Table III, Enrollment by Classification, shows the largest increase in percent of enrollment occurred in the sophomore class. Graduate students (excluding Professional Veterinary Medicine) also exhibited small increases. The percentages of freshmen, juniors, seniors and graduate level II Professional Veterinary Medicine students have declined from last fall's levels. Classification information is also available by sex and major in the table beginning on page 6; by residency, college and registration type in the table beginning on page 8; by ethnicity in the table beginning on page 10.

The change in enrollment from Fall 1985 to Fall 1986 by college is shown in Table IV. Four colleges showed increases in enrollment over Fall 1985. For the second year, the College of Arts, Humanities and Social Sciences had the largest increase in number of students (187). The College of Business increased its enrollment by 7 percent with the addition of 143 students. College enrollment information is available by residency, class and registration type in the table starting on page 8 and by ethnicity and class in the table starting on page 10.

*1985 enrollment for the College of Applied Human Sciences includes the combined 1985 enrollments of the Colleges of Human Resource Sciences and Professional Studies.

This fall 87.3 percent of the students are attending full time and 12.7 percent are attending part time. An increase of 160 full-time nonresidents offset the decrease of 115 full-time residents for a net increase of 45 full-time students. (A full-time student is defined as an undergraduate taking 12 or more credits, a graduate student taking 9 or more credits or a professional-level student taking 15 or more credits.) Part-time/full-time information is also available by college and sex in the table on page 5.

Table VI shows enrollment for Fall 1985 and Fall 1986 by sex. Although there was an increase in nonresident women, it did not offset the decrease in undergraduate resident women resulting in a lower percentage of undergraduate women enrolled Fall 1986 compared to Fall 1985. Additional information is available by part-time/full-time status and college on the next page; by major and class in the table starting on page 6; by age on page 12; by state, county, and foreign country on pages 14 and 15.
