Division of Transit and Rail

Purpose

The Division of Accounting and Finance is recommending discontinuing the administrative process of “loaning” funds to the Division of Transit and Rail (DTR) via the Transportation Commission Contingency Reserve Fund (TCCRF) in expectation of Federal Transit Administration apportionments. In the past, the request for the loan was included in the budget supplement.

Action

Staff requests Transportation Commission approval to change this procedure to match the treatment of the Federal Highway Administration program.

Background

Both the Federal Highway Administration (FHWA) and Federal Transit Administration (FTA) programs are approved as part of the Colorado Department of Transportation Budget.

The FHWA program utilizes anticipated federal revenues to advance the construction program prior to receipt of actual apportionments or obligation limitation without further Transportation Commission action until the conclusion of the Federal Fiscal Year, when an adjustment to actual revenues is recorded.

Alternatively, current CDOT and DTR procedures require an additional step before administering the FTA program. A Transportation Commission “loan” is requested in the September or October Budget Supplement effectively reducing the amount of TCCRF funds available for other activities until such time the “loan” is repaid.

The previous “loan” amounts to DTR were $13.4M in 2013 and $5.3M in 2014.

Details

Under current procedures staff would request a “loan” and transfer of $15.629M for Fiscal Year 2015 due to the following factors:

- In 2014 DTR agreed to lower the loan request in response to the Commission's need to make funds available for flood recovery by excluding capital expenses and by spending down older funds that were available. Due to expending their prior surpluses DTR will have very little such carryover to help with 2015 grants.
- In accordance with the provisions of MAP-21, administering the new Section 5339 formula capital program, both for rural and small urbanized areas.
- MAP-21 greatly increased funding levels for the Section 5310 program, and we agreed to administer the Section 5310 program for the Denver/Aurora area.

Under the proposed change, the liability to the Transportation Commission would be deferred and invoked only if FTA apportionments receipts are lower than anticipated. The Transportation Commission would only assume responsibility to compensate the DTR for any shortfall that could not be addressed by delaying or canceling projects or utilizing other revenue sources such as FASTER Transit.

Key Benefits

In effect, by granting a “loan” the Transportation Commission is already assuming liability AND temporarily redirecting their budget authority until the repayment period.

Under the recommended change in procedure, the Commission would defer any such transfer until a liability is actualized, keeping the TCCRF funds available for allocation and use where necessary.

This change would also reduce administrative procedures involving presentation to the Transportation Commission as part of the Budget Supplement.

Options and Recommendations

- 1) Utilize Colorado Department of Transportation Budget approval as authority to proceed with the FTA grants without requiring separate Transportation Commission “loan”, consistent with treatment of the FHWA program
-Staff Recommendation.
- 2) Utilize existing “loan” process and reduce TCCRF by $15.629M until repaid.
- 3) No action, disallow DTR to proceed with FY 2015 grant program until actual apportionments received.
