FUNCTION AND DUTIES OF THE TREASURER

The Constitution and statutes of Colorado define the general duties of the State Treasurer. It is an elective office for four years. The Treasurer receives all state moneys, invests cash funds, apportions funds for various local assistance programs to counties, cities and towns, is custodian of securities held in safekeeping for various state agencies, and services revenue bonded indebtedness outstanding.

The Treasurer is a member of the State Board of Equalization, State Board of Canvassers, Public Employees' Retirement Board and Public Records Advisory Committee.

Quarterly reports are made to the Governor for publication; the Governor and each person elected to the General Assembly are furnished with a detailed statement of the condition of the Treasury and its operations for the preceding year.
