Colorado
State Normal School

GREELEY, COLO.

SERIES III.

NO. 2.

Announcements:

Fall term open September 13, 1904; tuition free to citizens of Colorado; boarding $2.50 to $4.00 per week; rooms 75 cents to $1.25 per week; room and board $3.25 to $4.25 per week; light housekeeping from $2.00 to $3.00 per week.

Advantages:

Teachers who have taken the Normal course are in demand; a faculty of thirty specialists; first class buildings; a most excellent Training School with an attendance of 450; here is where the Normal students do their observation and teaching; besides the Training School the Normal department has 300 earnest high school graduates and college graduates who are learning to teach; a library of 25,000 volumes; well equipped laboratories; first-class athletic field; gymnasium and physical education laboratory under the direction of a trained man; strong art department; field and garden work in nature study; and all other departments belonging to an ideal school.

Surroundings:

The campus is the most beautiful in the state and as beautiful as any in the country—40 acres of it, with thousands of trees, shrubs and flowers artistically arranged and well kept. Greeley is a beautiful city of 5,000 inhabitants; comfortable homes, in which the students live; a feeling of comfort and a spirit of culture; a true social spirit; 200 miles of snowy range seen from the Normal. It is all ideal. Come.

Results:

Six hundred and twelve graduates, holding diplomas which are licenses to teach for life; 3,500 different students have attended the school; graduates receiving from $500 to $2,500 per annum; eight superintendents of schools; fifty high school principals and teachers; four city superintendents; twenty ward school principals; thirty village principals; ten Normal Training School teachers; eight directors and teachers of manual training; several music and art teachers; and several hundred teaching in the graded schools.
