down so that such number shall be concealed by said black square. Immediately thereafter said party ballot shall be by the voter deposited in the ballot box provided for that purpose, in the presence of the election officers. The remaining tickets attached together shall be folded in like manner by the voter, who shall thereupon without leaving the polling place deposit the remaining tickets in a separate ballot box to be marked and designated as the Blank Ballot Box. In the event of any such ballot being spoiled, the voter shall be entitled to receive additional ballots as provided by law for general elections. The voter shall designate his choice of candidates on his party ballot by marking a cross in each of the small squares at the right of the names of candidates for whom he desires to vote, and shall not vote for more candidates for each office than are to be elected thereto at the election to follow the direct primary election, as indicated on the said ballot at the right of each office for which candidates are to be elected. Any voter instead of voting for a candidate whose name is printed on his party ballot, shall be entitled to vote for any other eligible person who is a member of his political party, in lieu of such candidate, by writing the name of such person in the blank space immediately following the printed names of candidates for such office; Provided, further, That in no case shall the voter write on his party ballot the name of any candidate appearing on any other party ballot. Immediately after the ballots voted shall have been counted and certified to by the clerks and judges as herein provided, said clerks and judges shall without examination destroy the tickets deposited in the Blank Ballot Box. If such voter is challenged he shall be required to make oath or affirm as follows: "I do hereby solemnly swear (or affirm) that I am a qualified voter, that I am a member of and affiliated with one of the political parties represented by ballot at this primary election, and that I will at this election vote only under the ballot and only for the candidates of the political party of which I am a member and with which I am affiliated." Said oath shall be administered to one or more voters at the same time.

Defective ballots—Intent of voter must govern.

Sec. 12. If it is impossible to determine the choice of any voter for any nomination to be made, his ballot shall not be counted for such office; Provided, That a defective or imperfect cross on any ballot in a proper place shall be counted, if there be no other mark or cross in ink on such ballot indicating an intention to vote for some person or persons other than those indicated by the first mentioned defective cross or mark for some other candidate for the same office. If an imperfect cross or mark in ink be found near the name of a candidate, which cross or mark appears to have been made with intent to designate the candidate so marked as the one voted for, such ballot shall not be rejected if the intent of the voter to designate the person for whom he wished to vote can be reasonably gathered therefrom.

General election laws to apply to primary elections.

Sec. 13. Except as herein otherwise provided all direct primary elections shall be conducted the same as general elections under the general election laws of the State of Colorado, as far as the provisions thereof are applicable, and the election officers for such primary elections shall have the same powers and shall perform the same duties as those provided by law for general elections.

Appointment of judges and clerks.

Sec. 14. Judges and clerks of direct primary elections shall be appointed and designated in the manner provided for the conduct of general elections under the laws of the State of Colorado, and the judges of direct primary elections shall in all cases be the registrars of elections and the regularly appointed election judges for general elections under the laws of the State of Colorado.

Watchers—Party chairman to certify names of watchers to election judges—Penalty for not allowing watchers to act—Fees of judges and clerks.

Sec. 15. Each political party participating in a direct primary election under the provisions of this act shall be entitled to have one of its members serve as watcher of such election in each voting precinct in the city or county where such primary election shall be held; Provided, That the chairman of the county or city committee of such political party shall certify the names of the persons so selected to the judges of election in the several precincts, and such persons shall be entitled to enter into the polling places and to witness the casting and counting of the ballots at such primary election; and Provided further, That any and all judges of election who shall refuse to allow any duly appointed watcher as herein provided to act, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction shall be punished by confinement in the county jail, not less than thirty days nor more than six months.

The same fees shall be allowed and paid from the public funds for the services of anyone so serving as a judge, or clerk of direct primary elections as is provided by law for such services for general elections.

Secretary of state to provide copies of this law.

Sec. 16. The Secretary of State shall provide copies of this law, in conjunction with the general election laws of the State and transmit the same to the county clerk of each county at least twenty (20) days before any such direct primary election, and the same shall be in lieu of any such copies of said general election laws required to be transmitted to county clerks by the Secretary of State for use in such counties.

When polls are to open and close—Who may vote after closing hour—No adjournment or intermission permitted.

Sec. 17. The polls of the several election precincts on direct primary election day shall be kept open from 7 o'clock in the morning until 7 o'clock in the evening of said day. If at the hour of closing there are electors at the polling place desiring to vote and who are qualified to participate therein, and who have not been able to do so since appearing at the polling place, said polls shall be kept open long enough after the hour of closing to allow those so present at that hour to vote. No one not present at the hour of closing shall be entitled to vote because the polls may not be actually closed when he arrives. No adjournment or intermission whatever shall take place until the polls shall be closed, and until all the votes cast at such poll have been counted and the result publicly announced.

Duties of judges and clerks in counting ballots.

Sec. 18. As soon as the polls are finally closed, the judges of election shall open the ballot boxes at each polling place and proceed to take therefrom the ballots. Said officers shall count the number of ballots cast by each party, at the same time bunching the tickets cast for each party together in separate piles, and shall then fasten each pile together. As soon as the clerks and judges shall have assorted and fastened together the ballots of each separate party, they shall take the tally sheets provided by the county, municipal or city clerk, and shall count all the ballots for each party separately until the count is completed, and shall certify to the number of votes cast for each candidate. The tally sheets shall be so kept that such sheets shall show the number of votes received. They shall then place the counted ballots in a box, but in no case shall they intermingle party votes. After all have been counted and certified to by the clerks and judges, they shall seal the returns for all parties in one envelope, to be returned to the county, municipal or city clerk.

Tally sheets furnished—Form of tally sheets—Arrangement of names on tally sheets.

Sec. 19. Two sets of tally sheets for each political party having candidates to be voted for at said direct primary election shall be furnished for each election precinct by the county, municipal or city clerk, at the same time and in the same manner that the ballots are furnished, and shall be as follows:

Each tally sheet, or the first sheet of each tally book to be furnished, shall be headed, "Tally sheet for.....
(name of political party).....
 (name of city).....(county).....
 (ward).....(election precinct), for a direct primary election held.....(date)."

The names of candidates shall be placed on the tally sheets in the order in which they appear on the official ballots, and in each case shall have the proper party designation at the head thereof.

General election laws to apply.

Sec. 20. In making out and certifying the returns of the direct primary election in the several election precincts, the same shall be done and all acts pertaining thereto conducted in accordance with the provisions of the general election laws for the returns of general elections, except as herein otherwise provided.

Precinct officers—Election of same—Precinct committee men and women to constitute central committees—Term of two years—Vacancies in committees, how filled—Vacancies in nominations, how filled—Committee officers, how and when elected—State central committee, how constituted—Other party committees, how formed—Election of committee officers—Additional members allowed when sufficient votes are polled—State central committee to make rules—Vacancies, how filled—Sub-committees—Present committees legal.

Sec. 21. There shall be elected by each political party, subject to this law, at said biennial direct primary election, a committeeman and committeewoman for each election precinct, who shall be a resident of such precinct. The candidate for committeeman or committeewoman in any precinct, who receives a plurality of votes on any party direct primary ballot, shall be declared the elected committeeman and committeewoman of such party for such precinct. The members of the committee thus elected shall be the Representatives of their respective political parties in and for such precincts in all ward or subdivision committees that may be formed. The members of the committee elected in each precinct in each county shall constitute the county central committee of each of said respective political parties. And the members of the committee elected in the several precincts in each city or municipality shall constitute the city or municipal central committee of each of said respective political parties, and shall have the same powers and jurisdiction as to the affairs of their several parties in such city or municipal matters that the county committee has in county matters. Each member of the committee shall hold such position for the term of two years from the date of the first meeting of said committee immediately following the election. In case of a vacancy the remaining members of said county, city or municipal committee may select a successor to fill the vacancy, who shall be a resident of the precinct in which the vacancy occurred.

Vacancies in nominations occurring after the holding of any direct primary election, prior to eight days before election, shall be filled by the respective party committees of the city, municipality, district, county or State, as the case may be, in which such vacancies occur. Certificates of nomination to fill such vacancies shall be forthwith prepared and filed by such respective party committees with the respective officers in whose offices original petitions of candidacy are by this act required to be filed.

All of said county, municipal and city committees, together with the respective candidates nominated for office, shall meet to organize by electing a chairman, and a vice-chairman who shall be a woman, and a secretary, within five (5) days after the candidates for their respective political parties shall have been nominated. The chairman and vice-chairman of the several party county committees shall constitute the State Central Committee of each such party, and the chairman and vice-chairman of the several county committees shall also constitute the congressional, judicial, senatorial and representative committees for the counties composing each such congressional, judicial, senatorial or representative district, respectively. Said State, congressional, judicial, senatorial and representative central committees of the respective political parties together with the respective candidates nominated for office shall meet to organize by electing a chairman and a vice-chairman as above provided, and secretary of each of said committees, respectively, within ten days after the nomination of such candidates; Provided, That any political party that polled ten thousand (10,000) votes at the last preceding general election for its candidate for Governor shall be entitled to two additional members of said State Central Committee from such county, one of whom shall be a woman and two such additional members thereof for each additional ten thousand (10,000) votes or major portion thereof so polled. Such additional members of said State Central Committee shall be elected by the respective county central committees of the several political parties. The State Central Committee shall have power to make all rules for party government. All vacancies in State, congressional, judicial, senatorial or representative committees shall be filled by the respective county central committees. All central committees may select managing or executive committees, and may authorize such sub-committees to exercise any and all powers conferred upon the county, city, municipal, state, congressional, judicial, senatorial or representative central committees respectively.

Regularly elected and constituted party central committees of the respective political parties, at the time this act shall take effect, shall be considered the legal committees of the respective political parties until direct primary elections shall be held under the provisions of this act, and said central committees and each of them, and the officers and members thereof, shall be subject to all the conditions of this section.

State platform, how formulated, when and by whom.

Sec. 22. The candidates for the various State Offices, and for the State Senate and House of Representatives, nominated by each political party at such direct primary election, the State Chairman and State Senators of such political party whose term of office extends beyond the second Tuesday in January of the year next ensuing shall meet in the City of Denver at a place to be designated by the respective State Chairmen, at twelve o'clock noon on the fourth Tuesday of September after the date on which any direct primary election is held preliminary to any general election. They shall forthwith formulate the State platform of their respective parties. The platform of each party shall be framed and made public not later than five days after the date of such meeting.

Party nominees, how chosen.

Sec. 23. Candidates voted on for offices at direct primary elections who receive a plurality of the votes cast shall be the respective party nominees for such respective offices. In the event that there is more than one office of the same kind to be filled, then the number of candidates equal to the number of offices to be filled receiving the highest number of votes shall be the nominees of such political party for such office.

State board of canvassers, how constituted and by whom—Meeting—Certificate to be filed—City, county and municipal votes, how canvassed—Canvassers to file statement—Contents of statement—Ties, how determined—Notice of nomination—Names to appear on official election ballot—Candidates to fill vacancies, must be certified under oath.

Sec. 24. The canvassing of the returns of the direct primary elections as to candidates for State offices, United States Senators and Representatives in Congress, and any other candidate whose district extends beyond the limits of a single county, shall be done by a board of State canvassers, consisting of the Governor, Secretary of State, Auditor of State, Treasurer of State and Attorney General, or any three of them. Said board of State canvassers shall meet at the office of the Secretary of State on the third Tuesday of September, at ten o'clock a. m., next after the holding of such direct primary election. As soon as said board has canvassed said vote it shall file a certificate with the Secretary of State, which certificate shall show the vote of each candidate of each political party for each office. The votes for all county, city and municipal officers cast at any direct primary election shall be canvassed and the returns made by the same officers and in the same manner as the returns of votes cast at the ensuing elections are by law now required to be made. Such canvassing board and other officers canvassing votes cast at such direct primary election shall file with the proper officer a statement and report of such canvass, which statement and report of said direct primary election shall contain:

First. A statement duly certified to containing the names of all candidates voted for at the direct primary election, with the number of votes received, and also the total number of votes received by each candidate and for what office, said statement to be made as to each political party separately.

Second. A statement of the names of the persons or candidates of each political party who are nominated, as hereinbefore provided. Where there is more than one person to be elected to a given office at the ensuing election there shall be included in said statement of nomination the names of so many candidates for said office, nominated under the provisions of this act, as there are persons to be elected to said office at the ensuing election. Said statement shall, in like manner, be made separately as to each political party.

Third. A statement of the whole number of electors registered, where such official has custody of the registry of electors, and the number of ballots cast at said primary election.

If two or more candidates of the same political party are "tied" for the same office, the "tie" shall be determined in such manner as shall be agreed upon by the candidates so "tying." In case such candidates shall fail to agree upon the method of determining such "tie" within five (5) days after the completion of the canvass of such vote, the same shall then be determined by lot, to be cast then and there by and as the final canvassing board may determine. It shall be the duty of the Secretary of State or the county, city or municipal clerk, as the case may be, upon the completion of any canvass, to immediately mail or deliver in person to each candidate so nominated a notice of such fact, and that his name will be placed upon the official ballot at the ensuing election. The persons whose names are so placed in said statement of nomination shall be the nominees of said respective political parties of which they are candidates, and such names shall be printed upon the official ballot prepared for the ensuing election. No names of candidates of any political party which is required to make nominations under this act shall be placed upon the official election ballot unless such candidate shall have been chosen in accordance with this act, except in case of a vacancy or vacancies, which shall be filled as herein provided. The name of such new candidate shall be certified under oath to the Secretary of State, county clerk or the city or municipal clerk, as the case may be, by the chairman and secretary of said respective party committees.

Errors, omissions and wrongful acts, how corrected—Duty of judge of district court—Burden of proof—Must deposit witness fees—Contempt of court.

Sec. 25. Whenever it shall appear by verified petition to any judge of the District Court that any error or omission has occurred, or is about to occur, in the printing of the name of any candidate on official direct primary election ballots, or that any error has been or is about to be committed in printing such ballots, or that the name of any person has been or is about to be wrongfully placed upon such ballots, or that any wrongful act has been performed or is about to be performed by any judge or clerk of the direct primary election, or by the Secretary of State, or by the county or city or municipal clerk, or by any canvassing board or any member thereof, or by any person charged with a duty under this act, or that any neglect of duty by any of the persons aforesaid has occurred, or is about to occur, such judge shall forthwith, by order, require the officer or person or persons charged with the error, wrongful act or neglect, to forthwith correct the error, desist from the wrongful act, or perform the duty, and to do as the court shall order, or to show cause forthwith why such error should not be corrected, wrongful act desisted from, or such duty or order not performed. Provided, that the person or persons, committee or committees complaining of any such act, shall have the burden of proof cast upon him or them in the premises, and shall be required to deposit in court the sum of two dollars ($2.00) per day for each person so cited or summoned into court, as a party or as a witness, to be paid to the said party or witness in case the charge is not sustained, said money so deposited shall be returned to the party depositing the same in case the said charges or any of them are sustained. Failing to obey the order of such court shall be contempt of court. Every such order shall be subject to summary review by the Supreme Court upon writ of error.

Independent candidates—Nomination of same—Political party names not to be used—Number of signatures required—Certificate may be amended—Committee to fill vacancies—Signers must make oath by affidavit—Certificate, where filed—Certificate, when filed—Written acceptance of nominations—Rights and penalties.

Sec. 26. Candidates for public office who do not wish to affiliate with a political party as defined in this act may be nominated otherwise than by a direct primary election, in the manner following:

A certificate of nomination shall be prepared which shall contain the name or names of any candidate or candidates for the office or offices to be filled, their several postoffice addresses, if any, their several residences, and if in a city or town, the street, number of residence and place of business, if any, and shall designate in not more than five words, instead of the party, the political or other name which the signers shall select; Provided, That no name of any political party as defined in this act shall be used, in whole or in part, for this purpose. Said certificate shall be signed by legal voters residing within the district or political division in and for which the officer or officers are to be elected, to the number of at least three hundred when the nomination is for an office to be filled by the voters of the entire State; of at least one hundred where the nomination is for an office to be filled by the voters of a district less than a State and greater than a county, or by the voters of a county or city or municipality; of at least fifty when the nomination is for an office to be filled by the voters of a precinct, ward, or other division less than a county, other than a city. The signatures to said certificate of nomination need not all be appended to one paper, but no certificate shall be legal that does not contain the requisite number of names of voters whose names do not appear on any certificate previously filed under the provisions of this section; Provided, That any such certificate of nomination may be amended in this last respect at any time prior to ten days before the day of election. The certificate may designate or appoint upon the face thereof one or more persons as a committee to fill vacancies, and in case of vacancy in any of such nominations, the same may be filled by such person or committee by a verified certificate to that effect, duly filed with the officer with whom the original certificate of nomination was filed, at least eight days before the day of election. Each voter signing a certificate shall add to his signature his place of residence, and shall, before an officer duly authorized to administer the same, make oath by affidavit thereto attached, that he is a voter within and for the political division for which such nomination is made, and has truly stated his residence, and has not voted at any primary election to nominate a candidate for such office. Said certificate, when executed and acknowledged as before prescribed, shall be filed with the Secretary of State, when for an office or offices to be filled by the voters of the entire State or of any division or district greater than a county: with the county clerk when for an office or offices to be filled by the voters of an entire county or county precinct, and with the city, municipal or town clerk when for an office or offices to be filled by the voters of such city, municipality or town.

The certificates of nomination to be filed with the Secretary of State shall be filed not more than sixty days nor less than thirty days before the day of election; and the certificates of nomination to be filed with the county clerk shall be filed not more than sixty nor less than fifteen days before the day of election, and the certificates of nomination to be filed with the city, municipal or town clerk shall be filed not more than thirty nor less than fifteen days before the day of election.

Within eight days after the filing of any such certificate of nomination with the proper official as aforesaid each and every candidate named in said certificate of nomination shall formally accept the nomination therein tendered in a written statement, duly acknowledged, which said statement shall contain the full name and place of residence of such candidate, and if in a city or town, the street number of the same (if any there be) and his place of business, if any, and postoffice address.

When the provisions of this section have been complied with, the candidate or candidates named in such certificates of nomination shall be entitled to all the rights and subject to all the penalties of candidates nominated at direct primary elections. This section shall be liberally construed, so as to give independent candidates for public office every reasonable opportunity to make their candidacy effective.

Secretary of state and attorney general to prepare forms.

Sec. 27. It shall be the duty of the Secretary of State and the Attorney General, on or before July 1, 1912, to prepare all forms necessary to carry out the provisions of this act and in accordance therewith, which forms shall be substantially followed in all direct primary elections held in pursuance thereof. Such forms shall be printed, with copies of this act, for public use and distribution.

Campaign expenses—Limitations of personal expenses defined—Penalty for violations of this section.

Sec. 28. No person shall, in order to aid or promote or secure his own nomination to public office, or the nomination of any other person to public office, under the provisions of this act, or any amendment thereto, directly or indirectly himself, or directly or indirectly by or through any other person for him, or on behalf of such other person, give, pay, expend or contribute, or promise to give, pay, expend or contribute, any money or other valuable thing, except for personal expenses. Personal expenses within the meaning of this act shall not in any event exceed five thousand dollars ($5,000), if such person is a candidate for United States Senator, twenty-five hundred dollars ($2,500) if such person is a candidate for a State office or representative in Congress, and one thousand dollars ($1,000) if such person is a candidate for any other office, and any expenditure in excess of such sums by any person or persons for any such purpose within one year prior to such direct primary shall be unlawful. No person, co-partnership, organization or corporation shall directly or indirectly contribute or expend, pay or become liable for any of the expenses of any candidate. Any candidate, or other person who, or co-partnership, organization or corporation which shall violate any of the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a felony, and on conviction shall be fined in a sum not less than five hundred dollars ($500.00), or imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than one year, or both.

Candidates must file sworn statement of expenses.

Sec. 29. Every candidate for nomination under the terms of this act, or any amendment thereto, shall, not less than ten days after the day of holding the direct primary election or convention at which he is a candidate, or after the filing of any certificate of nomination wherein such candidate is nominated for public office, file an itemized statement in writing, duly sworn to as to its correctness, with the officer with whom his declaration of candidacy or other nomination paper is filed, setting forth each sum of money and thing of value, or any consideration whatever, contributed, paid or promised by him, for the purpose of securing or influencing, or in any way affecting, his nomination to said office. Said statement shall set forth the sums paid as personal expenses, stating fully the nature, kind and character of the expense. Such statement, when so filed, shall immediately be subject to the inspection and examination of any elector, and shall be a part of the public records.

Penalty for not filing sworn statement of expenses.

Sec. 30. Any candidate for nomination for any office under the terms of this act who shall fail, neglect or refuse to file with the proper officer the statement provided for in the preceding section within the time provided therein, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and on conviction shall be fined not less than one hundred dollars ($100) and not more than five hundred ($500) or by imprisonment in the county jail not less than ten days nor more than six months or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Provisions of statutes to apply to direct primary elections.

Sec. 31. The provisions of the statutes of Colorado in relation to the holding of general elections, the giving or solicitation of bribes, the solicitation of voters at the polls, the challenging of voters, the manner of conducting elections, of counting the ballots and making returns thereof, and all other kindred subjects shall apply to all direct primary elections insofar as they are consistent with this act, the intent of this act being to place direct primary elections under the regulation and protection of the laws now in force as to general elections, except as specifically provided otherwise in this act.

Forgery.

Sec. 32. Any person who shall forge any name of a person as a signer or witness to a nomination paper shall be deemed guilty of forgery, and, on conviction thereof, shall be punished accordingly.

Candidates for United States senator nominated at direct primary elections—Secretary of state to certify result to general assembly—Name of candidate to go on official ballot—Secretary of state to certify result of vote to the general assembly—Penalty for swearing falsely.

Sec. 33. At all direct primary elections next preceding the election of a United States Senator by the General Assembly of Colorado there shall be placed upon the respective official direct primary election ballots, by the proper officer preparing such ballots, the names of the several candidates for the office of United States Senator for whose nomination certificates have been duly made and filed under the provisions of this act; the votes for each of such candidates shall be counted and certified to by the election judges and clerks in the same manner as the votes for other candidates, and records of the votes for each of such candidates shall be made out and sworn to by the board of canvassers of each county of the State and returned to the Secretary of State at the same time and in like manner as they shall transmit other returns of such primary elections required by this act.

It shall be the duty of the Secretary of State to certify to both Houses of the General Assembly the names of the respective persons of each political party for whom votes were cast at any direct primary election under the provisions of this act at which such persons were candidates for the nomination for United States Senator, which said certificates shall be made and filed upon the first day of the session of such General Assembly convening next after said direct primary election.

The name of each candidate for the United States Senate who shall have received a plurality of the votes for United States Senator on his party ticket shall be placed on the regular election ballot with the proper party designated opposite each name and in all respects the same as a nominee for a State office is placed upon each ballot and the result of the vote at such general election shall be canvassed as are canvassed the votes for State officers, and the Secretary of State shall certify to both Houses of the General Assembly the names and number of votes cast for each such candidate for United States Senator, which said certificate shall be made and filed upon the first day of the session of such General Assembly convening next after said general election.

If any person whose vote is challenged under the provisions of this act shall knowingly, wilfully and corruptly swear or affirm falsely, he shall be deemed guilty of perjury and, on conviction thereof, shall be punished accordingly.

[For nomination and election of United States Senators see pages 3-5.]

Legislative candidate may make statement—Form of statement—Pledge printed on ballot.

Sec. 34. Any candidate, under this Act, for the office of State Senator or member of the House of Representatives of Colorado, if he desires to do so, may sign and file with his declaration of candidacy or nomination paper either of the following declarations:

STATEMENT.

I hereby declare to the People of the State of Colorado, as well as to the People of my Legislative District, that during my term of office, I will always vote for the candidate for United States Senator in Congress who has received the highest number of the People's votes for that office at the general election next preceding the election of a Senator in Congress, without regard to my individual preference.

Signature of Candidate for Nomination.

And in such case there shall be printed on the official direct primary election ballot, opposite or just below such candidate's name, the following: "Pledged to vote for People's choice for United States Senator."

STATEMENT.

I hereby declare to the people of the State of Colorado, and particularly to the people of my legislative district, that, during my term of office, whenever called upon to vote for United States Senator, I will always vote for the candidate for United States Senator who has received the highest number of votes upon my party ticket for that position at the direct primary election next preceding the election of United States Senator.

Signature of Candidate for Nomination.

And in such case there shall be printed on the official direct primary election ballot, opposite or just below such candidate's name, the following: "Pledged to vote for party's choice for United States Senator."

Such declaration of candidacy or nomination paper shall be signed as above by the elector seeking such nomination.

[Sec. 34 impliedly repealed. See pages 3-5.]

Committee contests, how determined.

Sec. 35. All disputes or contests over the regularity or legality of the existence of any party committee in the State of Colorado, or any subdivision thereof, shall be determined as provided by law.

Filings to be public records—Certified copies of filings—All filings to be preserved for two years.

Sec. 36. All certificates of nomination, acceptances and withdrawals, as soon as filed, shall be public records, and shall be open to public inspection under proper regulations; and when a copy of any certificate of nomination, acceptance or withdrawal is presented at the time the original is filed, or at any time thereafter, and a request is made to have such copy compared and certified, the officer with whom such certificate of nomination was filed shall forthwith compare such copy with the original on file, and, if necessary, correct the copy and certify and deliver the copy to the person who presented it. All certificates of nomination, acceptances, withdrawals, poll books, tally sheets, ballots and ballot stubs shall be preserved as other records are for two years after the election to which they pertain, unless otherwise ordered or restrained by some court. After which they shall be destroyed by the official custodian thereof by fire, without anyone inspecting the same.

Withdrawal from nominations.

Sec. 37. Any person who has been nominated and who has accepted a nomination, as provided in this act, may cause his name to be withdrawn from nomination, at any time prior to ten days before election, by a written instrument declining such nomination, which written instrument shall be signed and acknowledged by such candidate before some officer authorized by the laws of this State to take acknowledgment of deeds, which instrument shall be filed with the Secretary of State or county, city or municipal clerk with whom the original certificate nominating such candidate was filed.

Death of a candidate—Name to be erased or omitted from ballot.

Sec. 38. If any person nominated as herein provided dies within eight days before the day fixed by law for the election, and the fact of such death becomes known to the Secretary of State, or county, city or municipal clerk in whose office the certificate of nomination nominating such person was filed, the name of the deceased candidate shall not be printed upon the ballots for the election, and, if already printed, shall, if possible, be erased or canceled before the ballots are delivered to the electors.

Certified lists of registration furnished.

Sec. 39. The several county, city and municipal clerks shall furnish the election judges with certified lists of all registered voters, if such registration be required by law, along with the poll books and other election material, as provided by law for the conduct of general elections.

Bribery of voter—Penalty.

Sec. 40. Any person who shall offer or, with knowledge of the same, permit any person to offer for his benefit any bribe or promise of gain to a voter to induce him to sign any election paper or any person who shall accept any such bribe or promise of gain of any kind in the nature of a bribe as consideration for signing the same, whether such bribe or promise of gain in the nature of a bribe be offered or accepted before or after signing, shall be guilty of a felony, and, upon trial and conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine of five hundred dollars ($500.00), or by confinement in the penitentiary not less than one year, or both.

Election offenses—Punishment.

Sec. 41. Any act declared an offense by the general laws of this State concerning elections shall also, in like case, be an offense in all direct primary elections and shall be punished in the same form and manner as therein provided, and all the penalties and provisions of the law as to such elections, except as herein otherwise provided, shall apply in such case with equal force and to the same extent as though fully set forth in this act.

Misuse or nomination papers a misdemeanor—Punishment.

Sec. 42. Any person who, being in possession of nomination papers entitled to be filed under this act, or any act of the General Assembly, shall wrongfully or wilfully either destroy, mutilate, suppress, neglect or fail to cause the same to be filed at the proper time in the proper office, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail not to exceed six (6) months, or by a fine not to exceed five hundred dollars ($500.00), or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Neglect of duty by direct primary election officers, a felony—Punishment.

Sec. 43. If any judge or clerk of a direct primary election, or other officers or persons on whom any duty is enjoined by this law, shall be guilty of any wilful neglect of such duty or of any corrupt conduct in the discharge of the same, such judge, clerk, officer or other person shall be deemed guilty of a felony, and upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine of five hundred dollars ($500.00), or by confinement in the penitentiary not less than one year, or both.

Election contests to be adjudicated by county or district court—Original jurisdiction—When the supreme court is to take original jurisdiction—Procedure—Service of Petition.

Sec. 44. All election contests arising out of any direct primary election or the placing in nomination by petition of any such candidate, or the failure to file any such petition or place any such candidate in nomination, by any person, official, board or convention in violation of any of the provisions of this act, shall be summarily adjudicated by the County or District Court sitting within or for the political subdivision within or from which any such petition is to be filed or any such nomination is to be made or in which any such election controversy or contest may arise, and such of said respective courts first acquiring jurisdiction of any such controversy or contest, shall have original jurisdiction of any such controversy or contest as aforesaid, subject only to the summary appellate jurisdiction of the Supreme Court of the State by writ of error, and, in all cases involving petitions, nominations and elections concerning national or State offices, voted or to be voted on at any such primary election, the Supreme Court of the State shall take original jurisdiction for the purpose of summarily adjudicating any such controversy or contest. Every such procedure shall be by petition to the proper court, setting forth the grounds of complaint, and in case of any contest the contestee shall be made respondent. Said petition shall be verified and a copy thereof shall within five days after the occurrence of the ground of complaint be served on the respondent or respondents therein named, requiring such respondent or respondents to answer thereto under oath within five days after such service. If personal service of such petition can not be procured in the State on such respondent, then service thereof may be made by leaving a copy of such petition within such time with the clerk of the court having original jurisdiction of any such controversy or contest, and such clerk shall thereupon make diligent inquiry and endeavor to procure such respondent to make answer to said complaint as aforesaid, and upon the expiration of the time for such answer the court so having jurisdiction of any such controversy or contest shall forthwith set the same for trial on the merits thereof summarily adjudicating the same.

Election expenses how paid.

Sec. 45. All ballots, blanks and other supplies to be used at any direct primary election held under the provisions of this act, and all expenses incurred in the preparation or the conduct of such primary election shall be paid out of the treasury of the city, municipality, county or State, as the case may be, in the same manner, with like effect, and by the same officers as in the case of general elections.

Laws applicable to this act.

Sec. 46. In construing the provisions of this act, and of all sections of the general statutes of the State of Colorado hereby made applicable to direct primary elections, the provisions of the general election laws applicable to the ensuing elections, shall apply and govern, except as in this act otherwise provided.

Masculine pronoun to include feminine.

Sec. 47. Wherever the masculine pronoun is used in this act it shall be construed to include feminine, and it shall only be necessary for a voter to state that he is twenty-one years of age in answer to any question in relation to his age.

County clerk defined.

Sec. 48. Wherever the words "county clerk" are used in this act, they shall be construed to mean the county clerk and recorder.

Duties of election commissions.

Sec. 49. The election commission in cities having a special charter providing for such election commission, shall have all the powers and jurisdiction and perform all the duties provided by this act, in respect to county clerks, city or municipal clerks and boards of county commissioners or any other election officials or boards, subject to the general laws of this State, except as otherwise specifically provided by such charter, not inconsistent with the provisions of this act.

Repealing clause.

Sec. 50. All acts and parts of acts in conflict with this act are hereby repealed.

TIME OF HOLDING ELECTIONS.

|--|--|
| 2137. State, congressional and legislative officers to be elected. | 2141. Commencement of terms of office. |
|--|--|

2137. State officers to be elected.—Sec. 2. At the general election, A. D. 1878, and every alternate year thereafter, there shall be elected the following state officers, to wit: One governor, one lieutenant-governor, one secretary of state, one state treasurer, one auditor of state, one superintendent of public instruction, and two regents of the university, and in each representative district of the state such members of the house of representatives as they may severally be entitled to. State senators shall be elected in every senatorial district at the general election in the year when the term of office of senator shall expire in such district, respectively; also, on the first Tuesday succeeding the first Monday of November, A. D. 1878, and every alternate year thereafter, there shall be elected the number of representatives in congress to which the state may be entitled. [G. S., §1156; G. L., §932.]

Note: At the general election in 1882, and every sixth year thereafter, there shall be elected in each Judicial District, one Judge of the District Court, see Sec. 2138, R. S., 1908.

[For election of Supreme Court Judges, District, County and Precinct Officers, see Constitutional Amendment, Pages 7 and 8, herein.]

2141. Commencement of terms of office.—Sec. 6. The regular term of office of all state, district, county and precinct officers and of the judges of the supreme court shall commence on the second Tuesday of January next after their election, except as otherwise provided by law. [G. S., §1160; L. '81, p. 113, §1, amending G. L., §936.]

