

PRELIMINARY BULLETIN

Summer Term

OF THE

Colorado
State Normal School

GREELEY, COLO.

SERIES IV. NO. 5

Announcements

I.

The Summer Term of The Colorado State Normal School opens June 20, 1905.

The work done during the summer will be: (1) The regular Normal work arranged in courses for which credit will be given when completed, enabling teachers who cannot attend any other time than during the summer term to complete the Normal Course, get the diploma, which is a license to teach in the state for life, and receive the professional degree of Bachelor of Pedagogy. (2) The work will be arranged to enable graduates of the Colorado Normal, and others prepared to do so, to take up graduate work, whereby they may, during the summer terms, earn the master's diploma. (3) The work will be so arranged that persons who wish to pursue special lines may have the opportunity to do so. (4) It will give High School teachers an opportunity to study the subjects they are to teach from a pedagogical standpoint. (5) It will give principals and superintendents an opportunity to study the educational problems which confront them in their daily work. (6) It will give regular Normal students who, through sickness or otherwise have not been able to complete their work satisfactorily during the regular year, an opportunity to make it up.

Surroundings

III.

Greeley is a city of 5,500 inhabitants. It has beautiful streets lined with trees, comfortable homes, in which the students live. There is a feeling of comfort and a spirit of culture; there is a true social democratic spirit pervading the institution and the community. Two hundred miles of snowy range are seen from the Normal campus.

Campus

The campus is the most beautiful in the state, and as beautiful as any in the country; forty acres of it, with thousands of trees, shrubs and flowers artistically arranged and well kept.

Buildings

The buildings are beautiful, commodious and well arranged for the purpose intended. They are situated on an eminence overlooking the city, in the midst of a well-kept campus.
