

Special River Bulletin.

The Agricultural Experiment Station

FORT COLLINS, COLORADO.

Poudre River Bulletin.

October 1 to 7, 1902.—The river has been considerably above the normal during the whole week. The average for the week was 150 cubic feet per second, while the normal is 133 cubic feet per second.

The precipitation for the week at the College was .27 inches. Considerable snow has fallen in the mountains.

The following is the record for the week in second feet:

	1902	1901	Normal
Oct. 1.....	166.....	109.....	135
" 2.....	174.....	103.....	135
" 3.....	158.....	100.....	132
" 4.....	142.....	93.....	134
" 5.....	138.....	110.....	132
" 6.....	136.....	116.....	131
" 7.....	135.....	122.....	131
Average.....	150.....	108.....	133

The following is the record for the corresponding week in previous years:

1881.....	1890.....	62	1897.....	137
1884.....	205	1891.....	140	1898.....	35
1885.....	204	1892.....	...	1899.....	102
1886.....	133	1893.....	...	1900.....	126
1887.....	128	1894.....	142	1901.....	108
1888.....	90	1895.....	218	1902.....	150
1889.....	70	1896.....	225

L. G. CARPENTER.