CALL AND NOTICE OF ELECTIONS.

- | Section. | Section. |

| 2142. Secretary of state notify county clerks. | 2144. County clerk to give notice of election. |
| 2143. Vacancies to be filled at general election—Notice. | 2145. Submitting constitutional amendments. | be elected, and are included in such notice, it shall specify the number of the district, and the name of the member or members whose terms of office will expire. [G. S., §1168; G. L., §944.

2143. Vacancies to be filled at general election—Notice.—Sec. 8. Whenever there is a vacancy in any of the offices mentioned in the preceding section, which is by law to be filled at the general election, at which county officers are elected, the secretary of state shall, at least thirty days previous to said election, give notice in writing as provided for in the preceding section, and said notice shall specify the office in which a vacancy exists; the cause of such vacancy; the name of the officer in whose office it has occurred, and the time when his term of office will expire. [G. S., §1169; G. L., §945.

2144. County clerk give notice of election.—Sec. 9. The county clerk shall give notice in writing of each general or special election, in which shall be stated the time when it will be held, and the officers then to be elected, by causing the same to be published in a newspaper having general circulation in the county, and sending a copy of such notice by mail to the judges of election in each precinct, to be posted at the place of voting, at least fifteen days before such time. [G. S., §1170; G. L., §946.

2145. Submitting constitutional amendments.—Sec. 10. Whenever a proposed constitutional amendment or other question (except the incurring of a bonded indebtedness) is to be submitted to the people of the state, for popular vote at any general election, the secretary of state shall duly, and not less than fifteen days before election, certify the same to the clerk of each county of the state, and the clerk of each county shall include the propositions or questions to be submitted as they will appear in the ballot to be used on election day, in the publication provided for by section eleven of this act, and in the notice provided for by section twelve. [L. '91, p. 150, §16.

2149. Absence in military service—Students—Paupers.
2150. Qualified electors eligible to office.

2146. Qualifications of voter.—Sec. 11. Every person over the age of twenty-one years, possessing the following qualifications, shall be entitled to vote at all elections:

First—He shall be a citizen of the United States.

Second—He shall have resided in this state one year immediately preceding the election at which he offers to vote; in the county ninety days; in the city or town thirty days, and in the ward or precinct ten days. [L. '03, p. 214, §1, amending G. S., §1150; L. '81, p. 113, §1, which amended G. L., §921.

2147. Right of women to vote—Qualifications.—Sec. 12. That every female person shall be entitled to vote at all elections, in the same manner in all respects as male persons are, or shall be entitled to vote by the constitution and laws of this state, and the same qualification as to age, citizenship, and time of residence in the state, county, city, ward and precinct; and all other qualifications required by law to entitle male persons to vote shall be required to entitle female persons to vote. [L. '93, p. 256, §1.

2148. Prisoners can not vote—Effect of pardon or full service—Lunatics.—Sec. 13. No person under guardianship, non compos mentis, or insane, shall be qualified to vote at any election, nor shall any person while confined in any public prison be entitled to vote, but every such person who was a qualified elector prior to such imprisonment, and who is released therefrom by pardon or by having served out his full term of imprisonment, shall be vested with all the rights of citizenship except as provided in the constitution. [G. S., §1151; G. L., §927.

2149. Absence in military service—Students—Paupers.—Sec. 14. For the purposes of voting and eligibility to office, no person shall be deemed to have gained a residence by reason of his presence, or lost it by reason of his absence, while in the civil or military service of the state or of the United States, nor while a student at any institution of learning, nor while kept at public expense in any poorhouse or other asylum, nor while confined in public prison. 2150. Qualified electors eligible to office.—Sec. 15. Every qualified elector shall be eligible to hold any office of this state for which he is an elector, except as otherwise provided by the constitution. [G. S., §1153; G. L., §929.

TAXPAYER.

Section 1. The term "taxpayer," "taxpaying elector" or "qualified taxpaying elector" shall be held to mean and include only those persons who are qualified voters under the registration and election laws of this State and who, in the calendar year last preceding the election at which such vote is offered, shall have paid a tax, or be liable for the payment of such tax upon real or personal property assessed to them and owned by them in the county where such vote is offered. And the taking or placing of the title to property in the name of another, or the payment of taxes or the taking or issuing of a tax receipt in the name of another, for the purpose of attempting to qualify such person as a "taxpayer" or as a "taxpaying elector" or as a "qualified taxpaying elector" shall be deemed a fraud against the ballot and any ballot cast by such person shall be void.

Sec. 2. Any person, company, corporation or association violating any of the terms or provisions of this act, or aiding or assisting any one to violate the same, either directly or indirectly, shall forfeit and lose all rights, franchises or other benefits accruing or to accrue to the benefit of such person, company, corporation or association by or as the result of any such election, and the same shall be null and void.

Sec. 3. In the opinion of the General Assembly an emergency exists; therefore, this act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved, April 23rd, 1909. [L. '09, pp. 511, 512, §1, 2, 3.

2164. Secretary of state furnish books and blanks.—Sec. 29. It shall be the duty of the secretary of state to make out a complete form of a registry book, alphabetically arranged, with the oath of the registrar in blank, and the requisite blank columns properly headed, and have the same printed, and to send copies thereof to the county clerk of each county in the state, together with a sufficient number of copies of the registry and election laws bound in pamphlet form. [G. S., §1266; G. L., §1042.

2165. County clerk furnish blank registries.—Sec. 30. It shall be the duty of the county clerk of each county to furnish annually for the use of the board of registry in each precinct or ward in his county, four printed copies of said blank registries and send them by mail or other safe conveyance to the judges of elections in such wards or precincts at least twenty (20) days prior to the day of the first meeting of the board of registry as herein provided. [G. S., §1267; G. L., §1043.

2166. Who may be registered—Oath.—Sec. 31. That hereafter the judges of election, when acting as a board of registry in cases provided by law, shall not, in any case, allow the name of any person to be placed on the list of registered voters, called the registry of elections, in any ward or voting precinct in the state, unless in the following cases:

First—When the person whose name is to be registered, and also the facts of his legal qualifications as a voter in the ward, township or precinct in which such registry is made, shall be known to one or more of the persons acting as such board of registry, and the judge or person so acting on such board of registry to whom such voter and his legal qualifications are known, shall sign his name on the registry roll or list opposite the name of such voter, and the judge or person acting as a member of such board of registry so signing his name opposite the name of such voter shall be deemed and held to have vouched, under oath, that such person so registered is a legal voter within the ward, township or precinct in which such registry is made; and such judge or person acting on such board of registry who shall sign his own name as aforesaid, shall be subject to the same liability, in all respects, as a person making affidavit under the provisions of the next following subdivision of this section. But any person claiming the right to be registered as a legal voter in any ward, township or precinct, shall be so registered by the board of registry at any session of said board, excepting the last session, held the day preceding the ensuing election; Provided, Such person shall make personal application to so be registered, and take and subscribe before said board of registry the following oath:

I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I am a citizen of the United States (or have declared my intention of becoming such, at least four months previous to this election), of the age of twenty-one years; that I shall have been a resident, at the date of this election, of the state for six months, and have not retained a home or domicile elsewhere; of this county for ninety days and of this precinct (or ward, as the case may be), ten days.

Second—When a legal voter, being registered in such ward, township or precinct, and known as such, by one or more of such judges or persons acting on such board of registry, or proven to be such by affidavit of some known legal voter, registered in such ward, township or precinct, in similar form to that herein following, shall make affidavit in substance as follows:

I, , do solemnly swear, in the presence of the ever living God, that I am a resident and a legal voter in ward (precinct), in the county of , state of Colorado, and that I well know , who aims to be registered as a legal voter in said ward (precinct), and that I know he has resided in the state of Colorado during six months, in county ninety days last past, and has resided in said ward during ten days last past, and still resides therein, and his place of residence is at No. street, in said ward (precinct), and I believe him to be of lawful age.

The blanks therein filled with the proper names, dates, places and numbers, as the case may require, and such affidavit shall show that the person so offering to vote is, or will be by the day of election next ensuing, in all respects a legal voter in such ward or precinct. [L. '89, p. 154, §1, amending G. S., §1274; G. L., §1051.

[The above section is amended as to citizenship and residence in state by §2146.]

2167. Judges meet to make registration—Time allowed.—Sec. 32. The judges of elections in the several wards and election precincts shall meet on Tuesday, three weeks before the day upon which any general election shall by law be appointed to be held, at nine o'clock a. m. of said day, and proceed to make a registry list, as hereinafter prescribed, of the names of all persons qualified and entitled to vote at the ensuing election in the ward or precinct in which they are judges, which list, when completed and revised, as hereinafter provided, shall constitute the registry of electors of said precinct. Whenever, at the last election in any precinct, prior to the meeting of such board of registry, the number of votes cast in such precinct shall have exceeded three hundred, the said board may continue in session for the purpose of making such registry, five days if necessary; when the number of votes cast in such precinct shall have exceeded one hundred, the said board may continue in session, for the purpose of making such registry, three days if necessary, otherwise but one day. [G. S., §1259; G. L., §1035.

[For registry in cities and towns, see §2171 to §2191 and ch. 127, S. L. 1911, p. 106 herein.]

[In case of new precincts and division, see §2170.]

2168. Form of lists—Copies—Return of lists.—Sec. 33. The list so made shall contain the names of the qualified electors of the ward or voting precinct in which the same is made, alphabetically arranged, according to surnames, so as to show in one column the name of each elector at full length, and in another the place of his residence, designated by the number or name of street, and number of house, if known, or the section or other subdivision thereof, according to United States surveys, on which such elector shall reside, if he reside on surveyed lands, and if not, such description as will best locate his residence. Said board shall enter on said list the names of all legally qualified electors in such ward or precinct, or of those who will become such, by lapse of time, on or before the next ensuing day of such general election, as aforesaid, in all cases in which such entry can be made consistent with the provisions hereinafter contained. For the convenience of the said board they are authorized to take from the office of the county clerk the poll list of such ward or precinct, filed by the judges of the last preceding election in such precinct. Said board shall make four copies of such registry list when revised and completed, which list they shall certify to be correct, and forward one copy to the office of the county clerk, and retain two copies for use on election day; and one copy they shall, within two days from the completion thereof, post in some conspicuous place where the last election was held in such precinct, and so as to be accessible and convenient to any elector who may desire to inspect the same. The board of county commissioners may cause to be printed and published any such registry list when completed, at an expense not exceeding two cents per name thereon. [G. S., §1260; G. L., §1036.

2169. Board of registry meet to revise lists.—Sec. 34. Every board of registry shall meet on the Tuesday of the week preceding any and every general election, at the place designated for holding such election, for the purpose of revising, correcting and completing such registry list, and in all cases they shall meet at nine o'clock a. m., and remain in session until six o'clock of said day. Said boards of registry shall meet at the place designated for holding such election, on the day preceding the election, at nine o'clock a. m., and remain in session until six o'clock p. m. of the same day, at which time any elector whose name is not on the revised registry list may have his name placed thereon; Provided, He shall take and subscribe to the oath prescribed in section forty of this act; and shall prove by the oath of two registered electors of the precinct (or ward) that such person has been a resident of the precinct ten days, of the county thirty days, and of the state six months next preceding the day of election, and that they verily believe him to be a qualified elector. Said oaths shall be taken and subscribed to in the presence of the board of registry, either of whom may administer the oath; and said oaths shall be preserved and filed in the office of the county clerk, together with the poll lists of said election. The name of such person and his residence, as given by him, shall be entered upon the registry list, and opposite the name of such person shall be marked the word "Affidavit" and the names of the witnesses. [G. S., §1261; G. L., §1037.

[Section 40 above referred to is found as amended as §2254.]

2170. New precincts—Judges—Change of registration.—Sec. 35. In case any new election precinct shall be formed, the county commissioners shall immediately appoint judges of election therein; and in the case of the division of any voting precinct, the names of all voters residing in that part of any precinct stricken off shall be stricken from the registry list in the voting precinct from which such part shall have been stricken, and shall be inserted in the registry lists of the precinct to which such part may have been attached, at the first registration of voters' names in each such precinct respectively. [G. S., §1273; G. L., §1050.

2171. Revision of municipal registry lists.—Sec. 36. The persons appointed judges of election in every incorporated town or city, hereafter, shall meet on Tuesday of the week preceding each municipal election in town or city in which they are such judges, in the several precincts, at the place of holding municipal elections therein, for the purpose of revising, correcting and completing the annual registry in this act required to be made, and for that purpose they are authorized to take from the office of the county clerk the last annual registry of electors of the wards or precincts, including the town or city in which they are appointed judges. [G. S., §1268; G. L., §1044.

2172. Registry how made—Filed with town clerk.—Sec. 37. The said last mentioned registrars shall, in all respects, proceed in the revising and correcting of their respective wards or precincts as is hereinbefore provided for in the revision and correcting of the annual registries, except that the registry list, as so revised and corrected by such city or town registrars, shall be filed with the city or town clerk of the proper city or town. [G. S., §1269; G. L., §1045.

[For registration in cities of more than 2,000, see §2174-§2191 and ch. 127 S. L. 1911, p. 106 herein.]

2173. Return of registries to county clerk.—Sec. 38. All registries taken from the county clerk's office under the provisions of the last section shall be returned to the county clerk within ten (10) days after the day of registry for which they may be taken out of the same. [G. S., §1270; G. L., §1046.

2175. Registration of female voters—Return of registry lists.—Sec. 40. It shall be the duty of the board of county commissioners in each county in which any such election precincts are included, within 5 days after the first day in March, 1894, to employ canvassers, each of whom shall be a qualified elector in such precinct, not more than one to each precinct, and make and complete within twenty days thereafter, at the expense of the county, a full and accurate registration of all female persons who at that time are qualified electors in all such election precincts. Registration shall be taken by such canvassers in the same manner as at the office of the county clerk, except that they shall be taken upon separate sheets of paper, one sheet for each registration, instead of upon the permanent registration books. It shall be the duty of the several canvassers to return to the county clerk each morning the registrations taken by him on the previous day, and any canvasser who shall wilfully fail to return to the county clerk the sheets of paper showing such registration shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor for each registration sheet not so returned, and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine of not less than fifty nor more than five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail not less than one nor more than six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment. It shall be the duty of the county clerk to enter daily all such registrations in the permanent registration books in his office for the respective precincts, and preserve in his office for the period of two years thereafter such original registration sheets. The county clerk shall, under the column of "Remarks," identify each such registration with the original registration sheet therefor. [L. '94, p. 68, §2.

2176. Questions to be answered by electors.—Sec. 41. To entitle each qualified elector to be lawfully registered he shall be required to answer concerning each of the following matters: (1) Name in full; (2) Whether married or single; (3) Place of residence, which, if urban or suburban, shall be located according to its street number, or if there be no street number, then by the number and description of the lot or lots in the block or blocks in the addition, division or subdivision into which the land upon which the residence is located is divided; in all other cases the residence shall be located by the section or sections or subdivisions thereof, in the township and range as established and numbered by the United States government survey; (4) Whether owner of, tenant of or lodger with occupant of residence; (5) Whether a native born citizen of the United States, or, if a female, by marriage to a citizen of the United States, or by naturalization of self or parents; if the latter, state, as near as may be to the best knowledge, information or belief of the applicant for registration, when self or parents were naturalized, the place of naturalization and by what court the naturalization papers were granted. Like answers shall also be made where only a declaration of intention to become a citizen has been made; (6) A description of his person, consisting of his height, age, sex, complexion, color of eyes and any other physical features by which he can be readily identified; (7) His profession, business or employment; (8) His postoffice address; Provided, however, It shall only be necessary for a female voter to state that she is twenty-one years of age in answer to all questions relating to her age. [L. '94, p. 69, §3.

2177. Elector write name or make mark.—Sec. 42. In the making of said registration by the board of county commissioners the writing of his own name by each elector shall not be required, but thereafter shall be in all other cases where the elector can write; if he be unable to write, he may make his mark and write his name with the assistance of the county clerk in the presence of his vouchers. [L. '94, p. 70, §4.

2179. Form of registration books.—Sec. 44. The headings of each alphabetical division aforesaid, for each such election precinct, shall be substantially as follows, viz.:

[See accompanying diagram.]

2180. Notice of completion of registration—Lists open to inspection.—Sec. 45. Immediately after the completion of the registration by the board of county commissioners in all such election precincts it shall be the duty of the board of county commissioners to give public notice thereof by advertisement, for four successive insertions, through two newspapers, if there be so many published at the county seat or of general circulation in the county, representing, as far as practicable, the political parties which, at the preceding general election, cast the largest and next largest number of votes. Such notice shall also state that, for a period of sixty days next after the date of the first publication thereof, the record of such registration is at the office of the county clerk, open for inspection at any time during office hours, and that, upon application in person and without vouchers, any error or errors in the registration of any such elector will be corrected; And, also, That any such elector who has not been registered may, on like application, in person and without vouchers, be registered in his proper election precinct. It shall be and is hereby made the duty of the county clerk of each county, within the said period of sixty days, on the application in person of any such elector, to correct any and all errors in his registration; or, on like application of any elector, if he has not already been registered, to register him in his proper election precinct without requiring vouchers. All such corrections and registrations, and the time when made, shall be noticed by the clerk in the registration book on the same line opposite the name of such elector, and under the column headed "Remarks." [L. '94, p. 74, §7.]

2181. Registration by county clerk—Vouchers—Certificate of registration.—Sec. 46. After the expiration of said period of sixty days mentioned in the preceding section no qualified elector shall be registered, nor shall his registration be corrected or changed, except he make application to the county clerk as in this act provided. Such applicant must be vouched for by the oath or affirmation of two qualified electors already registered in the county clerk's office for such county, as possessing all the qualifications entitling such applicant either to be lawfully registered or to the desired correction or change therein, as the case may be. No registered qualified elector shall be accepted as voucher for more than twelve such applicants during any one calendar year, nor shall any registered qualified elector who is for any reason unable to write his signature be received or accepted as a voucher. The said county clerk, in the presence of both the applicant and of his said vouchers, shall take the answers of such applicant concerning all the matters required by section three (3) of this act, and then and there record the same (excepting the names of applicant and vouchers) in the registration book of the election precinct in which such elector then resides. Such record shall then and there be signed by the said applicant under the heading "Name in full," and by his said vouchers under the heading "Names of vouchers." If said applicant be for any reason unable to write his name, then the same may be written for him by the county clerk

In all cases of correction of errors in or change in registration, such correction or change, and the date when made, shall be noted on the line after the name affected under the heading "Remarks." The form of the oath or affirmation to be administered to the said applicant and his vouchers shall be as follows: "We, (giving name of applicant), and we, (giving names of vouchers), each being severally duly sworn (or having affirmed, as the case may be), depose and say that the said..... (giving name of applicant) possesses all the qualifications of a lawful elector, and is entitled to be registered as a duly qualified elector or to correct his registration as to the (here state the matter corrected) or to have his registration changed to or of (as the case may be) precinct in county, state of Colorado. That the record of such registration which we have signed was made by the clerk of said county or his authorized deputy in our presence and in the presence of said applicant for registration, and is true and correct, and was in all particulars made in full conformity with this registration law." Such oaths or affirmations need not be written out or preserved, but the said vouchers shall, by their signatures in the place provided by this act on said registry book, be conclusively deemed in law to have duly verified the registry, correction or change therein, of any elector whose name they follow as vouchers, in substance, manner and form as aforesaid, and shall accordingly be liable for any and all penalties and punishments provided by law for false or illegal vouching under this act. Said registry book, or a certified copy of the registry or correction therein of any name or names, shall be admissible in evidence as proof of the taking of the said oath or affirmation in all cases of criminal proceedings for the punishment of false or illegal vouching or registration under this act. Upon request of any registered voter it shall be the duty of the county clerk to make out and deliver to such voter a certificate of the registration of such voter, setting forth the fact of such registration, including the date of registration, description and other information recorded in connection with the registration of such voter, which certificate shall be attested by the hands of county clerk and the seal of the county; and the county clerk shall be allowed a fee of ten cents for each such certificate, to be paid by the applicant. Such certificate, together with proper proof of identity of the person therein named, may be used when such person becomes a voucher for another applicant for registration, and also as prima facie evidence of the facts therein stated. When any registered voter removes from the county where he is registered under the provisions of this act, upon his request he shall be entitled to have his name cancelled upon such registration list, and shall thereupon be entitled to a certificate, similar in form and substance to the certificate hereinbefore mentioned, and also showing the fact of such cancellation, which certificate shall be prima facie evidence of the facts therein set forth, for which certificate a like fee of ten cents shall be paid to the county clerk by the applicant. [L. '94, p. 74, §8.

2182. Change of precincts or boundaries—New lists—Change of registration—Size of precincts.—Sec. 47. Whenever the board of county commissioners of any county shall change the boundaries of or create a new election precinct or precincts, wholly or partially within the limits of any city of the first or second class, or any city having a population greater than fifteen thousand (15,000) inhabitants, it shall be and is hereby made their duty to forthwith cause to be prepared, at the expense of the county, complete or new registration lists, in conformity with such change, of all registered electors in each and all of said changed and new election precincts. Such new registration lists shall be made by red-lining off from the former precinct registry, and by copying off into the proper election precinct registry the names of those already registered in the former precinct registry, who are thereby shown to be residing in another election precinct than the one wherein they were lawfully registered before said change or changes were made. Such change or transfer so made necessary by change in or creation of any election precinct shall be noted by the county clerk in the registry of the names so transferred, under the head "Remarks," giving the date of the action of the board of county commissioners ordering such change in the registration. Whenever any registered qualified elector shall change his residence from one election precinct to another, he shall be entitled to have his registration changed in accordance with his change of residence upon making application in person to the county clerk at any time; but he shall not be required to present any voucher as to this change of residence unless the same be to a different election precinct, and such application to change registration be made within fifteen (15) days of the next election in the precinct of his new residence, in which case there shall be two vouchers to such change of residence, who shall make oath or affirmation thereto, as in other cases. An application for change of registration made before within fifteen (15) days of the ensuing election may be granted, and change made without vouchers. The record of such registration in case of change of residence by a registered elector shall be made the same as his registration record in the election precinct from which he moved, excepting that the names of the vouchers, if any, which were first given to secure the registration of such elector may be omitted, and in their stead shall be written the signatures of his last vouchers, with the words "As to residence" immediately upon their signatures, which shall indicate that they only vouch as to the residence of such elector. The county clerk shall notice each such change of residence under the appropriate column, as required in such cases by the provisions of section five of this act. At the time prescribed by law the officers charged by law with the division or alteration of the election precincts in precincts included wholly or partially within the limits of any city of the first or second class, whether incorporated under the general law or special charter, and all other cities with a greater population than fifteen thousand (15,000) inhabitants shall alter or divide the existing election precincts whenever necessary in such manner that each election precinct shall contain not more than five hundred (500) voters. [L. '94, p. 77, §9.

[Section 5 referred to is §2178.]

[See note to §2174.]

2183. Elector must be registered fifteen days before election.—Sec. 48. Any qualified elector who has not been registered at least fifteen (15) days before the holding of the next general or special election in his precinct, or had his registration changed or corrected at least ten (10) days before the holding of the same, shall not be entitled to vote at such election, and the county clerk in preparing the registry book for the respective election precincts, shall omit therefrom all such names so registered. [L. '94, p. 78, §10.

2184. Change of postoffice address.—Sec. 49. A change in the postoffice address of any elector as registered may be made at any time without vouchers, provided the same shall be noted under the head of "Remarks," in the line following such person's registration. [L. '94, p. 79, §11.

2186. Registration lists given to election judges—Penalty for omitting name from list—Elector vote on production of certificate.—Sec. 51. It shall be the duty of the county clerk in any county wherein any such city is situate, at least three (3) days before the day of any election therein, whether national, state, district, county or city, or whether general or special (excepting election of school trustees) to make full and complete certified copies of the registration lists of the qualified voters in their respective election precincts for use in the holding and conducting such election upon the day thereof, and deciding who shall be entitled to vote thereat, and to deliver such lists to the election judges for the proper precinct one day prior to such election. To each of such copies so delivered to the said election judges it shall be the duty of the county clerk to attach his certificate under the seal of his office, setting forth that the said copy contains a full, complete and accurate list of the qualified voters in each such election precinct as the same appear upon the original registration books on file in his office. Each such county clerk shall forfeit the sum of ten dollars for each and every name incorrectly omitted from or added to any such copy, in case of an omission the said sum to be recovered by the party whose name is so incorrectly omitted in an action brought by him against said county clerk, in any court of competent jurisdiction in the county, and for each and every name so incorrectly added to such copy, the said sum to be deducted by the county commissioners of such county from any amount due by the county to said county clerk. It shall be the duty of the board of election judges for each precinct included within any such city for any such election to call in person at the office of the county clerk and recorder one day prior to such election for the purpose of receiving such copy of the registration list. Said registration list shall be furnished to said judges in a sealed envelope, which said envelope shall not be opened until the morning of election day at the polls in the presence of the judges. Which copy shall be delivered to two judges, one belonging to the political party which cast the highest number of votes in the last similar election in said county or city, and the other belonging to the party which cast the next highest number of votes at such election, and both such judges shall receipt to the county clerk for such copy of the registration lists, and they shall receive mileage for such service at the rate of ten cents per mile for each mile actually traveled. The county clerk shall be allowed a fee of ten (10) dollars for each precinct for which he shall furnish such copy of registration lists, to be paid by the county; when such lists are furnished to the election judges of any city election for city officers or other city purposes only, such city shall pay to the county the sum of ten (10) dollars for each precinct the registration list of which is so furnished. Any voter whose vote is rejected because of any error made in transcribing the official registry shall be entitled to vote upon producing to the judges of election a certified copy of his registration showing his right to vote. [L. '94, p. 79, §13.

PERMANENT REGISTRATION.

AN ACT

TO AMEND AN ACT ENTITLED "AN ACT TO PROVIDE FOR ESTABLISHING AND MAINTAINING AT PUBLIC EXPENSE PERMANENT REGISTRATION LISTS OF ALL QUALIFIED ELECTORS IN ELECTION PRECINCTS INCLUDED WHOLLY OR PARTLY WITHIN THE LIMITS OF CITIES OF THE FIRST AND SECOND CLASSES AND ALL OTHER CITIES WITH A GREATER POPULATION THAN FIFTEEN THOUSAND INHABITANTS AND TO PROVIDE FOR PUNISHING ALL VIOLATIONS THEREOF AND TO REPEAL ALL OTHER ACTS AND PARTS OF ACTS INCONSISTENT THEREWITH", PASSED AND APPROVED MARCH 2ND, 1894.

Be It Enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Colorado:

Sec. 14, Chap. 8, S. L. 1894, amended.

Section 1. That Section 14 of an Act entitled "An Act to provide for establishing and maintaining at public expense permanent registration lists of all qualified electors in election precincts included wholly or partly within the limits of cities of the first and second classes and all other cities with a greater population than fifteen thousand inhabitants and to provide for punishing all violations thereof and to repeal all other acts and parts of acts inconsistent herewith", passed and approved March 2nd, 1894, be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 14. Within thirty days next after each election in precincts included within the limits of any such city, the county clerk and recorder of the county shall proceed to check the poll lists of persons who voted in each such election precinct with the registration list for such precinct, and shall in some proper manner mark and designate the names of the persons not shown by said poll list to have voted at such preceding election in such precinct. The county clerk shall thereupon make out a list of all such names of persons, together with their residence, so appearing not to have voted at such preceding election, which list shall be made out in alphabetical order of the last names of such electors and in consecutive numbers, according to election precincts and districts and shall have appended thereto an affidavit by such county clerk that such list has been compared with official registration lists in the county clerk's office and is a full, true and correct list of the names of such persons not voting at such election. Said list shall be entitled "A list of registered electors appearing not to have voted at the.....

 in the..... of"

Said list shall be filed with the board of county commissioners or other election boards. It shall be the duty of the county clerk to immediately send notice by postal card to each elector whose name may appear upon said list. Said notice shall be in substance as follows: "You are hereby notified that a comparison of the registered electors in the several precincts with the poll lists for such election precincts show that you did not vote at the election held the.....day of.....19... Any qualified elector may have his name retained upon the registration lists by appearing before the board of county commissioners or by other election boards at its next regular meeting commencing on the.....day of.....19... and showing to the satisfaction of said board, either that he did vote at such election, or that he was entitled to vote thereat, because still a qualified elector in such precinct. Failing to appear upon one of the days of said regular meeting of said board, his name shall be struck from the registration list."

The board of county commissioners or other election boards upon any and all days it may be in session beginning with its next regular meeting after the mailing of said notices, and thereafter for a period of sixty days shall hear the excuses of such persons attending in pursuance of said notice. At the close of said regular meeting, the board of county commissioners or other election boards shall certify to the county clerk a list of names of persons who have shown cause for the retention of their names on such registration lists. It shall be the duty of the county clerk, upon the receipt of said certified list from the board of county commissioners or other election boards to forthwith strike such names from the registration lists in the proper precincts, of persons who have not shown cause for retention, by ruling a red line through such name, with the notation in the column "Remarks", that such names were stricken out in pursuance of the certificate of the board of county commissioners or other election boards of a given date.

Repealing Clause.

Section 2. All acts and parts of acts in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

Approved: Approved April 8th 1913 at 5:13 P. M.

2188. Original registration in districts.—Sec. 53. The board of county commissioners of any county wherein any such city is situate are hereby directed to group into registration districts a number of election precincts, not less than eight nor more than twenty, in each registration district. It shall be the duty of the county clerk to appoint a deputy or deputies, not to exceed two, for each such registration district, which deputy or deputies shall attend and be present in such district, for the purpose of receiving original registrations before each such election, on the third Tuesday before such election, and from day to day thereafter, for not less than three nor more than five days in all, and between the hours of noon and nine o'clock p. m. of each such day. The county commissioners shall provide a suitable room in each district and all necessary stationery and appurtenances for the use of such deputy county clerks. The county clerk shall give public notice for three days by publication in at least two newspapers, belonging to different political parties, of the name of each deputy, and the time and particular place in each district where such registration will be carried on. Such deputy shall be provided with separate sheets of paper suitably ruled to record all the information elsewhere required in this act for original registrations in the county clerk's office. Registrations shall be taken before such deputies in the same manner as at the office of the county clerk, except that they shall be recorded upon separate sheets of paper, one sheet for each registration, instead of upon the permanent registration books. It shall be the duty of the several deputy county clerks to return to the county clerk each morning the registrations taken by him on the previous day, and any deputy who shall wilfully fail to return to the county clerk at or before the closing of registration in such district the sheets of paper showing registrations shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor for each registration sheet not so returned, and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine of not less than fifty nor more than five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail not less than one nor more than six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment. It shall be the duty of the county clerk to enter daily all such registrations in the permanent registration books in his office for the respective precincts, and preserve in his office for the period of two years thereafter such original registration sheets. The county clerk shall, under the column of "Remarks," identify each such registration with the original registration sheets therefor. [L. '94, p. 82, §15.]

2189. Masculine pronoun applies to both sexes.—Sec. 54. Wherever in this act the masculine pronoun is used it shall be construed to apply to women as well as men. [L. '94, p. 83, §16.]

2190. Penalty for violation of act.—Sec. 55. Except as otherwise provided in this act, any person who shall make false answer, either for himself or another, or who shall violate or attempt to violate any of the provisions of this act, or knowingly permit another to violate the same, or any public officer or officers upon whom any duty is imposed by this act or any of its provisions, who shall wilfully neglect such duty, or who shall wilfully perform it in such a way as to hinder the objects and purposes of this act, shall be deemed guilty of a felony, and on conviction thereof shall be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than one year nor more than five years, and if he be a public officer shall forfeit his office. [L. '94, p. 83, §17.]

2191. Repeal—Saving clause.—Sec. 56. “An act to provide for establishing and maintaining at public expense permanent registration lists of all qualified electors in election precincts included wholly or partially within the limits of cities of the first and second classes, and in all other cities with a greater population than fifteen thousand inhabitants, and to provide for punishing violations thereof,” approved April 13, 1891, and all acts amendatory thereof, and all acts and parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act, are hereby repealed; Provided, Nothing herein shall be construed as a repeal of any act concerning registration in its application to elections in election precincts not included within the limits of cities of the classes and population mentioned in section 1. [L. '94, p. 84, §18.]

REGISTRATION.

Section 1. In all cities having a greater population than two thousand inhabitants no person shall hereafter be permitted to vote at any special election held at a time other than a general election, or at any general city election held between the time of the adoption of a proposal to hold a charter convention under section five of article XX of the Constitution and the time of the adoption of the charter prepared and submitted by such charter convention, or at the first election of officers under such charter, unless such person shall first have been registered as herein provided.

Sec. 2. For all such elections no new registration shall be required, except as hereinafter provided, but any qualified elector of any such city whose name is on the registration books used at the then last preceding general election, whether county or municipal, and who still resides at the place designated in his said registration, shall be deemed properly registered for any such election, and additional registration and changes in registration may be made as hereinafter provided.

Sec. 3. On the fourteenth day preceding any such election to be held the county clerk of the proper county shall deliver to the registration committee of each election precinct the original book of registration for that precinct as prepared and completed for the then next preceding general election, whether county or municipal, and on the tenth day preceding the election thus to be held, or if that day be a legal holiday or Sunday, then on the succeeding day, the registration committee for each precinct shall sit from nine o'clock a. m., until nine o'clock p. m., at some suitable place to be provided by the county commissioners and centrally located within the precinct as far as practicable, and shall place on the said book of registration, next after the names already thereon, the names of all qualified electors of that precinct who are not registered and who shall present themselves for registration and comply with the requirements prescribed by the general registration laws of this State.

Sec. 4. Any qualified elector whose name appears upon any such book of registration in any such city, but who has removed from the precinct in which he is registered to some other precinct, may appear before the county clerk at any time within five days prior to any such election and, upon making oath in writing as to his then present residence, said county clerk shall draw a red line through the registration of such person, making a note as follows: Changed....., 19....., to precinct.....ward....., inserting the date and number of precinct and ward therein, and shall register in red ink such person in the book of registration for the precinct in which such person then resides; and a change of residence within the same precinct may be made in like manner. The county clerk or deputy making such change shall sign his name in the column provided for the signatures of the registration committee, and the person so registered shall also sign his name as in the case of an original registration.

Sec. 5. On the day following the registration day aforesaid the registration committee in each precinct shall make a copy of the entire registration list of that precinct, containing only the name and address of each person appearing thereon, and shall certify the same as being correct and shall post such copy on the outside of said registration place, where it shall remain until after election.

Sec. 6. Immediately upon completing such copy said registration committee shall deliver the original book of registration to the county clerk who shall retain the same until the day prior to the election when he shall deliver the same to the judges of election of the proper precinct for their use at such election, properly certified as required by the registration laws of this State to be done in cases of copies, but the county clerk shall not, for any such election, make and furnish any copy of such registration lists to the judges of election nor shall he make any charge for delivering said original book of registration as required herein; but his compensation for all other matters hereby required shall be as fixed by the registration laws of this State.

Sec. 7. At any time prior to the delivery of the original book of registration to the registration committee of the precinct, as herein provided, a petition for purging the list may be filed as to the registration list appearing therein, at any time prior to the seventh day before election a petition may be filed for purging the list of additional registrations made as herein provided, which petitions and the procedure and relief thereunder shall be the same, as near as may be, as provided in the registration laws of this State. And the registration and election laws of this State shall govern in all matters connected with the making of said registration and the holding of any such election, except as herein otherwise provided.

Sec. 8. The provisions of this act shall not be held to apply to any city operating under special charter under any constitutional provisions of the State.

Sec. 9. In the opinion of the General Assembly an emergency exists; therefore this act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved, March 12th 1909 [L. '09, pp. 484-5-6 (§1-9, inclusive).

[NOTE—The act of 1905, as amended by the act of 1907—with the exception of paragraph 2, sec. 6 and secs. 18, 19, and 24, which follow—was repealed and superseded by the act of 1911, same being Ch. 127, S. L. 1911.]

CITIES OF MORE THAN 5,000 POPULATION.

2197. 2—Any person wrongfully or wilfully refusing to give such information, or wrongfully or wilfully giving such committee any information permitted to be obtained by this act, which shall be false or purposely misleading, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction shall be fined in a sum not to exceed five hundred dollars, or imprisoned in the county jail for a period not to exceed six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court. [L. '05, p. 198, §6.

2209. Penalty for violation of act.—Sec. 74. Any person who shall make false answer, either for himself or another, or who shall violate or attempt to violate any of the provisions of this act, and knowingly permit or encourage another to violate the same, or any public officer or officers or other person, upon whom any duty is imposed by this act or any of its provisions, who shall wilfully neglect such duty, or who shall wilfully perform it in such a way as to hinder the objects and purposes of this act, shall, excepting where some other penalty is provided by the terms of this act, be deemed guilty of a felony, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than one year, nor more than five years, and if he be a public officer, shall also forfeit his office. [L. '05, p. 216, §18.]

2210. Penalty for wilful destruction of registration lists.—Sec.

75. Any member of the registration committee of any precinct appointed under this act who shall wilfully lose, destroy, deface, change, alter or falsify the registration list or lists, book or books, or any copy thereof, or cause or allow the same to be done, or who shall fail to properly account for such list or lists, book or books or copies thereof, or fail to deliver the same to the county clerk as required by law, or who fails to take the oath or affirmation provided for by law, or fails to perform any other duty within the time and manner prescribed by this act, shall forfeit his claim to any pay or compensation provided by this act, and shall also be subject to the penalties prescribed in section 18 of this act, and any person whosoever, who shall wilfully or maliciously take, steal, carry away, destroy, deface, change, alter or falsify the said registration books, lists or any copies thereof, or cause the same to be done, or who shall interfere with any of the members of said registration committee when in the performance of their duties as such registration committee or judges of any election, as herein set forth, shall be subject to the penalties prescribed in section 18 of this act. Upon the making and filing of an affidavit with the district attorney by the county clerk or any resident elector of the precinct who is qualified to be registered, to the effect that any member of the registration committee, or any other person or persons, have violated any of the provisions of this act, in which affidavit the nature of such violation and the facts with reference thereto shall be stated, it shall be the duty of the district attorney to forthwith investigate and prosecute the same. [L. '05, p. 216, §19.]

[Section 18 referred to is §2209.]

[For other penalties under election laws, see Division V, Offenses, §§2361-2401, and Sec. 33, Ch. 127, S. L. 1911.]

2215. Law to extend to city and county of Denver.—Sec. 80.

This act, and every part thereof, as to the election of all state, congressional, district, county, city or municipal officers to be voted for at any election shall apply to all cities and municipalities within the provisions hereof, whether organized, established or created by any direct constitutional provision, or pursuant to statutory enactment, or other power or authority, and it is the express purpose of this act that it apply to elections in the city and county of Denver, notwithstanding anything now or hereafter in the charter of said city and county to the contrary. [L. '05, p. 219, §24.

Provided, That in no case shall the question of granting or rejecting by a municipality or by the city and county of Denver, any franchise, franchise right or grant, or the authorization of the issue of any bonds, or the creation of other form of indebtedness of any nature, be submitted at any election at which any county or state officer is to be voted for or elected. [L. '07, p. 384, §1, amending L. '05, p. 219, §24.

(Chapter 127, S. L. 1911.)

ELECTIONS.

REGISTRATION OF VOTERS.

AN ACT

CONCERNING ELECTIONS, AND TO PROVIDE FOR THE APPOINTMENT OF REGISTRATION COMMITTEES AND JUDGES OF ELECTION, AND THE REGISTRATION OF ALL QUALIFIED ELECTORS IN ALL SAID ELECTIONS, AND TO PROVIDE FOR PUNISHING ALL VIOLATIONS OF THE PROVISIONS OF THIS ACT, AND TO REPEAL ALL ACTS IN CONFLICT WITH THE PROVISIONS OF THIS ACT.

Be it Enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Colorado:

Registration required as qualification of voter—School elections excepted.

Section 1. No person shall hereafter be permitted to vote at any primary, or general or special election provided for by law, whether national, state, district, county, city, city and county, or town, for candidates for office, or upon constitutional or charter amendments, or public franchises or the issuance of bonds, or other questions, matter or measure submitted to the vote of the qualified electors, held in any election precinct included within the limits of cities with a greater population than five thousand inhabitants, without first having been registered within the time and in the manner and form required by the provisions of this act; Provided, That this act shall not apply to elections concerning schools.

“Registration Committee” and judges of election defined—“Majority” defined—“County Clerk” defined—“City” defined—Population—How determined—“County Commissioners” defined—Computing time—“Election” and “Election Day” defined—“Preceding election” defined——“General election” defined.

Section 2. The words and phrases of this act, unless the same be inconsistent with the context, shall be construed as follows:

a. The words, “Registration Committee,” and the words, “Judges of Election,” to mean the three persons provided to be appointed by this act; a “majority” of the registration committee to mean two members thereof representing opposite political parties.

b. The words, "County Clerk," to mean the County Clerk and Recorder of each county.

c. The word, "City" means also any City and County created by any constitutional amendment, and coming within the provisions of this act.

d. The population of cities shall be determined by the latest federal census.

e. The words, "County Commissioners" mean the board of county commissioners of each county.

f. In computing time for any act to be done before any election, as provided hereunder, the first day shall be included, and the last, to-wit, election day, shall be excluded. If the time for any act to be done, as provided herein, shall fall on Sunday or legal holiday, such act shall be done upon the day following such Sunday or legal holiday, and such Sunday or legal holiday shall not be included in any given number of days designated as the time in which any act is to be done or performed, as provided in this act.

g. The words, "election," or "election day" mean any election within the provisions of this act, other than a primary.

h. The words, "preceding election" mean the last election, except a primary, held for candidates for office which was within the provisions of this act, and irrespective of whether it was a similar election or not.

i. The words, "general election" mean any general state, county or city election for the election of officers, but not a primary.

Registrations made by "Registration Committee"—Registration Committee acts as election judges—Appointment by County Clerk—County chairman to certify names, etc., to County Clerk—County chairman to designate order of his choice—Representation on Registration Committee, how determined—Filling of vacancies—County Clerk to appoint registrars where there is no county chairman—Vacancies occurring on election day, how filled—When regular member appearing late is entitled to act—County Clerk to issue certificates to committee—Contents of certificate—County Clerk to mail certified copy of list of Registration Committee to county chairman—Original lists, etc., to be public records—Blanks of oath to be sent to Registration Committee—Form of oath—Oath a qualification of member of committee—Registration committeemen may administer oath to each other.

Sec. 3. a. The registration of electors in each of the several precincts shall be made by a committee consisting of three qualified electors to be called the "Registration Committee," or by a majority of the registration committee, to be appointed for each of said precincts as herein provided. The registration committee shall also be judges of election at any primary, general or special election next following their appointment and during their term of office.

b. The registration committee shall in accordance with the provisions hereof be appointed by the county clerk for each of the precincts in the county on the first Tuesday in July, 1912, and upon the same day every two years thereafter in the manner herein provided, and the county clerk shall make and file in his office a list of each and all persons so appointed, their names, business, postoffice and residence addresses and precinct and ward.

c. Between the first day of May and the third Tuesday in June, 1912, and during said period every two years thereafter, the county chairman of each of the two political parties in each county having cast the highest number of votes for Governor at the last general election for State officers, shall, in accordance with the provisions hereof, certify to the county clerk the names of not less than three nor more than six qualified electors in each of the precincts in such city, county or city and county, together with the postoffice, residence and business address of each of such persons so certified. Each chairman shall also certify that at least two of the persons named are willing to serve upon the registration committee in their precincts respectively. Each county chairman shall designate the order of his choice of such names for service upon the registration committee in each precinct, and the persons so first designated by the two county chairmen shall be chosen by the county clerk as members of the registration committee. One of such political parties shall be entitled to the third member of such committee in all even numbered precincts, and the other in all odd numbered precincts, and it shall always be the duty of the county commissioners to number such precincts consecutively, beginning with number one (1) in each ward, district or political division of the cities within the provisions of this act. On said first Tuesday in July, the county clerk, or any deputy designated by him for that purpose, shall determine by lot which of such political parties shall be entitled to the third member of the committee in the various precincts. The third member of the registration committee shall be the choice of the county chairman, if such choice be designated, and if not, the county clerk may select any one of said names. If for any reason any one selected to act upon the registration committee refuses, fails or is unable to act at any time within forty-eight hours before any election, or primary, it shall be the duty of such member of the committee, or any member of the committee, to notify the county clerk, whereupon the county clerk shall forthwith, in the most speedy and convenient method, notify the county chairman of the political party to which such member belongs, whereupon it shall be the duty of the county chairman of such political party to forthwith indicate to the county clerk the name of some other elector in such precinct to act in the place of such person. If it is impossible to notify such county chairman of any such vacancy in the committee during the time of registration, two members of such committee, if a majority thereof, shall perform the duties of such committee until such vacancy is filled as provided herein. If there shall not be a majority of such committee remaining, in such contingency the county clerk shall designate to act upon such committee, pending the filling of such vacancy as provided herein, some qualified elector in said precinct belonging to the party entitled to such representation, so as to constitute a majority of the registration committee; Provided, however, that the county clerk must designate some person who was named originally by the county chairman in the list submitted as herein provided, if any such person be willing to act. If there be no county chairman in any county so that there can be no specific compliance with the provisions of this act as to appointment of registration committees or judges of election, the county clerk shall make such appointments as near in compliance with the intention of this act as possible, obtaining such list of names from precinct committees of such party, if any, and if not, then selecting representatives of such political organization as may be entitled to representation on such committees. If a vacancy in such committee should occur upon the date of any election or primary, by failure of any member of such committee to appear at the polling place at the time provided by law for the opening thereof, the vacancy shall be filled by vote of the bystanders as now provided by law; Provided, however, That if such member of the committee shall appear at the polling place within thirty minutes from the opening thereof, he shall be entitled to act upon such committee as such judge and in such event the election judges shall make note of such fact in their official returns from such precinct. In no event shall any person so selected because of such vacancy on the day of any election be permitted to act for a longer period than during such election or primary, but as soon thereafter as the duties of such judges for the particular election, or primary day are discharged, any vacancy shall be filled in the manner herein provided.

d. Within five days after the time provided herein for the designation and appointment by the county clerk of the members of such registration committee, it shall be the duty of the county clerk to issue three certificates under his official seal certifying to the appointment of such committees in each precinct as provided herein. Such certificate shall contain the name, business, postoffice and residence address of the members of such committee in each precinct, with a statement under the seal of the clerk that they were selected by him in accordance with the provisions of this act, one of which certificates shall be mailed by the county clerk to each of the members of such committee addressed to his postoffice address. It shall also be the duty of the county clerk within the said five days to transmit by mail to each of the respective county chairman of the two principal political parties aforesaid a true, exact and certified copy of the list of members of the registration committee appointed as herein provided. The original of such lists on file in the office of the county clerk, and all other registration lists of names and election records, shall be public records and subject to the inspection and examination during office hours, by any elector of the State, and to the right to make copies thereof.

e. With the certificates transmitted or delivered by the county clerk to the members of the registration committee in the precincts respectively, there shall be enclosed the form of oath hereinafter set forth, which shall be filled out and signed by each member of such committee and returned and filed in the office of the county clerk within five days after the date of receipt of such form of oath by said registration committee, and it shall be a public record. The oath to be taken and subscribed by the members of the registration committee shall be substantially as follows:

I,, do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I am a citizen of the United States and the State of Colorado, of the county of....., city of.....; that I have resided within the limits of.....precinct,ward (or district)....., for at least six months last past; that I am a bona fide member of the..... party; that I will faithfully perform the duties required of a member of the registration committee and judge of election precinct....., ward (or district)....., in the city of.....,county, Colorado, according to law; that I will not wrongfully omit from registration the name of any qualified elector; and, that I will not knowingly register anyone who is not legally entitled to register, so help me God.

f. The oath provided for in this act shall be taken before any person authorized to administer oaths. No person shall be qualified as a member of such registration committee, except in case of vacancy within forty-eight hours before election or primary day, or as otherwise provided in this act, until such oath has been duly subscribed, sworn to or affirmed and filed as herein provided. If any person selected to act upon the registration committee shall fail to subscribe, swear to or affirm and file such oath or affirmation as herein provided, within five days from the time of his appointment, the county clerk shall forthwith notify the county chairman of the political party who may have designated, or who may have been entitled to designate such member of the committee, and upon failure of such person to comply with this section within forty-eight hours thereafter, such failure shall constitute a vacancy. In the case of a person properly designated as registration committeeman, as herein provided, or appointed to fill vacancy, where no person authorized to administer oaths is available, it shall be deemed sufficient for the different registration committeemen to administer the required oath, one to another.

Precinct committeemen to furnish lists to county chairmen—Form of precinct list.

Section 4. Ten days before the time necessary for any county chairman to submit to the county clerk the names of proposed members of the registration committee as provided by subdivision C of section 3 of this act, and at such other times as shall be necessary in order to comply with the provisions and intention of this act, the county chairman of the respective parties entitled to representation upon said registration committee shall demand in writing of the precinct committeeman in each precinct, the names of not less than three nor more than six qualified electors who reside in the precinct to act as members of the registration committee, whereupon it shall be the duty of such committeeman forthwith, and in no event to exceed five days from the time of such demand, to submit such lists in writing with the names and addresses in substantial compliance with the provisions of this act. The county chairman shall furnish blank forms to each committeeman for the submission of such lists, which shall be substantially as follows:

“To.....
County Chairman of the.....Party.

In accordance with the election laws of....., 1911, section four (4), I submit herewith not less than three nor more than six names to be transmitted by you to the county clerk, as suitable members for the registration committee in precinct , ward (township, or district, as the case may be).....

 (Name)
 (Postoffice Address).....
 (Business Address).....

I further certify that said persons so designated are known by me to be members in good standing of the.....party; reside in the said precinct and are qualified electors in this county.

 Committeeman of the.....Party for precinct.....Ward (Township or District).....
 County of"

County chairman must use list furnished by precinct committeemen—Exceptions.

Section 5. It shall be the duty of the county chairman at all times in recommending persons for members on the registration committee to select only such names as are filed with him by the precinct committeeman in accordance with section 4 of this act, it being the intention of this act, that the members of the registration committee shall be appointed from the lists submitted by the precinct committeemen; Provided, That if such precinct committeeman shall fail or neglect to comply with the provisions of this act in making due responses to the request of the county chairman to furnish such names to the county chairman, then in such event the county chairman may select such members of the registration committee for any such precinct to be designated to the county clerk.

Causes for removal of committee and election judges—Removal for neglect of duty, fraud, etc.—Manner of removal—Petition to county court—Petition to be verified—Charges for neglect of duty, by whom made—Vacancies to be filled in same manner as original appointment—Validity of registration not effected by removals.

Section 6. a. Any member of the registration committee or election judges may be removed in either of the following ways: (a) Upon the filing of a statement with the County Clerk by the County Chairman of the political party in whose behalf said member was appointed, that after investigation, he is of the opinion that his party is not faithfully or fairly represented by said committeeman. Upon the filing of said statement it shall be the duty of the county clerk to forthwith notify such committeeman of his removal and the cause thereof; when his successors shall be forthwith appointed as in other cases.

b. If any member of such registration committee or election judges has neglected his duty in attending to such registration, or has committed, encouraged or connived at any frauds in connection therewith, or has violated any of the election or primary election laws, or has knowingly permitted others to do so, or has been convicted of any crime, or has violated the oath provided for herein, or has wrongfully hampered or interfered or tends to interfere with the due and regular performance of the duties of the registration committee or any member thereof, or committed any other act which interferes or tends to interfere with carrying out the purposes of this act to provide a fair and honest registration and election or primary election or if the appointment of any member was not made in accordance with the provisions of this act, such member may be removed from said committee in the following manner:

A brief petition by the person making such charge shall be filed in the district or county court of the county at any time, provided such time is at least five days before any election or primary election setting up in brief and concise language the facts constituting the cause for the removal of such member of the committee; whereupon the court shall issue a citation to such registration committeeman or judge of election directing him to appear at a time within forty-eight hours thereafter to answer such petition, if he desires so to do. The court shall proceed summarily to hear and finally dispose of such petition, and within forty-eight hours of the time of the filing of the answer may hear evidence in relation thereto. If the court shall decide that such registration committeeman or judge of election ought to be removed for any cause stated in the petition, it shall be so ordered and he shall notify the county clerk thereof forthwith, whereupon the chairman and county clerk shall forthwith fill the vacancy as provided herein for original appointments upon said committee.

Such petition shall be verified, but the verification may be upon information and belief. Any evidence given by any such accused registration committeeman or judge of election as a witness for petitioner at such hearing, or the result thereof, shall not be used against him in civil, criminal or other proceedings.

c. Upon the failure or neglect of the members of such registration committee, or a majority thereof, to make the canvass and return the same to the county clerk, according to law, or to otherwise perform the duties provided by this act to be performed by such registration committee and the members thereof, it shall be the duty of any member of such registration committee, any county chairman of a political party organization, or any elector in the precinct for which such registration committee and each member thereof is appointed, having knowledge of such failure or neglect, to cause proper action for removal to be instituted against such member of said committee. It shall also be the duty of the county clerk to take prompt and immediate action in all such cases coming to his knowledge. Any vacancies occurring in such registration committee for any cause shall be filled in the same manner and with like effect as said committee is provided to be originally constituted and appointed. The validity of any part of the registration already completed, or other acts done or provided hereunder, if otherwise legally done, shall not be affected by the removal of a member of such committee, but the same shall be in every respect valid and regular, and the successor of any such person removed, or retiring from such committee for any cause, shall proceed with such canvass and the other duties of such committee with like power and effect as though originally appointed as a member of such registration committee.

County Clerk to deliver to Registration Committee copy of registration book—Form of clerks' certificate—Meetings of Registration Committee—Who may register—Elector may register his family and three others—Form of oath for elector registering others than self—Information to be furnished by vouching elector—Registrations to be in ink—Illiterate elector may make mark—Form of elector's oath.

Section 7. One day prior to the beginning of precinct registration, the county clerk shall deliver to a majority of the registration committee a true copy of the registration book used at the next preceding election, and containing the names of all those who voted at the preceding election, with the exception of those whose names have been stricken by the county clerk under the provisions of this act. The clerk shall attach to each of said registration books a certificate substantially as follows:

"I hereby certify that the within copy of registration for Precinct....., Ward or District..... County, Colorado, containing.....names, is a true and correct list of all the voters in said precinct who voted therein at the last general election and whose names appear on the original registration book of said precinct in my office.

County Clerk."

On the fourth and third Thursdays preceding the day of election, said registration committee shall sit at some suitable place to be provided by the county commissioners, selected in accordance with the methods and law of the State for the providing of polling places for election, which place shall be as far as practicable, centrally located within the precinct, from nine o'clock a. m. until nine o'clock p. m., and shall proceed to complete said registration list in accordance with the provisions of this act, it being the purpose and intent of this act that any elector who has once been registered shall not have to again register for any primary election unless he shall have failed to vote at the preceding general election, and at said times they shall place on their registration books the names of all qualified electors of their precinct, who are not already on the registration, after the following manner:

First. All who shall present themselves in person for registration and take the form of oath herein provided for and comply with the provisions of this act respecting registration.

Second. Any elector who is already registered, whether by virtue of having voted at the preceding election, or has appeared in person and registered at the time the registration committee is sitting, and who is personally known to the registration committee, may register any person or persons to the number of not more than three (3) or any member of his family including servants to any number thereof, who reside and have resided at the same address for at least ninety (90) days last past, by signing such name or names on the list and thereafter signing his own name as voucher, in the presence of a majority of the registration committee, and by making oath as follows:

"I,, do solemnly swear by the ever-living God (or affirm) that I am a citizen of the United States and a qualified elector in ward.....(or district), precinct....., in the county or city and county of.....; that I am registered from No.Street, and a resident of that address. That.....(name of person or persons), whose names I have caused to be placed on the registered list of qualified voters from the same address in this precinct, reside at such address, and have resided there for ninety (90) days last past, and are qualified electors entitled to be registered and to vote from such address in such precinct, at the ensuing election."

In all cases where electors are permitted to be registered by vouchers, the person so vouching for them, as far as known by them, shall furnish the information required concerning such elector, which shall be filled in the blank spaces for that purpose in the registration book.

All registrations shall be made in ink and shall be made only in the registration book furnished by the county. Except as herein otherwise provided, each elector registered shall answer the questions concerning all the matters required by Section eight (8) of this act and sign his or her name, or, if unable to write, make his or her mark, and the answer so made by the elector shall be entered in the registration book by the members of the registration committee selected or directed by the committee to make such entries, in the proper place, and shall, together with the signature of the elector be attested by at least one member of the registration committee, the elector first taking the following oath before one of the members of said registration committee, all of whom are hereby empowered to administer such oath or other oath necessary to the performance of their duties under this act or the carrying out of its provisions:

"I,, do solemnly swear (or affirm) that on the date of the next ensuing election I shall be over the age of twenty-one years and shall have resided in the State of Colorado at least twelve months, and in the county at least ninety days preceding the said election, and in the city of..... at least thirty days and in precinct at least ten days before the election, and that I am a citizen of the United States and a qualified elector in said precinct."

Questions to be answered by elector when registering.

Section 8. It shall be the duty of each qualified elector to be lawfully registered, except as otherwise provided herein, to answer concerning the following matters: (1) Name in full. (2) Whether married or single. (3) Place of residence, which, if urban or suburban, shall be located according to its street number, or if there shall be no street number, then by the description of the lot or lots, in the block or blocks in the addition, division or subdivision into which the land upon which the residence is located, is divided; in all other cases the residence shall be located by the section or sections or subdivision thereof, in the township and range as established and numbered by the United States government survey.

(4) Whether owner of, tenant of, or lodger with occupant of residence. If the voter is a lodger in any rooming house or hotel the number of the floor and the number of the room shall be given and stated in the registration book.

(5) Whether a taxpayer in the city in which the election is to be held.

(6) Whether a native born or naturalized citizen of the United States. If a naturalized citizen, the applicant shall state how naturalized, whether by naturalization of self, parents, or otherwise; applicant shall state as near as may be to his best knowledge, information and belief, when self, parents, or if a female, when husband was naturalized, the place and time of naturalization and by what court the naturalization papers were granted.

(7) A description of his person, consisting of his height, sex, age, complexion, color of eyes and any other physical features by which he can be readily identified.

(8) His profession, business or employment. (9) His post-office address. (10) The applicant shall comply with any educational qualifications required by law. It shall only be necessary for a female voter to state that she is twenty-one (21) years of age and over, in answer to all questions relating to her age.

Persons present when polls close allowed to complete registration.

Section 9. a. All persons in the polling place at the hour of closing the registration shall be allowed to complete their registration and the polls shall be kept open after such hour of closing only long enough to allow those actually present at the hour of closing to complete their registration.

Arrangement of registration list.

Section 9. b. The registration list so made shall contain the names of the qualified electors of the voting precinct in which the same is made, alphabetically arranged, according to the surnames, so as to show in one column the name of each elector at full length, and in another the place of his residence, designated by the number or name of the street and the number of the house, if numbered, and if not, the section or other subdivision thereof, according to United States surveys, on which such elector shall reside, if he resides on surveyed land, and if not, such description as will best locate his residence.

Duty of Registration Committee in re registration list—Committee to post list—County Clerk to deliver copy of list to each county chairman—County Clerk to deliver corrected list to member of Registration Committee—Corrected list to be posted—Clerks of election to keep poll and tally lists.

Section 10. Upon the completion of such lists of registered voters, the registration committee shall forthwith, and not later than two days after the last day of precinct registration, deliver the same to the county clerk. They shall also make four copies of the names and addresses of the registered voters, three of which they shall send to the county clerk with the registration book. The other, they shall, not later than two days after the last day of precinct registration, post in some conspicuous place as near as practical or convenient to the polling place to be used at the ensuing election, so as to be accessible and convenient to any elector who may desire to inspect the same. It shall be the duty of the county clerk, upon receipt of the list of names and addresses of the registered voters in the various precincts from the registrars, to forthwith, and within twenty-four hours, deliver one of said copies to each county chairman of the two political parties having cast the largest vote for Governor at the last preceding election, taking his receipt therefor, and retain the third copy of the list of names and address for correction. The Clerk shall correct the retained list of names and addresses received from the registration committee in accordance with the original registration book as it is on the ninth day preceding the election, and forthwith send the same to the member of the registration committee representing the political party that cast the second highest vote for Governor at the next preceding election. It shall be the duty of such registrar to forthwith and at least five days preceding the ensuing election, post the same in the place and stead of the list of names provided to be posted after the completion of precinct registration, which list shall remain posted until after the day of election.

At all primaries and elections the clerks of election shall also keep the usual poll and tally lists now kept or in use at general elections. The judges at elections and primaries shall certify in their returns the names and addresses of themselves and of the clerks officiating thereat.

Removal of elector from precinct—Duty of County Clerk in cases of removal and change of address.

Section 11. Any qualified elector who has been registered and who, subsequent thereto, shall have removed from the precinct in which he is registered to some other precinct may appear before the county clerk at any time within a period of not less than ten days prior to the day of any election, and upon making oath as to his present residence in said precinct, said county clerk shall draw a red line through the registration of said voter, making note as follows, in column for "remarks": "Changed
.....19...., to precinct.....ward (or district)," and shall register in red ink such elector in the registration book for the precinct to which he is moved. Changes from one number in the precinct to another number in the same precinct may be made in the same manner, or may be made on election or primary day by the judges. The county clerk or deputy making such change shall sign his or her name in the column for the signature of the registration committee.

City elections.

Section 12. a. Within thirty (30) days after any general city election (except a primary) the city officers having custody of the returns shall deliver to the county clerk one of the original poll books used at the preceding election, containing the names of all those who voted thereat, and said clerk shall use the same in purging the registration, as provided in this section.

Purging of registration list by County Clerk—County chairman may challenge legality of registration—Appeal to county or district court—Duty of committee in premises.

Section 12. b. Within forty-five days after any general election held after the passage of this act, the County Clerk shall compare the poll list of voters who are shown thereby to have voted at the election, with the original registration for such elections, and strike from such original registration the names of all persons who failed to vote at such election by drawing a red line through their names and writing thereafter in the column headed "remarks," the words, "failed to vote." The registration lists, as thus purged, shall be the registration for the next succeeding primary election, with the names of such additional persons added thereto as shall, after the completion of said purging, have appeared personally before the county clerk for original registration or change of registration not more than thirty nor less than three days before any primary, and complied with the requirements of law respecting registration before the registration committee, and said clerk shall register any qualified elector who shall so appear in person for registration.

Any county chairman or his representatives or any qualified elector in such precinct may also appear at the time of precinct registration and protest against the registration of any name already appearing upon said registration list registered during that precinct registration, which is claimed to be illegal or fraudulent, and a majority of such committee, if satisfied any such name is illegal or fraudulent, may strike the same from the list, subject to the right of any person whose name is so stricken, or any county chairman: to apply in a brief petition to the District or County Court to have his name or such name restored to such list if legally entitled to remain there. No fee shall be charged or collected in any case where such name may be restored to the registration list. Such protest, and two copies thereof, must be filed in writing with such registration committee upon said day, and it shall be the duty of the committee to return the said protest and copies thereof to the county clerk at the time of making return of such registration book as provided herein, with a statement by all or any one of said committee as to any knowledge or information obtained; their opinions as to the truth or falsity of such protest, and their action in respect thereto, which statement shall remain on file with the county clerk. Forthwith, upon such filing with the county clerk, it shall be his duty to deliver or mail a copy of such protest so filed with him, to each of the two county chairmen. Such statement filed by the registration committee, or any member thereof, shall be conveniently kept with the registration book or records from such precinct and subject to public inspection.

Method of challenging false registration—Contents of petition—Clerk of court to notify all parties involved—Form of subpoena—County to pay witness fees—Form of notice to challenged elector—Petitioner to file duplicate copies of petition for use of party chairmen—Duty of accused elector in the premises—Court to determine charges—Rules for guidance of court—Names stricken from list—False challenging a misdemeanor and contempt of court—Redress of person falsely accused—All hearings summary and final—Court given power to investigate—Witness fees—No appeal from court's decision—Protection of posted registration list.

Section 13. a. At any time not more than twenty-five nor less than eighteen days before any election or primary election, any qualified elector may file in the county or district court a petition, which shall be under oath, alleging that the petitioner has made careful investigation, and believes that names registered by the registration committee are illegally or fraudulently registered in certain precincts, which shall be stated. The petition shall set forth consecutively and in alphabetical order each of such names, with the address given in the registration book in each precinct, and the names of the registration committee in such precinct. Such petition shall state briefly the facts upon which such charge of illegality or fraud is made. The verification may be made upon information and belief. As soon as possible, and within twenty-four hours after the filing of such petition, the clerk of the court shall mail to each member of the registration committee in such precinct a subpoena in the form following, and shall mail to each name and address alleged therein to be illegal or fraudulent, a notice of the filing of such petition, and the time of hearing the same, which shall be not less than three nor more than five days thereafter. The subpoena to the members of the registration committee shall be substantially as follows:

“You are notified that on the.....day of....., filed in the.....court a petition asking for the purging of certain names from the registration list in precinct....., ward....., and that it appears from the record that such registration was made by you, and that you have represented it to be legal and correct. The petition charges that the list of names attached hereto in said precinct registered by you are illegal or fraudulent.

You are notified to appear and answer the charges of said petition at the hour of.....o'clock on the.....day of....., 19....., at the.....court, at the court house, in the city of.....

You are further notified that failure to appear, without good or sufficient excuse, renders you liable for contempt of court and punishment accordingly, as provided by the registration law.

(Attach list of names and addresses in alphabetical order.)

The subpoena shall be issued on the court’s motion and the county shall pay the witness and mileage fees.

The notice mailed to the name and address of each person in such precinct mentioned in such petition as being illegally or fraudulently registered shall be substantially as follows:

“You are notified that.....(stating the official position of such petitioner, if the petitioner should be a county chairman, member of a registration committee, or otherwise), has filed a petition in this court, asking for the purging of the registration in precinct.....ward.....

It is charged in such petition that your name appearing upon the registration lists of such precinct was illegally or fraudulently registered.

You are notified that said cause will be heard at the..... court, at the court house in the city of.....at the hour of.....o'clock, on the.....day of....., 19..... You are notified that your name will be stricken from such registration list if it shall be proved by the evidence at such hearing that you are not entitled to registration.

b. It shall be the duty of any person filing a petition as herein provided, for the purging of registration, to file therewith two duplicate copies of the same, and it shall be the duty of the clerk of the court to immediately deliver or mail to each of the two county chairmen one such duplicate copy, together with the notice stating that the original of such copy has been duly filed in his office, stating the time of such filing and the time and place when the cause is set for hearing.

c. Any person whose name is charged to be illegally or fraudulently registered, who shall appear in person and make oath that he or she is a legally qualified elector to vote in such precinct, or any person not present, whom any one member of such registration committee shall make oath in court is a legally qualified elector in said precinct, shall, for the purpose of such hearing, be conclusively entitled to have his name remain upon such registration list. Any person making such oath in open court shall be subject to cross examination by the petitioner or any person representing the petitioner at such hearing. If any person at such hearing shall testify that any one thus retained upon such registration list by such oath or affirmation is not a qualified elector in such precinct, a record of the fact shall be made and transmitted by the clerk of the court to the district attorney.

d. In all cases, except those which shall be conclusively entitled to remain upon the registration lists by reason of the oath or affirmation provided in the last paragraph of this section, the court shall investigate summarily and within forty-eight hours after the close of the evidence determine whether or not such charges are sustained; Provided only competent legal evidence shall be received on such hearing or considered by the court, and no name registered in accordance with law shall be struck from the registration unless it shall be so proved that the challenged person is not a qualified voter in the precinct wherein he is registered. No presumption shall be indulged in against any person whose registration is challenged merely because of the failure of such person to attend the hearing. At the close of such hearing the court shall announce the names in such petition as to which such charges have been sustained, and shall direct the clerk of the court to forthwith certify to the county clerk the lists of names of such persons, with their addresses in each precinct and ward, arranged alphabetically and according to precincts. It shall thereupon be the duty of the county clerk, upon the receipt of said list from the said court, to forthwith strike such names from the registration lists in the proper precinct by ruling a red line through such name, with the notation in the column for "remarks," that such name or names were stricken out in pursuance of the order of such court, giving the date of such order.

e. Any person who shall without previous investigation, or without reasonable cause or excuse, wilfully charge in any petition filed in such court that the name of any person upon such registration book or lists is illegal or fraudulent, or who shall not file such petition in good faith, or who shall file the same for the purpose of hindering or delaying any registration or any election, and not for the purpose of purging such registration lists of illegal or fraudulent names, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and also of contempt of court.

Any member of the registration committee, or any person whose names is charged to be illegally or fraudulently registered, shall have the right to charge by written affidavit filed in such cause, which affidavit may be upon information and belief, that the person filing such petition is not acting in good faith, but has been guilty of any of the acts or improper motives mentioned herein, and if, upon hearing, which shall be at the same time the case is heard on the petition, any of such charges are, in the opinion of the court, sustained, such persons shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and of contempt of court.

f. All hearings of any such petition shall be summary, final and not the subject of delay.

g. No other pleadings than the said petition and affidavit shall be permitted to be filed in any such cause.

h. The court shall have the power to subpœna any person or persons as witnesses at such hearing and make any necessary investigation to ascertain the truth of any of the charges in such petition or affidavits, provided the method of such investigation shall not cause unnecessary delay or interfere with the final disposition of such cause within the time provided for herein.

Persons subpœnaed shall be paid by the county the usual witness and mileage fees allowed witnesses for the people in criminal cases in courts of record. The decision of the court in any such case shall be final, and no appeal shall lie to any other court, except that the Supreme Court may, in the exercise of its discretion, review any such proceedings in a summary way. The penalty for tampering with or destroying such list shall be printed in a conspicuous place on the outside thereof, and the registration committee shall adopt reasonable methods for the posting of such list so as to protect it from the weather or theft, and make it accessible to the public at reasonable times, and they shall sign their names and addresses on the cover of such list.

Registration Committee to sign and swear to list compiled by them—Form of certification—Registrars may make copies of list.

Section 14. a. When any registration book or copy thereof is delivered to the county clerk under any provision of this act, there shall be attached thereto a certificate, signed and sworn to by the members of the registration committee making the registration contained in such book, certifying substantially as follows:

"We, the legally appointed committee for the registration of the electors for ward (or district).....precinctdo solemnly swear (or affirm) in the presence of the ever-living God that we have diligently performed the duties required of us by law in completing the registration of voters for said precinct, and have herein entered the names of electors in accordance with the provisions of the statutes of the State relating to the registration of voters, and that as such registration committee for the purpose mentioned, we did sit at number....., (district, ward or other description of the place of registration) in the said precinct between the hours of seven o'clock a. m. and nine o'clock p. m. on the.....day of,....., for the purpose of registering electors in said precinct, and we have in all respects complied with the law in making the registration of said precinct up to and including the day of this certificate, and we have not knowingly permitted any illegal or fraudulent registration in said precinct.

 Committee of registration for ward (or district)....., precinct.....

Subscribed and sworn to before me this.....day of....., A. D. 19...."

b. Any member of the registration committee may make daily copies upon duplicate sheets or duplicate registration sheets, of registrations made by such committee. It shall be the duty of the members of such committee to sign and certify to any copy of their registration list when requested by any member of the committee.

County Commissioners to provide election supplies, etc.—Contents of registration books.

Section 15. The board of county commissioners in each county from time to time as may be required by this act, shall provide for all election precincts all necessary supplies and registration books which shall be of sufficient strength and durability for the registration provided for; such books shall be of convenient size and shape, conforming in the printing and blank spaces to the requirements of this act, and shall be arranged for the registration of names in divisions to be composed of ruled columns with appropriate headings, under the information obtained or required by the registration committee concerning the proper answers and statements made by each elector in being registered in compliance with the act, shall be recorded. The names of the electors as registered shall be numbered under each division, consecutively from one upwards, and the date of registration shall also be recorded. There shall also be ruled columns under each one of said divisions for the signature of electors for informants as to their qualifications and the name or names of the registration committee; also a column with the heading, "Registration Changed From" and sub-headings, "Election Precinct No.," and "Register No.," whereunder in all cases of changed registration or change of residence of any elector shall be stated the election precinct and registry number of elector's last registration. There shall also be a ruled column "Remarks," under which shall be briefly noted any important information affecting the registry of the elector.

Form of headings of registration books.

Section 16. The headings of the registration books shall be substantially as follows, viz:

[See accompanying diagram.]

Duty of Secretary of State to prepare form.

Section 18. It shall be the duty of the Secretary of State to make out a complete form of registration book, with the oath of the registrar to any blank and the requisite blank column properly headed, and to have the same printed and send copies thereof to the clerk of each county, together with a sufficient number of copies of the registration and election laws bound in pamphlet form.

Duty of County Commissioners and Clerk to furnish election supplies.

Section 19. It shall be the duty of the county commissioners to supply and the county clerk of each county to see that there is delivered whenever required for any primary or election for the use of the board of registry and judges of election in each precinct, all necessary supplies as may be required under the provisions of this act for the registration of voters, and he shall send them by mail or other safe conveyance to the member or members of the registration committee authorized to receive the same so as to be in their possession at least five days prior to the day of the first meeting of the registration committee for making any registrations required by this act.

County Clerk empowered to make rules.

Section 20. The county clerk shall have the right to make reasonable rules for calling for the registration books and the delivery thereof and preserving the same from loss, mutilation and alteration and may issue written instructions to the various registrars as to the method of entering in their books the names of electors in accordance with the provisions of this act.

Duty of Registration Committee to call in person for books, supplies, etc.—County Clerk to deliver original registration book to committee.

Section 21. It shall be the duty of a majority of the registration committee to call in person at the office of the county clerk and recorder at least one day prior to any primary or election, for the purpose of receiving the original books of registration, which original book of registration shall be used by such judges at their respective polling places in complying with the provisions of this act, and no copy thereof shall be used for such purpose unless the original has been lost, destroyed or stolen. On the day preceding any primary or election the clerk shall deliver the original registration book to the judge representing the political party entitled to the minority judge in such precinct. Said registration book shall be furnished to said judge in a sealed envelope, which said envelope shall not be opened until the morning of primary or election day at the precinct in the presence of the judges. The custody of the registration book shall be with the judge of election in each precinct to whom it was delivered by the county clerk.

Boundaries of election precincts—Registration Committee for new precincts—Limit of electors in one precinct—County Clerk to transfer names of registered electors in new precincts.

Section 22. a. The boundaries of election precincts in cities for city elections shall be co-extensive with those in such cities for county elections; and they shall not be changed nor shall any new election precinct or precincts be created, within the limits of any city, or city and county with a population exceeding two thousand within less than three months prior to any city, county or state election; and whenever such boundaries shall be changed, or a new election precinct or precincts be created, as provided by law, within ten days after the creation of such new precinct or changes of such boundaries, it shall be the duty of the person charged with such duties under this act to forthwith proceed in accordance with the directions and provisions of this act, to appoint a registration committee for such new or changed precincts. The officers charged by law with such duty, shall whenever necessary, as herein provided, create election precincts or alter or divide any existing election precincts in any city, county, or city and county, in such manner that each election precinct shall as near as possible contain not more than Five hundred (500) registered votes.

b. In case any new election precinct shall be formed, or in case of the division of any voting precinct, the names of all voters residing in that part of any precinct detached shall be forthwith stricken by the county clerk from the registration list of such precinct, and shall be by him inserted in the registration list of the new precinct or the precinct of which such part may have been attached, at least ten days prior to the ensuing primary or to the fourth Tuesday preceding the day of election, as the case may be.

Officers in charge of city elections—County Commissioners to provide polling places for elections—County Clerk to publish notice of registration—Posting of printed notices—Deputy county clerk to register electors—Deputy county clerk may make changes of registration—Charter provisions to govern in cities under special charter—City chairman's duties in city elections—City committee-men's duties—Expenses, how paid.

Section 23. a. In city elections all matters relating thereto and required to be done hereunder shall be performed by the city officers as now provided by law, and the city clerk shall perform all of the duties required of the county clerk except the appointment of the registration committee and judges of election, and the custody, preparation, delivery and purging of the registration books, and corrected list of names and addresses, and registration of electors, which shall be done by the county clerk. The board of county commissioners of any county wherein is situated any city other than the county seat having a population of five thousand or more inhabitants shall, provide a suitable place in such city for the registration of electors therein for the primary and ensuing election. The county clerk shall, by advertisement in a daily newspaper of general circulation in such city, give notice daily for ten days prior to the beginning of registration to the effect that registration will be had in such city, giving the times and place, and such other information as is requisite to inform the electors of such registration. He shall likewise cause printed notices to be posted on the outside of the place where such registration is to be conducted at least ten days prior to the beginning thereof, giving a like notice to the electors of such city. It shall be the duty of the county clerk to appoint a deputy or deputies to register the electors of such city as electors are registered before the county clerk. Said deputy or deputies shall on the first and third day preceding any election or primary sit at the place designated between the hours of 7 A. M. and 9 P. M. for the purpose of such registration. They shall take with them the original books of registration for the precincts included within such city and sit at the place provided by the county commissioners for such registration during the times registration is provided for at the county seat before the county clerk and proceed to register the voters of the various precincts of such cities, who shall appear before them in person and comply with the provisions of this act respecting registration before the county clerk. Changes of registration may be made before such deputy clerks in the same manner as is provided for before the county clerk. The original books of registration shall, at such times as they are not required for registration or change of registration in such city, be returned to and kept in the office of the County Clerk.

b. In all cities, cities and counties, operating under Article XX of the Constitution, when the charter thereof prescribed what officers shall perform the acts and duties required to be done and performed by this act, such charter provisions shall prevail, otherwise this act shall govern.

c. All acts and things required to be done by the county chairman shall, in city elections, if there be a city chairman of the political parties participating in such elections, be performed by such city chairman, except the filing of the original lists with the county clerk for the selection of the registration committee. The members of the city committee of such parties participating in such elections shall perform the acts and duties required of the county committee, if there be a city committee as distinct from the county committee representing such organizations in any such city elections. In all respects this act shall be followed and its purposes and intentions observed in city elections.

All expenses incurred by the county in the matter of city elections shall be paid by the city to the county.

Special Elections—Those who may not act as registrars in special elections.

Section 24. In any special election for the submission of public questions or the issue of bonds or the granting or refusal of or concerning public franchises only, the registration shall be made as provided in this act for general elections, and the time for such registration and performance of other acts shall be a like time before such election, and in every other respect such election shall be in conformity with this act, as far as practicable. Any special elections shall be called in sufficient time before the date thereof, as to permit such registrars to comply with the provisions of this act.

b. No person in the employ of or owning any stock, bonds or securities of any public utility corporation seeking a public franchise at any election shall be permitted to act as a registrar, judge, clerk or election official at any such election.

Existing poll and registration books to be turned over to county clerks—New registration under this act—County Clerk to publish notice of new registration—Registration to be completed ten days before election.

Section 25. Immediately after the passage of this act persons having the custody of the poll and registration books used at the preceding election shall deliver the same to the County Clerk, who shall thereupon proceed to make up a registration list by precincts. Said list shall be made up by registering in books provided for that purpose all persons who are shown by the poll lists to have voted at the preceding election. If in any precinct the registration and poll lists are not available, the clerk shall, beginning with the 15th day after the passage of this act, and continuing down to within three days of the next ensuing primary, or as the case may be, within ten days of the time when the registration books are to be delivered to the registration committee for the completion of registration, as provided in Section 7 hereof, register at his office at any time during regular office hours the names of all qualified electors who shall appear in person and comply with the provisions of this act with respect to registrations before the registration committee. Also the names of all qualified electors who shall be properly vouched for in accordance with the provisions of Section 8. Beginning with the 11th day after the passage of this act, the County Clerk shall give ten (10) days' notice by advertising in a daily newspaper of general circulation of each city of the precincts of which he has not received the registration and poll books, that he will register voters of such precincts at his office in order to make up the first registration under this act, stating the time during which registration shall continue, and that he will also during said time register any electors of other precincts who did not vote at the preceding election. The Clerk shall, in accordance with Section 7, deliver duly verified copies of said registration books to the registration committee, who shall proceed to complete the registration as provided in Section 8. Such registration shall be finally completed and corrected ten (10) days prior to the ensuing election, as provided herein, and the registration used at the first election held hereunder.

Temporary registration committees to perform duties at elections held within sixty days after passage of this act.

Section 26. In all cities and in any city and county in which any election held more than sixty (60) days after the passage of this act, whether general or special, may be held for county or city offices, or for the issuing of bonds, or for the granting of public franchises, or the voting upon any public question, or other matter, within the provisions of this act prior to the appointment of the permanent registration committees provided for herein, there shall be temporary registration committees appointed to carry out the provisions of this act. Such temporary registration committee shall be appointed as far as practicable in the same manner as the registration committees provided for by this act, having all the rights, duties and powers of such registration committees, and making the registration of voters under the provisions of this act, for any such election, in the manner provided by this act; Provided, that the time of appointment of such committee shall be forty-five days before any such election, Provided, also, that in submitting names for members of the registration committee by the county chairman to the county clerk, as provided herein, he shall not be required to obtain the same from the precinct committeeman, and the time of performance of all acts and duties of such temporary registration committee shall be a like time before such election as herein provided to be performed by the registration committee before any other election.

Fees of County Clerk for registration work—Compensation of Registration Committee and clerks—Registration Committee may employ clerks to assist—Compensation of other election officers.

Section 27. a. The county clerk of each county shall be authorized to receive from the county the sum of five cents for each registration by him made, for each change of registration made on the application of any qualified elector in pursuance of the provisions of this act, for each name by him stricken from the registration, for each notice issued and mailed under the provisions of this act, and for each name copied by him on the registration books furnished to the registration committee.

b. Each member of the registration committee provided for in this act shall receive a compensation for his services, to be paid in the manner and in accordance with the laws providing for the payment of election judges or similar election officials the sum of five dollars ($5.00) per day for not to exceed two days actually served for registration, and the sum of five dollars ($5.00) for acting as judge of any election. Clerks of election shall receive the same compensation as provided herein for judges of election.

c. The registration committee is hereby authorized to employ a clerk or clerical assistants if necessary, to make copies of the names and addresses herein provided for, at not to exceed the sum of ten dollars ($10.00) for each precinct for such copies of the names and addresses of registered voters, as are provided for by this act, or the registration committee may make such copies and receive such compensation. Such committee, or any two members thereof, are authorized to sign a certificate certifying that any person named by them in the certificate has performed such clerical services, stating the amount of compensation to be allowed to said clerk to be paid as election judge or other election officials are paid.

d. The compensation for any election officer, not herein provided for, shall be as now provided by the laws of this State.

Oaths and affirmations to be preserved by County Clerk—Records to be preserved—Certified copies of records by Clerk.

Section 28. The oaths or affirmations provided for by this act shall be preserved by the county clerk with the books and papers of each precinct respectively, until a new registration committee is appointed as provided by this act. The old registration books, records, affidavits or other papers shall not be destroyed until after the next general election. Such registration committee, clerks and electors, by their signatures, in the place provided in this act, in said registration books, shall be conclusively deemed in law to have duly verified the registration or change thereof of any elector, respecting whom such registration or change was made, in substance, manner and form as aforesaid, and shall for false attestation, swearing or certifying, be subject to the penalties prescribed in this act. Said registration books, certificates, oaths, statement or certified copies of the same by the county clerk, or the certified copy of entries therein by such clerk, shall be admissible in evidence as proof of the taking of said oath or affirmation in all criminal proceedings for the punishment of false attestations, swearing, wrongful registration, certifying, signing or issuing of any paper or statement provided by this act. Upon request of any registered elector, it shall be the duty of the county clerk to make out and deliver to such elector a certificate of the registration of such elector, setting forth the fact of such registration, including the date, description and other information recorded in connection with the registration of such elector, which certificate shall be attested by the hand of the county clerk and the seal of the county. The county clerk shall be allowed a fee of five cents for each of such certificates, to be paid by the applicant. Registration books shall be left in the custody of the county clerk, who shall be responsible therefor, except when in actual use by the registration committee or judges of election in the performance of their duties. The masculine pronoun used in this act shall also include the feminine.

Clerks to be of opposite political faith—Who may appoint.

Section 29. Each of the two political parties casting the largest vote for Governor at the last preceding election, shall be entitled to a clerk in each precinct at each primary and election, who shall be appointed by the judges of the party entitled thereto.

Party chairman may appoint watchers—Alternates—Who may be present during casting and counting of votes.

Section 30. a. The chairman of each political party may name a watcher at the registration in any precinct. Watchers or challengers shall be electors of the precincts in which they act. Each challenger or watcher shall have the right at any time to appoint an alternate to take his place, with all the rights and duties of such watcher or challenger, to act during such time as such watcher or challenger may be absent, and not to exceed two persons designated by any watcher or challenger may remain in or about the polling place during the counting of the vote and certifying the returns; and it shall be the duty of the judges of such precinct to protect such watchers and challengers or their alternates or representatives in all the rights guaranteed them by the statutes of this State.

b. In all primaries, the party committeeman of each party, of any precinct, may represent his party at the polling place during the casting and canvass of the vote at a primary, or he may appoint an agent, or the chairman of each party may designate a member of his committee or other person for such purpose. Any candidate for a nomination on the ticket of any political party nominating candidates at the primary shall be entitled to act as challenger or watcher during such primary and the canvass of the vote thereof.

Settlement of controversies, how effected—Supreme Court may review and adjudicate.

Section 31. Whenever any controversy shall arise between any official charged with any duty or function under this act, and any candidate, or the officers or representatives of any po-political party or persons who have made nominations, upon the filing of a petition in the District or County Court by any such official or persons, setting forth in concise form the nature of such controversy and the relief sought, which petition shall be under oath, it shall be the duty of such court, or the judges thereof in vacation, to issue an order commanding the respondent in such petition to be and appear before the court or judge, and answer under oath to such petition; and it shall be the duty of the court or judge to summarily hear and dispose of any such issues with a view of obtaining a substantial compliance with the provisions of this act, by the parties to such controversy, and to make and enter orders and judgments, and issue the writ of process of such court to enforce all such orders and judgments. The provisions of this act shall be liberally construed, so as to carry out the intent of this act, and of political parties, nominees, and others in proceedings under this act. Such proceedings may be reviewed and finally adjudicated by the Supreme Court of the State, if application to such court is made within three days after the termination thereof by the Court in which the petition was filed, if the Supreme Court shall be willing to assume jurisdiction of the case.

All elections included in act.

Section 32. References to elections of any character in the penal sections herein shall be deemed to include all elections of any character whatsoever.

Penalty for violations of this act.

Section 33. Any person who shall violate any of the provisions of this act or in any manner interfere with or impede the due and proper carrying out of the same, whether by act of commission or by failure to perform any act or duty imposed or required for the proper administration of this act, or who shall knowingly permit or encourage another so to do, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be punished by a fine of not less than twenty-five ($25.00) dollars, nor more than one thousand ($1,000.00) dollars, or shall be imprisoned in the county jail not less than one month nor more than one year, or any such person may be punished by both such fine and imprisonment.

District Attorney to investigate and prosecute charges.

Section 34. Upon the making and filing of an affidavit with the District Attorney to the effect that any member of the registration committee, or any other person or persons, have violated any of the provisions of this act, in which affidavit the nature of such violation and the fact with reference thereto shall be stated, it shall be the duty of the District Attorney to forthwith investigate, and if reasonable grounds appear therefor, prosecute the same.

Perjury.

Section 35. Any person who shall falsely and corruptly make any oath provided for by this act shall be deemed guilty of perjury and punished accordingly.

Irregularities not to constitute a defense.

Section 36. Irregularities or defects in the mode of calling, giving notice of, convening, holding or conducting any primary election authorized by law shall constitute no defense to a prosecution for a violation of this act. When an offense shall be committed in relation to any primary or other election, an indictment, information or complaint for such offense shall be sufficient, if it allege that such primary or election was authorized by law, without stating the call or notice of primary or election aforesaid, the names of the judges or clerks holding such primary or election, or the names of the persons voted for at such election. Judicial notice shall be taken of the holding of any primary or election.

Attorney General may file and prosecute complaints.

Section 37. The Attorney General of the State shall have equal power with District Attorneys to file and prosecute informations or complaints against any person for violating any provisions of this act or any election law of this State.

Funds collected paid to County Treasurer.

Section 38. All funds collected under the provisions of this act shall be paid to the County Treasurer of the county wherein the offense was committed for the benefit of the school fund of such county.

Act to apply only to cities of greater than five thousand inhabitants—Compensation of registrars and clerks.

Section 39. Sections 1 to 38 hereof, both inclusive, shall apply only to election precincts included within the limits of cities with a greater population than five thousand inhabitants. In all other election precincts in this State the registration of electors for general or primary elections shall be made as now provided by law for general elections, and the penalties now provided for violations thereof shall apply to the registration of electors for primary elections. The registration board in the last mentioned class of election precincts shall, in addition to the days now provided, sit for the purpose of registering electors on Saturday and Monday preceding primary elections between the hours of 7 a. m. and 7 p. m. of such days, which registration shall apply for both the primary and general election. The pay of such registrars and clerks for service at primary registrations and elections shall be the same as now provided by law for general registrations and elections.

Act to be construed liberally.

Section 40. This act shall be liberally construed, so that all legally qualified electors may be registered, and that those who are not legal electors may be kept from such registration lists, and that fraud and corruption in elections may be prevented, and these purposes shall not be defeated by any informality or failure to comply with the provisions of this act as to any notice required by this act.

Repealing clause.

Section 41. All acts and parts of acts inconsistent with this act are hereby repealed.

Approved, May 30th, 1911. (Laws 1911, pages 336-369 Inclusive.)

JUDGES AND CLERKS.

2217. Appointment of judges and clerks of election.—Sec. 82. Judges and clerks of election shall be appointed for each election precinct in the manner following: In all counties of class "A" and of the first and second classes according to the classification of counties, made for the purpose of fees, during the first week of the session of the board of county commissioners for each such county in the state, which commences on the first Monday of October in each year, and in all other counties, according to such classification, during the first week of the session of the board for each such county which commences on the first Monday of July of each year, they shall appoint three qualified electors, two of whom shall be of opposite political parties, to act as judges of election in each election precinct, at all general and special elections, until their successors are appointed. On or before the last days of September and June respectively in each year, such political parties may each file with the clerk of the board of county commissioners a list, designating six or more persons in each election precinct in such county, together with their residence and occupations, which list shall be subscribed by the chairman or secretary of the county organization of such political party, and an affidavit shall be added thereto, subscribed by the said chairman or secretary stating that he is such officer, or acting officer, duly appointed, and with authority to file such list on behalf of such party; that the names submitted are names of qualified electors of such precincts, respectively; that, according to the best knowledge and belief of such affiant, each of such persons named in such list is a creditable and trustworthy person; and the county commissioners shall appoint one of such persons in each precinct so recommended in each of said lists, as election judge. Whenever all or any of the political parties so entitled shall fail to file such list or lists, or whenever such list or lists when filed shall be incomplete, all such omissions shall be supplied and persons selected by the board of commissioners. Vacancies in the office of judge of election shall be filled as now provided by law. Clerks of election shall be selected as now provided by law. If any board of commissioners shall fail to comply with the provisions of this section, each and every member thereof shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be punished by a fine of not less than ten nor more than one hundred dollars for every offense, and the neglect and failure to designate any one judge properly suggested in accordance herewith, shall be a separate offense. In case of a conflict arising before such board, owing to different persons claiming the right to certify such list for any political party, the board shall have authority to decide between such lists; Provided, That they shall select only names included in a sworn list, as above mentioned; And, provided, further, That any person making a false statement in any such affidavit shall be guilty of perjury and punished as provided by law. The officers of all cities and towns, whether incorporated under general law or special charter, who may be by law authorized to appoint judges of election for any election therein, shall in like manner, upon like application, appoint the election judges for each precinct from different political parties in the manner aforesaid. Any such officer failing to comply with this provision shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable as in the cases of county commissioners. [L. '91, p. 154, §23.

Every judge of elections or other person serving on such board of registry shall, before entering upon the duties of his office, take an oath, to be administered by any justice of the peace or other officer present having power to administer oaths, faithfully to discharge the duties of registrar according to law and to the best of his skill and ability. If no such officer shall be present the oath may be administered by one judge or registrar to another. [G. S., §1264; G. L., §1040.]

2222. Oath of judges and clerks—Form.—Sec. 87. Previous to any votes being taken the judges and clerks of the election shall severally take an oath or affirmation in the following form, to wit: "I, A. B., do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will perform the duties of judge (or clerk, as the case may be) according to law, and the best of my ability; that I will studiously endeavor to prevent fraud, deceit and abuse in conducting the same, and that I will not try to ascertain, nor will I disclose how any elector voted, if, in the discharge of my duties as judge (or clerk, as the case may be) knowledge shall come to me as to how any elector shall have voted, unless called upon to disclose the same before some court of justice." [G. S., §1176; G. L., §952.]

[Judges or others acting in registering must first be sworn, §2169]

2223. Judges may administer oaths to each other and to clerks.—Sec. 88. In case there shall be no judge, justice of the peace, or other person qualified by law to administer an oath, present at the opening of the election, to administer the oath mentioned in the preceding section, it shall be lawful for the judges of the election, and they are hereby empowered to administer the oaths or affirmations to each other, and to the clerks of the election, and the person administering such oaths or affirmations shall cause an entry thereof to be made and subscribed by him, and prefixed to the poll books. [G. S., §1177; G. L., §953.

2224. Vacancy in board, how filled.—Sec. 89. In cases of vacancy in the office of judge of election, or in the board of registry, at any time when they meet according to law, the vacancy may be filled by the election, by the qualified electors then present, of a qualified elector to serve as a member of such board of registry until the appearance of a judge of election duly appointed in and for such ward or precinct. [G. S., §1263; G. L., §1039.

2225. Voters elect judge, when—Powers of.—Sec. 90. If any person appointed to act as a judge of the election as aforesaid shall neglect or refuse to be sworn or affirmed, or to act in such capacity, the place of such person shall be filled by the votes of such qualified voters residing within the precinct as may then be present at the place of election, and the person or persons so elected to fill such vacancy or vacancies shall be and are hereby vested with the same power as if appointed by the board of county commissioners. [G. S., §1175; G. L., §951.

ELECTIONS.

APPOINTING JUDGES.

AN ACT

IN RELATION TO ELECTIONS IN THE STATE OF COLORADO.

Be It Enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Colorado:

Three receiving, three canvassing judges.

Section 1. The Board of County Commissioners where the matter of appointing judges of election rests with the County Commissioners, and the election Commission in the City and County of Denver shall in all precincts where at the last preceding general election there were cast three hundred or more votes at any election for which judges of election are appointed, appoint three judges of election to supervise the casting of the ballots at said election to be known as receiving judges, and three judges to canvass and make returns of the ballots cast at said election, to be known as counting judges.

Appointed as provided by law.

Section 2. In all precincts not provided for in Section 1 of this Act, judges of election shall be appointed in the same manner and the same number as now provided by law.

From two or three political parties.

Section 3. The judges of election as provided for in Section 1 of this Act shall be appointed as now provided by law, from two or three of the political parties casting the highest number of votes at the last general election. The number of votes cast for each party to be determined by the average number of votes cast for Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Treasurer, Auditor, Secretary of State, Attorney General and Superintendent of Schools: Provided that such parties have received ten per cent of the total vote cast at the last general election.

Board of registration.

Section 4. The receiving judges shall be the Board of Registration as now provided by law and shall meet at the same time and organize as now required by law.

Counting judges.

Section 5. The counting judges shall meet at the voting place at 8:00 o'clock A. M. on the day of election and organize, and select two clerks in the same manner, and under the same regulations as now required by law, vacancies to be filled as now provided by law.

Ballot boxes.

Section 6. The Board of County Commissioners in all Counties, except Denver County and the Election Commission in the City and County of Denver, shall provide the judges of election with two ballot boxes, where two sets of judges are appointed.

Counting ballots.

Section 7. At 8:00 o'clock A. M. or as soon thereafter as the counting judges may apply for the same, the receiving judges shall deliver to said counting judges the ballot box containing all ballots that have been cast up to that time, and said receiving judges shall then proceed to use the other ballot box furnished for that purpose. Whenever the counting judges have canvassed the votes in a ballot box, they shall return the empty ballot box to the receiving judges and exchange for the box containing ballots cast since taking possession of the first ballot box, they shall continue to exchange ballot boxes, in the same manner during the day until the polls are closed, and all ballots have been counted, they shall then certify to the casting of ballots and the returns as now provided by law. The receiving judges shall certify to all matters pertaining to casting of ballots, and the counting judges shall certify to all matters pertaining to the canvass and counting of votes.

Checking votes in ballot boxes.

Section 8. Whenever such exchange of ballot boxes is made as described in Section seven of this Act the receiving judges shall furnish to the counting judges a statement signed by the three receiving judges showing the number of ballots that are to be found in each ballot box as indicated by the poll lists. The counting judges shall first count the number of ballots in each box. If the ballots shall be found to exceed the number entered on each of the poll lists as shown by said statement of the receiving judges, the counting judges shall then examine the official endorsements upon the outside of the ballots without opening the same, and if, in the unanimous opinion of the judges, any one or more of the ballots in excess of the number on the poll lists be deemed not to bear the proper official endorsement they shall be kept separate and a separate record and return of the votes in such ballots shall be made under the head of "excess ballots." The counting judges shall then proceed to count as under existing laws.

Watchers.

Section 9. Watchers may be appointed to be present and watch the counting of ballots, as now provided by law: Provided that all judges take oath and all clerks and all watchers, must in addition to the oath now prescribed take an oath administered by one of the judges of election, who are hereby empowered to administer oaths that they will not in any manner make known to any one the result of the votes as they are being counted until the polls have closed. And any such judge, clerk or watcher violating any of the provisions of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be liable to a fine of not more than five hundred dollars or by imprisonment in the county jail of not more than six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment, and every person so convicted shall be disfranchised for five years thereafter.

Separate room for counting judges.

Section 10. The County Commissioners or Election Commission may provide a separate room or building for the judges of election appointed to canvass the returns. The County Commissioners or Election Commission may provide a separate room or building for the counting judges, but whenever ballot boxes are moved from one room or building to another they shall be under the constant observation of at least one of said counting judges.

Approved May 14th 1913, at 2.18 o'clock P. M.

POLLING PLACES AND BALLOT BOXES.

Section.	Section.
2229. County commissioners establish precincts and polling places.	2232. County commissioners provide ballot boxes—How kept—Keys.
2230. Judges may change polling places—When.	2233. Polling places and compartments.
2231. Proclamation and notice of change of polling place.	2234. Cards of instruction.

2229. County commissioners establish precincts and polling places.—Sec. 94. County commissioners of the several counties in this state are hereby required to divide their respective counties into as many election precincts for all general and special elections as they may deem expedient for the convenience of voters of said county, and shall designate the house or place in each precinct or ward at which elections are to be holden, and the precincts and places of holding elections thus established shall so remain until changed by the board of commissioners; Provided, That the board of county commissioners shall establish at least one election precinct for every five hundred registered voters, as shown by the registry list of the respective counties at the last general election, and shall every year, if necessary, increase the number of election precincts as the number of registered voters shall be increased on said registry list, so that at least one election precinct for every three hundred registered voters may be constituted; And, provided, That it shall be the duty of the county commissioners at any time to change any place of holding elections upon a petition of a majority of the voters residing within said precinct; And, provided, further, That the precincts and wards established, and the places designated in which to hold elections at the time of the taking effect of this act, shall so remain until changed; And, provided, further, That no new precincts shall be established, or polling places changed at a later date than thirty days previous to any election. [G. S., §1171; L. '83, p. 182, §1, amending G. L., §947.

[See, also, §2181, §2233 and §2345; also §22, ch. 127, S. L. 1911, p. 126 herein.]

2230. Judges may change polling place—When.—Sec. 95. Whenever it shall become impossible or inconvenient to hold an election at the place designated therefor, the judges of election, after having assembled at or as near as practicable to such place, and before receiving any vote, may adjourn to the nearest convenient place for holding the election, and at such adjourned place forthwith proceed with the election. [G. S., §1178; G. L., §954.

2231. Proclamation and notice of change of polling place.—Sec. 96. Upon adjourning any election, as provided in the preceding section, the judges shall cause proclamation thereof to be made, and shall station a constable or some other proper person at the place where the adjournment was made from to notify all electors arriving at such place of adjournment and the place to which it was made. [G. S., §1179; G. L., §955.

2232. County commissioners provide ballot boxes—How kept—Keys.—Sec. 97. The county commissioners of each county shall provide a ballot box at the expense of the county for each place of voting, which box shall be made of glass, to be kept by the county clerk and recorder of each county and by them delivered over to their successors in office. Each of said ballot boxes shall be circular in form, with a small opening at the top thereof, and enclosed in a square wooden frame with a lid, to be fastened by three locks, no two of which can be opened by the same key; one of said keys shall be kept by each of the judges of the election last appointed, to be by them delivered to their successors in office. Should either of said judges die or remove from their precinct, meantime, the key held by them shall be surrendered to the county clerk and recorder, to be by him kept and delivered to the successor of such judge of election. The said ballot boxes shall be by the clerk and recorder of the respective counties delivered to the judges of election within three days immediately preceding any general or special election, to be by him used and returned as hereinafter provided. [G. S., §1173; L. '83, p. 183, §2, amending G. L., §949.

2233. Polling places and compartments.—Sec. 98. All officers upon whom is imposed by law the duty of designating polling places, shall provide in each polling place designated by them, a sufficient number of voting booths, or compartments, which shall be furnished with such supplies and conveniences, including shelves, pens, penholders, ink and blotting paper, as will enable the voter to prepare his ballot for voting; and in which voters may prepare their ballots screened from observation, as to the manner in which they do so; and a guard rail shall be so constructed and placed that only such persons as are inside such rail can approach within six feet of the ballot box and of such voting booths and compartments. The arrangement shall be such that the voting booth or compartment can only be reached by passing within such guard rail. And both they and the ballot boxes shall be in plain view of the election officers and of those outside the guard rail. Each booth or compartment shall be at least three feet square, and shall contain a shelf,

A, A, A—Guard Rail, so constructed as to prevent any one, excepting election officers, watchers and voters while voting, from approaching within six (6) feet of the ballot box and voting booths.

B—Gate, for entrance to and exit from railed space, should be situated in railing near election officers.

C—Voting Booths, at least three feet square, so arranged that not only the ballot of the voter, while being prepared by him, but the voter himself may be screened from observation.

D—Shelf in each voting booth, not less than one foot wide, of height and arrangement so voter can conveniently prepare ballot.

E—Ballot Box on table, which box must be at least six (6) feet inside of guard rail.

REMARKS—This arrangement of voting booths and railing may be varied to suit the room or place in which the election is held, provided always that the booths and ballot box are always at least six feet from the guard rail and the booths are so arranged as not to be reached without going within the guard rail, and to enable the voter to prepare his ballot screened from observation.

which shall be at least one foot wide, extending across one side of the booth or compartment at a convenient height for writing, and shall be so arranged that the voter can prepare his ballot screened from observation. No person other than the election officers and the watchers provided by law, and those admitted for the purpose of voting, as hereinafter provided, shall be permitted within such guard rail, except by authority of the judges of election, and then only when necessary to keep order and enforce the law. The number of such voting booths or compartments shall not be less than one for every fifty voters who voted at the last election in the district. The officers who are charged with the duty of providing voting booths or compartments shall also furnish for each polling place in their respective towns and cities, a ballot box, which shall be large enough to properly receive and hold the ballots to be cast for candidates for offices, in conformity with the provisions of this act. The expense thereof shall in all cases be a public charge, to be provided for in the same manner as other election expenses. At the times now prescribed by law, and in each year hereafter, the officers charged by law with the division or alteration of the election precincts shall alter or divide the existing election precincts, whenever necessary, in such manner that each election precinct shall contain not more than two hundred and fifty voters. [L. '91, p. 155, §24.]

2234. Cards of instruction.—Sec. 99. The county clerk of each county, or the city or town clerk, as the case may be, charged with the duty of providing ballots, shall cause to be printed and furnished as herein provided, in large type, on cards in English, and in such other languages as he or they may deem necessary, instructions for the guidance of voters in preparing their ballots. Twelve such cards so printed in all the languages determined upon shall be furnished to the judges of election in each election precinct, at the same time and in the same manner as the printed ballots. The election judges shall post not less than one of such cards in each place or compartment provided for the preparation of ballots, and not less than three of such cards elsewhere in and about the polling place upon the day of the election. Such cards shall be printed in large, clear type, and shall contain full instructions to the voters as to what should be done; (1) to obtain ballots for voting; (2) to prepare the ballots for deposit in the ballot box; (3) to obtain a new ballot in the place of one spoiled by accident or mistake; (4) to obtain assistance in marking ballots. [L. '91, p. 161, §30.]

FORM, PREPARATION AND DISTRIBUTION OF BALLOTS.

Section.	Section.
2235. Form of ballot.	2240. Correction of errors in ballots—Proceedings in case of controversy.
2236. Ballot shall not contain emblem—Straight and scratched ballots.	2241. Preparation of ballots.
2237. Black corner on ballot—Judges number ballots.	2242. Number of ballots to be provided.
2238. Failure of official to number ballots—Penalty.	2243. Distribution of ballots.
2239. Penalty for omitting to print black corner.	2244. Substitute ballots.
	2245. Ballots printed and distributed at public expense.

2235. Form of ballot.—Sec. 100. Every ballot, intended for the use of voters, shall contain the names of all candidates for offices to be balloted for at that election, whose nominations have been duly made and accepted as herein provided, and who have not died or withdrawn, and shall contain no other names of persons except that, in case of electors for president and vice-president of the United States, the names of the candidates for president and vice-president shall be added to the party or political designation; the name of each person nominated shall be printed upon the ballot in but one place, but there shall be added opposite to the name of each person nominated the party or parties or political designation, expressing in not more than three words for one party, as specified in each of the certificates of nomination nominating him for the office. The names of the candidates for each office shall be arranged under the designation of the office, in alphabetical order, according to surnames, except that the names of the candidates for the offices of electors of president and vice-president of the United States shall be arranged in groups, as presented in the several certificates of nomination. There shall be left at the end of the list of candidates for each different office as many blank spaces as there are persons to be elected to such office, in which the elector may write the name of any person not printed on the ballot for whom he desires to vote as a candidate for such office. Whenever the approval of a constitutional amendment or other question is submitted to the vote of the people, such questions shall be printed upon the ballot after the lists of candidates. The ballots shall be so printed as to give to each voter a clear opportunity to designate by a cross mark (X) in a sufficient margin at the right of the name of each candidate, his choice of candidates and his answer to the questions submitted, and on the ballot may be printed such words as will aid the voter to do this, as "Vote for one," "Vote for three," "If you have not voted a straight ticket above, place a cross mark (X) with ink opposite each name you wish to vote for in the blank space left for that purpose," and the like. It shall be lawful to designate the political party or nominating committee by which each list of candidates is nominated, by an appropriate emblem or design, such as a flag, eagle, rooster or other device, as may be set forth in the certificate of nomination; Provided, No two sets of nominations shall use or have the same device, and each political party or nominating committee shall have the prior right to use the device used by it at the last similar election. When any political party or nominating committee in its certificate of nomination certifies any such emblem or device, the name or title of such party or nominating committee (in not more than three words), together with such emblem, or device, opposite thereto, shall be placed in a line at the top of the ballot with a blank square opposite thereto, in which a cross mark may be placed by the voter; all such party designations and emblems so certified shall be placed in parallel lines, one under another, on the top part of the ballot, above the list of candidates. Proper words of instruction shall also be inserted, such as these: "To vote a straight ticket, place a cross mark (X) with ink in the square opposite your party emblem." It shall be lawful for a voter to make a cross mark in any such square following any such party name and emblem, and such mark shall indicate and be counted as a vote for each and every candidate on the ballot nominated by the party or committee after whose name and emblem the mark is so placed. The extreme top part of each ballot, above the portion which contains the names of the candidates to be voted for, and the party and committee names and emblems, shall be divided by two perforated lines, into two spaces, each of which shall be not less than an inch in width, the top portion being known as the stub, and the next portion as the duplicate stub; upon each of said stubs nothing shall be printed except the number of the ballot, and the same number shall be printed upon both stubs. Stubs and duplicate stubs of ballots shall both be numbered consecutively by numbers thereon. All ballots shall be uniform and of sufficient length and width to allow for the names of candidates and officers to be printed in clear, plain type, as herein required, with a space of at least one-half inch between the different columns on said ballot. On the back of each ballot shall be printed, in capital letters, in two lines, pica gothic, or type not smaller in size, the endorsement, "Official ballot for," and after the word "For" shall follow the designation of the election precinct or political division, for which the ballot is prepared, and the date of the election, and a fac simile of the signature of the clerk who has caused the ballot to be printed. The ballot shall contain no caption, or other endorsement, except as in this section provided. Each county, city or town clerk shall use precisely the same quality and tint of paper and kind of type, and quality and tint of plain black ink for all ballots furnished by him at one election. Whenever candidates are to be voted for only by the voters of a particular district, county, city, town or other political division, the names of such candidates shall not be printed on any other ballot than those provided for use in such district, county, city, town or political division respectively. The ballots shall be of such form, and the endorsements thereon so printed, that they may be folded in such a way that when so folded the whole endorsement shall be visible, and the contents of the ballot shall not be exposed. There shall be but one ballot box at each polling place for receiving ballots cast for candidates for office. [L. '94, p. 61, §2, amending L. '91, p. 151, §18.

[Section 2235 must be considered with §2236.]

[See, also, §2259, as to straight and scratched tickets.]

2236. Ballot shall not contain emblem—Straight and scratched tickets.—Sec. 101. From and after the passage of this act no emblem, device or party designation shall be used on the official ballot at any election in this state by which a voter may vote for more than one candidate by placing a single cross mark (X) on the ballot; Provided, That across the head of the ballot, and just above the lists of nominations, shall be printed the words, "I hereby vote a straight.....ticket, except where I have marked opposite the name of some other candidate," and any voter desiring to vote a straight ticket may write within the blank space above provided for, the name of the party whose ticket he may wish to vote, and any ballot so cast shall be counted for all the nominees upon said ticket, except when the voter has marked opposite the name or names of any individual candidate of some other party, which individual marks opposite such individual candidate shall count for them, and shall not be counted for the candidates for the same office upon the ticket whose party name the voter has so filled in the blank at the head of the ticket. In case there are two or more candidates upon each ticket for offices bearing the same name, when the voter fills in the party name, and also marks opposite a particular candidate upon some other ticket for that office, he shall draw a line through the name of the candidate upon the ticket he has filled in the party name of, which he does not wish counted by reason of his having voted for a candidate upon an opposite ticket for that office. In case the voter marks opposite the name of a candidate where there is more than one candidate upon each ticket for offices bearing the same name, and does not draw a line through the name of any candidate upon the ticket he has filled in the party name of, such special mark opposite the individual candidate shall not be counted. [L. 99, p. 177, §1.

2238. Failure of officials to number ballots—Penalty.—Sec. 103. Any election judge or clerk who shall wilfully violate the provisions of this act shall be punished by a fine of not less than fifty nor more than five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail for a term not less than three months, nor more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment. [L. '01, p. 170, §2.

2239. Penalty for omitting to print black corner.—Sec. 104. Any county clerk who shall print any ballot without complying with the provisions of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and punished accordingly. [L. '01, p. 171, §3.

[This act comprises §§2237-2239]

2240. Correction of errors in ballots—Proceeding in case of controversy.—Sec. 105. Whenever it shall appear by affidavit of a candidate or his agent that an error or omission has occurred in the publication of the names or description of the candidates nominated for office, or in the printing of the sample or official ballots, the district or county court, or a judge thereof, either in term time or vacation, may, upon petition of such candidate, or his agent, by order require the county clerk, city clerk, or town clerk, charged with the duty in respect to which an error or omission has occurred, to forthwith correct such error, or to forthwith show cause why such error should not be corrected. Costs, including a reasonable attorney's fee, may be taxed, in the discretion of such court or judge, against either party. The county clerk, city clerk, or town clerk shall also, on their own motion, correct without delay any error in all ballots which he or they may discover, or which shall be brought to his or their attention, and which can be corrected without interfering with the timely distribution of the ballots as herein provided. Whenever any controversy shall arise between any official charged with any duty or function under this act, and any candidate, or the officers or representatives of any political party, or persons who have made nominations, upon the filing of a petition by any such official or persons, setting forth in concise form the nature of such controversy and the relief sought, which petition shall be under oath, it shall be the duty of such court, or the judge thereof in vacation, to issue an order commanding the respondent in such petition to be and appear before the court or judge, and answer under oath to such petition; and it shall be the duty of the court or judge to summarily hear and dispose of any such issues, with a view of obtaining a substantial compliance with the provisions of this act by the parties to such controversy, and to make and enter orders and judgments, and issue the writ or process of such court to enforce all such orders and judgments. The provisions of this act shall be liberally construed, so as to carry out the intent of this act, and of political parties, nominees and others in proceedings under this act. [L. '94, p. 64, §4, amending L. '91, p. 152, §20.

2241. Preparation of ballots.—Sec. 106. Except as in this act otherwise provided, it shall be the duty of the county clerk of each county to provide printed ballots for every election of public officers in which the voters or any of the voters within the county participate, and to cause to be printed on the ballot the name of every candidate, whose nomination has been certified to or filed with the county clerk in the manner provided for in this act. It shall be the duty of the clerk of any city or town to provide printed ballots for every election of public officers in which the voters, or any of the voters, of such city or town participate, and to cause to be printed on the ballot the name of every candidate whose nomination has been certified to or filed with such city or town clerk in the manner provided for in this act. Sample ballots printed upon paper of a different color from the official ballots, but in the form of those to be used on election day, each containing the names of the candidates which are to be printed upon the appropriate official ballot, shall be printed and in the possession of the county clerk or other officers charged with the duty of preparing such ballots, seven days before the day of election, subject to public inspection. The official ballots shall be printed and in the possession of the county clerk or city or town clerk at least four days before election, and subject, also, to inspection by the candidates and their agents. Sample ballots shall be delivered to the election officers and posted with the cards of instruction provided in section 30. [L. '91, p. 150, §17.

2242. Number of ballots to be provided.—Sec. 107. The county clerk of each county, and the city clerk of each city, and the town clerk of each town, when charged by this act with the duty of printing and preparing ballots, shall provide, for each election precinct in a county, city or town, one hundred ballots for every fifty or fraction of fifty voters registered at the last preceding election in the election precinct. If there is no registry in the precinct, such ballots shall be provided to the number of one hundred of each kind for every fifty or fraction of fifty voters who voted at the last preceding election in such precinct. When a precinct shall be divided, or the boundaries changed, the county clerk, or city clerk, or town clerk, as the case may be, must ascertain as nearly as possible the number of voters in the new precinct or precincts and provide therefor a sufficient number of ballots in the above proportion. [L. '94, p. 64, §3, amending L. '91, p. 152, §19.

2243. Distribution of ballots.—Sec. 108. The county clerks of the various counties of the state, and the city and town clerks, as the case may be, shall prior to an election, cause to be delivered, at the expense of the county, city or town to the election judges in the respective precincts the proper number of ballots provided for the use of the voters at such election in such precinct. The same shall be sent in two sealed packages for each election precinct in said county, city or town, with the marks on the outside of each, clearly stating the election precinct and polling place for which it is intended, together with the number of ballots enclosed. Each of such packages shall contain one-half of the number of ballots intended for such election precinct. Such packages shall be delivered between the Saturday noon and the Monday noon before election day, one to each of the two judges of election in each precinct, who are members of the political parties which cast the largest and next largest number of votes at the last general state election. Receipts for ballots thus delivered shall be given by the election judges who receive them, and filed with the clerk of the county, city or town, as the case may be, who shall also keep a record of the time when, and the manner in which each of said packages was sent and delivered. The several election judges receiving such packages shall, at the opening of the polls on election day, produce the same, with the seals unbroken, in the proper polling place, and shall, in the presence of all three judges, open the said packages. [L. '91, p. 153, §21.

2244. Substitute ballots.—Sec. 109. If the ballots to be furnished to any election judges, as herein provided, shall not be delivered at the time above mentioned, or if after delivery they shall be destroyed or stolen, it shall be the duty of the said clerk of the county, city or town to cause other ballots to be prepared, as nearly in the form prescribed as practicable, with the word "Substitute," printed in brackets, immediately under the facsimile signature of the clerk preparing such ballots, and upon receipt of ballots thus prepared from such clerk, accompanied by a statement under oath that the same have been so prepared and furnished by him, and that the original ballots have so failed to be received, or have been destroyed or stolen, the election judges shall cause the ballots so substituted to be used at the election. If from any cause none of the official ballots nor substitute ballots prepared by the county, or city or town clerk, as herein prescribed, shall be ready for distribution at any polling place, or if the supply of ballots shall be exhausted before the polls are closed, unofficial ballots, printed or written, made as nearly as possible in the form of the official ballots, may be used until substitutes prepared by the clerk, as provided in this section, can be printed and delivered. [L. '91, p. 153, §22.

2245. Ballots printed and distributed at public expense.—Sec. 110. All ballots cast in elections for public officers or for the decision of any question submitted to electors, within this state, shall be printed and distributed at public expense. The printing of ballots and cards of instruction for the voters in each county, and the delivery of the same to the election officers as hereinafter provided, shall be a county charge, the payment of which shall be provided for in the same manner as the payment of other county expenses, but the expense of printing and delivering ballots and cards of instruction to be used in municipal elections shall be a charge upon the city or town in which such election shall be held. [L. '91, p. 143, §1.

HEADLESS BALLOT.

AN ACT

CONCERNING THE OFFICIAL BALLOT AND THE METHOD OF VOTING AT ELECTIONS IN THIS STATE, FIXING PENALTIES FOR THE VIOLATION OF THE PROVISIONS THEREOF, AND TO REPEAL ALL ACTS AND PARTS OF ACTS INCONSISTENT THEREWITH.

Be it Enacted by the People of the State of Colorado:

Section 1. That from and after the adoption of this act no emblem, device or political party organization designation shall be used on the official ballot at any election, by which a voter may vote for more than one candidate by placing a single cross-mark on the ballot or by writing therein any political party or organization name or other name or political designation. The official printed paper ballot used at elections shall be arranged and prepared as now provided by law, except across the head or top of the ballot shall be printed only the following words: "To vote for a person, make a cross mark (X) in the square at the right of his name." And in order to vote for any candidate whose name appears upon such ballot the voter shall place a cross-mark (X) in the square at the right of his name.

Section 2. If any ballot machine or other mechanical device is permitted to be used in any election precinct at any election in place of the printed paper ballot, the arrangement of the offices and candidates therefor upon such ballot machine shall be identical with such arrangement as now provided by law and as printed upon the printed paper official ballots used at elections, and such voting machine or mechanical device shall not be permitted to enable the voter to vote a straight political party or organization ticket or for more than one person by the operation of any one counter, knob, crank or movement of a single device, but shall be so constructed, arranged and manipulated as to require the voter to vote for each candidate for public office for whom he desires to vote by the operation by the voter of a single counter, knob, crank or other device after the name of each candidate, which shall be simply and safely manipulated to vote singly for each of such candidates.

Provided, that nothing herein shall be construed to forbid printing after the name of each candidate the name of the political party upon whose party ticket such candidate may have been nominated for such office; and provided, further, that it shall be the duty of the officials at any election preparing and distributing ballots therefor to have a brief statement of instructions printed and placed at the head or across the top of such ballot machine in plain view instructing the voter how to manipulate the counters or knobs separately after the names of the candidates respectively in order to vote singly for such candidates.

Section 3. No election official or other person shall be allowed to enter any election booth for the purpose of assisting the voter in preparing his ballot, or for any other purpose while the booth is occupied by a voter, except in case of absolute and total physical disability on the part of the voter that makes it impossible for the voter to mark his ballot or to operate such machine. Then and in that case the voter shall first state under oath his physical disability. Said writing shall be prepared and the oath administered by an election judge. After the total physical disability has been stated in writing and duly sworn to, two judges, or a judge and clerk, each of opposite political faith, shall then accompany the voter into the booth and mark his ballot or operate such machine as he (the voter) shall indicate. A notation shall be made in the poll books opposite the name of each voter thus assisted, stating that the voter has been assisted. Said oath shall be retained by the election officials and filed with their returns at the time the election returns are made, and said oath shall be held by the election officials with whom so filed for the inspection of any person during regular office hours.

Any person who shall falsely make oath that he is totally physically disabled as herein defined, shall be guilty of perjury and punished accordingly, and any person who shall administer said oath, knowing the same to be false, shall be guilty of subornation of perjury and punished accordingly.

Section 4. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to refer to the method or methods of voting at primary elections, which method or methods shall be as provided by those provisions of the statutes of the state concerning the method or methods of voting at primary elections.

Section 5. Any person, firm or corporation violating any of the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, except as otherwise herein provided, and upon conviction thereof, shall be subject to a fine of not less than Five Hundred ($500.00) Dollars, or imprisonment in the county jail not less than six months, or both.

Section 6. All acts and parts of acts inconsistent with this act are hereby repealed.

CONDUCT OF ELECTIONS.

Section.	Section.
2246. Hours of voting.	2259. Preparation of ballot by voter—Manner of voting.
2247. Polls kept open till evening.	2260. Refusal to receive legal vote—Penalty.
2248. Judges open ballot box before proclamation to open polls.	2261. Assistance to illiterate and disabled voters.
2249. No vote received unless name registered.	2262. Spoiled ballots—Record of vote.

2246. Hours of voting.—Sec. 111. At all elections held under this act, the polls shall be opened at seven o'clock in the morning, and continue open until seven o'clock in the evening of the same day; Provided, however, That if a full board of judges of election shall not attend at the hour of seven o'clock in the morning, and it shall be necessary for the electors present to appoint judges to conduct the election as provided by law, the election may in that event commence at any hour before the time for closing the polls shall arrive, as the case may require. Upon the opening of the polls, proclamation shall be made by one of the clerks, and thirty minutes before the closing of the polls proclamation shall be made, in like manner, that the polls will close in thirty minutes. [L. '91, p. 165, §41.]

2247. Polls kept open till evening.—Sec. 112. The polls at any election shall not be closed after once being opened, until they are finally closed in the evening. [G. S., 1197; G. L., §973.]

2248. Judges open ballot box before proclamation to open polls.—Sec. 113. It shall be the duty of the judges of election, immediately before proclamation is made of the opening of the polls, to open the ballot box in the presence of the people there assembled and turn it upside down so as to empty it of everything that may be in it, and then lock it securely; and it shall not be reopened until for the purpose of counting the ballots therein at the close of the election. [G. S., §1193; G. L., §969.]

[See, also, ch. 76, S. L. 1913, p. 142 herein.]

2250. Rules for judges in admitting votes.—Sec. 115. The judges of election in determining the residence of a person offering to vote, shall be governed by the following rules, so far as they may be applicable:

First—That place shall be considered and held to be the residence of a person in which his habitation is fixed, and to which, whenever he is absent, he has the intention of returning.

Second—A person shall not be considered or held to have lost his residence who shall leave his home and go into another state, territory or county of this state, for temporary purposes merely, with an intention of returning.

Third—A person shall not be considered or held to have gained a residence in this state, or in any county in this state, when retaining his home or domicile elsewhere.

Fourth—If a person remove to any other state, or to any of the territories, with the intention of making it his permanent residence, he shall be considered and held to have lost his residence in this state.

Fifth—If a person remove from one county, precinct or ward in this state to any other county, precinct or ward in this state, with the intention of making it his permanent residence, he shall be considered and held to have lost his residence in the county, precinct or ward from which he removed. [G. S., §1186; G. L., §962.

2252. Preparation of ballot by election officials—Watchers and challengers.—Sec. 117. Any person desiring to vote shall give his name, and, if requested so to do, his residence, to one of the judges of election, who shall thereupon announce the same in a loud and distinct tone of voice, clear and audible, and if such name is found upon the registry list by the election judge or clerk having charge thereof, he shall likewise repeat the said name, and the voter shall be allowed to enter the space enclosed by the guard rail, as above provided. An election judge or clerk shall give him one, and only one, ballot, which shall be removed from the package of ballots by tearing the same along the perforated line between the stub and duplicate stub, and before delivering such ballot to the voter, the judge or clerk of election having charge of the ballots shall endorse his initials on the duplicate stub. The name of such voter shall be immediately checked on said list with the number of such duplicate stub. Besides the election officers and watchers, not more than four voters in excess of the number of voting shelves or compartments provided shall be allowed in said enclosed space, within said guard rail, at one time, except as provided in section twenty-eight. Each of the political parties which cast the largest and next largest number of votes at the last general election in the state shall be entitled to have one person as watcher within the guard rail during the casting and counting of votes and declaration of the result thereof. Such person shall be designated and his selection made known to the election officers by an affidavit made by the acting chairman of the county or state committee of each of such parties; Provided, That in case of temporary absence for meals, or by reason of sickness or otherwise, the person so selected may have substituted for himself some other person of like political belief, such substitute to be made known to the election judges by an affidavit of the person first so selected as watcher. When any person shall make application for a ballot, his right to vote at that poll and election may be challenged, and such proceedings shall thereupon be had before the judges of election as are now prescribed in case of challenge. If the person so applying is not entitled to vote, no ballot shall be delivered to him. Any person may also be challenged, as now provided by law, when he shall offer his ballot for deposit in the ballot box. Two challengers, representing each political party or set of nominations, shall be permitted to remain just outside the guard rail, where they can plainly see what is done within the polling place, except within the said booths or compartments. The said polling place shall be so arranged that every part thereof, except inside the said booths or compartments, may be in full view of such challengers and watchers. [L. '91, p. 156, §25.]

[See, also, as to watchers and challengers, §2268, also §30, Chap. 127, S. L. 1911, page 132 herein.]

[Section 28 referred to is §2261.]

2253. Grounds for challenge—Questions to challenged voter.—

Sec. 118. If a person offering to vote be challenged as unqualified by one of the judges of election, or by any elector, one of the judges shall tender to him the following oath or affirmation: You do solemnly swear (or affirm) that you will fully and truly answer all such questions as shall be put to you touching your place of residence, and qualification of an elector at this election.

First—If the person be challenged as unqualified, on the ground that he is not a citizen, and will not exhibit his papers pertaining to his naturalization, the judges, or one of them, shall put the following questions: First—Are you a citizen of the United States? Second—Are you a native, or naturalized citizen? And if neither; have you declared your intention to become a citizen, conformably to the laws of the United States on the subject of naturalization, at least four months previous to today? Third—Have you become a citizen of the United States, by reason of the naturalization of your parents, or one of them? Fourth—Where were your parents, or one of them, naturalized? If the person offering the vote claims to be a naturalized citizen of the United States, or that he has, four months previous to the election, declared his intention to become such, he shall state, under oath, where and in what courts he was naturalized.

Second—If the person be challenged as unqualified, on the ground that he has not resided in this state for six months immediately preceding the election, the judges, or one of them, shall put the following questions: First—Have you resided in this state for six months immediately preceding this election, and during that time have you retained a home or domicile elsewhere? Second—Have you been absent from this state within the six months immediately preceding this election? Third—

If so, when you left, was it for a temporary purpose, with the design of returning, or did you intend remaining away? Fourth—Did you, while absent, look upon and regard this state as your home? Fifth—Did you, while absent, vote in any state or territory?

Third—If the person be challenged on the ground that he has not resided in the county ninety days, or in the precinct, or ward, ten days, one of the judges shall question him as to his residence in the county, precinct, or ward, in a manner similar to the before-mentioned method of questioning a person as to his residence in this state.

Fourth—If the person be challenged as unqualified, on the ground that he is not twenty-one years of age, the judges, or one of them, shall put the following question: Are you twenty-one years of age, to the best of your knowledge and belief? The judges of election, or one of them, shall put all such other questions to the person challenged, under the respective heads, aforesaid, as may be necessary to test his qualifications as an elector at that election. [L. '85, p. 192, §1, amending G. S., §1187; G. L., §963.

[For qualifications of electors, see §§2146-2150.]

2254. Oath of challenged voter.—Sec. 119. If the challenge be not withdrawn after the person offering to vote shall have answered the questions put to him as aforesaid, one of the judges shall tender to him the following oath: You do solemnly swear (or affirm) that you are a citizen of the United States (or declared your intention of becoming such at least four months previous to this election), of the age of twenty-one years; that you have been a resident of this state for six months next preceding this election, and have not retained a home or domicile elsewhere; that you have been for the last ninety days, and now are, a resident of this county; that you have been for the last ten (10) days, and now are, a resident of this precinct (or ward, as the case may be), and that you have not voted at this election. [L. '85, p. 191, §1, amending G. S., §1189; G. L., §965.

[For qualifications of electors, see §§2146-2150.]

2256. Refusal to take oath—Vote rejected.—Sec. 121. If any person shall refuse to take the oath or affirmation so tendered, his vote shall be rejected; Provided, That after such oath shall have been taken the judges may nevertheless refuse to permit such person to vote if they shall be satisfied that he is not a legal voter. [G. S., §1190; G. L., §966.

2257. Clerks write "sworn" on poll book.—Sec. 122. Whenever any person's vote shall be received, after having taken the oath or affirmation prescribed in section forty (40) of this act, it shall be the duty of the clerks of the election to write on the poll books at the end of the person's name, "Sworn." [G. S., §1191; G. L., §967.

[Section 40 referred to is §2254.]

2258. Duty of judge to challenge.—Sec. 123. It shall be the duty of any judge of election to challenge any person offering to vote whom he shall believe not to be qualified as an elector. [G. S., §1192; G. L., §968.

2259. Preparation of ballots by voter—Manner of voting.—Sec. 124. On receiving his ballot the voter shall forthwith, and without leaving the enclosed space, retire alone to one of the voting shelves or compartments so provided, and shall prepare his ballot by marking, in ink, in the appropriate margin or place, a cross (X) opposite the name of the candidate of his choice for each office to be filled; and in case of a question submitted to a vote of the people, by marking in the appropriate margin or place a cross (X) against the answer which he desires to give; and in case of a vote for an entire or straight ticket or list of candidates, by making a cross (X) in the appropriate square after the name and emblem designating such ticket or list of candidates. Before leaving the voting shelf or compartment, the voter shall fold his ballot without displaying the marks thereon, in the same way it was folded when received by him, so that the contents of the ballot shall be concealed and the stub can be removed without exposing any of the contents of the ballot, and he shall keep the same so folded until he has voted. Each voter who has prepared his ballot, and is ready to vote as aforesaid, shall then leave the compartment and approach the judges of election having the ballot box in charge, and give his name to one of the judges of election, who shall announce it in a loud and distinct tone of voice, clear and audible. The voter's ballot shall be handed to the judge in charge of the ballot box, who shall announce the name of such voter, and the number upon the duplicate stub of his ballot; which number must correspond with the stub number previously checked in front of his name by the election judge or clerk who handed him his ballot; if the stub number of the ballot corresponds and is identified by the initials of the judge or clerk placed thereon, the judge or clerk shall then remove the duplicate stub from such ballot. The judge or clerk shall immediately write the name of such voter upon the poll list, and shall take the ballot of such voter and number it in ink, in one corner, upon the top thereof, in such manner as not to expose or show how the voter has voted, the same to be numbered in the order in which it shall be received, consecutively, and so as to permit the corner to be turned and pasted down with mucilage, which shall then be done so that the number is not thereafter visible, and such seal shall only be broken in case of contested election; and the same number shall be recorded by the election judge or clerk on the list of voters beside the name of such voter. Such ballot shall then be returned by said judge or clerk to the voter, who shall thereupon, in full view of the judges of election, deposit the same in the ballot box, with the official endorsement on said ballot uppermost. Each voter shall mark and deposit his ballot without undue delay, and shall quit said enclosed space as soon as he has voted. No such voter shall be allowed to occupy a voting shelf or compartment already occupied by another, nor to remain within said enclosed space more than ten minutes, nor to occupy a voting shelf or compartment for more than five minutes, in case all such shelves or compartments are in use and other voters are waiting to occupy the same. Besides the election officers not more than four voters in excess of the number of voting shelves or compartments provided, shall be allowed in said enclosed space at any one time, except as provided in section 28. No voter not a judge or clerk of election, whose name has been checked on the registry list of the ballot officers, shall be allowed to re-enter said enclosed space during said election. It shall be the duty of each and all of the judges of election to secure the observance of the provisions of this section and of other sections relative to the duties of judges and clerks of election. [L. '94, p. 65, §5, amending L. '91, p. 157, §26.]

[This section, in so far as it refers to voting a straight ticket, has been amended by §2236. See, also, Headless Ballot Act, p. 154 herein.]

[Section 28 referred to is §2261.]

2260. Refusal to receive legal vote—Penalty.—Sec. 125. If any judge or the judges of any election shall wilfully and maliciously refuse to receive the ballot of any qualified elector, who shall take or offer to take the oath prescribed by this act, in such case every judge so refusing or neglecting to receive the vote or ballot, when the same shall be presented, shall be liable to be indicted, and on conviction thereof shall be fined five hundred dollars, and imprisoned not exceeding thirty days; and for every refusal or neglect to receive such vote, the party aggrieved may have an action on the case against the said judge or judges; the damages in such case shall not exceed the sum of five hundred dollars. [G. S., §1201; G. L., §977.]

2261. Assistance to illiterate and disabled voters.—Sec. 126.

Any voter who declares under oath to the inspectors of election that he can not read or write, or that, by reason of physical disability, he is unable to prepare his ballot without assistance, shall upon his request receive the assistance of any two of the election judges or clerks, who are of different political parties, in the marking thereof; and such officers shall certify on the outside thereof that it was so marked with their assistance, and shall thereafter give no information regarding the same. The same two judges or clerks shall not together successively act as such assistants. The judges of election are hereby qualified to administer such oath, and a memorandum shall be made on the poll lists of every instance when an oath was administered to a voter as herein provided, stating what facts were sworn to, the name of affiant, and the name of the judges or clerks who aided the voter in the preparation of his ballot. No officer who assists a voter in the preparation of his ballot, as herein provided, shall, in any manner, request, persuade, or induce, or seek to persuade or induce, any such voter to vote for any particular candidate or candidates. Nor shall any such officer reveal to another the name of any candidate for whom the voter has voted, or anything that took place while he was assisting such voter in preparing such ballot for voting. No voter shall divulge to any one within the polling place the name of any candidate for whom he intends to vote, nor shall he ask for or receive the assistance of any person within the polling place, in the preparation of his ballot, except as provided in this section. When any voter, in addition to the oath required hereinbefore by this section, shall also make oath that he can not speak and understand, when spoken, the English language, the election judges may select two persons, one from each political party, who shall act as interpreters, and who shall take the oath taken by election judges as nearly as may be, which interpreters may assist such persons who can not speak or read the English language in making up their ballots. [L. '91, p. 160, §28.

[See §3, Headless Ballot Act, Page 154 herein.]

2262. Spoiled ballots—Record of vote.—Sec. 127. No person shall take or remove any ballot from the polling place before the close of the polls. If any voter spoils a ballot, he may successively obtain others, one at a time, not exceeding three in all, upon returning each spoiled one. The ballots thus returned shall be immediately cancelled, and together with those not distributed to voters, shall be preserved, and with the poll list used by the election judges and clerks, which shall be certified by them to be such, shall be secured in an envelope, sealed and sent to the several town, city and county clerks. The election officers shall also at the same time file with the county clerk, city clerk or town clerk, as the case may be, a statement in writing showing the number of ballots voted (making a separate statement of the number of unofficial ballots, if any, voted, as provided in section twenty-two), the number of ballots delivered to voters, the number of spoiled ballots and the number of ballots not delivered to voters and the number of ballots returned, identifying and specifying the same; and all unused ballots, spoiled ballots and stubs of ballots voted shall be returned with such statement. Any election officer who shall fail to thus account fully and particularly for all official ballots placed in his charge, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor. [L. '91, p. 159, §27.

2263. Count of votes.—Sec. 128. As soon as the polls at any election shall have finally closed, the judges shall immediately open the ballot box and proceed to count the votes polled, and the counting thereof shall be commenced and continued until finished before the judges and clerks shall adjourn. They shall first count the number of ballots in the box. If the ballots shall be found to exceed the number of names entered on each of the poll lists, the judges of election shall then examine the official endorsements upon the outside of the ballots without opening the same, and if, in the unanimous opinion of the judges, any one or more of the ballots in excess of the number on the poll lists be deemed not to bear the proper official endorsement, it or they shall be put into a separate pile by themselves, and a separate record and return of the votes in such ballots shall be made under the head of "Excess Ballots." When the ballots and the poll lists agree, or, as above provided, have been made to agree, the board shall proceed to count the votes; each ballot shall be read and counted separately, and every name included in a marked set or list of nominations, or separately marked as voted for on such ballot, where there is no conflict to obscure the intention of the voter, as aforesaid, shall be read and marked upon the tally list, before any other ballot is proceeded with; and the entire number of ballots, excepting "Excess Ballots," shall be read and counted and placed upon the tally lists in like manner, and when all of the ballots, excepting "Excess Ballots," if any, have been counted as herein provided, the board shall estimate and publish the votes. [L. '91, p. 161, §31.

votes each of the candidates shall have received, in separate lines, with the name of such candidate at the end of the line, and the office it is designed by the voter such candidate shall fill. [L. '91, p. 162, §32.]

2265. Imperfect or defective ballots.—Sec. 130. If a voter marks in ink more names than there are persons to be elected to an office, or if, for any reason, it is impossible to determine the choice of any voter for any office to be filled, his ballot shall not be counted for such office. Provided, however, A defective or an incomplete cross marked on any ballot in ink, in a proper place, shall be counted if there be no other mark or cross in ink on such ballot indicating an intention to vote for some person or persons or set of nominations, other than those indicated by the first mentioned defective cross or mark, and where a cross is marked in ink against a device indicating a vote for the entire set of candidates, and also another cross in ink against one or more names in another list, such ballot shall only be held invalid as to any office so doubly marked. No ballot without the official endorsement shall, except as provided in section twenty-two of this act, be allowed to be deposited in the ballot box, and none but ballots provided in accordance with the provisions of this act shall be counted. Ballots not counted shall be marked "Defective" on the back thereof, and shall be preserved until the next general election, when the same shall be destroyed by fire by the clerk having the custody thereof. [L. '91, p. 160, §29.]

[Section 22 referred to is §2244.]

2266. Marking imperfectly names of candidates voted for.—Sec. 131. If an imperfect cross or mark be found near the name of a candidate in ink, which mark appears to have been made with intent to designate the candidate so marked as the one voted for, such ballot shall not be rejected, if the intent of the voter to designate the person for whom he intended to vote can be reasonably gathered therefrom; Provided, That if marks placed opposite the names of individual candidates shall work to a complete exclusion of the candidates of the party, the designation of which has been written in at the top of the ballot, and the intention of the voter is clear, it shall not be necessary to strike out the names of the candidates against whom it is desired to vote. [L. '01, p. 172, §3.]

[Penalty for violation of above section, see §2269.]

for which such person received such vote or votes, and the number he did receive, the number being expressed in words at full length, and in numerical figures, such entry to be made, as nearly as circumstances will admit, in the following form, to wit: At an election held at the house of....., in precinct or ward, in the county of.....and state of Colorado, on the day of, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and, the following-named persons received the number of votes annexed to their respective names for the following described offices, to wit: Whole number of votes cast were A. B. had seventy-two (72) votes for governor; C. D. had seventy-one (71) votes for governor; E. F. had seventy-two (72) votes for lieutenant-governor; G. H. had sixty-nine (69) votes for lieutenant-governor; J. K. had sixty-eight (68) votes for representative in congress; L. M. had seventy (70) votes for representative in congress; N. O. had seventy-two (72) votes for representative; P. Q. had seventy-one (71) votes for representative; R. S. had eighty-four (84) votes for sheriff; T. W. had sixty (60) votes for sheriff; and in the same manner for any other persons voted for.

And the said certificate, together with one of the lists of voters, and one of the tally papers, shall then be enclosed and sealed up, under cover, and directed to the clerk of the county in which such election is held, and the pocket thus sealed shall be sent by registered letter, where practicable, otherwise it shall be conveyed by one of the judges or clerks of the election, to be determined by lot if they can not agree otherwise, within six days of the closing of the polls. And if any judge or clerk of an election, after having been deputed by the judges of election, at which he served as judge or clerk, to carry the poll book of such election to the clerk of the county, shall fail or neglect to deliver such poll book to the said clerk within the time prescribed by law, safe, with the seal unbroken, he shall for every offense forfeit and pay the sum of five hundred dollars, for the use of the county, to be recovered in the name of the commissioners of the county, by an action of debt in any court of competent jurisdiction; Provided, That informality in the delivering of the poll books as directed in this section shall not invalidate the vote of any precinct when said poll books shall have been delivered previous to the canvassing of the votes of such election by the county board of canvassers. When all the votes shall have been read and counted, the ballots, together with one of the tally lists, shall be returned to the ballot box and the opening in the glass part thereof shall be carefully sealed, and each of the judges shall place his private mark on said seal, the wooden cover shall then be locked and each of the judges shall preserve one of the keys thereof as herein provided. This box shall then be delivered by one of the clerks of the election who is of the opposite political party from the judge or clerk chosen to take charge of and deliver the certificate and tally list, which clerk shall at once and with all convenient speed take said box to the office of the county clerk and recorder and safely deliver it to such officer, taking his delivery receipt therefor. [G. S., §1200; L. '83, p. 184, §5, amending G. L., §976.]

2268. Watchers.—Sec. 133. Each of the two political parties casting the highest vote for the principal officer to be chosen at the last general election, shall have the right to appoint in each precinct one person, a bona fide member of such party, and a resident of the precinct, to remain within the polling place, as a watcher, during the casting and counting of votes, and the declaration of the result thereof. Such watcher may also act as challenger, when there is reason to believe that any person about to vote is not entitled to vote in that precinct. No one who is the employer, agent, manager, superintendent or boss of a number of employes of any company, corporation, or person, carrying on mining, manufacturing or railroad operations in such precinct, shall be appointed such watcher, and each watcher shall have the right to select and have present, during the counting of the votes, three registered voters of the precinct. [L. '01, p. 172, §2.]

[Watchers and challengers, see §2252.]

2269. Penalty for interference with watcher.—Sec. 134. If any person shall interfere with any watcher herein provided for while he is in the discharge of his duties, then such person so interfering shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined not more than three hundred (300) dollars. Justices of the peace shall have jurisdiction of actions brought for a violation of this act, subject to the right of appeal as provided for in cases of assault and battery. [L. '01, p. 173, §4.]

[Act above referred to is §2218, §2266, §2268 and §2269.]

2270. Judges designate and appoint constables.—Sec. 135. For the preservation of order, as well as the securing of the judges and clerks of the election from insult and abuse, it shall be the duty of any constable or constables residing within the precinct, who shall be designated for the purpose by the judges of the election, to attend to all elections within his precinct, and the judges of election are hereby authorized and empowered to appoint one or more special constables to assist in preserving order during the elections and until the votes are canvassed. [G. S., §1194; G. L., §970.

2271. Fees of constables—Special constables.—Sec. 136. Constables or special constables appointed or requested by the judges of election to preserve peace at the polls, shall each receive two dollars and a half per day for their services, payable out of the county treasury. [G. S., §1195; G. L., §971.

stract of votes cast in each county for the officers of the executive department shall be sealed up by the county clerks of said counties, and delivered or transmitted in a registered package by mail to the secretary of state, directed to the speaker of the house of representatives. Upon the organization of the house the secretary of state shall deliver to the speaker of the house all of the returns for officers of the executive department that he shall have received, and upon the receipt of the same by the speaker of the house of representatives he shall, before proceeding to other business, open and publish the same in the presence of a majority of the members of both houses of the general assembly, who shall for that purpose assemble in the hall of the house of representatives. The person having the highest number of votes for either of said offices shall be declared duly elected by the presiding officer of the joint assembly, but if two or more have an equal and the highest number of votes for the same office, one of them shall be chosen thereto by the two houses on joint ballot. [G. S., §1205; G. L., §981.]

STATE BOARD OF CANVASSERS.

2277. State board of canvassers canvass votes.—Sec. 142. The governor, secretary of state, auditor of state, treasurer of state and attorney-general, or any three of them, shall constitute the board of state canvassers, and shall canvass the abstracts of votes cast in the different counties of the state for electors of president and vice-president, for representatives in congress, for regents of the university, for judges of the supreme and district courts, for district attorneys, and for senators and representatives. [G. S., §1206; G. L., §982.]

2278. Failure of returns, secretary of state send messenger—Pay.—Sec. 143. If from any county no such abstract of votes shall have been received within the twenty-five days next after any election, by the secretary of state, he shall dispatch a special messenger to obtain a copy of the same from the county clerk of such county, and such county clerk shall immediately on demand of such messenger make out and deliver to him the copy required, which copy of the abstract of votes the messenger shall deliver to the secretary of state without delay. The said messenger shall receive as compensation for his services three dollars per day, and fifteen cents for each mile traveled in going to and returning from the county seat of said county, by the usual route, to be paid out of the state treasury. [G. S., §1207; G. L., §983.]

2279. Meeting of state board of canvassers.—Sec. 144. For the purpose of canvassing the result of elections, the state board of canvassers shall meet at the office of the secretary of state at ten o'clock of the forenoon of the twenty-fifth day after any election for any of the officers mentioned in section fifty-three (53) of this act, if it be not on Sunday; if it be on Sunday, then they shall meet on the twenty-sixth day, when they shall, if the returns from all the counties of the state be in the possession of the secretary of state, proceed to canvass the votes. If the returns are not all in they shall adjourn from time to time, as they deem proper, to await the receipt of all returns; Provided, however, That on the last Wednesday of December, next after the election, they shall canvass the votes whether all the returns be received or not; And also provided, That on the year upon which there is elected electors of president and vice-president, the state board of canvassers shall meet at the secretary of state's office on the last secular day of November, in the year of the election, and proceed to canvass the votes cast for said electors. [G. S., §1208; G. L., §984.

[Section 53 referred to is §2272.]

[Board may return statement to county or precinct board for correction, §2286.]

2280. State canvassers — Statement — Certificate. — Sec. 145.

The state board of canvassers, when met in accordance with the law, and a quorum (three) being present, shall proceed to examine and make statement of the whole number of votes given at any such election for all of the officers mentioned in section fifty-three (53) of this act that shall have been voted for in said election; which statements shall show the names of the persons to whom such votes shall have been given for either of said offices, and the whole number given to each, distinguishing the several districts and counties in which they were given; they shall certify such statements to be correct and subscribe their names thereto, and they shall thereupon determine what persons have been by the greatest number of votes duly elected to such offices, or either of them, and shall endorse and subscribe on such statements a certificate of their determination and deliver them to the secretary of state. [G. S., §1209; G. L., §985.

[Section 53 referred to is §2272.]

2281. Tie—Lots cast—Notice to candidates.—Sec. 146. If any two or more persons have an equal and the highest number of votes for member of either house of the general assembly, for judge of the supreme or district courts, for district attorney, or for regent of the university, or electors of president and vice-president, the state canvassers shall proceed to determine by lot which of the candidates shall be declared elected. Reasonable notice shall be given to such candidates of the time when such election will be so determined. [G. S., §1210; G. L., §986.

2282. Secretary of state record and publish statement of canvassers.—Sec. 147. The secretary of state shall record in his office in a book to be kept by him for that purpose each certified statement and determination, as made by the board of state canvassers, and shall without delay make out and transmit to each of the persons thereby declared to be elected, a certificate of his election, certified by him under his seal of office; and he shall also forthwith cause a copy of such certified statement and determination to be published in a newspaper published at the seat of government. [G. S., §1211; G. L., §987.

2283. Secretary of state furnish list of members of general assembly.—Sec. 148. Upon the day fixed by law for the assembling of the general assembly the secretary of state shall lay before each house a list of the members elected thereto, with the districts they represent, in accordance with the returns in his office. [G. S., §1212; G. L., §988.

2284. Secretary of state prepare list of presidential electors.—Sec. 149. The secretary of state shall prepare lists of the names of the electors of president and vice-president of the United States, elected at any election, procure thereto the signature of the governor, affix the seal of the state to the same, and deliver one of such certificates thus signed to each of said electors, on or before the first Wednesday in December next after such election. [G. S., §1213; G. L., §989.

CORRECTION OF ERRORS.

2285. Imperfect ballots and returns when counted.—Sec. 150. Whenever the judges of election in any precinct or ward discover in the canvassing of votes that the name of any candidate voted for be misspelled, or the initial letters of his Christian name or names be transposed or omitted in part or altogether on the ballot, the vote or votes for such candidate shall be counted for him if the intention of the elector to vote for him be apparent; and whenever the board of county canvassers or of state canvassers, or the speaker of the house of representatives, when authorized by law to canvass votes or returns, shall find the returns from any precinct, ward, county or district (as the case may be) do not strictly conform to the requirements of law in the making, certifying and returning the same, the votes polled in such precinct, ward, county or district shall, nevertheless, be canvassed and counted, if such returns shall be sufficiently explicit to enable such boards, or any person or persons authorized to canvass votes and returns, to determine therefrom how many votes were polled for the several persons who were candidates and voted for at the election of which the votes are being canvassed. [G. S., §1216; G. L., §992.

2286. Correction of clerical errors—Adjournments of board.—
 Sec. 151. If upon proceeding to canvass the votes it shall clearly appear to the canvassers that in any statement produced to them certain matters are omitted in such statement which should have been inserted, or that any mistakes which are clerical merely, exist, they shall cause the said statement to be sent by one of their number (whom they shall depute for that purpose) to the precinct or ward judges, or to the county board of canvassers (as the case may be) from whom they were received, to have the same corrected, and the judges of election or county clerk (as the case may be), when so demanded, shall make such correction as the facts of the case require, but shall not change or alter any decision before made by them, but shall only cause their canvass to be correctly stated; and the canvassing board may adjourn from day to day for the purpose of obtaining and receiving such statement; Provided always, That they shall not delay counting past the day provided by law for the completion of the canvass. [G. S., §1217; G. L., §993.

CONTEST OF ELECTIONS.

2288. Supreme court jurisdiction.	2291. Proceedings in district court.
2289. District court jurisdiction.	2292. Changes of venue.
	2293. Appeals.

2287. Any elector may institute contest.—Sec. 152. Any qualified elector may institute proceedings to contest the election of any person to the office of presidential elector, or to the office of supreme, district or county judge. [L. '93, p. 242, §1.

2288. Supreme court jurisdiction.—Sec. 153. The supreme court, or any two or more judges thereof in vacation, shall have original jurisdiction for the adjudication of such contests for the office of presidential elector, and for the office of judge of the supreme court, and shall prescribe rules for practice and proceedings therein; Provided, That no judge of said court who is a contestant or contestee in such election shall be permitted to hear and determine the same. [L. '93, p. 242, §2.

2289. District court jurisdiction.—Sec. 154. The district court of the district wherein the contest for the office of district judge arises, or the judge thereof in vacation, shall have jurisdiction for the adjudication, of contests over the office of district judge. Provided, That should the district judge of such district be himself contestor or contestee in such election, then such contested election shall be heard and determined before the district court of an adjoining judicial district, or the judge thereof in vacation, whose place of residence is nearest to the residence of the contestee. [L. '93, p. 242, §3.

2290. District court jurisdiction of county judge contest.—Sec. 155. The district court, or the judge thereof in vacation, shall have jurisdiction for the adjudication of all contests for the office of county judge arising in any of the counties of that district. [L. '93, p. 243, §4.

2291. Proceedings in district court.—Sec. 156. All contests before such district courts, or any judge thereof in vacation, shall be conducted as near as may be according to the rules for practice and proceedings therein prescribed by the supreme court for contested elections in such supreme court, or, the supreme court may prescribe rules for practice and proceedings in contested elections before district courts or the judges thereof in vacation. All judges in vacation shall have the same power to issue summonses, attachments and other process, and to render and make effective their judgments and decisions, the same as such courts would have. [L. '93, p. 243, §5.

2292. Changes of venue.—Sec. 157. Change of venue may be taken from any district court, or the judge thereof in vacation, for any cause in which changes of venue might be taken in civil or criminal actions. [L. '93, p. 243, §6.

2293. Appeals.—Sec. 158. Appeals shall lie to the supreme court from the decisions of any district courts or any judges thereof in vacation, which appeals may be taken in the same manner and under the same conditions as appeals are taken from judgments of the district court in civil actions. [L. '93, p. 243, §7.

2295. General assembly meet —
Notice of contest.

Section.

2296. Evidence—Depositions.

2297. Rules in conducting contests.

2294. Who may contest—Notice.—Sec. 159. Any candidate or elector being desirous of contesting the election of any person declared elected governor, lieutenant-governor, secretary of state, auditor of state, treasurer of state, attorney-general, superintendent of public instruction, or regent of the university, shall, between the sixth and tenth days of the first session of the general assembly, after the day of election, file a notice of such intention with the secretary of the senate, specifying the particular points on which he means to rely. [G. S., §1232; G. L. §1008.]

2295. General assembly meet—Notice of contest.—Sec. 160. Upon any such notice being filed, as aforesaid, the general assembly shall, by resolution, determine on what day they will meet in joint convention to take action in any such contest, and thereupon a certified copy of the notice filed by any contestor shall be served upon the person whose election is sought to be contested, or by leaving a copy thereof at his last or usual place of residence by such person as shall by resolution be appointed, with a notice that he is required to attend the joint convention on the day so fixed to answer the contest. [G. S., §1233; G. L., §1009.]

2296. Evidence—Depositions.—Sec. 161. On the hearing of any contested election for any of the offices named in section eighty-three of this act the parties to such contest may introduce written testimony to be taken in manner to be prescribed by the joint convention; but no depositions shall be read on such hearing unless the opposite party shall have had reasonable notice of the time and place of taking the same. [G. S., §1234; G. L., §1010.]

[Section 83 referred to is §2294.]

2297. Rules in conducting contests.—Sec. 162. In conducting any contested election for offices named in section eighty-three of this act, the following rules shall be observed, to wit:

First—On the day and at the hour appointed for that purpose the general assembly, with its proper officers, shall convene in joint convention.

Second—The president of the senate shall preside, but when he is the contestee, the president pro tem. of the senate shall preside.

Third—The parties to the contest shall then be called by the secretary of the senate, and, if they answer, their appearance shall be recorded.

Fourth—The contestor shall first introduce his testimony, and then the contestee shall introduce his; and, after the testimony is gone through on both sides, the contestor may, by himself or by his counsel, open the argument, and the contestee may then proceed, by himself or his counsel, to make his defense, and the contestor be heard in reply.

Fifth—After the arguments are thus gone through by the parties, any member of the joint convention shall be at liberty to offer his reasons for the vote he intends to give; Provided, That the convention may limit the time of argument and debate.

Sixth—The secretary of the senate shall keep a regular journal of the proceedings. The manner of taking the decision shall be by a call of the members, and a majority of all the votes given shall decide. [G. S., §1235; G. L., §1011.

[Section 83 referred to is §2294.]

3. SENATORS AND REPRESENTATIVES.

Section.	Section.
2298. Who may contest.	2304. Time of taking depositions —Trial.
2299. Contestor file statement and serve notice.	2305. Who may take depositions —Witnesses.
2300. Contestee shall file answer.	2306. Depositions to be certified and sent to secretary of state.
2301. Contestor shall file reply.	2307. Secretary of state transmit contest papers to presid- ing officer.
2302. Either party may serve no- tice of taking depositions.
2303. Testimony in rebuttal may be taken.

2299. Contestor file statement and serve notice.—Sec. 164. The contestor shall, within ten days after the canvass of the votes, make and file in the office of the secretary of state a verified statement, as hereinafter required, in relation to county officers, except the list of illegal votes cast or legal votes rejected, and serve a copy thereof upon the contestee. [L. '85, p. 194, §2.

2300. Contestee shall file answer.—Sec. 165. The contestee shall, within ten days after the service upon him of such statement, make and file in the office of the secretary of state an answer, duly verified, admitting or specifically denying each allegation contained in such statement intended to be controverted by contestee, and shall also set up in such answer any new matter or counter statement embracing any of the causes hereinafter enumerated as causes of contest in relation to county offices, except the list of illegal votes cast or legal votes rejected, which may entitle him to retain his seat in that branch of the general assembly to which he shall have been declared duly elected, and serve a copy thereof upon the contestor. [L. '85, p. 194, §3.]

2301. Contestor shall file reply.—Sec. 166. When the answer of contestee contains new matter constituting a counter statement, the contestor shall, within ten days after the service upon him of such answer, reply to the same, admitting or specifically denying, under oath, each allegation contained in such counter statement intended by him to be controverted on the trial, and file the same in the office aforesaid, and serve a copy thereof upon the contestee. L. '85, p. 194, §4.

2302. Either party may serve notice of taking depositions.—Sec. 167. Either party, contestor or contestee, may, at the time of serving his statement or answer, serve upon the adverse party a notice of taking depositions in support of his statement or answer, if any such depositions are to be taken, to be used upon the trial of such contest. That, immediately after joining issue of fact, as hereinbefore provided, both contestor and contestee shall proceed with all reasonable dispatch to take such depositions as he may desire to use on such trial. That written notice of the time and place of taking such depositions shall be given to the adverse party a sufficient length of time to enable such party to reach such place within the time, by the usual traveled route and upon a public conveyance, if any such conveyance plies between the place of serving such notice and the place of taking such depositions; otherwise, a reasonable time to make such journey; Provided, That nothing herein contained shall abridge the right of either party to take depositions upon reasonable notice prior to the joining of issue aforesaid in relation to any of the matters of controversy to be raised in such contest; but a failure to take depositions before the joining of issue shall not be held as laches against either party to such contest. [L. '85, p. 194, §5.]

2303. Testimony in rebuttal may be taken.—Sec. 168. If, upon the completion of taking any deposition, the adverse party has any witness or witnesses present before the officer taking such deposition whose testimony is sought to be used in rebuttal of the deposition so taken, such adverse party may proceed immediately to take the deposition of such rebutting witness or witnesses before such officer, upon giving written notice to the opposite party or his attorney; and such officer shall attach to said depositions a copy of said notice, with proof of service; the said rebutting depositions shall be returned by the officer taking the same, in the same manner as hereinafter provided for returning depositions in chief; Provided, always, That such adverse party shall be at his own proper cost and expense in procuring such depositions and the return thereof. [L. '85, p. 195, §6.

2304. Time of taking depositions—Trial.—Sec. 169. The time for taking depositions, by either party, to be used upon the trial of such contest, shall expire three days prior to the meeting of the next general assembly. Both parties may take depositions at the same time, but neither party shall take depositions at two or more different places at the same time. Both parties must be ready, with all of their testimony, to proceed with the trial of such contest, when called for trial by the body authorized to try the same; but nothing herein contained shall be construed to abridge the right of either branch of the general assembly, upon good cause shown, to extend the time to take depositions, or to send for and examine any witness, or to take any testimony it may desire to use on the trial of such contest. [L. '85, p. 195, §7.

2305. Who may take depositions—Witnesses.—Sec. 170. Any county judge, or justice of the peace, or notary public, of a county in the district where the contest arises, may issue subpoenas in every such contested election case, and shall have power to compel the attendance of witnesses, take such depositions, and certify the same, according to the rules for taking depositions in the district court. [L. '85, p. 195, §8.

2306. Depositions to be certified and sent to secretary of state.—Sec. 171. The officer before whom such depositions shall be taken shall immediately, upon the conclusion of the taking thereof, certify to the same, and enclose the same, together with the notices for taking such depositions, and the proof of service of such notices, in an envelope, and seal the same up, and transmit the same by mail, or by the hands of a sworn officer, to the secretary of state, with an endorsement thereon showing the nature of the papers, the names of the contesting parties, and the branch of the general assembly before which the contest is to be tried. [L. '85, p. 196, §9.

2307. Secretary of state transmit contest papers to presiding officer.—Sec. 172. The secretary of state shall deliver the same, unopened, together with the statement of contestor, answer of contestee, and reply, if any there be, to the presiding officer of the body in which the contest is to be tried, immediately upon the organization of such body, or so soon thereafter as the same may come to his possession; and such presiding officer shall, immediately upon the receipt thereof, give notice to the body over which he presides that such papers are in his possession. [L. '85, p. 196, §10.

4. COUNTY OFFICERS.

Section.	Section.
2308. Who may contest—Causes of contest.	2314. Time of trial—Testimony—Depositions—Appeals.
2309. Causes insufficient to set aside election.	2315. Procedure same as in county court—Evidence not used against witness.
2310. County judge try contests—Bond of contestor.	2316. Examination of poll book and ballot box—Recount of votes.
2311. Contestor file statement—Contents.	2317. Judgment.
2312. Issuance and service of summons—Answer of contestee.	2318. Costs.
2313. Contestor shall file reply.	2319. Contest of town and precinct election—No appeal

2308. Who may contest—Causes of contest.—Sec. 173. The election of any person, declared duly elected to any county office, except the office of county judge, may be contested by any elector of such county.

First—When the contestee is not eligible to the office to which he has been declared elected.

Second—When illegal votes have been received, or legal votes rejected, at the polls, sufficient to change the result.

Third—For any error, or mistake, in any of the boards of judges, or canvassers, in counting or declaring the result of the election, if the error, or mistake, would affect the result.

Fourth—For mal-conduct, fraud, or corruption on the part of the board of registry, or judges of election, in any precinct, or ward, or any of the boards of canvassers, or on the part of any member of such boards.

Fifth—For any other cause (though not above enumerated), which shows that another was the legally elected person. [L. '85, p. 196, §11.

2309. Causes insufficient to set aside election.—Sec. 174. The matter contained in the second, third, fourth and fifth causes of contest shall not be held sufficient to set aside the election, unless such causes be found sufficient to change the result. [L. '85, p. 196, §12.

2310. County judge try contests—Bond of contestor.—Sec. 175. All contested election cases of county officers, except county judges, shall be tried and determined by the county judge of the county in which the contest arises; but before the county judge shall be required to take jurisdiction of the contest, the contestor must file, with the clerk of said court, a bond, with sureties, to be approved by said judge, running to said contestee, and conditioned to pay all costs in case of failure to maintain his contest. [L. '85, p. 196, §13.

2311. Contestor file statement—Contests.—Sec. 176. The contestor shall file, in the office of the clerk of the county court, within ten days after the day when the votes are canvassed, a written statement of his intention to contest the election, setting forth the name of the contestor, and that he is an elector of the county; the name of the contestee; the office contested; the time of the election, and the particular cause or causes of the contest; which statement shall be verified by the affidavit of the contestor, or some elector of the county, that the causes set forth in such statement are true, as he is informed and verily believes. [L. '85, p. 197, §14.

2312. Issuance and service of summons—Answer of contestee.—Sec. 177. The clerk of the county court shall thereupon issue a summons in the ordinary form, in which the contestor shall be named as plaintiff and the contestee as defendant, stating the court, in which such action is brought, the county in which the statement is filed, and a brief statement of the cause or causes of contest, as set forth in contestor's said statement, which said summons shall be served upon contestee, in the same manner as other summons are served out of the county court of this state and within ten days after the filing in said court the written statement of contestor's intention, required to be filed, in contesting elections. The contestee shall, within ten days after the service of such summons, make and file his answer to the same with the clerk of said court, in which he shall either admit or specifically deny each allegation contained in such statement intended to be controverted by contestee on the trial of such contest, and shall set up in such answer any counter statement, embraced in any of the causes hereinbefore enumerated, as causes of contest in relation to county officers, which he relies upon as entitling him to the office to which he has been declared elected. When the reception of illegal or the rejection of legal votes is alleged as the cause of the contest, a list of the number of persons who so voted, or offered to vote, shall be set forth in the statement of contestor, and shall be likewise set forth in the answer of contestee, if any such cause is alleged in his answer by way of counter statement. [L. '07, p. 281, §1, amending L. '85, p. 197, §15.

2314. Time of trial—Testimony—Depositions—Appeals.—Sec. 179. Immediately after the joining of issue, as aforesaid, the county judge shall fix a day for the trial to commence, not more than twenty nor less than ten days after the joining of issue, as aforesaid, and such trial shall take precedence of all other business in said court. The testimony may be oral, or by depositions taken before any officer authorized to take depositions. Any depositions taken to be used upon the trial of such contest may be taken upon four days' notice thereof. The county judge trying such cause shall cause the testimony to be taken in full and filed in said cause. The trial of such causes shall be conducted according to the rules and practice of the county court in other cases. An appeal from the judgment and final determination in any cause may be taken to the supreme court, the same as in other causes tried in said court; Provided, That such appeal be prayed for, bill of exceptions settled, bond for costs executed and filed, and the record transmitted to the clerk of the supreme court within twenty days from the date of entering such judgment. The supreme court shall advance such cause to the head of the calendar, and hear and determine the same with all reasonable dispatch. [L. '85, p. 198, §17.]

2315. Procedure same as in county court—Evidence not used against witness.—Sec. 180. The style and form of process, the officers by whom served, and the manner of service of process and papers and the fees of officers shall be the same as in the county court. It shall be lawful to require any person called as a witness who voted at such election to answer touching his qualifications as a voter; and, if he was not a qualified voter in the precinct or ward in which he voted, and the witness answers such questions as may be propounded to him upon the trial of such contest, no part of his testimony shall be used against him in any criminal action, except for perjury in giving such testimony. [L. '85, p. 198, §18.]

2316. Examination of poll book and ballot box—Recount of votes.—Sec. 181. If, upon the trial of any contested election for any officer mentioned in this act, it be proven that a vote or votes that were illegal were cast in any precinct or ward, or if the statement or counter statement sets forth an error in canvass, as hereinbefore set forth in the fourth cause of contest, the general assembly, or either branch thereof, or the trial judge provided for in this act (as the case may be), shall have power, if such illegal vote or votes or error in canvass be sufficient to change the result, to send to the precinct or ward where such illegal voting or error in canvass was done, and obtain of their custodians the poll books and ballot box used at such election, and, when so obtained, shall have the power to take out of the ballot box the poll book and ballots bearing the number corresponding to the number opposite the name on the poll book of the persons who have thus been proven to have voted illegally. The ballot or ballots so taken from the ballot box shall be examined, and, if it be found that any or all of them bear the name of either of the parties, they shall, or so many of them as do bear the name of such party, be deducted from his vote, and the determination shall be in accordance with the result after such deduction shall have been made. In all cases where there has been an error in the canvass of the vote there shall be a recount of the ballots in such ballot box, and the determination shall be in accordance with such recount. [L. '85, p. 198, §19.

2317. Judgment.—Sec. 182. The court shall pronounce judgment whether the contestee or any other person was duly elected, and the person so declared elected will be entitled to the office, upon qualification. If the judgment be against the contestee, and he has received his certificate, the judgment annuls it. If the court finds that no person was duly elected, the judgment shall be that the election be set aside. [L. '85, p. 199, §20.

2318. Costs.—Sec. 183. Judgment for costs, and execution thereon, shall be issued in the same manner and like effect as in any case pending or determined in the county court. The county judge shall have the same authority to enforce any order made at such a trial and final judgment therein, as in other cases tried in the said court. [L. '85, p. 199, §21.

2319. Contest of town and precinct election—No appeal.—Sec. 184. Contested election of town and precinct officers shall be tried before the county court, as hereinbefore provided for the trial of contest of county officers, so far as the same is practicable; but the judgment rendered in such cause shall be final, and no appeal to the supreme court therefrom shall lie. [L. '85, p. 199, §22.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS.

2324. Secretary of state send poll books—Tally lists—County clerk's duty.—Sec. 189. It shall be the duty of the secretary of state to make out a complete form of poll books, tally lists, and all the forms required by this act, to be used by judges of election and the county clerks, and to send printed copies thereof to the county clerk of each county, and he shall cause to be printed in pamphlet form such parts of this act as are necessary for the guidance of the judges of election in the discharge of their duties, and to send printed copies thereof to the county clerk of each county for him to distribute to the judges in each precinct or ward. [G. S., §1219, G. L., §995.

2325. State central committee control controversies of party.—Sec. 190. The state central committee of any political party in this state shall have full power to pass upon and determine all controversies concerning the regularity of the organization of that party within and for any congressional, judicial, senatorial or representative district, or county, or city, in this state, and also concerning the right to the use of the party name, and may make such rules governing the method of passing upon and determining such controversies as it may deem best, unless such rules shall have been theretofore provided by the state convention of such party, and all such determinations upon the part of the state central committee shall be final: Provided, however, That from the time the state convention of such party convenes until the time of its final adjournment such state convention shall have all the powers above given to the state central committee, but not otherwise; And, provided, further, That the state convention of such party may provide rules that shall govern the state central committee in the exercise of the powers herein conferred upon such committee. [L. '01, p. 169, §1.

2326. Chairman file membership of committee.—Sec. 191. Within ten days after the adjournment of the state convention of any political party at which a state central committee is selected, the chairman and secretary of said convention shall under oath file with the secretary of the state a full and complete roll of the membership of said state central committee. [L. '01, p. 169, §2.

COUNTY SEATS.

LOCATION.

AN ACT

TO AMEND SECTION 1167 OF THE REVISED STATUTES OF THE STATE OF COLORADO, 1908, AS AMENDED BY CHAPTER CV OF THE SESSION LAWS OF 1911 RELATING TO LOCATION OF COUNTY SEATS.

Be It Enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Colorado:

Sec. 1167 R. S. 1908, as amended by Chap. 105, S. L. 1911, amended.

Section 1. That general section 1167 of the Revised Statutes of the State of Colorado of 1908 be amended by Chapter CV of the Session Laws of 1911, be amended to read as follows:

Petition to county commissioners—Notice—Majority for change—Proviso in case there are no county buildings.

Section 1167. Whenever the legal taxpayers of any county in this State are desirous of changing the county seat of the county in which they reside, from the place where such county seat has been permanently located, they may at any time, present to the county commissioners of such county, a petition signed by a majority of such taxpayers whose names shall appear on the last tax roll, provided that no names shall be withdrawn from said petition after the same has been presented to the Board of County Commissioners except in cases of actual fraud in the procuring of signatures to the same; and thereupon it shall be the duty of such commissioners to require the county clerk, in giving notice for the next general election, to notify the legal voters of said county, who have resided in the county six months and the election precinct ninety days next preceding such election, to designate upon their ballots at such election, the place of their choice, and if upon canvassing the votes polled or given, it shall appear that any one place has two-thirds of all legal votes polled or given, such place shall be the county seat, and notice of any change thereby made shall be given as provided by law; Provided, that where there are no county buildings and the petition so states, it shall not be necessary for such majority to be more than a mere majority of all the legal votes cast to effect such removal; Provided, further that the term "legal taxpayers", as used in this section shall be held to mean and include only those persons who are qualified voters under the registration and election laws of this State, and who in the calendar year last preceding the year in which such petition is presented as aforesaid, shall have paid a tax, or be liable for the payment of such tax on real or personal property, assessed to them and owned by them in the county in which such petition is presented.

Repealing clause.

Section 2. All acts or parts of acts in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

Approved: May 1st 1913, at 10:28 O'clock P. M.

1168. If no choice, special election—Notice.

Sec. 87. If no place has a majority of all the votes polled in either of such elections for the location or change of the county seat, it shall be the duty of the county commissioners, within one month after any such election, to order a special election and give ten days' notice thereof, in each township in the county, at which election votes shall be taken by ballot the same as at the general election, and if no place then have a majority of all the votes, the county seat shall not be changed until the next general election, when a vote may again be taken as provided in section twenty-two. [G. S., §686; R. S., p. 163, §43.

[Section 22 referred to is section 1166.]

1169. County commissioners make survey.

Sec. 88. The aforesaid county commissioners shall have power to make all needful arrangements for having such county seat surveyed into lots, squares, streets and alleys, selling and disposing of the same, erecting a jail house, court house or other county buildings as to them may seem best. [G. S., §687; G. L., §372; R. S., p. 163, §44.

1170. Unorganized counties not taxed for buildings.

Sec. 89. The people of no unorganized county in this territory shall be taxed for the erection of any public buildings in the county to which they may be attached for judicial or military purposes. [G. S., §688; R. S., p. 162, §39.

1171. Locating county seat—Special judges—Special boxes.

Sec. 90. That whenever an election shall be ordered by the board of county commissioners of any county to ascertain the sense of the legal voters of such county upon the question of removal or location of the county seat of such county, it shall be the duty of such board of county commissioners to appoint special judges and registers of such elections, and to provide a special ballot box in each voting precinct, in which shall be deposited all the ballots cast at such election in such precinct on the question of location or removal of the county seat. [G. S., §1284; L. '81, p. 103, §1.

1172. Special registry—Residence in county and precinct.

Sec. 91. It shall be the duty of the judges and registers so appointed to make a special registration of the voters of each precinct who have resided in the county at least six months and in such precinct at least ninety days prior to the day designated for holding such election, which day shall be the day designated by law for holding a general election, and no other. [G. S., §1285; L. '81, p. 114, §2.

1173. Polling places—Special ballot.

Sec. 92. The election shall be held at the same places at which the general election is ordered to be held, but the vote for or against removal or location of the county seat shall be by a special ballot, separate and distinct from the general ticket voted at said election, which ballot shall be deposited in the special ballot box provided for in section 1 of this act, and no vote shall be counted for or against said removal or location which is not deposited in such special ballot box as herein provided. [G. S., §1286; L. '81, p. 104, §3.

[Section 1 referred to is section 1171.]

1174. Removal thirty days after canvass.

Sec. 93. No county seat shall be removed until the expiration of thirty days after the canvass of the votes had by the county canvassers upon the question of location or removal, nor until the board of county commissioners of such county shall have made and entered of record on their journal an order directing such removal, which order the said board shall make within thirty (30) days after the county canvass is completed, unless enjoined or restrained from so doing by an order of the district court of said county or the judge thereof, or by the supreme court. [G. S., §1287; L. '81, p. 104, §4.

1175. General election laws apply—Contests.

Sec. 94. All laws now in force relating to election shall apply to elections held upon the question of removal or location of county seats, except that the question of location of such county seat shall be contested in the district court of said county in the first instance, but may be removed to the district court of any other county under the provisions of the code relating to change of the place of trial, and shall be also subject to appeal or writ of error to the supreme court; Provided, That not less than two-thirds of all the legal votes cast shall be necessary to effect the removal of the county seat of any county in this state. [G. S., §1288; L. '81, p. 104, §5.

1176. Election laws applicable to contests.

Sec. 95. All laws governing contests of elections shall be held applicable to contests of county seat elections, except that the board of county commissioners of the county shall in all cases be the contestee, and that the contest shall be conducted in the district court of the proper county. Such district court or the judge thereof in vacation may appoint a referee to take testimony in relation to the grounds of contest alleged by the contestor, which referee may sit to take evidence in any precinct of his county. [G. S., §1289; L. '81, p. 104, §6.

[For contest of elections see sections 2287-2319.]

ELECTION OF PRESIDENT.

Section.

2335. When electors meet—Vacancies, how filled—Duties.

Section.

2336. Fees of electors—Special elections—Call—Canvass.

2335. When electors meet—Vacancies—How filled—Duties.—

Sec. 200. The electors of president and vice-president of the United States shall convene at the capital of the state, on the first Wednesday of December, next after their election, at the hour of twelve o'clock at noon of that day; and if there shall be any vacancy in the office of electors, occasioned by death, refusal to act, neglect to attend, or other cause, the elector or electors present shall immediately proceed to fill such vacancy in the electoral college; and when the vacancies shall have been filled as above provided they shall proceed to perform the duties required of such electors by the constitution and laws of the United States, and vote for president and vice-president by open ballot. [G. S., §1214; G. L., §990.

2336. Fees of electors.—Special elections—Call—Canvass.—

Sec. 201. Every elector of this state for the election of president and vice-president of the United States, hereafter elected, who shall attend and give his vote for those officers at the time and place appointed by law, shall be entitled to receive the sum of five dollars per day for each day's attendance at such election, and fifteen cents per mile for each mile he shall travel in going to and returning from the place where the electors shall meet, by the most usual traveled route, to be paid out of the general contingent fund, and the auditor of state shall audit the amount and draw his warrant for the same. There shall be an election held in this state for the election of such electors at the times appointed by any law of congress or the constitution of the United States for such election, and when such election shall be special, the same shall be called, held, and the votes polled, canvassed in all respects as at a general election, and the duties of the electors so elected shall be the same as prescribed by law for electors elected at a general election. [G. S., §1215; G. L., §991.

2341. Construction of machine—Model for instruction of voters.	2354. Irregular ballots.
2342. Any approved machine may be adopted and used.	2355. Machine opened at close of polls.
2343. Secretary of state prescribe rules for care of machines—Ballots.	2356. Announcement of vote—Returns—Machine open to inspection.
2344. Preservation of machines.	2357. Keys returned with election returns.
2345. Election precincts.	2358. Penalty for tampering with machine—Application of election law—Penalties.
2346. Appointees sworn.	2359. Election laws apply.
2347. Experimental use of machines.	2360. When act becomes in force.
2348. Arrangement of polling place.
2349. Assistance to voter unable to read English or use machine.

2337. May be used in all elections.—Sec. 202. In all elections hereafter held in this state for presidential electors and members of congress, or either of them, and in all state, county, city and county and town elections, and in all other elections hereafter to be held in this state or in any political division thereof, for any purpose whatever, voting machines may be used; and at any and all such elections the vote or ballot may be had and taken, and the votes cast thereat registered or recorded and counted, and the result of such election or elections ascertained by voting machines instead of in the mode and manner now established by law; Provided, That the use of said machines at any such election or elections shall be subject to the requirements, provisions, terms and conditions of this act hereinafter contained. [L. '05, p. 220, §1.

2338. State board of voting machine commissioners—Term.—Sec. 203. Within thirty days after this act shall take effect and be in force the governor shall appoint three persons who shall constitute "The state board of voting machine commissioners," who shall be sworn to perform their duties faithfully; the members of said board shall hold office for the term of five years; their successors shall be appointed by the governor for terms of five years; any vacancy occurring in said board by death, resignation or otherwise, shall be filled by the governor for the unexpired term only; any member of said board may be removed at the pleasure of the governor; no member of said board shall have any pecuniary interest, directly or indirectly, in any voting machine; at least two of said board shall be master mechanics or graduates of a school of mechanical engineering, one to be appointed from each of the two political parties which shall have received the highest number of votes at the election held for the office of governor of the state next preceding the date of such appointments. [L. '05, p. 220, §2.

2339. Examination of machines—Report of board.—Sec. 204. Any person, company or corporation owning any voting machine may apply to the state board of voting machine commissioners to examine such machine and report on its compliance with the requirements of the law and its accuracy, efficiency and capacity to register the will of voters; upon such application the said board shall examine such machine and make report whether, in its opinion, or in the opinion of any two of the members thereof, the kind of machine so examined complies with the requirements of this act and can safely be used at elections to be held in this state under the conditions prescribed by this act; the report of said board on said machine, signed by the members thereof, or any two of them, and all exhibits, drawings, photographs, descriptions, etc., filed in connection with and identifying said machine so examined, shall be filed in the office of the secretary of state within ten days, and shall be a public record; if the report of the board, or any two members thereof, be that machines of the kind examined can be used, such kind of machines shall be deemed to be approved by the board, and its use as herein provided shall be authorized at any such election as aforesaid to be held in this state or any civil division thereof; any kind of voting machine not so approved by said board shall not be used at any election; the examination herein provided for shall not be required of each individual machine, but only of each particular kind of machine before its adoption, use or purchase, as herein provided; when the machine has been so approved, any improvement or change that does not impair its accuracy, efficiency or capacity shall not render necessary a re-examination or re-approval thereof. All examinations shall be in public; sufficient notice shall be given to such interested persons as shall file with the commission a notice of their desire to attend such examinations. [L. '05, p. 221, §3.

2340. Applicant deposit fees.—Sec. 205. Any person, company or corporation applying to have any voting machine examined shall deposit with the secretary of said board the sum of three hundred dollars as the fee of said board; except as herein provided, the members of said board shall not receive any compensation or remuneration for their services. [L. '05, p. 222, §4.

2341. Construction of machine—Model for instruction of voters.—Sec. 206. No voting machine shall be approved by the board of voting machine commissioners unless it shall be so constructed as to insure every voter an opportunity to vote in secrecy; that it can be closed during the progress of the voting so that no person can see or know the number of votes registered for any candidate or for whom the elector has voted; that each machine shall be so constructed as to provide facilities for voting for the candidates of at least seven parties or organizations with a separate voting device and counter for each candidate thereof; that a straight party ticket can be voted by the operation of a single device; that the voter may vote for a part of one party ticket, and a part of one or more other party tickets; that a voter can not vote for a candidate or on a question for whom or on which he is not lawfully entitled to vote; that the voter will be prevented from casting more than one vote for any candidate, or voting for more than one person for the same office, unless he is lawfully entitled to vote for more than one person therefor, and in that event permits him to vote for as many persons for that office as he is by law entitled to vote for, and no more, but all votes for nominated candidates for such officers shall be cast and counted in the same manner as for all other nominated candidates, except as hereinafter provided for presidential electors; that the machine will be provided with at least seven pairs of "Yes" and "No" counters for voting on questions, with the operating or voting devices therefor; that such machine will correctly register, by means of mechanical counters, having registering wheels, every vote cast for candidates whose names are printed on the ballot labels or for questions; that the names of the candidates for presidential electors shall not occur on the ballot labels, but in lieu thereof, one ballot in each party column, or row, shall contain only the words "Presidential Electors," preceded by the party name, and the names of the candidates for president and vice-president, and every vote registered for such ballot shall operate as a vote for all candidates of such party for presidential electors, and be counted as such, but it shall provide means for voting a split or irregular ticket for presidential electors; that any voter can by means of irregular ballots vote a written or printed ballot of his own selection for any person for any office, although such person may not have been nominated by any party, but such irregular balloting device or devices shall not be used for voting for any regularly nominated candidates, except for presidential electors, as herein provided; that a voter may readily understand how to vote, and within the period of one minute cast his vote for all the candidates of his choice, and that he can change his vote for any regularly nominated candidate up to the time he starts to leave the machine. All voting machines shall have their voting devices for the individual candidates arranged in separate parallel party lines, one line for each party, and in parallel office rows, transverse thereto; each machine must be provided with a lock or locks, the keys of which can not be interchangeably used, and by the locking of which any movement of the operating mechanism can be prevented, so that it can not be tampered with or manipulated for any fraudulent purpose; and that the doors of the compartment containing the registering mechanism can be locked so that no person can see or know the number of votes registered for any candidate; there shall be a counter, the registering face of which can be seen at all times from the outside of the machine, which will show during the election the total number of voters that have operated the machine at that election; there shall be a registering lock, or a counter, which can not be reset and will lock by the part that operates it, and will count up to a million; such lock or counter shall be known as a protective lock, or a protective counter, and shall be so constructed that the numbers on the lock will be changed or the number on the counter shall be advanced one every time the machine is operated. With each voting machine there shall be provided by the makers a working model for instruction of voters, which shall represent at least five office lines for two party rows, and the devices for voting for two questions, and shall correspond to the equivalent parts on the face of the voting machine, and the operation of the model shall be the same in outward appearance as the operation of the machine. [L. '05, p. 222, §5.

2342. Any approved machine may be adopted and used.—
Sec. 207. The governing body of any county, city, city and county, or town or other political division may adopt for use at elections any kind of voting machine approved by the state board of voting machine commissioners; and thereupon such voting machine may be used at any or all elections held in such county, city, city and county, town or other political division, or in any part thereof, for voting, registering and counting votes cast at such elections; different voting machines may be adopted for different voting districts or precincts in the same county, city, city and county or town, or other political division. Said governing bodies adopting a voting machine shall, as soon as practicable thereafter, provide for each polling place one or more voting machines in complete working order; and if it shall be impracticable to supply each and every election district or precinct with a voting machine or voting machines at any election following such adoption as many may be supplied or as it is practicable to procure, and the same may be used in such election districts or precincts as they may direct. The governing body of any county, city, city and county or town, including the city and county of Denver, and any city, city and county or town which may be governed by the provisions of special charter, adopting and purchasing a voting machine, or voting machines, may provide for the payment therefor by the issuance of interest-bearing bonds, certificates of indebtedness or other obligation, which shall be a charge upon such county, city, city and county, or town; such bonds, certificates or other obligations may be made payable at such time, or times, not exceeding ten years from the date of issue, as may be determined, but shall not be issued or sold at less than par. [L. '05, p. 224, §6.

2343. Secretary of state prescribe rules for care of machines—Ballots.—Sec. 208. The secretary of state shall prescribe rules and regulations in addition to those contained in this act, regarding the care of voting machines by the local authorities which shall govern the conduct of the election judges, clerks and voters in the use of such voting machines during elections; and for printing ballots and return sheets, and for making returns thereof; and shall prepare and furnish all necessary instructions for the use of such voting machines. All printed instructions how to vote to be distributed to voters shall conform to instructions approved by the secretary of state, and it shall be unlawful for any person or persons to print or circulate misleading instructions regarding the method of voting. [L. '05, p. 224, §7.

2344. Preservation of machines.—Sec. 209. Any governing body providing voting machines for use in elections shall preserve and keep them in good order, and, for the purpose of preparing machines for election, shall employ one or more competent persons, machinists if possible, and shall pay them for such time as they shall be engaged in such duties; they shall, in addition to such duties, instruct the election officers in the use of the machines; such governing body shall also provide for the giving of such instructions for their use to voters as in their judgment shall be necessary. [L. '05, p. 225, §8.

2345. Election precincts.—Sec. 210. For any election in any political division within the state in which voting machines are to be used, the election districts or precincts in which such machines are to be used may be created by the officers charged with the duty of creating election districts or precincts so as to contain as near as may be six hundred voters each, based upon the last preceding general elections. Such re-districting or re-division may be made at any time not less than sixty days preceding any election, and when so made shall take effect immediately. [L. '05, p. 225, §9.]

[See, also, §2229.]

2346. Appointees sworn.—Sec. 211. All persons appointed in pursuance of this act shall be sworn to perform their duties faithfully and honestly, and for the purposes of this act shall be allowed the same freedom of the election rooms as are officers of election. [L. '05, p. 225, §10.]

2347. Experimental use of machines.—Sec. 212. The governing body of any county, city, city and county, or town, or other political division, may provide for the experimental use at any election or elections, in one or more election districts or precincts, of any machine which it might lawfully adopt, without a formal adoption thereof, and its use at such election shall be as valid for all purposes as if it had been lawfully adopted. [L. '05, p. 225, §11.]

2348. Arrangement of polling place.—Sec. 213. The room in which the election is held shall have a railing separating the part of the room occupied by the judges and clerks of election from that part of the room occupied by the voting machine. The exterior of the voting machine and every part of the polling place shall be in plain view of the election officers. The voting machine shall be placed at least three feet from every wall and partition of the polling place, and at least four feet from any election officer or table used by them, and it shall be so placed that no person on the opposite side of the railing can see or determine from the outside of the room how the voter casts his vote. After the opening of the polls the election judges shall allow no person to pass within the railing to the part of the room where the machine is situated except for the purpose of voting, except as is provided in the next succeeding section of this act; and they shall not permit more than one voter at a time to be in such part of the room. They shall not themselves remain, or permit any other person to remain, in any position or near any position that would permit one to see or ascertain how a voter votes or how he has voted. No voter shall remain within the voting booth or compartment longer than one minute, and if any voter shall refuse to leave after the lapse of that time he shall at once be removed by the election officers, or upon their order. [L. '05, p. 226, §12.]

2349. Assistance to voter unable to read English or use machine.—Sec. 214. Any voter who may declare upon oath that he can not read the English language, or that by reason of physical disability he is unable to use the voting machine, shall, upon request, be assisted by two of the election officers of different parties to be selected from the judges and clerks of the precinct in which they are to act, to be designated by the judges of election at the opening of the polls. Such officers, in the voter's presence and in the presence of each other, shall register his vote upon the machine for the candidates of his choice, and shall thereafter give no information regarding the same. The clerks of election shall enter upon the poll list after the name of any elector who received such assistance in registering his vote a memorandum of the fact. Intoxication shall not be regarded as a physical disability, and no intoxicated person shall be entitled to assistance in registering his vote. [L. '05, p. 226, §13.]

2350. Instructions to voter after entering machine.—Sec. 215. In case any elector, after entering the voting machine booth, shall ask for further instruction concerning the manner of voting, two judges of opposite political parties shall give such instructions to him; but no judge or other election officer or person assisting an elector shall in any manner request, suggest or seek to persuade or induce any such elector to vote any particular ticket or for any particular candidate, or for or against any particular amendment, question or proposition. After receiving such instructions such elector shall vote as in the case of an unassisted voter. [L. '05, p. 227, §14.]

2351. Ballot label—By whom furnished.—Sec. 216. That portion of cardboard, paper or other material placed on the front of the machine, and containing the names of the candidates or a statement of the proposed constitutional amendment or other question or proposition to be voted on, shall be known in this act as a ballot label. The ballot label shall be supplied by the official or officials charged by law with providing material for the holding of an election or elections, and shall be printed in black ink on clear white material, of such size as will fit the machine, and in plain, clear type, as large as the space will reasonably permit. The party name or other designation shall be prefixed to the list of candidates of such party. The order of the lists of candidates of the several parties shall be arranged as is now provided by law, except that the lists may be placed in horizontal rows or vertical columns, which parties may, if desired, be divided into parallel and contiguous rows or columns. [L. '05, p. 227, §15.]

2352. Sample ballot labels for public inspection.—Sec. 217. The officers or board charged with the duty of providing ballots and ballot labels for any polling place shall provide therefor two sample ballot labels, which shall be arranged in the form of a diagram, showing the entire front of the voting machine as it will appear after the official ballot labels are arranged for voting on election day. Such sample ballot labels shall be displayed for public inspection at such polling place during the day preceding election day. [L. '05, p. 227, §16.

2353. Four sets of ballot labels—Delivery of machine at polling place—Inspection of machine before election.—Sec. 218. Four sets of ballot labels for use in the voting machine shall be provided for each polling place for each election by the officer or officers now charged by law with the duty of furnishing such election precincts with ballots. In such manner shall be furnished, also, all other necessary material for the use of the voting machines. The same officer or officers shall, before the day of election, cause the proper ballot labels to be put upon each machine corresponding with the sample ballot labels herein provided for, and the machine in every way to be put in order, set and adjusted, ready for use in voting when delivered at the precinct. And the same officer or officers shall cause the machine so labeled in order, set and adjusted, to be delivered at the voting precinct, together with all necessary furniture and appliances that go with the same, in the room where the election is to be held in the precinct, not later than 6 o'clock p. m. of the day preceding the election. After the delivery of the machine, and on the same day, the judges and clerks of election of the precinct may meet at said room, open the package containing the sample ballots, and, if necessary, the ballot labels, and see that the machine is correctly labeled, set and adjusted, ready for use in voting; and if the same is not so labeled, set and adjusted and in order, they shall cause it to be done. On the morning of the election the election officers shall meet in the said room at least one hour before the time for opening the polls. They shall see that the sample ballot labels and instruction cards are posted properly, and everything put in readiness for the voting at the hour of opening the polls. The officers shall compare ballot labels on the machine with the sample ballots, see that they are correct, examine and see that all the counters in the machine are set at naught or zero (0), and that the machine is otherwise in perfect order, and they shall not thereafter permit the counters to be operated or moved except by electors in voting, and they shall also see that all necessary arrangements and adjustments are made for voting irregular ballots on the machine. [L. '05, p. 227, §17.

2354. Irregular ballots.—Sec. 219. Ballots voted for any person whose name does not appear on the ballot label on the machine as a candidate are herein referred to as irregular ballots. [L. '05, p. 228, §18.

2355. Machine opened at close of polls.—Sec. 220. As soon as the polls are closed the voting machine shall be locked against voting, and the counting compartment opened in the presence of all the judges and clerks of election, and all other persons who may be lawfully within the room, giving full view of the numbers announcing the votes cast for each candidate, and for and against the various constitutional amendments, questions or other propositions. [L. '05, p. 228, §19.

2356. Announcement of vote—Returns—Machine open to inspection.—Sec. 221. The election officers shall then ascertain the number of votes which the candidates have received, both on the machine and by the voting of irregular ballots, if any, and one of the judges shall publicly announce in a distinct voice the total vote for each candidate thus ascertained in the order of the offices as their titles are arranged on the ballot label. He shall then announce in the same manner the vote on each constitutional amendment, proposition or other question. Before leaving the room, and before closing and locking the counting compartment, the election officers shall make and sign written statements or returns of such election, as now required by law. When irregular ballots have been voted they shall be returned, preserved and finally destroyed, as is now provided by law in the case of other election ballots. The written statements or returns so made, after having been properly signed, shall be distinctly and clearly read in the hearing of all persons present, and ample opportunity shall be given to compare the results so certified with the counter dials of the machine. After such comparison and correction, if any is made, the election officers shall then close the counting compartment and lock the same. Thereafter the machine shall remain locked for a period of at least ninety days, unless otherwise ordered by a court of competent jurisdiction. And said counting compartment shall be allowed to remain open for the inspection of all watchers and such electors of the precinct as shall desire to inspect the same for a period of at least one hour after the polls are closed, provided such inspection shall not be permitted to interfere with the election officials in taking off and recording the votes indicated on the counters. [L. '05, p. 229, §20.

2357. Keys returned with election returns.—Sec. 222. When the machine is locked at the close of an election in the manner required by this act, the judges shall place all keys of the machine on a single piece of flexible wire; unite the ends of such wire in a firm knot, label the same with the make and number of the machine and the precinct at which it was used at such election, and return such keys along with the written statements or returns of such election. [L. '05, p. 229, §21.

2358. Penalty for tampering with machine—Application of election laws—Penalties.—Sec. 223. The provisions of the penal statutes and of the election laws relating to misconduct at elections shall apply to elections with voting machines. Any person who shall before or during an election tamper with any voting machine, or who shall interfere or attempt to interfere with the correct operation of the voting machine, or the secrecy of voting; or who shall wilfully injure a voting machine to prevent its use; or any election or police officer, or anyone employed to assist in the care or arrangement of the voting machine, who shall permit any person to violate the secrecy of the voting, or to interfere in any way with the correct operation of the voting machine; or any unauthorized person who shall make a duplicate or have in his possession a key to a voting machine that has been adopted and will be used in elections in this state shall be guilty of a felony, punishable by imprisonment in a state prison for not less than one year nor more than five years. [L. '05, p. 230, §22.

2359. Election laws apply.—Sec. 224. All the provisions of the election law, not inconsistent with this act, shall apply to all elections held in the election districts or precincts where such voting machines are used. Any provisions of law which conflict with the use of such machine or machines as herein set forth, shall not apply to the precinct or precincts in which an election is conducted by the use of such machine or machines. [L. '05, p. 230, §23.

2360. When act becomes in force.—Sec. 225. This act shall take effect and be in force on and after the thirtieth day of December, A. D. 1906, only in the event that the constitutional amendment of section 8 of article 7, providing that "All elections by the people shall be by secret ballot" and that nothing in the said section as amended "Shall be construed to prevent the use of any machine or mechanical contrivance for the purpose of receiving and registering the votes cast at any election, provided that secrecy in voting be preserved," submitted and proposed by the Fifteenth General Assembly, shall be adopted by the people at the general election to be held in November, 1906, but not otherwise. [L. '05, p. 230, §24.

2363. Unlawful to give or advance money or promise employment to influence voters.—Sec. 228. It shall be unlawful for any person, directly or indirectly, by himself or through any other person:

(a) To pay, loan or contribute, or offer, or promise to pay, loan or contribute, any money or other valuable consideration to or for any voter, or to or for any other person, to induce such voter to vote or refrain from voting at any election provided by law, or to induce any voter to vote or refrain from voting at such election for any particular person or persons, or to induce such voter to go to the polls, or remain away from the polls at such election, or on account of such voter having voted or refrained from voting for any particular person, or having gone to the polls or remained away from the polls at such election.

(b) To give, offer or promise any office, place or employment, or to promise or procure or endeavor to procure any office, place or employment, to or for any voter, or to or for any other person, in order to induce such voter to vote or refrain from voting at any election provided by law, or to induce any voter to vote or refrain from voting at such election for any particular person or persons.

(c) To advance or pay, or cause to be paid, any money or other valuable thing to or for the use of any other person, with the intent that the same, or any part thereof, shall be used in bribery at any election provided by law, or to knowingly pay or cause to be paid, any money or other valuable thing to any person in discharge or repayment of any money, wholly or in part expended in bribery at any such election. [L. '91, p. 167, §1.

2364. Unlawful to receive money or employment or contract for valuable consideration to vote.—Sec. 229. It shall be unlawful for any person, directly or indirectly, by himself or through any other person:

(a) To receive, agree or contract for, before or during an election provided by law, any money, gift, loan or other valuable consideration, office, place, or employment, for himself or any other person, for voting or agreeing to vote, or for going or agreeing to go to the polls, or for remaining away or agreeing to remain away from the polls, or for refraining or agreeing to refrain from voting or for voting or agreeing to vote, or refraining or agreeing to refrain from voting for any particular person or persons, measure or measures, at any election provided by law.

(b) To receive any money or other valuable thing during or after an election provided by law, on account of himself or any other person, for voting or refraining from voting at such election, or on account of himself or any other person, for voting or refraining from voting for any particular person at such election or on account of himself, or any other person, for going to the polls or remaining away from the polls at such election, or on account of having induced any person to vote or refrain from voting, or to vote or to refrain from voting for any particular person or persons, measure or measures, at such election. [L. '91, p. 168, §2.

2365. Unlawful for candidate to make bet or wager with voter.

—Sec. 230. It shall be unlawful for any candidate for public office, before or during any election provided by law, to make any bet or wager with a voter, or take a share or interest in, or in any manner become a party to, any such bet or wager, or provide or agree to provide any money to be used by another in making such bet or wager, upon any event or contingency whatever, arising out of such election. Nor shall it be lawful for any person, directly or indirectly, to make a bet or wager with a voter, depending upon the result of any election provided by law, with the intent thereby to procure the challenge of such voter or to prevent him from voting at such election. Any violation of this section shall be deemed a misdemeanor. [L. '91, p. 168, §3.

2366. Unlawful to use violence or intimidation to influence voters.—Sec. 231. It shall be unlawful for any person directly or indirectly, by himself or any other person in his behalf, to make use of any force, violence, or restraint, or to inflict, or threaten the infliction, by himself or through another person, of any injury, damage, harm or loss, or in any manner to practice intimidation upon or against any person in order to induce or compel such person to vote or refrain from voting for any particular person or persons, measure or measures, at any election provided by law, or on account of such person having voted or refrained from voting at any such election. And it shall be unlawful for any person, by abduction, duress, or any forcible or fraudulent device or contrivance whatever, to impede, prevent or otherwise interfere with the free exercise of the elective franchise of any voter, or to compel, induce or prevail upon any voter, either to give or refrain from giving his vote at any such election, or to give or refrain from giving his vote for any particular person at any such election. It shall be unlawful for any employer, either corporation, association, company, firm or person, in paying its, their or his employes the salary or wages due them, to inclose their pay in "Pay envelopes" upon which there is written or printed any political mottoes, devices or arguments, containing threats, express or implied, intended or calculated to influence the political opinion, views or actions of such employes. Nor shall it be lawful for any employer, either corporation, association, company, firm or person, within ninety days of any election provided by law, to put up or otherwise exhibit in its, their or his factory, workshop, mine, mill, boarding-house, office or other establishment or place where its, their or his employes may be working or be present in the course of such employment, any hand-bill, notice or placard containing any threat, notice or information that in case any particular ticket or candidate shall be elected, work in its, their or his place or establishment will cease in whole or in part or its, their or his establishment be closed, or the wages of its, their or his workmen be reduced; or other threats, express or implied, intended or calculated to influence the political opinions or actions of its, their or his employes. Any person or persons, or corporation violating any of the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and any person, whether acting in his individual capacity or as an officer or agent of any corporation so guilty of such misdemeanor shall be punished as hereinafter prescribed. [L. '91, p. 168, §4.

2367. Unlawful to discharge or promote employes to influence vote.—Sec. 232. It shall be unlawful for any corporation or any officer or agent of any corporation to influence or attempt to influence by force, violence or restraint or by inflicting or threatening to inflict any injury, damage, harm or loss, or by discharging from employment or promoting in employment, or by intimidation or otherwise in any manner whatever, to induce or compel any employe to vote or refrain from voting at any election provided by law, or to vote or refrain from voting for any particular person or persons at any such election. Any such corporation, or any officer or agent of such corporation, violating any of the provisions of this section, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and be subject to the penalty hereinafter provided, and in addition thereto, any corporation violating this section

2368. Candidates file statements of expenses incurred—Chairmen and secretaries of central committees file statement.—Sec. 233. Every candidate who is voted for at any public election held within this state shall, within thirty days after such election, file as hereinafter provided, an itemized statement, showing, in detail, all the moneys contributed or expended by him, directly or indirectly, by himself or through any other person, in aid of his election. Such statement shall give the names of the various persons who received such money, the specific nature of each item, and the purpose for which it was expended or contributed. There shall be attached to such statement an affidavit, subscribed and sworn to by such candidate, setting forth, in substance, that the statement thus made is in all respects true, and that the same is a full and detailed statement of all moneys so contributed or expended by him, directly or indirectly, by himself, or through any other person, in aid of his election. Candidates for office to be filled by the electors of the entire state, or any division or district thereof greater than a county, and candidates for either house of the general assembly, and for district judge, and for district attorney, shall file their statements in the office of the secretary of state; and candidates for town and city offices shall file their statements in the office of the town or city clerk, respectively, and candidates for county offices, and for all other offices not otherwise above expressly provided for, shall file their statements in the office of the clerk of the county wherein such election occurs. Within thirty days after each election, the chairman and secretary of state, county and city central committees of each and every political party presenting candidates, shall make and file a statement, under oath, setting forth in detail all sums of money received, from whom received, and to whom and for what purpose such money was paid by such committees during the preceding election. Certificates of state chairmen or secretaries shall be filed with the secretary of state, and for the county chairmen and secretaries with the clerk of the county, and by city chairmen and secretaries with the city clerk. Any person or persons who shall violate the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor. Which certificates shall be preserved by the officers with whom they are filed until the next general election, and shall be open to the inspection of the public. [L. '91, p. 170, §6.

2369. Unlawful to interfere with election official, ballot box, poll book, etc.—Sec. 234. Any person who, at any election provided by law in this state, shall interfere in any manner with any officer of such election in the discharge of his duty, or who shall induce any officer of any election, or officer whose duty it is to ascertain, announce or declare the result of any such election, or give or make any certificate, document or evidence in relation thereto, to violate or refuse to comply with his duty, or any law regulating the same, or who shall take, carry away, conceal or remove any ballot or ballot box, poll book or other thing from the polling place, or from the possession of the person or persons authorized by law to have the custody thereof, or who aids, counsels, procures, advises or assists any person or persons to do any of the acts aforesaid, shall be guilty of a crime, and shall be punished as hereinafter provided. [L. '91, p. 171, §7.

2370. Offender competent witness—Testimony not to be used against witness.—Sec. 235. A person offending against any provision of sections one, two or seven of this act, is a competent witness against another person so offending, and may be compelled to attend and testify upon any trial, hearing, proceeding or investigation in the same manner as any other person. But the testimony so given shall not be used in any prosecution or proceeding, civil or criminal, against the person so testifying, except for perjury in giving such testimony. A person so testifying shall not thereafter be liable to indictment, prosecution or punishment for the offense with reference to which his testimony was given, and may plead or prove the giving of testimony accordingly, in bar of such an indictment or prosecution. [L. '91, p. 171, §8.

2371. Penalties for offenses.—Sec. 236. Any person convicted of any of the crimes or offenses mentioned in sections one, two and seven of this act shall be punished by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars or by imprisonment in the penitentiary for not less than one nor more than five years, or by both such fine and imprisonment; and any person, corporation or agent of a corporation, guilty of any offense herein made a misdemeanor shall, upon conviction, be punished by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment. Any candidate for office who refuses or neglects to file the statement prescribed in section six of this act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable as above provided, and shall also forfeit his office. [L. '91, p. 171, §9.

[Section 1 referred to is §2363.]

[Section 2 referred to is §2364.]

[Section 6 referred to is §2363.]

[Section 7 referred to is §2369.]

2372. Applicable to all elections.—Sec. 237. The provisions of this act shall extend so far as applicable to all elections provided by law, either general, special or primary. [L. '91, p. 172, §10.

2373. Penalty for exposing ballot—False statement—Interference with voter.—Sec. 238. A voter who shall, except as herein otherwise provided, allow his ballot to be seen by any person, with an apparent intention of letting it be known how he is about to vote, or who shall make a false statement as to his inability to mark his ballot, or any person who shall interfere or attempt to interfere with any voter when inside said enclosed space, or when marking a ballot, or who shall endeavor to induce any voter to vote or to show how he marked or has marked his ballot shall be punished by a fine of not less than five nor more than one hundred dollars. Any election judge or clerk shall report any person so doing to the district attorney for the county in which the election is held, whose duty it shall be to see that the offender is forthwith brought before the proper court. [L. '91, p. 162, §33.

2374. Penalty for destruction of supplies or hindering voter.—Sec. 239. Any person who shall, prior to an election, wilfully deface or destroy any list of candidates posted in accordance with the provisions of this act, or who, during an election, shall wilfully deface, tear down, remove or destroy any card of instruction or sample ballot, printed or posted for the instruction of voters, or who shall, during an election, wilfully remove or destroy any of the supplies or conveniences furnished to enable a voter to prepare his ballot, or shall wilfully hinder the voting of others, shall be punished by fine of not less than five nor more than one hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding three months, or by both fine and imprisonment. [L. '91, p. 163, §34.

2375. Penalty for destroying certificate of nomination—False endorsement.—Sec. 240. Any person who shall falsely mark or wilfully deface or destroy any certificate of nomination, or any part thereof, or any letter of acceptance, declination or resignation; or file any certificate of nomination, or letter of acceptance, declination or resignation, knowing the same, or any part thereof, to be falsely made, or suppress any certificate of nomination, or any part thereof, which has been duly filed; or forge any letter of acceptance, declination or resignation; or falsely make the official endorsement on any ballot, or wilfully destroy or deface any ballot or wilfully delay the delivery of any ballots, shall be punished by fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment. [L. '91, p. 163, §35.

2376. Penalty for neglect of duty—Destruction of ballots—Breaking seal on ballot.—Sec. 241. Every public officer upon whom any duty is imposed by this act who violates his said duty, or who neglects or omits to perform the same, shall be punished, except as otherwise in this act specially provided, by imprisonment in the county jail for a term not exceeding one year, or by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars and not more than three thousand dollars, or by both such fine and imprisonment. Any person or officer having charge of official ballots who shall destroy or conceal or suppress them, except as in this act permitted, shall be guilty of a felony, and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary for not less than one year nor more than five years. Any person or officer who has undertaken to deliver official ballots to any city, town or county officer of election who neglects or refuses to do so, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail for not less than six months nor more than one year, or by fine of not less than two hundred and fifty dollars and not more than one thousand dollars, or by both said fine and imprisonment. Any election officer or watcher who shall reveal to any other person the name of any candidate for whom a voter has voted, or who shall communicate to another his opinion, belief or impression as to how or for whom a voter has voted, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail for not less than six months nor more than one year, or by fine of not less than two hundred and fifty dollars nor more than one thousand dollars, or by both fine and imprisonment. Any official or person, except those authorized by law, who shall break or loosen a seal on a ballot with the intent to disclose or learn the number of such ballot, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. [L. '91, p. 163, §36.

2377. Electioneering—Removing ballot—Return of ballot to judges.—Sec. 242. No person shall do any electioneering on election day within any polling place or in any public street or room, or in a public manner, within one hundred feet of any polling place. No person shall remove any official ballot from the polling place before the closing of the polls. No person shall show his ballot after it is prepared for voting to any person in such a way as to reveal its contents, nor shall any person solicit the voter to show the same. No person, except a judge or a clerk of election, shall receive from any voter a ballot prepared for voting. No voter shall receive an official ballot from any other person than one of the judges or clerks of election having charge of the ballots, nor shall any person other than such election officer deliver an official ballot to such voter. No voter shall place any mark upon his ballot by means of which it can be identified as the one voted by him, and no other mark shall be placed upon any ballot prepared for voting other than the number of such voter on the poll list, to be placed thereon by the judge or clerk of election. Every voter who does not vote or deliver in the manner hereinbefore provided the ballots received by him from the election officers shall, before leaving the polling place or going outside the guard rail, return each such ballot to the officer from whom he received the same. Whoever shall violate any provision of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor. But nothing herein contained shall prevent any person from receiving, delivering and voting an unofficial ballot in the contingency provided for in section twenty-two of this act. [L. '91, p. 164, §37.]

2378. Unlawful to take liquor into polling place.—Sec. 243.

It shall be unlawful for any person or any election judge or clerk to introduce into any polling place, or to use therein or to offer to another for use therein, at any time while any election is in progress or the result thereof being ascertained by the counting of the ballots, any intoxicating, malt, spirituous or vinous liquors. It shall be unlawful for any officer or board of officers of any county or any city or town, whether incorporated under general law or by special charter, who may at any time be by law charged with the duty of designating polling places for the holding of any general or special election therein, to select therefor a saloon or a room within the distance of fifty (50) feet (measured in a direct line) of any saloon or other place where any intoxicating, malt, vinous or spirituous liquors are usually sold, to be drank where sold. [L. '91, p. 165, §39.]

2379. Punishment of offenses—Witnesses.—Sec. 244. All acts, omissions and neglects of any person, official or corporation made an offense by the provisions of this act, and the punishment for which is not herein expressly designated, shall be punished by a fine of not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than one year, or by both fine and imprisonment. Any person so offending against any provisions of this act is a competent witness against any other person so offending, and may be compelled to attend and testify upon any trial, hearing, proceeding or investigation in the same manner as any other person. But the testimony so given shall not be used in any prosecution or proceeding, civil or criminal, against the person so testifying, except for perjury in giving such testimony. A person so testifying shall not thereafter be liable to indictment, prosecution or punishment for the offense with reference to which his testimony was given, and may plead or prove the giving of testimony accordingly in bar of such indictment or prosecution. [L. '91, p. 166, §42.

2380. Judge signing wrongfully—Penalty.—Sec. 245. Every judge of election, or person acting as such, on any board of registry who shall wilfully set his name on the registry roll opposite the name of any voter registered on such list, knowing him to be not legally entitled to be registered upon such list, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by fine of not less than three hundred (300) dollars nor more than one thousand (1,000) dollars, or be imprisoned not less than thirty (30) days nor more than ninety (90) days, or may be punished by both such fine and imprisonment. [G. S., §1275; G. L., §1052.

2381. Penalty for making false affidavit.—Sec. 246. If any person shall make an affidavit, as provided in section one hundred and twenty-six of this act, for the purpose of causing the name of any person to be registered in any ward or precinct in this state, and shall in such affidavit state falsely the name of such person to be registered or the fact of his having resided in such precinct or ward a sufficient length of time to entitle him to be so registered, or the place of his actual habitation or residence, or the fact of his age or of his residence within a sufficient time to entitle him to be registered, the person so making a false affidavit shall be deemed guilty of a wilful and corrupt perjury, and, on conviction, shall be punished accordingly. [G. S., §1276; L. '79, p. 57, §1, amending G. L., §1053.

2382. Penalty for procuring false registry.—Sec. 247. Every person who shall procure his own name, or the name of any other person, to be registered on the list of registered voters called the registry list, in any ward or voting precinct in this state in which any election is or may be by law authorized to be held, and in which ward or precinct such person shall not be at the time of such registry entitled to be registered in such ward or voting precinct; or if any person shall procure or attempt to procure to be registered in any ward or voting precinct any fictitious name as the name of any person entitled to be registered in such ward or precinct, every person so procuring or attempting to procure such registry of the name of any person not by law entitled to be registered, or any fictitious name in manner aforesaid, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction thereof, shall be fined not less than two hundred (200) dollars nor more than five hundred (500) dollars, or be imprisoned not less than ten (10) nor more than forty (40) days for each and every offense, or may be punished by both such fine and imprisonment. [G. S., §1277; G. L., §1054.

2383. Penalty for adding names to completed registry.—Sec. 248. The registry of voters' names shall be completed on the evening next preceding each and every election appointed by law to be held in each and every precinct, and no name shall be added to the registry list in any ward or precinct after the close of the registration on the day preceding such election; and in case any judge of election or person acting as member of any board of registry shall wilfully and knowingly add any name or names of any person or any fictitious or false name to the list of registered voters in any ward or voting precinct after the close of the registry of voters' names, on the next day preceding any election in such ward or voting precinct according to law, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, on conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine of not less than two hundred (200) dollars nor more than five hundred (500) dollars for each and every offense. [G. S., §1278; G. L., §1055.

2384. Fines paid for use of school fund.—Sec. 249. All fines or forfeitures collected under the provisions of this act shall be paid to the county treasurer of the county wherein the offense was committed for the benefit of the school fund of such county. [G. S., §1279; G. L., §1056.

2385. Closing saloons—Penalty for selling liquors.—Sec. 250. No saloon or other place at which intoxicating liquors are sold shall be open during the day of any general or special election in this state. Any saloon keeper or other person who shall sell, barter or give away any intoxicating liquors during the day of any general or special election before the polls are closed on such day shall, for each and every offense, be liable to pay a fine of fifty dollars, or be imprisoned twenty days, or both, at the discretion of the court in which the case may be tried. [G. S., §1220; G. L., §996.

2386. Selling liquors between sunrise and sunset on election day.—Sec. 251. If any inn-keeper of any hotel, tavern, saloon or other place, whether licensed to vend spirituous, vinous, fermented or malt liquors or not, or any other person, shall barter, sell or give away to any person or persons any spirituous, vinous, fermented or malt liquors between the hours of sunrise and sunset on the day of any general election in this state, or within any incorporated city in this state, between the hours above named, on the day of the election of the mayor thereof, shall, upon conviction thereof before any justice of the peace or court of competent jurisdiction, forfeit and pay a fine of not less than ten nor more than one hundred dollars for the first offense, and for a second offense a fine of not less than fifty nor more than two hundred dollars. [G. S., §856; G. L., §851; R. S., p. 254, §247.

[The above section does not apply to wholesale dealers.]

2387. Personating voter—Penalty.—Sec. 252. Any person who shall falsely personate any voter and vote under the name of such voter shall, upon conviction, be punished by confinement and hard labor in the state penitentiary not exceeding three years. [G. S., §1222; G. L., §998.

2388. False swearing—Penalty.—Sec. 253. If any elector, challenged as unqualified, shall be guilty of wilful and corrupt false swearing or affirmation by any oath or affirmation prescribed by this act, such person shall be adjudged guilty of wilful and corrupt perjury. [G. S., §1223; G. L., §999.

2389. Suborning perjury—Penalty.—Sec. 254. Every person who shall wilfully and corruptly procure any person to swear or affirm falsely as aforesaid shall be adjudged guilty of subornation of perjury, and shall, upon conviction thereof, suffer the punishment provided by law in cases of wilful and corrupt perjury. [G. S., §1224; G. L., §1000.

2390. Punishment for neglect of officers—Misconduct.—Sec. 255. If any officer on whom any duty is enjoined by this act shall be guilty of any wilful neglect of such duty, or of any corrupt conduct in the execution of the same, and be thereof convicted, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by fine or imprisonment, the fine in no case to exceed the sum of five hundred dollars, nor the imprisonment the term of one year. [G. S., §1225; G. L., §1001.

2391. Judge admitting illegal vote—Penalty.—Sec. 256. In case any judge of election shall knowingly and wilfully permit any person to vote at any election who is not entitled to vote thereat, the said judge so offending shall, on conviction thereof, be adjudged guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, or be imprisoned in the county jail not exceeding six months. [G. S., §1226; G. L., §1002.

2392. Bribing or influencing vote—Menace—Penalty.—Sec. 257. If any person shall, by bribery, menace or other corrupt means or device whatsoever, either directly or indirectly, attempt to influence any voter of this state, in giving his vote or ballot, or deter him from giving the same, or disturb or hinder him in the free exercise of the right of suffrage at any election in this state, or shall fraudulently or deceitfully change or alter a ballot, or cause any other deceit to be practiced with intent fraudulently to induce such elector to deposit the same as his vote, and thereby have the same thrown out and not counted, every person so offending against the provisions of this act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by fine not exceeding two hundred and fifty dollars or by imprisonment not exceeding six months. [G. S., §1227; G. L., §1003.

[See §2363 to §2367.]

2393. Voting in wrong wards—Penalty.—Sec. 258. Any person who, at any general or special election, or any city or charter election, shall knowingly vote or offer to vote in any election precinct or ward in which he does not reside shall, on conviction, be adjudged guilty of a misdemeanor, and punishable by fine not exceeding two hundred dollars, or by imprisonment not exceeding six months. [G. S., §1228; G. L., §1004.

2394. Receiving bribe—Penalty.—Sec. 259. If any elector shall accept or receive from any person whomsoever any money or other valuable thing for and in consideration of his voting for or against any person or persons who are candidates at any election in this state, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and punishable by a fine not exceeding two hundred dollars, or by imprisonment not exceeding six months. [G. S., §1229; G. L., §1005.

2395. Mutilating, taking away or destroying poll book—Penalty.—Sec. 260. If any person shall mutilate or erase any name, figure or word in a poll book, taken or kept at any election; or if any person shall take away such poll book from the place where it has been deposited for safe keeping with an intention to destroy the same, or to procure or prevent the election of any person; or if any person shall destroy any poll book so taken and kept at any election, he or she shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, on conviction, shall be fined not exceeding five hundred dollars or imprisoned not exceeding sixty days in the county jail. [G. S., §1230; G. L., §1006.

2396. Frauds at primaries or conventions.—Sec. 261. Any person at any caucus, convention, or primary election, called by whatever authority, for the purpose of nominating public officers, to be voted for at any election held under the laws of this state, or under the ordinances of any city or town, or both, or at any caucus, convention or primary election, held for the purpose of choosing delegates to any convention to nominate any of the aforesaid officers, who shall:

First—Fraudulently vote or attempt to vote more than once; or Second—Shall knowingly hand in two or more tickets deceitfully folded together; or,

Third—Shall add, or attempt to add, any illegal ballot to the ballots that have been cast; or,

Fourth—Shall knowingly procure, aid, counsel or advise another to vote or attempt to vote fraudulently, illegally or corruptly; or,

Fifth—Shall falsely personate any voter and vote or attempt to vote under his name, or under an assumed name; or,

Sixth—Shall fraudulently procure, aid, abet, or encourage, directly or indirectly, any person to attempt to falsely personate any voter, or to vote under an assumed name; or,

Seventh—Shall, by bribery, menace, or any other corrupt, unlawful, or fraudulent means, attempt to influence any voter in the casting of his vote; or,

Eighth—Shall receive any money or valuable thing, or the promise of either, for casting his vote for or against any person, or persons, measure or measures, or shall offer his vote for or against any person or persons, measure or measures, in consideration of money or other valuable thing, or the promise of either; in every such instance such person shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and punished as provided by this act. [L. '87, p. 347, §1.

2397. Bribery at primaries or conventions.—Sec. 262. Any person at any caucus, convention, or primary election, called by whatever authority, for the purpose of nominating public officers, to be voted for at any election held under the laws of this state, or under the ordinances of any city or town, or both, or at any caucus, convention or primary election, held for the purpose of choosing delegates to any convention to nominate any of the officers aforesaid, who shall, with the intent to promote the election of himself, or any other person, at such caucus, convention or primary election. First—Furnish any public entertainment of any kind to any elector, or pay for, procure or engage to pay for, or in any way become liable for such entertainment; or, Second—Shall engage directly or indirectly to pay or deliver any money or property for any purpose, intended to promote the election of any person at any such caucus, convention, or primary election, except for the purpose of printing tickets or hand bills, and other papers, or for the purpose of holding public meetings for the discussing of public questions; in all such cases the person so offending shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and punished as provided for in this act. [L. '87, p. 348, §2.

2398. Members of another party may not vote.—Sec. 263. Any person at any such caucus, convention, or primary election as is described in this act, who is at the time a member in good faith of a different political party than the one holding such caucus, convention, or primary election, and who shall fraudulently participate in; and vote in such caucus, convention, or primary election, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and punished as provided in this act. The question of the good faith of the voter shall be left as a question of fact to the jury. [L. '87, p. 348, §3.

2399. Penalty.—Sec. 264. Any person convicted of a misdemeanor under this act shall be fined by the court, in a sum not less than one hundred dollars, and not exceeding one thousand dollars, or shall be imprisoned in the county jail not less than thirty days and not more than nine months, or by both such fine and imprisonment. [L. '87, p. 349, §4.

2400. Frauds by primary or convention officials—Penalty.—Sec. 265. Any person in authority at any caucus, convention, or primary election, as described in this act, as judge of election, clerk of election, or otherwise, who shall: First—In any manner, dishonestly, or corruptly, or fraudulently perform any act devolving on him by virtue of the position of trust which he fills; or, Second—Shall knowingly aid or abet any other person to do any fraudulent, dishonest, or corrupt act or thing in reference to the carrying on of such caucus, convention or primary election, or the ascertaining, or promulgating of its true will, shall, in each case, be guilty of a felony, and may be punished by a fine of not less than three hundred dollars, nor more than two thousand dollars, or, by imprisonment in the penitentiary for a term not to exceed two years, or by both such fine and imprisonment. [L. '87, p. 349, §5.

2401. Employers not to influence employes.—Sec. 266. Incorporated employers of help shall not, in any manner, attempt to influence or control the action of their employes in casting their votes for or against any person or persons, measure or measures, at any caucus, convention, or primary election described in this act. The act of any boss, master workman, or one acting in authority among such employes, with the consent of the employer, shall be construed to be the act of such employer. Any employer violating this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and fined in a sum not less than five hundred nor more than five thousand dollars. Any number of distinct violations of this section occurring at the same caucus, convention or primary election may be charged in one indictment in different counts, and all tried in the same action, the jury specifying the counts, if any, on which the defendant is found guilty. [L. '87, p. 349, §6.

Section 2. All acts and parts of acts in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

Approved April 16, 1913 at 9:50 A. M. o'clock.

(Chapter 131, S. L. 1913.)

REAPPORTIONMENT.
LEGISLATIVE.

AN ACT

TO FIX THE AGGREGATE NUMBER OF SENATORS AND REPRESENTATIVES IN THE STATE OF COLORADO; FIX THE RATIOS FOR THE NUMBER OF MEMBERS OF THE SENATE, THE NUMBER OF MEMBERS OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES, TO DIVIDE THE STATE INTO SENATORIAL AND REPRESENTATIVE DISTRICTS, AND REPEALING ALL ACTS IN CONFLICT HEREWITH.

Be It Enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Colorado:

Members General Assembly.

Section 1. The General Assembly of the State of Colorado shall consist of one hundred members, and the Senate thereof shall consist of thirty-five members, and the House of Representatives of sixty-five members. Provided that no senatorial or representative district shall embrace the same territory within any other senatorial or representative district.

Senatorial districts.

Section 2. Until otherwise provided by law the State of Colorado shall be divided into senatorial districts, numbered and entitled to the number of senators as follows:

The City and County of Denver shall constitute the first senatorial district and be entitled to seven senators.

The County of Pueblo shall constitute the second senatorial district and be entitled to two senators.

The County of El Paso shall constitute the third senatorial district and be entitled to two senators.

The County of Las Animas shall constitute the fourth senatorial district and be entitled to one senator.

The County of Boulder shall constitute the fifth senatorial district and be entitled to one senator.

The Counties of Chaffee and Lake shall constitute the sixth senatorial district and be entitled to one senator.

The County of Weld shall constitute the seventh senatorial district and be entitled to one senator.

The County of Jefferson shall constitute the eighth senatorial district and be entitled to one senator.

The County of Fremont shall constitute the ninth senatorial district and be entitled to one senator.

The County of Larimer shall constitute the tenth senatorial district and be entitled to one senator.

The Counties of Gunnison and Delta shall constitute the eleventh senatorial district and be entitled to one senator.

The Counties of Logan, Sedgwick, Phillips, Washington and Yuma shall constitute the twelfth senatorial district and be entitled to one senator.

The Counties of Jackson, Routt, Rio Blanco and Moffat shall constitute the thirteenth senatorial district and be entitled to one senator.

The Counties of Costilla, Huerfano and Custer shall constitute the fourteenth senatorial district and be entitled to one senator.

The Counties of Rio Grande, Saguache and Mineral shall constitute the fifteenth senatorial district and be entitled to one senator.

The County of Mesa shall constitute the sixteenth senatorial district and be entitled to one senator.

The Counties of Dolores, Montrose and San Miguel shall constitute the seventeenth senatorial district and be entitled to one senator.

The Counties of Hinsdale, Ouray, San Juan and Archuleta shall constitute the eighteenth senatorial district and be entitled to one senator.

The Counties of Eagle, Garfield and Pitkin shall constitute the twenty-first senatorial district and be entitled to one senator.

The Counties of Adams, Arapahoe and Morgan shall constitute the twenty-second senatorial district and be entitled to one senator.

The Counties of Crowley and Otero shall constitute the twenty-third senatorial district and be entitled to one senator.

The Counties of Conejos and Alamosa shall constitute the twenty-fourth senatorial district and be entitled to one senator.

The Counties of Baca, Bent, Kiowa and Prowers shall constitute the twenty-fifth senatorial district and be entitled to one senator.

The Counties of Clear Creek, Gilpin, Grand and Summit shall constitute the twenty-sixth senatorial district and be entitled to one senator.

The Counties of Kit Carson, Cheyenne, Douglas, Elbert and Lincoln shall constitute the twenty-seventh senatorial district and be entitled to one senator.

Election of Senators.

Section 3. Four senators shall be elected from the first senatorial district and one each from the second, third, sixth, tenth, twelfth, fourteenth, fifteenth, sixteenth, seventeenth, eighteenth, twentieth, twenty-fifth and twenty-seventh districts at the general election held in November, 1914, and one every four years thereafter.

Three senators shall be elected from the first senatorial district and one each from the second, third, fourth, fifth, seventh, eighth, ninth, eleventh, thirteenth, nineteenth, twenty-first, twenty-second, twenty-third, twenty-fourth and twenty-sixth districts at the general election held in November, 1916, and every four years thereafter.

No removal for term elected.

Section 4. Nothing in this act shall be construed to work the removal of any senator from his office for the term for which he may have been elected, but all such senators shall serve the term for which they were elected; Provided, That in case of a vacancy caused by the death, resignation or otherwise of any such senator, or senators, the vacancy shall be filled from the new district, as provided for in this Act, and in the event that any new county is created at any time after the passage of this Act, and the legislature has not provided for the attaching of said new county to a specifically mentioned district, then such new county shall be deemed to be in the senatorial and representative district that said territory was in prior to its creation.

Membership of House of Representatives.

Section 5. The members of the House of Representatives shall be divided among the several counties of the State as follows:

- The City and County of Denver shall have twelve.
